1503. Ibn ‘Abbās said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ once left from (the house of) Juwairiyah — and her name used to be Barrah but the Prophet ﷺ changed it. When he left, she was sitting in her prayer place, and when he returned, she was still sitting there. He asked her: ‘Have you remained in this prayer place of yours?’ She said: ‘Yes.’ He said: ‘I said after (leaving) you four phrases, three times; were they to be weighed against (all) that you said, they would be heavier: “Subhān Allāh wa bi-ḥamdihi ‘adada khalqihī wa riḍā nafsihī, wa zinata ‘arshihi wa midāda kalimātih (Glory be to Allāh, and Praise (as much as), the quantity of His creation, and until He is pleased, and the weight of His Throne, and the amount of His speech).” (Sahīh)”

Comments:

Personal names suggesting self-praise are not deemed proper. So are names with a bad connotation. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ used to change such names. See no. 4952 and what follows it.

1504. Abū Hurairah narrated that Abū Dharr said: “O Messenger of Allāh! The rich people have taken away all the blessings! They pray as we pray, and they fast as we fast, but they have extra money with which they give charity, and we do not have any money from which to give charity.” So the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “O Abū Dharr, should I not teach you some phrases by which you will be able to catch up with those who have passed you, and those behind you will not be able to catch up with you except if they do as you will do?” He replied, “Yes, O Messenger of Allāh.” So he said: “Say the Takbīr after every prayer thirty-three times, and the Tahmīd thirty-three times, and the Tasbīḥ thirty-three times, and complete it (the hundredth) with: ‘Lā ilāha illallāhu waḥdahu lā sharīka lah, lahul-mulku wa lahul-ḥamd, wa huwa ‘alā kulli shai’in qadīr (None has the right to be worshiped but Allāh alone; He has no partners. To Him belongs the Kingdom, and to Him belongs praise, and He is capable of all things.)’ (If you do so) your sins will be forgiven even if they are like the foam of the ocean.” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Chapter 25. What A Person Should Say When He Says The Taslīm

1505. Al-Mughīrah bin Shu‘bah narrated that Mu‘āwiyah wrote to him asking him: “What would the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ say after he said the Taslīm in his prayer?” So Al-Mughīrah dictated to his servant, and wrote (a letter) to Mu‘āwiyah as follows: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ would say: ‘Lā ilāha illallāhu waḥdahu lā sharīka lahu, lahul-mulku wa lahul-ḥamdu wa huwa ‘alā kulli shai’in qadīr. Allāhumma! Lā māni’a limā a’taita wa lā mu’tiya limā man’ata wa lā yanfa’u dhal-jaddi minkal-jadd (None has the right to be worshiped but Allāh alone. He has no partners; to Him is the Kingdom, and to Him is all praise, and He is capable of all things. O Allāh! There is none who can prevent what You give, and none who can give what you prevent. And none benefits the fortunate person, for from You is the fortune.)’” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

1506. It was reported from Al-Ḥajjāj bin Abī ‘Uthmān, from Abū Az-Zubair, who said: “I heard ‘Abdullāh bin Az-Zubair say on the Minbar: ‘The Prophet ﷺ would say after he had completed the prayer: “Lā ilāha illallāhu waḥdahu lā sharīka lahu, lahul-mulku wa lahul-ḥamdu, wa huwa ‘alā kulli shai’in

Comments:

If the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, who was protected by Allāh, used to seek Allāh's pardon, it naturally follows that ordinary persons who are not protected from sins like him, should beg for Allāh's pardon all the more.

1516. Ibn 'Umar narrated: "We would sometimes count the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ as having said in one gathering: 'Rabbighfirli wa tub 'alayya innaka antat-tawābur-rahīm (O Lord, forgive me and (accept) my repentance; You are the One who accepts repentance, the Ever-Merciful)' — one hundred times." Chapter 27. The Prohibition Of A Person Supplicating Against His Family And Wealth

1532. It was reported from ‘Ubādah bin Al-Walīd bin ‘Ubādah bin Aṣ-Ṣāmit, from Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh, who said that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “Do not supplicate against yourselves, and do not supplicate against your children, and do not supplicate against your servants, and do not supplicate against your wealth — for (it is possible) that it will coincide with an hour in which requests are granted, so your supplication will be responded to as well.” (Ṣaḥīh)

Islam, divine guidance, and the ability to keep fast to the straight path — these are the greatest of all blessings. As for health, security and material comforts, these, too, are the blessings of Allāh.

1546. It was reported from Abū Ṣāliḥ As-Sammān, who narrated that Abū Hurairah said that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ used to supplicate as follows: “Allāhumma! Innī a’ūdhu bika minash-shiqāqi wan-nifāqi wa suw’il-akhlāq (O Allāh! I seek refuge in You from opposing the truth, and from hypocrisy, and evil manners).”

Comments:

A prayer that does not deter a worshipper from evils and shameful acts of lewdness is vain.

1550. Farwah bin Nawfal Al-Ashja’ī asked ‘Āishah, the Mother of the Believers, about the supplication of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ. She replied: “He would say: ‘Allāhumma! Innī a’ūdhu bika min sharri mā ‘amiltu wa min sharri ma lam a’mal (O Allāh, I seek refuge in You from the evil of what I have done, and from the evil of what I have not done).’” (Sahih)

Comments:

This supplication is very comprehensive. It protects one from all sins as well as from the means leading to them.

1552. Abū Al-Yasar narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ would supplicate with: "*Allāhumma! The End of the Book of Prayer

9. THE BOOK OF ZAKĀT

(المعجم ٩) - كِتَابُ الزَّكَاةِ (التحفة ٣)

Chapter 1. (Its Obligation)

(المعجم ١) - [وَجُوبُهَا] (التحفة ١)

1556. It was reported from Al-Laith, from 'Aqil, from Az-Zuhrī, that 'Ubaidullāh bin 'Abdullāh bin 'Utbah informed him from Abū Hurairah, who said: "After the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ passed away, and Abū Bakr was in charge after him, and (some of) the Arabs disbelieved, 'Umar bin Al-Khattāb said to Abū Bakr: 'How can you fight the people, even though the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: "I have been commanded to fight the people until they say: 'Lā ilāha illallāh' (None has the right to be worshipped but Allāh). So whoever says 'Lā ilāha illallāh' has protected his wealth and his life from me, except for a right, and his judgment will be with Allāh?"' Abū Bakr said: 'I swear by Allāh, I will fight those who differentiate between Aṣ-Ṣalāt (the prayer) and the Zakāt, for the Zakāt is a right upon wealth. I swear by Allāh, if they refuse to give me an 'iqāl^[1] that they used to give to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, I will fight them for that.' So 'Umar said: 'I swear by Allāh, as soon as I saw that Allāh had opened the chest of Abū Bakr (guided him) to fight, I knew that

Comments:

According to the explanation of Al-Khaṭṭābī, the Arab tribes who committed disbelief were divided into three categories. Some became disbelievers due to false claims of prophethood, like the followers of Musailamah the Liar, and Al-Aswad Al-'Anṣī, both of whom claimed prophethood. Some had left the religion and completely returned to the ways of Jāhiliyyah, abandoning Ṣalāh, Zakāh and the rest of the religion. Another group made a distinction between Zakāh and Ṣalāh, so they prayed, but refused to pay the Zakāh to the Imām after the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ.

1558. It was reported from 'Amr bin Yaḥyā Al-Māzinī, from his father, who said that he heard Abū Sa'eed Al-Khudrī saying that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: "There is no Ṣadaqah^[1] on anything less than five camels, and there is no Ṣadaqah on anything less than five Awāq^[2], and there is no Ṣadaqah on anything less than five Uwsuq."^[3] (Sahīh)

Zakāh shall not be due upon wealth unless it reaches the Niṣāb, or the minimum amount upon which it is due for each item it is due. If someone possessing less than the minimum pays Zakāh of his own volition, it is his choice and an act worthy of praise, his payment would be considered as Ṣadaqah.

1559. It was reported from Abū Al-Bukhtari, Aṭ-Ṭā'i, from Abū Sa'eed — and he attributed it to the Prophet ﷺ — saying: "There is no Zakāt on what is less than five Awsāq," and a Wasq is sixty (that

Comments:

There is an indication in the Hadīth that rejection of Hadīths (as one of the sources of law) is not a new phenomenon, and also, the idea that a Hadīth could not be accepted if a basis is not found for it in the Qur’an. Such false principles appeared as early as the later years of the Companions.

Chapter 4. What Counts As A Kanz (Buried Treasure) ?^[1] And Regarding Zakāt On Jewelry

(المعجم ٤) - بَابُ الْكَنْزِ مَا هُوَ؟ وَزَكَاةُ الْحُلِيِّ (التحفة ٤)

1563. It was reported from ‘Amr حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو كَامِلٍ وَحَمِيدُ بْنُ

[1] Scholars differed over the meaning of buried treasure (Kanz); some said it refers to whatever wealth comes out of a mine or shaft or the like, and others said it only applies to riches buried before Islam, and found after Islam, in other words discovered treasure.

bin Shu'aib, from his father, from his grandfather ('Abdullāh bin 'Amr), that a woman came to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ with her daughter. Her daughter was wearing two thick gold bracelets on her arms. He asked her: "Do you give the Zakāt (due) on this?" She replied: "No." He said: "Would it please you that Allāh place them on you on the Day of Judgment as two bracelets of fire?" So she took them off and gave them to the Prophet ﷺ, and said: "They are (charity) to Allāh and His Messenger." (Hasan)

Comments:

Parents who have the charge of sons and daughters that possess wealth, should either pay Zakāh on their behalf themselves or make them pay.

1568. It was reported from Sufyān bin Ḥusain, from Az-Zuhri, from Sālim, from his father, who said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ wrote a letter (detailing the rules) of Sadaqah, but he was not able to send it to his collectors until he passed away. He had kept it with his sword. Abū Bakr acted upon this (letter) until he passed away, and ‘Umar acted upon it until he passed away. It was (written) in it: Upon five camels, there is one sheep due. And upon ten, there is two sheep, and upon fifteen, three sheep, and upon twenty, four sheep. And upon twenty-five, a Bint Makhād, up to thirty-five. If there is even one more (camel) than this, one Bint Labūn must be given, up to forty-five. If there is even one more (camel) than this, one Hiqqah must be given, up to sixty. If there is even one more than this, one Jadh’ah must be given, up to seventy-five.

“If there is even one more than this, two Bint Labūns must be given, up to ninety. If there is even one more than this, two Hiqqahs must be given, up to one-hundred and twenty. If the camels are more than this, then for every fifty, one Hiqqah is given, and for every forty, one Bint Labūn.

“With regards to sheep, then for every forty sheep, one sheep is to be given, up to one-hundred and twenty sheep. If there is one more than this, then two sheep, up to two-hundred sheep. If there is more than two-hundred, then three sheep are due, up to three-hundred. If the sheep are more than that, then for every one-hundred sheep, one sheep is due, and nothing needs to be given unless one-hundred are reached.

“And different (flocks) should not be joined together, nor should a combined (flock) be separated for fear of giving (extra) charity.

“Each partner (who has a share in a combined flock) should pay the Sadaqah in proportion to his shares.

“And an animal that is old, or a defective animal, will not be accepted for charity.”

Az-Zuhrī said: “When the Zakāt collector comes, the sheep are to be divided into three divisions: A third of them should be the worst (sheep of the flock), and a third of them the best, and a third in the moderate. And the one collecting charity should take from the moderate ones.” And Az-Zuhrī did not mention this division for cows.

He (one of the narrators) said: "I do not know if 'Alī is the one who said: 'Then it will be proportional to that' or did he attribute it to the Prophet ﷺ."

(He then continued) "And there is no Zakāt on money until one year passes." — except that Jarīr (a narrator) said: "Ibn Wahb added in his Hadīth, from the Prophet ﷺ: "And there is no Zakāt on money until one year passes." (Da'if)

1574. It was reported from Abū Ishāq, from 'Āṣim bin Ḍamrah, from 'Alī who said: The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: "I have exempt (from obligation) horses, and slaves, so give the charity of silver: From every forty Dirhams, one Dirham. And there is nothing due upon one-hundred and ninety (Dirhams), but if it reaches two-hundred, then five Dirhams are due."

Abū Dāwud said: This Hadīth was reported by Al-A'mash from Abū Ishāq just as stated by Abū 'Awānah. And Shaibān Abū Mu'āwiyah, and Ibrāhīm bin Ṭahmān reported it from Abū Ishāq, from Al-Hārith, from 'Alī, from the Prophet ﷺ, similarly.

Abū Dāwud said: The narration of An-Nufailī^[1] was reported by Shu'bah and Sufyān, and others,

1575. It was reported from Bahz bin Ḥakīm, from his father, from his grandfather, that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “Regarding camels that are sent for pasture, then for every forty (of such camels), there is one Bint Labūn due. No camel shall be separated (away) from its share. Whoever gives it, seeking its reward, will attain its reward. But whoever prevents it, then we will take it, along with half of his wealth — (this is) a severity from among the severities of our Lord, Exalted and Honored is He; nothing is for the family of Muḥammad.” (Hasan)

“So, one person among them went to a camel with a huge hump (intending to give it as charity), but he refused to accept it. He (the owner) said: ‘I want you to take my best camel!’ But he (the collector) refused to take it. So he reined in another one, slightly smaller than it, but he still refused to accept it. narrate to you: I was once in a valley among these valleys with some goats of mine during the time of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ. Two men on a camel came to me, and said: “We are the messengers of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ to you, that you give us the Ṣadaqah due on your goats.” I said: “What is due upon me?” They said: “One goat.” So I went to a sheep — I knew precisely where it was — which was producing milk, and was fat, and I took it out for them. They said: “This is a goat Shāfi,^[1] and the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ has forbidden us to take a Shāfi.” So I said: “So what type will you take?” They said: “A young female kid — a Jadh’ah or Thaniyyah.”^[2] So I went to a young, large and fat female goat — one that had not yet given birth but was old enough to do so — and took it out for them. They said, “Hand this one to us,” and they took it, placed it on their camel, and left.” (Da’if)

A pregnant animal is not taken for Zakāh since it is too fine and too valuable to be taken for Zakāh.

[1] It is explained in number 1582.

[2] Jadh’ah is the animal that does not have any teeth growing in place of earlier teeth. For goats it refers to one that has lived for one year. Thaniyyah refers to the animal that is old enough to lose its front teeth, in the case of goats it refers to one that has lived for two years.

Comments:

In case a person gives away, of his own free will, more or a better thing in Zakāh payments than what he is obliged to pay, it may be accepted.

1584. Ibn ‘Abbās narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ sent Mu‘ādh to Yemen, and said (to him): “You are about to go to a nation of the People of the Book, so invite them to testify to Lā ilāha illallāh and that I am the Messenger of Allāh; if they obey you in with this, then inform them that Allāh has commanded them (to perform) five prayers in every day and night. An if they obey you in this, then inform them that Allāh has obligated upon them (to pay) Sadaqah on their wealth; it is taken from their rich, and distributed to their poor. And if they obey you in this, then beware of taking their most prized possessions, and be cautious of the supplication of one who has been wronged, for there is no veil between it and Allāh.” (Sahih)

Comments:

1. According to most jurists, Zakāh funds collected from Muslims of a region should be distributed among the Muslims of that very region.
2. Near relatives and neighbors have a greater right to receiving Zakāh funds. The funds should not be transferred to other cities unless there is some special reason to do so.

1585. Anas bin Mālik narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: "The one who transgresses with Ṣadaqah is similar to one who withholds it." (Hasan)

Comments:

The one who transgresses with Ṣadaqah has been understood to refer to the one giving it, and the variety of ways that one might transgress in that, as well as the one collecting it, as the author appears to have understood it in this chapter.

Chapter 6. Pleasing The Zakāt Collector

(المعجم ٦) - بَابُ رِضَاءِ الْمُصَدِّقِ (التحفة ٦)

1586. It was reported from Hammād, from Ayyūb, from a man called Daisam — and Ibn ‘Ubaid (one of the narrators) said: "From Banū Sadūs" — from Bashir bin Al-Khaṣāṣiyah — in his narration, Ibn ‘Ubaid said: "His name was not Bashir, but the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ named him Bashir" — he said: "We said: 'The people who (collect) charity are unjust towards us, is it allowed for us to hide a part of our possessions — equivalent to the amount of injustice they do towards us?' He replied: 'No.'" (Da‘if)

١٥٨٦ - حَدَّثَنَا مَهْدِيُّ بْنُ حَفْصٍ وَمُحَمَّدُ ابْنُ عُبَيْدِ الْمَعْنَى قَالَا: حَدَّثَنَا حَمَادٌ عَنْ أَيُّوبَ، عَنْ رَجُلٍ يُقَالُ لَهُ: دَيْسَمٌ - وَقَالَ ابْنُ عُبَيْدٍ مِنْ بَنِي سَدُوسٍ - عَنْ بَشِيرِ ابْنِ الْخَصَاصِيَّةِ. قَالَ ابْنُ عُبَيْدٍ فِي حَدِيثِهِ: وَمَا كَانَ اسْمُهُ بَشِيرًا، وَلَكِنْ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ سَمَّاهُ بَشِيرًا. قَالَ: قُلْنَا: إِنَّ أَهْلَ الصَّدَقَةِ يَعْتَدُونَ عَلَيْنَا أَنْفُكُمُ مِنْ أَمْوَالِنَا بِقَدْرِ مَا يَعْتَدُونَ عَلَيْنَا؟ فَقَالَ: «لَا».

Abū Dāwud said: ‘Abdur-Razzāq reported it in Marfū‘ form from Ma‘mar.^[1]

1588. It was reported from ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin Jābir bin ‘Atīq, from his father that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “A group of riders who are hated will come to you. So when they come to you, then welcome them, and leave them with what they want (leave them to take your charity). If they are just, then it will be for their own (benefit), and if they are unjust, then it will be against them. And please them, for the perfection of your Zakāt is in their pleasure, and let them make supplication for you.” (Da‘īf)

Abū Dāwud said: Abū Al-Ghuṣṣn (one of the narrators) is Thābit bin Qais Ibn Ghuṣṣn.

1589. Jarīr bin ‘Abdullāh narrated: “A group of people — meaning from the Bediouns — came to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and said: ‘A group of charity-collectors come and wrong us.’ He replied: ‘Please those who collect your charity.’ They said: ‘O Messenger of Allāh! Even if they are unjust with us?’ He said: ‘Please those who collect your charity.’” ‘Uthmān (one of the narrators) added: “‘Even if they wrong you.’”

Comments:

Zakāh is a means of purification, Allāh has ordered the Messenger ﷺ: (Take Ṣadaqah from their wealth in order to purify them and sanctify them with it, and say Ṣalāh for them....) (At-Tawbah 9:103.)

Chapter 8. Regarding The Ages Of Camels^[1]

Abū Dāwud said: I heard from Ar-Riyāshī, and Abū Hātim, and others aside from them, and also from the book of An-Naḍr bin Shumail, and from the book of Abū ‘Ubaid, and perhaps one of them mentioned (only) some of the statements — they said: (The term Huwār (is used) then Faṣīl when he separates,^[2] then, the Bint Makhḥād will be for the one year old until it completes two years. When it enters into its third, then it is a Bint Labūn. When it completes three years, then it is a Hīqq (male) and Hīqqah (female) until its completion of four years, because it is the age of mating and breeding with a stallion, and that is referred to as Tulqaḥ and the male does not breed until he is two. They say that the Hīqqah is bred with the stallion because the stallion breeds with it until it completes four years. When it enters into the fifth, then it is a Jadh'ah; until it completes five years, then when it enters into the sixth, and its secondary teeth develops, it is at that time called a Thaniyy until it completes the sixth. When it enters into the seventh then the male is called (Rabā'iya) and the female Rabā'iyyah — until it completes the seventh. So when it enters into the eighth, and its “sixth” teeth come in, that are after the molars, then it is called Sadis and Sadis up to the completion of the eighth (year). When it enters into the ninth its canines appear, so it is called Bāzil; meaning its canines have Bazala meaning “appeared.” Until it enters its tenth (year) then it is called Mukhlif. Then (after that) there is no name for it, rather it may be said Bāzilu 'Āmin (a year Bāzil) or Bāzilu 'Āmain (a two year Bāzil) and Mukhlifu 'Āmin (a year Mukhlif) and Mukhlifu 'Āmain (a two year Mukhlif) and Mukhlifu thlathati a'wām (a three year Mukhlif) up to five years. And the Khalifah is the pregnant one. Abū Hātim said: “Jadhū'ah^[1] is a period of time, it does not relate to teeth. And the ages are separated when Suhail appears.”^[2]

Abū Dāwud said: Ar-Riyāshī recited a poem for us (to remember some of this):

None remains its age except for the Huba’; — and the Huba’ is the one born in other than its time.”

Chapter 9. Where Should The Charity Be Collected?

1591. It was reported from ‘Amr bin Shu’aib, from his father, from his grandfather, that the Prophet ﷺ said: “There should neither be Jalab, nor Janab; and charity should not be collected except in their places (that they frequent).”^[1] (Hasan)

1592. It was reported from Muḥammad bin Ishāq who said, in interpreting this Ḥadīth: “This means that the charity should be collected at the places they (i.e., the animals) pasture, and that they should not be brought to the collector. And ‘Janab’ (distancing oneself) from this obligation (is also prohibited) — meaning that a person should not distance himself from the collector, by going to the farthest areas (of the town). Rather, it should be taken from its place.” (Hasan)

۱۵۹۱ - حَدَّثَنَا قُتَيْبَةُ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ: حَدَّثَنَا
ابْنُ أَبِي عَدِيٍّ عَنِ ابْنِ إِسْحَاقَ، عَنْ عَمْرٍو
ابْنِ شُعَيْبٍ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنْ جَدِّهِ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ
ﷺ قَالَ: «لَا جَلَبَ وَلَا جَنَبَ وَلَا تُؤْخَذُ
صَدَقَاتُهُمْ إِلَّا فِي دُورِهِمْ».

۱۵۹۲ - حَدَّثَنَا الْحَسَنُ بْنُ عَلِيٍّ: حَدَّثَنَا
يَعْقُوبُ بْنُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ: سَمِعْتُ أَبِي يَقُولُ عَنْ
مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ إِسْحَاقَ فِي قَوْلِهِ: «لَا جَلَبَ وَلَا
جَنَبَ». قَالَ: أَنْ تُصَدَّقَ الْمَاشِيَةُ فِي
مَوَاضِعِهَا وَلَا تُجَلَبُ إِلَى الْمُصَدِّقِ. وَالْجَنَبُ
عَنْ هَذِهِ الْفَرِيضَةِ أَيْضًا لَا يُجَنَّبُ أَصْحَابُهَا
يَقُولُ: وَلَا يَكُونُ الرَّجُلُ بِأَقْصَى مَوَاضِعِ
أَصْحَابِ الصَّدَقَةِ فَتُجَنَّبُ إِلَيْهِ، وَلَكِنْ تُؤْخَذُ

Chapter 10. A Person Re-Purchasing His Charity

1593. Ibn ‘Umar narrated that ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb, may Allāh be pleased with him, donated a horse for the sake of Allāh, and he then subsequently found it being sold, so he wished to purchase it. He asked the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ about this, who responded: “Do not purchase it, and do not take back your charity.” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

(المعجم ١٠) - بَابُ الرَّجُلِ يَبْتَاعُ صَدَقَتَهُ
(التحفة ١٠)

١٥٩٣ - حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ مَسْلَمَةَ عَنْ مَالِكٍ، عَنْ نَافِعٍ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّ عُمَرَ بْنَ الْخَطَّابِ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ حَمَلَ عَلَى فَرَسٍ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ فَوَجَدَهُ يُبَاعُ، فَأَرَادَ أَنْ يَبْتَاعَهُ، فَسَأَلَ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ عَنْ ذَلِكَ، فَقَالَ: «لَا يَبْتَاعُهُ وَلَا تَعُدُّ فِي صَدَقَتِكَ».

Comments:

One should not desire the thing one has given away for the love of Allāh. Rather, one should hope for reward from Allāh for the charity.

Chapter 11. Charity On Slaves

1594. It was reported from Makḥūl, from ‘Irāk bin Mālik, from Abū Hurairah, from the Prophet ﷺ, that he said: “There is no Zakāt upon horses and slaves, except Zakāt Al-Fiṭr.” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

(المعجم ١١) - بَابُ صَدَقَةِ الرَّقِيقِ
(التحفة ١١)

تخريج: [صحيح] أخرجه البيهقي: ١١٧/٤ من حديث أبي داود به وللحديث طرق أخرى عند مسلم، ح: ٩٨٢ وغيره.

1595. It was reported from Sulaimān bin Yasār, from ‘Irāk bin Mālik, from Abū Hurairah that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “There is no charity due upon the slave or horse that a Muslim owns.” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Chapter 12. Zakāt On Agricultural Produce

1596. ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar reported that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “Ten percent is due upon (the produce) of (fields) which are watered by rain, or rivers, or springs, or Ba’ls.^[1] And half of that is due upon (the produce of) those (fields) which are watered by camels or other animals.” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

[1] It is explained in number 1598.

1598. Al-Haitham bin Khālid Al-Juhanī and Ḥusain bin Al-Aswad Al-'Ijlī said: "Wakī' said: 'A Ba'l is a spring which forms from rain-water.'" (Saḥīḥ)

And Ibn Al-Aswad said: "And Yahyā — meaning Ibn Ādam — said: 'I asked Abū Iyās Al-Asadī about Ba'l, so he said 'That which is watered with rain.'"

And An-Nadr bin Shumail said: 'Ba'l is rain-water.'

1599. Mu'ādh bin Jabal reported that when the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ sent him to Yemen, he said: "Take grain from grain, and sheep from (a flock of) sheep, and a camel from (a herd of) camels, and a cow from (a herd of) cows." (Da'if)

Abū Dāwud said: I once measured a cucumber in Egypt which was thirteen hand-spans. And I saw a citrus fruit upon a camel — it had been cut into two pieces, and made into two camel-loads.

ح: ١٨١٤ من حديث ابن وهب به * عطاء: لم يلق معاذ بن جبل كما في تلخيص المستدرک: ١/ ٣٨٨ ولد بعد وفاة معاذ رضي الله عنه.

Comments:

The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ indicated that Zakāh shall be levied at the rate of one-tenth of the produce if the land is irrigated with rain water or rivers or underground water, and at the rate of one-twentieth, or five percent of the produce if the land is irrigated artificially.

Chapter 13. Regarding Zakāt
On Honey

(المعجم ١٣) - بَابُ زَكَاةِ الْعَسَلِ

(التحفة ١٣)

1600. ‘Amr bin Shu’aib reported from his father, from his grandfather, that Hilāl — a person from the tribe of Banū Mut‘ān, came to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ with a tenth of his honey. He had asked him (the Prophet ﷺ) to protect a valley of his known as Salabah. So the Prophet ﷺ protected that valley for him. When ‘Umar bin Al-Khattāb became the leader (of the Muslims), Sufyān bin Wahb wrote to him, asking him regarding this. ‘Umar wrote back to him: “If he gives you what he used to give to the Prophet ﷺ, then protect Salabah for him. And if he does not, then those (bees) are bees of the wild; whoever desires may eat of it.” (Hasan)

١٦٠٠ - حَدَّثَنَا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ أَبِي شُعَيْبٍ
الْحَرَانِيُّ: حَدَّثَنَا مُوسَى بْنُ أُعَيْنَ عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ
ابْنِ الْحَارِثِ الْمِضْرِيِّ، عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ
شُعَيْبٍ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنْ جَدِّهِ قَالَ: جَاءَ هِلَالٌ

Chapter 14. Estimating (The Quantity) Of Grapes

(المعجم ١٤) بَابُ: فِي خَرْصِ الْعِنَبِ
(التحفة ١٤)

1603. It was reported from Az-Zuhri from Sa‘eed bin Al-Musayyab, from ‘Ittāb bin Aseed, who said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ commanded us to estimate (the quantity of) grapes the way dates are estimated, and that we take its Zakāt as raisins, just as the Zakāt of dates is given in dry dates.” (Da‘if)

١٦٠٣ - حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الْعَزِيزِ بْنُ السَّرِيِّ النَّاقِطُ: حَدَّثَنَا بَشْرُ بْنُ مَنْصُورٍ عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ إِسْحَاقَ، عَنِ الزُّهْرِيِّ، عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ الْمُسَيَّبِ، عَنْ عَتَابِ بْنِ أَبِيهِ قَالَ: أَمَرَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ أَنْ يُخْرَصَ الْعِنَبُ كَمَا يُخْرَصُ النَّخْلُ، وَتُؤَخَذَ زَكَاتُهُ زَبِيبًا، كَمَا تُؤَخَذُ صَدَقَةُ النَّخْلِ تَمْرًا.

Comments:

Since fruits like grapes and dates ripen gradually over a period of time, and are eaten as they ripen, the procedure to assess the Zakāh is as follows: An expert is asked to estimate how much the total produce would be when they become ripe enough to be picked and gathered, deduct from it one-third or one-fourth of it, and then Zakāh is given for the remainder.

Chapter 15. Regarding Estimation

(المعجم ١٥) بَابُ: فِي الْخَرْصِ

(التحفة ١٥)

1605. Sahl bin Abī Ḥathmah said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ commanded us as follows: ‘When you estimate, then take, and leave a third; if you do not leave or find a third, then leave a fourth.’”

(Hasan)

Abū Dāwud said: (This means) that the one estimating should leave a third for trade.

Chapter 16. When Should Dates Be Estimated?

(المعجم ١٦) بَابُ: مَتَى يُخْرَصُ التَّمْرُ

1606. ‘Āishah narrated, while she was recollecting the incident of Khaibar: “The Prophet ﷺ would send ‘Abdullāh bin Rawāḥah to the Jews, and he would estimate their date-palms, after they (the fruits) had become ripe, and before they would be eaten.” (Da‘if)

١٦٠٦ - حَدَّثَنَا يَحْيَى بْنُ مَعِينٍ: حَدَّثَنَا حَبَّاجُ بْنُ ابْنِ جُرَيْجٍ قَالَ: أَخْبَرْتُ عَنْ ابْنِ شَهَابٍ، عَنْ عُرْوَةَ، عَنْ عَائِشَةَ أَنَّهَا قَالَتْ: وَهِيَ تَذْكُرُ شَأْنَ خَيْبَرَ: كَانَ النَّبِيُّ ﷺ يَبْعَثُ عَبْدَ اللَّهِ بْنَ رَوَاحَةَ إِلَى يَهُودِ فَيَخْرِصُ التَّمْلَ.

Chapter 17. Those Fruits Which Are Not Allowed As Charity

(المعجم ١٧) - بَابُ مَا لَا يَجُوزُ مِنْ

الثَّمَرَةِ فِي الصَّدَقَةِ (التحفة ١٧)

1607. It was reported from Az-Zuhrī, from Abū Umāmah bin Sahl, from his father, that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ prohibited the Ja'rur and Hubaiq types of dates as charity. (Da'if)

Az-Zuhrī said: "These are two types of dates of Al-Madīnah." Abū Dāwūd said: Abū Al-Walīd, also narrated it in Marfū' form from Sulaimān bin Kathīr, from Az-Zuhrī.

قَالَ الزُّهْرِيُّ: لَوْنَيْنِ مِنْ تَمْرِ الْمَدِينَةِ. قَالَ أَبُو دَاوُدَ: أَسْنَدُهُ أَيْضًا أَبُو الْوَلِيدِ، عَنْ سُلَيْمَانَ بْنِ كَثِيرٍ، عَنِ الزُّهْرِيِّ.

1608. 'Awf bin Mālik narrated: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ once entered the Masjid, and he had a stick in his hand. A person from among us had hung some Hashaf (type of dates), so the Prophet ﷺ struck the cluster with his stick, and said: 'Had the owner of this charity wished to give something of better quality, he could have done so.' He also said: 'The owner of this charity will eat Hashaf on the Day of Judgment.'" (Hasan)

Chapter 18. Regarding Zakāt Al-Fiṭr

1609. Ibn ‘Abbās narrated: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ obligated the Zakāt Al-Fiṭr for the one who fasts as a means of purifying him from vain talk and immoral deeds, and as a means of feeding the poor. Whoever gives it before the (‘Eid) prayer will have it counted as an accepted Ṣadaqah, and whoever give it after the prayer will have it counted as a charity among charities.” (Ḥasan)

Chapter 19. When Should It Be Given?

1610. Nāfi‘ reported that Ibn ‘Umar narrated: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ commanded that we give the Zakāt Al-Fiṭr before the people go out for the (‘Eid) prayer.” Nāfi‘ added: ‘So Ibn ‘Umar would give it before that by a day or two.’ (Ṣahih)

1612. It was reported from ‘Umar bin Nāfi‘, from his father, from ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar, who said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ obliged the Zakāt Al-Fiṭr: A Ṣā’...” so he mentioned the meaning reported by Mālik. And he added: “...young or old. And he commanded that it be paid before people go out for the prayer.” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Abū Dāwud said: ‘Abdullāh Al-‘Umarī reported it from Nāfi‘ with his chain, he said: “upon every Muslim”

Sa‘eed Al-Jumaḥī reported it from ‘Ubaidullāh, from Nāfi‘, he said in it: “among the Muslims.” And what

The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ has obligated this charity as a Ṣā' of dried dates or barely, or half a Ṣā' of wheat, for every (person), free-man or slave, male or female, young or old.” But when 'Alī came (to Al-Baṣrah), he saw that (these items) were cheap, so he said: “Allāh has given you in abundance, so if only you were to make it one Ṣā' of everything.”

Ḥumaid said: “Al-Ḥasan used to hold the opinion that the Zakāt of Ramaḍān was only due upon those who fasted.” (Da'if)

Chapter 22. Paying Zakāt In Advance

1623. Abū Hurairah narrated: “The Prophet ﷺ sent 'Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb, may Allāh be pleased with him, to collect the Sadaqah, but Ibn Jamīl, Khālid bin Al-Walīd, and Al-'Abbās all refused to give it. So the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: ‘What is the excuse of Ibn Jamīl except that he was poor, and then Allāh made him rich? And as for Khālid bin Al-Walīd, then you have wronged Khālid! For indeed, he has given his armor and weaponry

Chapter 23. Should Zakāt Be Transferred From One Land to Another ?

1625. Ibrāhīm bin 'Aṭā' — the freed slave of 'Imrān bin Ḥusain — narrated from his father that Ziyād, or another governor, sent 'Imrān bin Ḥusain as a collector of charity.

Comments:

The basic rule is that Zakāh collected in a region should be distributed among the needy of the same region. However, in case people in other regions are more in need of help, the wealth may be transferred there.

Chapter 24. Who Should Be Given Charity? And The Definition Of A Rich Man

(المعجم ٢٤) - بَابُ مَنْ يُعْطَى مِنَ الصَّدَقَةِ وَحَدِّ الْغِنَى (التحفة ٢٤)

١٦٢٦ - حَدَّثَنَا الْحَسَنُ بْنُ عَلِيٍّ: حَدَّثَنَا يَحْيَى بْنُ آدَمَ: حَدَّثَنَا سُفْيَانُ عَنْ حَكِيمِ بْنِ جُبَيْرٍ، عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ يَزِيدَ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «مَنْ سَأَلَ وَلَهُ مَا يُغْنِيهِ جَاءَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ خُمُوشٌ أَوْ خُدُوشٌ أَوْ كُدُوشٌ فِي وَجْهِهِ»، فَقِيلَ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ! وَمَا الْغِنَى؟ قَالَ: «خَمْسُونَ دِرْهَمًا أَوْ قِيمَتُهَا مِنَ الذَّهَبِ» قَالَ يَحْيَى: فَقَالَ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بِنُ عُثْمَانَ لِسُفْيَانَ: حَفْظِي أَنْ شُعْبَةَ لَا يَرْوِي عَنْ حَكِيمِ بْنِ جُبَيْرٍ، فَقَالَ سُفْيَانُ فَقَدْ حَدَّثَنَاهُ زُبَيْدٌ عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ يَزِيدَ.

1627. It was reported from 'Aṭā' bin Yasār, from a man from the tribe of Banū Asad that he said: "Once, I encamped with my family at Baqī' Al-Gharqad. My family said to me: 'Go to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and ask him for something that we can eat,' and they started mentioning their needs. So I went to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, but found a man already there, asking of him. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: 'I don't have anything to give you,' so the man turned away angrily and said: 'I swear, you only give to those whom you want!' The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ replied: 'He gets angry at me because I don't have anything to give him! Whoever asks among you while he has one Uqiyyah, then has indeed asked unjustly!' The man from the tribe of Banū Asad said to himself: "Indeed, our she-camel is more precious than an Uqiyyah." — And Uqiyyah is equal to forty Dirham. — "So he returned, and did not ask for anything. He said: "After that, some barely and raisins were sent to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, and he gave us a share of it, until Allāh, the Mighty and Sublime, made us self-sufficient (of asking)." (Ṣaḥīh)

١٦٢٧ - حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ مَسْلَمَةَ عَنْ مَالِكٍ، عَنْ زَيْدِ بْنِ أَسْلَمَ، عَنْ عَطَاءِ بْنِ يَسَارٍ، عَنْ رَجُلٍ مِنْ بَنِي أَسَدٍ أَنَّهُ قَالَ: نَزَلْتُ أَنَا وَأَهْلِي بِبَيْعِ الْعَرْقَدِ قَالَ لِي أَهْلِي: اذْهَبْ إِلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ فَسَلْهُ لَنَا شَيْئًا نَأْكُلُهُ فَجَعَلُوا يَذْكُرُونَ مِنْ حَاجَتِهِمْ، فَذَهَبْتُ إِلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ فَوَجَدْتُ عِنْدَهُ رَجُلًا يَسْأَلُهُ وَرَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَقُولُ: «لَا أَجِدُ مَا أُعْطِيكَ»، فَتَوَلَّى الرَّجُلُ عَنْهُ وَهُوَ مُغْضَبٌ وَهُوَ يَقُولُ: لَعَمْرِي إِنَّكَ لَتُعْطِي مَنْ شِئْتَ، فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «يَغْضَبُ عَلَيَّ أَنْ لَا أَجِدَ مَا أُعْطِيهِ؟ مَنْ سَأَلَ مِنْكُمْ وَلَهُ أَوْقِيَّةٌ أَوْ عِدْلُهَا فَقَدْ سَأَلَ إِنْحَافًا». قَالَ الْأَسَدِيُّ: فَقُلْتُ: لِلْفَحْصَةِ لَنَا خَيْرٌ مِنْ أَوْقِيَّةٍ وَالْأَوْقِيَّةُ أَرْبَعُونَ دِرْهَمًا. قَالَ: فَرَجَعْتُ وَلَمْ أَسْأَلْهُ فَقَدِمَ عَلَيَّ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ شَعِيرٌ وَرَزِيْبٌ فَقَسَمَ لَنَا مِنْهُ - أَوْ كَمَا قَالَ - حَتَّى أَعْنَانَا اللَّهُ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ. قَالَ أَبُو دَاوُدَ: هَكَذَا رَوَاهُ الثَّوْرِيُّ كَمَا قَالَ مَالِكٌ.

1628. It was reported from Abū Sa‘eed Al-Khudrī who said that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “Whoever asks (others for wealth) while he has the equivalent of an Uqiyah, then he has indeed asked unjustly.” So the man said to himself: “My camel, Al-Yāqūtah is (worth) more than an Uqiyah” — Hishām (one of the narrators) said: “Better than forty Dirhams,” — so he returned without asking anything.

In his narration, Hishām added “During the time of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, one Uqiyah was forty Dirhams.” (Hasan)

1629. Sahl bin Hanẓalah reported: “Uyainah bin Hiṣn and Al-Aqra‘ bin Hābis both came to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and asked of him, so he ordered that they be given what they asked for. And he ordered Mu‘āwiyah to write what they wanted. So as for Al-Aqra‘, he took the letter, wrapped it in his turban, and left. And as for ‘Uyainah, he took the letter and came to the place where the Prophet ﷺ was at, and said: ‘O Muḥammad! Do you think that I will carry a letter to my people while I don’t know what is written in it, just like the letter of Al-Mutalammis?’ Mu‘āwiyah informed the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ of what he had said. So the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ replied: ‘Whoever asks

Ziyād bin Al-Hārith Aṣ-Ṣudāʿī narrated: “I came to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and gave him my pledge of allegiance...” and he continued narrating a lengthy narration, until he said: “A man came to him, and said: ‘Give me some charity.’ So the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ told him: ‘Allāh was not satisfied with the ruling of a Prophet or anyone other than Himself regarding charity, so He Himself ruled in this regard, and divided (the recipients of charity) into eight categories. So if you are in one of those categories, I will give you your right.’” (Daʿīf)

1631. It was reported from Al-A'mash, from Abū Šāliḥ from Abū Hurairah, who said: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: 'A poor person is not one who will be done away with a date or two, or a morsel or two; rather, a poor person is one who does not ask others for anything, and they do not recognize (his situation) and give him (charity).'" 1632. It was reported from Az-Zuhri, from Abū Salamah, from Abū Hurairah who said: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said" similarly (to no. 1631). He said: "...but the poor person is the one who is too shy to ask." — Musaddad (one of the narrators) added: "He does not have enough to live by" — "neither does he ask, nor do others know of his needs and give him charity that is the one who is (truly) deprived." (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Abū Dāwud said: This Ḥadīth was reported by Muḥammad bin Thawr, and 'Abdur-Razzāq, from Ma'mar, and they had the statement about the deprived among the words of Az-Zuhri, and that is more correct.

Comments:

A rich or a strong person, who is able to work and earn, should not beg. It is prohibited for him to do so.

1634. ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Amr narrated from the Prophet ﷺ: "Charity is not allowed (to take) for a rich person, nor for a strong, healthy person." (Hasan)

Abū Dāwud said: Sufyān reported it from Sa’d bin Ibrāhīm, just as Ibrāhīm said it. And Shu‘bah reported it from Sa’d; he said: "...a strong person." Some of the others had it from the Prophet ﷺ: "...a strong person" and ‘Aṭā’ bin Zuhair said that he met ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Amr, so he said: "Charity is not lawful for the strong, nor the one who is healthy."

Chapter 25. Rich People Who Are Allowed To Take Charity

1635. ‘Aṭā’ bin Yasār narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “Charity is not allowed for a rich person except for (one of) five: a fighter in the Cause of Allāh, or one who is employed for it (collecting the Zakāt), or one in debt, or one who purchased it with his money, or one who had a poor neighbor who was given charity, and who subsequently gave it (that charity) to him.” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Abū Dāwud said: Ibn ‘Uyainah reported it from Zaid as did Mālik (in the above narration), and Ath-Thawrī reported it from Zaid but said: “A confirmed narrator narrated to me from the Prophet ﷺ.”

Chapter 26. How Much Should One Person Be Given Of Zakāt ?

1638. Sahl bin Abī Ḥaṭhmah narrated that the Prophet ﷺ gave him one-hundred camels of charity as blood money — meaning the blood money of the Anṣārī who was killed at Khaibar. (Ṣaḥīh)

Chapter (...) When Is It Allowed to Beg?

1639. Samurah narrated that the Prophet ﷺ said: “Begging (is like) wounds that a person scars his face with. So whoever desires to leave (flesh) on his face (should not ask), and whoever desires (otherwise) may abandon it, except if a person asks the Sulṭān (ruler), or is in a situation in which he finds no other alternative.” (Ṣaḥīh)

1640. Qabīṣah bin Mukhāriq Al-Hilālī narrated: "I undertook the responsibility of paying a debt for someone else, so I went to the Prophet ﷺ (asking him). He said: 'Stay with us, O Qabīṣah, until charity comes, so that we can command that some of it be given to you.' Then he said: 'O Qabīṣah! Begging is not permitted except for one of three (people): A person who undertook the responsibility of paying off a debt on behalf of another, so he may ask until he gets what he needs, then he should desist; and a person who was afflicted with a catastrophe, and whose wealth was destroyed, so it is permissible for him to ask, and he asks until he obtains his minimal needs — or he said — his bare needs; and a person who became poor, (but in this case he may not ask) until three intelligent people from his community say that so-and-so has become poor. In this case he may ask until he obtains his minimal needs, or his bare needs, then he should desist. Any begging besides this, O Qabīṣah, is evil wealth that a person consumes in sin.'" (Ṣaḥīḥ) charity). The Prophet ﷺ said: "Do you not have anything in your house?" He said: "Yes! (I have) a coarse mat. We use a part of it to cover ourselves, and a part to lie on. And we also have a container which we drink water from." He said: "Bring them to me," so he brought them. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ held them in his hand and said: "Who will buy these two (items) from me?" A man said: "I'll take them for one Dirham." So he said: "Who will give more than a Dirham," two or three times. A man said: "I'll take them for two Dirhams," so he gave them to him, took the two Dirhams, and gave it to the Anṣārī, telling him: "Buy food with one (Dirham), and take it to your family, and buy an axe with the other one, and bring it to me." So he brought it to him, and the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ attached a stick to it with his own hands, and then said to him: "Go and collect firewood, and sell it, and let me not see you for fifteen days." The man went collecting firewood and selling it, and then returned, with ten Dirhams. He purchased a garment with some of it, and food with some of it. So the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: "This is better for you than your begging coming to you as a blemish on your face on the Day of Judgment. Begging is not allowed except for three (people): A very poor person, or for one in severe debt, or for a painful blood (blood-money)." (Hasan)

Chapter 27. The Disapproval Of Asking

(المعجم ٢٧) - بَابُ كَرَاهِيَةِ الْمَسْأَلَةِ

(التحفة ٢٨)

1642. ‘Awf bin Mālik narrated: “We were with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, seven, eight or nine of us, when he said: ‘Will you not give your pledge of allegiance to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ?’ And we had recently given our pledge (already), so we said: ‘We have given you our pledge of allegiance,’ but he said it three times. So we stretched forth our hands and pledged allegiance to him. One person said: ‘O Messenger of Allāh! We have already given you our pledge, so what are we pledging our allegiance to (now)?’ He said: ‘That you worship Allāh, and do not associate any partners with Him, and that you pray the five prayers, and that you hear and obey (your rulers)...,’ and then he said something very softly, ‘...and that you do not ask people for anything.’ So indeed, some of those people (obeyed to such an extent) that his whip would fall (from his mount), and he would not ask anyone to hand it to him.” (Saḥīḥ)

Abū Dāwud said: This narration of Hishām was not reported except from Sa‘eed.

1643. It was reported from Abū Al-Āliyah, from Thawbān — the freed-slave of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ — who said that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “Who will guarantee me that he will not ask mankind for anything, and I will guarantee for him Paradise (in return)?” So Thawbān said: “I,” and he added: “And I would never ask anyone for anything.” (Ṣaḥīh)

Comments:

To beg, in its wider sense, is like asking someone other than Allāh.

Chapter 28. On Doing Without Asking Others

1644. Abū Sa‘eed Al-Khudrī narrated that a group of people from the Anṣār asked of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, so he gave them. They then asked again, so he gave them, until, when all that he had with him (to give) had finished, he said: “Whatever good I have, I shall not keep it to myself by depriving you of it, and whoever seeks self-sufficiency will be granted it by Allāh, and whoever seeks to be independent will be made independent by Allāh, and whoever seeks to be patient will be granted patience by Allāh. And Allāh has not granted anyone any gift more vast than patience.” (Ṣaḥīh)

Comments:

It is permissible to ask pious people for help in matters subject to physical laws, like request for cooperation, loan, intercession and supplication, providing those pious people are alive. As for those pious people who are dead, it is prohibited to ask them for help or intercession. It is Shirk (ascribing partners to Allāh).

1648. It was reported from Mālik, from Nāfi', from 'Abdullāh bin 'Umar, that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ was once on the Minbar, discussing charity, and that (explaining whether) it is better to avoid taking it or asking for it. He said: "The upper hand is better than the lower hand, and the upper hand is the one that spends, and the lower hand is the one that asks." (Sahih)

Abū Dāwud said: There is disagreement among those who narrated this Hadīth from Ayyūb from Nāfi'.^[1] 'Abdul-Wāriṭh (narrated it from him and) said: "The upper hand is the one that seeks independence of means." Chapter 29. Giving Charity To Banu Hāshim

1650. Abū Rāfi' narrated that the Prophet ﷺ sent a man to collect charity from the tribe of Banū Makhzūm, so this man said to Abū Rāfi': "Accompany me, for you will get a share of it." He said: "(Not) until I go to the Prophet ﷺ and ask him." So he did so, and the Prophet ﷺ replied, "The freed-slave of a people is a part of them, and we are not allowed to take charity." (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Comments:

It is not permissible for the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, his family, and his freed slaves to receive any charity.

1651. It was reported from Hammād, from Qatādah, from Anas that the Prophet ﷺ would sometimes pass by a date lying (on the ground), and the only reason that he would not take it is for fear that it might have been from charity. (Sahih)

Comments:

The inference from the Hadith is that a person receiving charity becomes owner of the charity and, therefore, has the right to dispense with it as he likes. He may give it in charity in turn or as a gift to others.

1658. It was reported from Suhail bin Abi Šāliḥ, from his father, from Abū Hurairah, that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “There is no person who owns Kanz (wealth), and does not pay its right, except that Allāh will transform it on the Day of Judgment; it will be heated in the Fire of Hell, and then his fore-head, sides, and back will be cauterized with it, until Allāh judges between His servants — on a day the length of which is fifty-thousand years of your reckoning. Then he will see his path, either to Paradise or to the Fire. And there is no owner of sheep who does not pay their right (i.e., Zakāt) except that they will come on the Day of Judgment in the greatest quantity that they were (in this world), and he will be thrown on his face for them on a flat, level ground, and

Comments:

Gold and silver, not purified by Zakāh, will be a disaster for their owner.

1659. It was reported from Zaid bin Aslam, from Abū Ṣāleḥ, from Abū Hurairah from the Prophet ﷺ, similarly (to no. 1658). After he said “Does not pay their right” in the case of the camels, he said: “And of their rights is that they are milked the day that they are given water.” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

1660. It was reported from Shu'bah, from Qatādah, from Abū 'Umar Al-Ghudānī, from Abū Hurairah, who said: "I heard the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ" with similar to this (i.e., no. 1658). So he said to him — meaning to Abū Hurairah: "So what is the right for camels?" He said: "That you give one that is precious (as charity), and lend one that is giving milk, and lend one in order that someone rides on it, and lend a stallion to mate (with a she-camel), and you give its milk (to people) to drink." Comments:

This was due to a need among the people at the time.

1663. Abū Sa‘eed Al-Khudrī narrated: “Once, while we were traveling with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, a man came to him on a she-camel that he owned, and he was turning it left and right. The Prophet ﷺ said, “Whoever has extra (space) on his mount, let him give it to someone who has no mount, and whoever has extra provisions, let him give it to someone who has no provision,” until they thought that they had no right to anything extra that they had. Comments:

Islam exhorts its followers to tie bonds of kinship, do favours and give charity to them. If kinsmen are disbelievers, obligatory charities like Zakāh may not be given to them except in cases where the intent is to court their friendship, and to incline their hearts to Islam. Voluntary charity may be given to them at all times. Parents should be served and helped with money even if they are unbelievers.

Chapter 35. What Cannot Be Refused (When Asked)

(المعجم ٣٥) - بَابُ مَا لَا يَجُوزُ مَنَعُهُ
(التحفة ٣٦)

1669. It was reported that a woman by the name of Buhaisah reported from her father, that he asked permission to enter upon the Prophet ﷺ, and (when he was allowed permission), he lifted his shirt and began to kiss and embrace (the Prophet ﷺ). He said: "O Messenger of Allāh, what is that which is not permissible to withhold (when asked for)?" He replied: "Water." He repeated the question again, and the Prophet ﷺ replied: "Salt." He repeated the question for a third time, upon which the Prophet ﷺ said: "Doing good is better for you." (Da'if)

If one asks for help in the Name of Allāh, we ought to help him out of reverence for the Name of Allāh, the Lofty, the Sublime.

Chapter 39. A Person Giving All Of His Wealth

(المعجم ٣٩) - بَابُ الرَّجُلِ يُخْرِجُ مِنْ مَالِهِ (التحفة ٤٠)

1673. Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh narrated: “We were once sitting with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ when a man came to him with some gold, the size of an egg. He said: ‘O Messenger of Allāh, I obtained this from a mine, so take it as charity — I own nothing else besides it!’ But the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ turned away from him. The man then came to him from his right hand side, and repeated what he had said, but he turned away from him. The man then came to him from his left hand side, but he turned away from him. He then

This Hadith has been explained further in the following Hadith.

1676. Abū Hurairah narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “The best charity is that which leaves (one) independent of means, or that which is given when one is self-sufficient. And start with those who depend on you.” (Sahih)

Comments:

Giving so much that it reduces one to poverty, forcing him to seek the help of others to meet his basic needs is undesirable.

Chapter 40. Concession In This Regard

1677. Abū Hurairah narrated that he asked: “O Messenger of Allāh, which charity is the best?” He replied: “The efforts of one who is destitute; and start with those who depend on you.” (Sahih)

Comments:

Giving away all the possessions in charity is permissible only for those who trust in Allāh and fear not the destitution and penury following it. As for common men, the rule is the same as mentioned in Hadith no. 1676.

Chapter 41. The Blessings Of Supplying Water

(المعجم ٤١) بَابُ: فِي فَضْلِ سَقْيِ الْمَاءِ (التحفة ٤٢)

1679. It was reported from Qatādah, from Sa'eed, that Sa'd came to the Prophet ﷺ and said: "What type of charity is most pleasing to you?" He replied: "Water." (Da'if)

Comments:

A pious deed like the one mentioned in the Hadīth and crediting its reward to the deceased is the best one can do for the deceased.

1682. It was reported from Nubaiḥ, from Abū Sa'eed, from the Prophet ﷺ, that he said: "Any Muslim who clothes another Muslim who was naked, he will be clothed by Allāh from the green (garments) of Paradise. And any Muslim who feeds another Muslim who was hungry, he will be fed by Allāh from the fruits of Paradise. And any Muslim who gives a thirsty Muslim a drink, he will be given by Allāh (from) the sealed wines (of Paradise) to drink." (Da'if)

Such a treasurer, in addition to being a Muslim, should fulfill four conditions: he should give with the permission of the owner; he should give willingly; he should give in full; and he should give to the one permitted by the owner.

Chapter 44. A Woman Giving Charity From The Property Of Her Husband

(المعجم ٤٤) - بَابُ الْمَرْأَةِ تَصَدَّقُ مِنْ بَيْتِ زَوْجِهَا (التحفة ٤٥)

1685. ‘Aishah narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “If a woman gives charity from the house (property) of her husband, without spoiling it, she will obtain the rewards of what she has given, and her husband will obtain the rewards of what he has earned, and the custodian will obtain a similar award — none of them will diminish the rewards of the other.” (Sahih)

Comments:

A woman who has no explicit permission of her husband, can, however, guess her husband’s willingness in the light of his temperament, inclination, habit and the social conventions.

1686. Sa’d narrated: “When the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ took the pledge of allegiance from women, a noble lady stood up — it appears she was from the women of (the tribe of) Muḍar. She said: ‘O Prophet of Allāh, we are dependent on our fathers and sons’” — Abū Dāwud added: I think she said, “our husbands” as well — “‘so what is allowed for us (to take) from their wealth?’ He replied: ‘The Raṭb — you may eat of it, and give it away.’” (Da’if)

Abū Dāwud said: Raṭb (here) refers to bread, and greens and fresh dates.

قال أبو داود وأرى فيه: وَأَزْوَاجِنَا فَمَا يَحِلُّ لَنَا مِنْ أَمْوَالِهِمْ؟ قَالَ: «الرَّطْبُ تَأْكُلْنَهُ وَتُهْدِيئُهُ».

Comments:

A husband has to keep in view his income and expenditure and balance the household budget. Hence, a woman should seek her husband’s permission in case she wants to give charity more than what is usual and conventional.

1688. It was reported from ‘Atā’, from Abū Hurairah, regarding a woman who gives charity from the property of her husband, that he (ﷺ) said: “No, unless she does so from her daily food, and in this case the rewards will be shared between them. And she is not permitted to give charity from her husband’s wealth except with his permission.”

Abū Dāwud said: This shows that the narration of Hammām is weak. (Ḥasan) قَالَ أَبُو دَاوُدَ: هَذَا يُضَعَّفُ حَدِيثَ هَمَّامٍ.

Chapter 45. Nurturing The Ties Of Kinship

1689. Anas narrated: “When the Verse: ‘By no means shall you attain Al-Birr, unless you spend of that which you love’^[1] was revealed, Abū Ṭalḥah said: ‘O Messenger of Allāh! I see that our Lord is asking us for our wealth, so I make you my witness that I have given my property at Arīḥā’ to Him.’ The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: ‘Give it to your relatives,’ so he distributed it between Ḥassān bin Thābit and Ubayy bin Ka’b.” (Ṣaḥīh)

Abū Dāwud said: And it was conveyed to me from Al-Anṣārī, (that is) Muḥammad Ibn ‘Abdullāh, who said: “Abū Ṭalḥah is: Zaid bin Sahl bin Aswad bin Ḥarām bin ‘Amr bin Zaid Manāh bin ‘Adī bin ‘Amr bin Mālik bin An-Najjār. And Ḥassān is Ibn Thābit bin Al-Mundhir bin Ḥarām — so their lineage meets after three generations, at Ḥarām.

And Ubayy is Ibn Ka’b bin Qais bin ‘Atīq bin Zaid bin Mu’āwiyah bin ‘Amr bin Mālik bin An-Najjār. So Ḥassān, Abū Ṭalḥah and Ubayy — all of them (their lineage) are together at ‘Amr. And between Ubayy and Abū Ṭalḥah are six generations (before they meet).”

10. THE BOOK OF LOST ITEMS

Chapter 1. Regarding Lost Items That Are Found

1701. Shu‘bah reported from Salamah bin Kuhail, from Suwaid bin Ghafalah, who said: “I went on an expedition with Zaid bin Şuwhān and Salmān bin Rabī‘ah, and found a whip. They both said to me: ‘Drop it,’ but I said: ‘No, but if I find its owner (I will return it), or else I will use it.’ I then went for Hajj, and passed by Al-Madīnah, so I asked Ubayy bin Ka‘b. He said: ‘I found a pouch containing one hundred Dinār, so I came to the Prophet ﷺ (asking regarding it). He said: “Announce it for a year.” So I continued to announce it for a year, then I came to him. He said: “Announce it for a year.” So I continued to announce it for a year, then I came to him. He again said: “Announce it for a year.” So I continued to announce it for a year, then I came to him and said: “I did not find anyone who recognized it.” So he said: “Remember its quantity, and its pouch, and its drawstring, and if its owner comes to you (return) it; otherwise benefit from it.”

He said: “I am not sure whether he said ‘announce it’ thrice, or only

Scholars differ over the period of announcement (that is, how long shall the announcement continue to be made) but all of them agree over one year as the minimum period of announcement.

1703. (Another chain) from Ḥammād that Salamah bin Kuhail narrated to them with his chain and its meaning (similar to no. 1701). Regarding announcing it, he said: “He (ﷺ) said: ‘Two or three years.’” And he said: “Be familiar with its quantity, and its pouch, and its drawstring,” and he added: “So if its owner comes to you and knows its quantity, pouch, and drawstring, give it to him.” (Ṣaḥīḥ) Abū Dāwūd said: No one said this statement in this Ḥadīth except Ḥammād, meaning: “Be familiar with its quantity.”

١٧٠٤ - حَدَّثَنَا قُتَيْبَةُ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ: حَدَّثَنَا

bin Ja'far, from Rabī'ah bin Abī 'Abdur-Rahmān, from Yazīd, the freed slave of Al-Munba'ith, from Zaid Ibn Khālid Al-Juhānī, that a man asked the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ regarding lost items (that are found). He replied: "Announce it for a year, then be familiar with its drawstring and bag, and then spend it. But if its owner comes to you, then return it to him." The man said: "O Messenger of Allāh, how about lost sheep?" He replied, "Take it, for it is either for you, or your brother, or the wolf." He then said: "O Messenger of Allāh, how about lost camels?" At this the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ became angry until his forehead, or his face, became red, and he said: "What have you got to do with it? It has hoofs and its humps, until its owner comes to it." (Sahīh)

إِسْمَاعِيلُ بْنُ جَعْفَرٍ عَنْ رَبِيعَةَ بْنِ أَبِي عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ، عَنْ يَزِيدَ مَوْلَى الْمُثَنَّبِثِ، عَنْ زَيْدِ بْنِ خَالِدِ الْجُهَنِيِّ: أَنَّ رَجُلًا سَأَلَ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ عَنِ اللَّقْطَةِ، فَقَالَ: «عَرَّفْهَا سَنَةً ثُمَّ اعْرِفْ وَكَاءَهَا، وَعِفَاصَهَا، ثُمَّ اسْتَنْفِقْ بِهَا، فَإِنْ جَاءَ رَبُّهَا فَأَدِّهَا إِلَيْهِ»، فَقَالَ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ! فَضَالَّةُ الْغَنَمِ؟ فَقَالَ: «حُذَّهَا فَإِنَّمَا هِيَ لَكَ أَوْ لِأَخِيكَ أَوْ لِلذُّبِّ»، قَالَ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ! فَضَالَّةُ الْإِبِلِ؟، فَغَضِبَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ حَتَّى احْمَرَّتْ وَجْتَتَاهُ، أَوْ احْمَرَّ وَجْهُهُ وَقَالَ: «مَالِكَ وَلَهَا؟، مَعَهَا حِذَاؤُهَا وَسِقَاؤُهَا حَتَّى يَأْتِيَهَا رَبُّهَا».

1705. (Another chain) from Mālik with his chain and its meaning (similar to no. 1704). He added: "...Its humps, it goes to the water, and eats of the trees." And he did not say: "take it" about the lost sheep. And he said regarding lost items, "Announce it for a year, so if its owner comes, or else do with it as you please." And he did not say to spend of it. (Sahīh)

Abū Dāwud said: It was reported by Ath-Thawrī, Sulaimān bin Bilāl, and Hammād bin Salamah from ١٧٠٥ - حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ السَّرْحِ: حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ وَهْبٍ: أَخْبَرَنِي مَالِكٌ بِإِسْنَادِهِ وَمَعْنَاهُ، زَادَ: «سِقَاؤُهَا تَرِدُ الْمَاءَ وَتَأْكُلُ الشَّجَرَ»، وَلَمْ يَقُلْ: «حُذَّهَا» فِي ضَالَّةِ الشَّاءِ، وَقَالَ فِي اللَّقْطَةِ: «عَرَّفْهَا سَنَةً، فَإِنْ جَاءَ صَاحِبُهَا وَإِلَّا فَشَأْنُكَ بِهَا» وَلَمْ يَذْكَرْ «اسْتَنْفِقْ».

Comments:

Goats are weak and cannot bear hunger or thirst for long, nor can they defend themselves against predatory animals. Hence, it is better to take hold of them or, else, they may perish and go waste. Allāh knows best.

1706. It was reported from Busr bin Sa'eed, from Zaid bin Khālīd Al-Juhanī, that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ was asked about the lost item that is found. He said: "Announce it for a year, and if the one who wants it comes for it, give it to him. Otherwise, be familiar with its pouch and drawstring, then consume it. And if the one seeking it comes, then give it to him." (Ṣaḥīh)

Comments:

This ruling also applies to animals like goats, in addition to other finds. In case, it has been consumed, it is obligatory to pay the owner its price, in cash or kind, as and when its owner turns up.

1707. It was reported from 'Abdullāh bin Yazīd, from his father Yazīd, the freed slave of Al-Munba'ith, from Zaid bin Khālīd Al-Juhanī, that he said: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ was asked" so he mentioned similar to the narration of Rabī'ah. It is not obligatory to call upon others as witnesses nor is it possible to do so at all times. Yet it is advisable to do so in order to ward off devilish insinuations like desiring to possess it.

1710. It was reported from Ibn ‘Ajlān, from ‘Amr bin Shu‘aib, from his father, from his grandfather, ‘Abdullah bin ‘Amr bin Al-‘Ās, from the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ; that he was asked about (taking from) hanging fruits.^[1] He replied, “Whoever is in need and eats of it, without gathering any in his garments, has no (sin) upon him. And whoever leaves with anything of it, he will be fined double its amount, and will be punished. He said: “Why are they crying?” She replied: “Because of hunger.” So ‘Alī left, and found a Dinār in the market-place. He came to Fāṭimah and informed her, who said: “Go to so-and-so the Jew, and purchase some flour with it.” He went to the Jew and purchased some flour, but the Jew said: “Are you not the son-in-law of the one who claims he is a Prophet?” He said: “Yes.” So he said: “In that case, take your Dinār, and the flour is yours!” ‘Alī then returned and told Fāṭimah what had occurred, so she said: “Go to so-and-so, the butcher, and purchase a Dirham of meat.” So ‘Alī went and gave the Dinār as collateral for a Dirham’s quantity of meat, and he brought it (to Fāṭimah). She then kneaded the flour, set (the stove), made the bread, and called for her father. When he came, she said: “O Messenger of Allāh, let me tell you (what occurred), so if you feel that it is allowed for us, we will eat of it, and you will eat with us. Its story is such and such...” So he (ﷺ) said: “Eat in the Name of Allāh.” So they all ate. While they were still sitting in their places, a boy came, announcing in the Name of Allāh, and of Islam, that he had lost a Dinār. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ commanded that he be brought, so he was called and asked (about it). He said: "I dropped it in the market-place." The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ then said: "O 'Alī! Go to the butcher, and tell him: 'The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ tells you to send the Dinār to him, and the Dirham is due upon him (the Prophet ﷺ).'" So 'Alī brought it, and the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ gave it to the boy. (Ḥasan) فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ ﷺ: «يَاعَلِيُّ اذْهَبْ إِلَى الْجَزَّارِ فَقُلْ لَهُ: إِنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَقُولُ لَكَ: أَرْسِلْ إِلَيَّ بِالْدِينَارِ وَدِرْهَمَكَ عَلَيَّ»، فَأَرْسَلَ بِهِ، فَدَفَعَهُ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ إِلَيْهِ.

1717. It was reported from Al-Mughīrah bin Ziyād, from Abū Az-Zubair Al-Makkī, who narrated from Jābir bin 'Abdullāh, that he said: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ granted us a concession regarding a stick, or whip, or rope, and other such items, that if a person finds it he may use it." (Da'if)

Abū Dāwud said: An-Nu'mān bin 'Abdus-Salām reported it from Al-Mughīrah bin Abī Salamah, with his chain, and Shabābah reported it from Mughīrah bin Muslim, from Abū Az-Zubair, from Jābir, he said: "They would (do so)" not mentioning the Prophet ﷺ.

Comments:

It is prohibited and sinful to pick up a valuable find and hide it. According to this Hadīth, a person hiding a valuable find shall be liable to a double fine.

1719. ‘Abdur-Raḥmān bin ‘Uthmān At-Taimī narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ forbade (picking up) the lost items of pilgrims.

Aḥmad (bin Šāliḥ) said: “Ibn Wahb said (meaning): ‘He should leave the lost items of pilgrims until its owner finds it.’” (Šaḥīḥ)

قال ابن مَوْهَبٍ عن عمرو.

Comments:

The Hajj pilgrims do not stay for long. They hurry back home on completion of the rites of Hajj. This makes year-long announcements of finds impossible. It is, therefore, better not to pick up their lost things and, in case they are, quick and repeated announcements should be made, or those things should be deposited with the authorities dealing with lost and found articles.

1720. Al-Mundhir bin Jarīr narrated: “We were once with Jarīr at Al-Bawāzīj, and the shepherd came back with the cows, but there was a cow that was not of the herd. Jarīr said: ‘What is this?’ He replied: ‘I found a cow, but I don’t

11. THE BOOK OF THE RITES OF HAJJ AND ‘UMRAH

Chapter 1. The Obligation Of Hajj

1721. It was reported from Az-Zuhrī, from Abū Sinān, from Ibn ‘Abbās, that Al-Aqra’ bin Hābis asked the Prophet ﷺ: “O Messenger of Allāh! Is Hajj (obligatory) every year, or only once?” He replied: “Rather, only once, and whoever does more it will be (counted as) voluntary (worship).” (Sahīh)

Abū Dāwud said: He is Abū Sinān Ad-Duw’alī, this is who ‘Abdul-Jalīl bin Humaid and Sulaimān bin Kathīr both said it from Az-Zuhrī, while ‘Uqail said: “From Sinān.”

1722. Abū Wāqid Al-Laithī narrated that he heard the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ say to some of his wives during the Farewell Pilgrimage, “This, and then the surface of mats.”^[1] (Hasan)

قَالَ أَبُو دَاوُدَ: هُوَ أَبُو سِنَانِ الدُّوَالِيِّ، كَذَا قَالَ عَبْدُ الْجَلِيلِ بْنُ حُمَيْدٍ، وَسُلَيْمَانُ بْنُ كَثِيرٍ جَمِيعًا عَنِ الزُّهْرِيِّ، وَقَالَ عَقِيلٌ عَنْ سِنَانٍ.

[1] Indicating that they may stay home from its performance in following years after fulfilling it that year.

Comments:

This Hadīth proves that one Hajj in a lifetime is obligatory. More than one is supererogatory, while other Hadīths exhort believers to perform Hajj and Umrah again and again.

Chapter 2. Regarding A Woman Who Performs Hajj Without A Mahram

(المعجم ٢) بَابُ: فِي الْمَرْأَةِ تَحُجُّ بِغَيْرِ مَحْرَمٍ (التحفة ٢)

1723. It was reported from Al-Laiṭh bin Sa'd, from Sa'eed bin Abī Sa'eed, from his father, from Abū Hurairah, who said: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: 'It is not permitted for a Muslim woman to travel the distance of a night except that she has a man with her who is prohibited (in marriage) upon her.'" (Ṣaḥīḥ)

١٧٢٣ - حَدَّثَنَا قُتَيْبَةُ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ الثَّقَفِيُّ: حَدَّثَنَا اللَّيْثُ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، أَنَّ أَبَا هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «لَا يَحِلُّ لِمَرْأَةٍ مُسْلِمَةٍ تُسَافِرُ مَسِيرَةَ لَيْلَةٍ إِلَّا وَمَعَهَا رَجُلٌ ذُو حُرْمَةٍ مِنْهَا».

تخریج: أخرجه مسلم، الحج، باب سفر المرأة مع محرم إلى الحج وغيره، ح: ١٣٣٩ عن قتيبة به.

Comments:

1. It is quite clear from this Hadīth that no woman may make a journey, not even for Hajj, without a Mahram escorting her. If a woman cannot find a Mahram to accompany her, she is considered not able to perform Hajj and, therefore, it is not yet obligatory for her.
2. A Mahram is a person whom a woman can never marry like father, grandfather, uncle and nephew (paternal and maternal), son and father-in-law.

1724. It was reported from Mālik, from Sa'eed bin Abī Sa'eed — (one of the narrators) Al-Ḥasan said: "from his father" — and then (the narrators) they were in accord — from Abū Hurairah, from the Prophet ﷺ, that he said: "It is not permitted for a woman who believes in Allāh and the Final Day that she travel for a day or night..." and he mentioned its (no. 1723) meaning, (Ṣaḥīḥ)

١٧٢٤ - حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ مَسْلَمَةَ وَالثَّقَفِيُّ عَنِ مَالِكٍ، ح: وَحَدَّثَنَا الْحَسَنُ بْنُ عَلِيٍّ: حَدَّثَنَا بِشْرُ بْنُ عُمَرَ: حَدَّثَنِي مَالِكٌ عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ - قَالَ الْحَسَنُ فِي حَدِيثِهِ عَنْ أَبِيهِ ثُمَّ اتَّفَقُوا - عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ قَالَ: «لَا يَحِلُّ لِمَرْأَةٍ تُؤْمِنُ بِاللَّهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ أَنْ تُسَافِرَ يَوْمًا وَلَيْلَةً». فَذَكَرَ مَعْنَاهُ. قَالَ الثَّقَفِيُّ: حَدَّثَنَا مَالِكٌ.

Abū Dāwud said: An-Nufailī and Al-Qa'nabī did not mention: "...from his father." Ibn Wahb and 'Uthmān bin 'Umar reported it from Mālik the way that Al-Qan'abī did.

Chapter (...) Taking Provisions For The Hajj

(المعجم ...) - بَابُ التَّرْوُدِ فِي الْحَجِّ (التحفة ٤)

1730. Ibn 'Abbās narrated: "They would perform Hajj, but not take any provisions (for the journey) —

(المعجم ٤) - بَابُ التَّجَارَةِ فِي الْحَجِّ

(التحفة ٥)

1731. ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Abbās recited the Verse: “There is no sin on you if you seek the bounty of your Lord”^[2] and said: “They would not trade at Mina, so (in this Verse) they were commanded to trade once they left ‘Arafāt.” (Da‘if)

١٧٣١ - حَدَّثَنَا يُوسُفُ بْنُ مُوسَى: حَدَّثَنَا
جَرِيرٌ عَنْ يَزِيدَ بْنِ أَبِي زِيَادٍ، عَنْ مُجَاهِدٍ،
عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ: قَرَأَ هَذِهِ الْآيَةَ
﴿لَيْسَ عَلَيْكُمْ جُنَاحٌ أَنْ تَبْتَغُوا فَضْلًا مِنْ
رَبِّكُمْ﴾ [البقرة: ١٩٨] قَالَ: كَانُوا لَا
يَتَّجِرُونَ بِمِنَى فَأَمُرُوا بِالتَّجَارَةِ إِذَا أَفَاضُوا مِنْ
عَرَفَاتٍ.

Comments:

There is no harm in trading while in a state of Ihrām.

Chapter 5. (To Expedite Performing The Hajj)

(المعجم ٥) بَابُ (التحفة ٦)

1732. Ibn ‘Abbās narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said:

١٧٣٢ - حَدَّثَنَا مُسَدَّدٌ: حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو مُعَاوِيَةَ

[1] Al-Baqarah 2:197.

[2] Al-Baqarah 2:198.

“Whoever intends to perform Hajj, then he should hasten (to do it).”

ابْنِ عَمْرٍو، عَنْ مِهْرَانَ أَبِي صَفْوَانَ، عَنِ ابْنِ
عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «مَنْ أَرَادَ
الْحَجَّ فَلْيَتَعَجَّلْ».

تخريج: [حسن] أخرجه أحمد: ٢٢٥/١ عن أبي معاوية الضرير به وصرح بالسماع من الحسن بن عمرو وللحديث شواهد.

Comments:

Hajj becomes obligatory as soon as one becomes able to bear the journey.
Death may overtake a person anytime.

Chapter 6. On Renting (The Riding Animal)

(المعجم ٦) - بَابُ الْكُرِّيِّ (التحفة ٧)

1733. Abū Umāmah At-Taimī said: “I used to rent out (mounts) for this purpose (for Hajj), but people would say to me: ‘Your Hajj is not valid!’ So I met Ibn ‘Umar, and said: ‘O Abū ‘Abdur-Raḥmān, I am a person who rents out (mounts) for this purpose, but the people said to me that my Hajj is not valid.’ Ibn ‘Umar said: ‘Do you not wear the Ihrām, and say the Talbiyah, and perform the Tawāf around the Ka‘bah, and stand at ‘Arafāt, and pelt the (pillars) Jimār?’ I said: ‘Yes, I do.’ So he replied: ‘So you have (done) Hajj. A person came to the Prophet ﷺ and asked him exactly what you have asked me, but the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ remained silent and did not respond until this Verse was revealed: There is no sin on you if you seek the bounty of your Lord.^[1] Thereafter, the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ sent for him and recited this Verse to him, and said: 'Your Hajj (in this manner) is valid.'" (Ṣaḥīḥ) تخريج: [إسناده صحيح] أخرجه ابن خزيمة، ح: ٣٠٥١ من حديث العلاء بن المسيب به وصححه الحاكم: ٤٤٩/١ ووافقه الذهبي.

1734. It was reported from 'Aṭā' bin Abī Rabāḥ, from 'Ubaid bin 'Umair, from 'Abdullāh bin 'Abbās, that earlier (i.e., before Islam) during Hajj, they would engage in trade in Minā, and 'Arafāt, and the market place of Dhul-Majaz, and the areas that were frequented during Hajj. But they then feared engaging in trade while in the state of Ihrām, so Allāh revealed: (There is no sin upon you if you seek the bounty of your Lord during the Hajj season).^[1]

He said: "So 'Ubaid bin 'Umair narrated to me that he (Ibn 'Abbās) would recite it (the Verse) like this in the Muṣḥaf." (Ṣaḥīḥ) تخريج: [صحيح] أخرجه الحاكم: ٤٤٩/١ من حديث محمد بن عبدالرحمن بن أبي ذئب به وصححه ابن خزيمة، ح: ٣٠٥٤ والحاكم على شرط الشيخين ووافقه الذهبي وللحديث شاهد عند البخاري، ح: ١٧٧٠.

Comments:

The market place of Dhul-Majaz was near 'Arafah or, according to some others, near Mina.

1735. It was reported from Ibn Abī Dhī'b, from 'Ubaid bin 'Umair — Aḥmad bin Ṣāliḥ (one of the narrators) said something that means that he was the freed-slave of Ibn 'Abbās — from 'Abdullāh bin 'Abbās, that a group of people — in the early days of Hajj — would engage in trade. Then he

Chapter 7. Regarding A Child Performing Hajj

(المعجم ٧) بَابُ: فِي الصَّبِيِّ يَحُجُّ

(التحفة ٨)

1736. Ibn ‘Abbās narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ was at Ar-Rawḥā’ when he met a group of riders. He said Salām to them and asked: “Who are you?” They replied: “Muslims,” and asked: “And who are you?” They said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ.” A woman was startled (by the response), and then held on to a child’s arm, took the child out of her riding-tent, and said, “O Messenger of Allāh! Is there Hajj for him?” He replied: “Yes, and you will be rewarded.” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

حديث سفيان بن عيينة به وهو في المسند: ٢١٩/١.

Comments:

Children accompanying their parents or guardian may also perform the rites of Hajj as much as they can do by themselves, but when they cannot, they may be helped by the elders accompanying them to perform the remaining rites. However, when they grow up and reach the age of adolescence, they will be required to perform Hajj.

Chapter 8. Regarding The Miqāt

(المعجم ٨) بَابُ: فِي الْمَوَاقِيتِ (التحفة ٩)

1737. Ibn ‘Umar narrated: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ demarcated Dhul Ḥulaifah for the people of Al-Madīnah, and Al-Juḥfah for the people of Ash-Shām, and Qarn for the people of Najd (as Miqāt for Ihrām. And it was conveyed to me that he demarcated Yalamlam for the people of Yemen.” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

١٧٣٧ - حَدَّثَنَا [عبدالله بن مسلمة] الْقَعْنَبِيُّ عَنْ مَالِكٍ؛ ح: وَحَدَّثَنَا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ يُونُسَ: حَدَّثَنَا مَالِكٌ عَنْ نَافِعٍ، عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ: وَقَّتَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ لِأَهْلِ الْمَدِينَةِ ذَا

تخريج: أخرجه البخاري، الحج، باب ميقات أهل المدينة ولا يهلون قبل ذي الحليفة، ح: ١٥٢٥ ومسلم، الحج، باب مواقيت الحج والعمرة، ح: ١١٨٢ من حديث مالك به، وهو في الموطأ (يحيى): ٣٣٠/١.

1738. It was reported from ‘Amr bin Dīnār, from Ṭāwūs, from Ibn ‘Abbās, and from Ibn Ṭāwūs from Ṭāwūs; both said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ demarcated...” and mentioned its meaning (as no. 1737).

One of them said: “Yalamlam for the people of Yemen.” And one of them said: “Alamlam.” He said: “So these (places) are for these (lands), and for those who come to them from beyond these (lands), intending to perform Hajj or 'Umrah. And whoever is within these (places),” — Ibn Ṭāwūs said: “(then his Miqāt) from where he started” — He said: “The same, even for the people of Makkah, they enter Ihrām from it.” (Ṣaḥīḥ) تخريج: أخرجه البخاري، الحج، باب مهل أهل الشام، ح: ١٥٢٦ ومسلم، الحج، باب مواقيت الحج والعمرة، ح: ١١٨١ من حديث حماد بن زيد به.

Comments:

It is obligatory on a person intending to perform Hajj or 'Umrah to enter Ihrām at these places. It is not obligatory on the one who has no intention to perform Hajj or 'Umrah.

1739. ‘Āishah narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ demarcated Dhāt ‘Irq for the people of Al-‘Irāq. (Ṣaḥīḥ)

1740. It was reported from Muḥammad bin ‘Alī bin ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Abbās, from Ibn ‘Abbās, who said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ demarcated Al-‘Aqīq for the people of the east.” (Da‘īf)

١٧٤٠ - حَدَّثَنَا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ بْنُ حَبَلٍ: حَدَّثَنَا وَكَيْعٌ: حَدَّثَنَا سُفْيَانُ عَنْ يَزِيدِ ابْنِ أَبِي زَيْادٍ، عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ عَلِيٍّ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَبَّاسٍ، عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ: وَقَّتْ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ لِأَهْلِ الْمَشْرِقِ الْعَقِيقَ.

Comments:

The people of the east refers to regions lying east of Makkah, that is, Al-Iraq and the areas near Al-‘Irāq. ‘Aqīq is the name of a valley near Al-Madīnah, and also a valley near and opposite Dhāt ‘Irq. It is the later one that is referred to here.

1741. Umm Salamah, the Prophet’s ﷺ wife, narrated that she heard the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ say: “Whoever enters into Ihrām for Hajj or Umrah from Masjid Al-Aqsā (Jerusalem) to Masjid Al-Harām, then all of his previous and future sins will be forgiven” — or “Paradise will become obligatory for him.” ‘Abdullāh (one of the narrators) was not sure which of them it was. (Da‘īf)

Abū Dāwūd said: May Allāh have mercy on Wakī’, for he entered the state of Ihrām from Bait Al-Maqdis, meaning en route to Makkah.

قَالَ أَبُو دَاوُدَ: يَرْحَمُ اللَّهُ وَكَيْعًا، أَحْرَمَ مِنْ بَيْتِ الْمَقْدِسِ يَعْني إِلَى مَكَّةَ.

1742. Al-Hārith bin 'Amr As-Sahmī narrated: "I came to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ while he was in Mina, or 'Arafāt, and the people had surrounded him. The Bedouins would come, and when they would see his face, they would say: 'This is a blessed face.' And he (the Prophet ﷺ) demarcated Dhāt 'Irq for the people of Al-'Irāq." (Hasan)

Chapter 9. The Woman Entering Ihram For Hajj During Her Menses

(المعجم ٩) - بَابُ الْحَائِضِ تَهَلُّ بِالْحَجِّ (التحفة ١٠)

1743. 'Āishah narrated: "Asmā' bint Umais gave birth to Muḥammad bin Abī Bakr in Ash-Shajarah, so the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ commanded Abū Bakr (to tell her) that she should perform Ghusl and enter Ihram." (Ṣaḥīḥ)

١٧٤٣ - حَدَّثَنَا عُثْمَانُ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدَةُ عَنْ عُبَيْدِ اللَّهِ، عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ ابْنِ الْقَاسِمِ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ: نَفَسَتْ أَسْمَاءُ بِنْتُ عُمَيْسٍ بِمُحَمَّدِ بْنِ أَبِي بَكْرٍ بِالشَّجَرَةِ فَأَمَرَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ أَبَا بَكْرٍ أَنْ تَغْتَسِلَ وَتَهَلَّ.

Comments:

Shajarah refers to Dhul Hulaifah or Al-Baidā', the Miqāt for the people of Al-Madīnah.

1744. It was reported from Khuṣaif, from 'Ikrimah and Mujāhid, and 'Aṭā', from Ibn 'Abbās, that the Prophet ﷺ said: "If a woman in her menses or post-

Comments:

Menstruating women and those suffering from postnatal bleeding shall perform Ghusl and enter Ihrām for Hajj and 'Umrah. They shall perform the rites, except for Tawāf around the Ka'bah.

Chapter 10. Wearing Perfume While Entering The State Of Ihrām

(المعجم ١٠) - بَابُ الطِّيبِ عِنْدَ الْإِحْرَامِ
(التحفة ١١)

1745. It was reported from 'Abdur-Rahmān bin Al-Qāsim, from his father, from 'Āishah, that she said: "I would apply perfume to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ for his Ihrām before he would enter into it, and after he had exited from it — before he had performed Tawāf of the House." (Ṣaḥīḥ)

١٧٤٥ - حَدَّثَنَا الْقَعْنَبِيُّ وَأَحْمَدُ بْنُ يُونُسَ قَالَا: حَدَّثَنَا مَالِكٌ عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ الْقَاسِمِ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ: كُنْتُ أُطِيبُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ لِإِحْرَامِهِ قَبْلَ أَنْ يُحْرِمَ، وَإِحْلَالِهِ قَبْلَ أَنْ يَطُوفَ بِالْبَيْتِ.

1746. It was reported from Al-Aswad, from 'Āishah, may Allāh be pleased with her, that she said: "I can still see the traces of the musk in the parting (of the hair) of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ while he was in the state of Ihrām." (Ṣaḥīḥ)

١٧٤٦ - حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ الصَّبَّاحِ الْبِرَّازُ:
حَدَّثَنَا إِسْمَاعِيلُ بْنُ زَكَرِيَّا عَنِ الْحَسَنِ بْنِ

Comments:

Perfume may not be used after one has entered Ihrām.

Chapter 11. Talbīd (Matting The Hair)^[1]

(المعجم ١١) - بَابُ التَّلْبِيدِ (التحفة ١٢)

1747. Ibn 'Umar reported: "I heard the Prophet ﷺ (while in the state of Ihrām) uttering the Talbiyah, while his hair was matted." (Ṣaḥīḥ)

١٧٤٧ - حَدَّثَنَا سُلَيْمَانُ بْنُ دَاوُدَ
الْمَهْرِيُّ: حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ وَهْبٍ: أَخْبَرَنِي يُونُسُ
عَنِ ابْنِ شَهَابٍ، عَنْ سَالِمِ بْنِ يَعْنِي ابْنَ
عَبْدِ اللَّهِ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ

نَافِعٍ، عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ: أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ لَبَدَ رَأْسَهُ

تخریج: [إسناده ضعيف] أخرجه البيهقي: ٣٦/٥ من حديث عبيدالله بن عمر به، وصححه الذهبي على شرط مسلم في تلخيص المستدرک: ٤٥٠/١ * محمد بن إسحاق مدلس وعنن.

[1] Mention of this preceded in the chapters on purification. They used to apply a thick substance, like resin or gum from plants — for example natural marsh mallow, or other than it — to their hair, under certain circumstances, like the performance of Hajj and 'Umrah and other than that. They say that this was to help keep the hair together, to prevent it being consumed with dust and sand, and also to prevent lice and the like.

Comments:

Long hair may be kept together by some means to prevent it from getting too dirty during the journey. This is called Talbid and it is Sunnah.

Chapter 12. Regarding The Hadi^[1]

(المعجم ١٢) بَابُ: فِي الْهَدْيِ

(التحفة ١٣)

1749. Ibn Abi Najih narrated that Mujahid narrated to him, from Ibn 'Abbās, "That during the Year of Al-Hudaibiyah, the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ sent a camel that used to belong to Abū Jahl among his sacrificial animals. On its head (through its nose) was a silver ring." Ibn Minhāl (one of the narrators) said: "A gold ring." And An-Nufaili added: "He wanted to infuriate the pagans by this." (Hasan)

Chapter 13. On Sacrificial Cows

(المعجم ١٣) بَابُ: فِي هَدْيِ الْبَقَرِ

(التحفة ١٤)

1750. 'Aishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ, narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ performed Nahr (sacrifice) on behalf of his family during the Farewell Pilgrimage with one cow." (Sahih)

١٧٥٠ - حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ السَّرْحِ: حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ وَهَبٍ: أَخْبَرَنِي يُونُسُ عَنِ ابْنِ شِهَابٍ، عَنْ عَمْرَةَ بِنْتِ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ، عَنْ عَائِشَةَ زَوْجِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ: أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ نَحَرَ عَنْ آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ ﷺ فِي حَجَّةِ الْوَدَاعِ بَقْرَةً وَاحِدَةً.

[1] The animal offered for sacrifice by the Hajj Muhrim.

ح: ٣١٣٥ عن ابن السرح به وللحديث شاهد عند النسائي في الكبرى، ح: ٤١٢٩ وسنده حسن.

1751. Abū Hurairah narrated that the Prophet ﷺ sacrificed one cow on behalf of those of his wives who had performed 'Umrah. (Da'if)

تخريج: [إسناده ضعيف] أخرجه ابن ماجه، الأضاحي، باب: عن كم تجزىء البدينة والبقرة، ح: ٣١٣٣ من حديث الوليد بن مسلم به وصححه ابن حبان، ح: ٩٧٧ والحاكم على شرط الشيخين/١/٤٦٧ ووافقه الذهبي. وللحديث شواهد يحيى بن أبي كثير عنعن، وحديث البخاري: ١٧٠٩، ومسلم: ١٣١٩ يغني عنه.

Comments:

One sacrificial animal is sufficient for a man, his wife and children.

Chapter 14. On Marking (The Sacrificial Animals)^[1]

(المعجم ١٤) بَابُ: فِي الْإِشْعَارِ

(التحفة ١٥)

1752. It was reported from Qatādah, that he heard Abū Hassān report from Ibn 'Abbās that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ prayed Zuhr in Dhul-Hulāifah, then called for a camel. He marked it (slit it) on the top of its right hump, and removed (some of) its blood,^[2] and tied two sandals around it. He was then brought his (riding) camel. After he had sat on it and stood up with it, at Al-Baidā', he announced his Ihram for Hajj (with the Talbiyah).” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

١٧٥٢ - حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو الْوَلِيدِ الطَّيَالِسِيُّ وَحَفْصُ بْنُ عُمَرَ، الْمَعْنَى، قَالَا: حَدَّثَنَا شُعْبَةُ عَنْ قَتَادَةَ - قَالَ أَبُو الْوَلِيدِ قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ أَبَا حَسَّانَ - عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ: أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ صَلَّى الظُّهْرَ بِبَيْتِ الْحَلِيفَةِ ثُمَّ دَعَا بِبَدَنَةٍ فَأَشْعَرَهَا مِنْ صَفْحَةِ سَنَامِهَا الْأَيْمَنِ ثُمَّ سَلَّتِ الدَّمَ عَنْهَا وَقَلَّدَهَا بِنَعْلَيْنِ، ثُمَّ أُتِيَ بِرَاحِلَتِهِ، فَلَمَّا قَعَدَ عَلَيْهَا وَاسْتَوَتْ بِهِ عَلَى الْبَيْدَاءِ أَهَلَ بِالْحَجِّ.

[1] This marking was done so that it will be known that this animal is dedicated for sacrifice.

[2] They did this to make its blood flow out from there, as a way of visibly marking it.

Comments:

Marking (Al-Ash'ar) means making a small incision on the right side of a camel's hump, and allowing the blood to drain down. Al-Baidā' is the upper portion of the southern part of Dhul-Hulaifah. A traveller would pass by it on his way to Makkah.

1753. (Another chain with its meaning) He said: "He removed some of its blood with his hand."

Abū Dāwud said: Hammām reported it, and he said: "He removed (some of) its blood to flow from his finger." (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Abū Dāwud said: This is from the traditions of the people of Al-Baṣrah which they are alone with (narrating).

تخريج: [صحيح] انظر الحديث السابق وأخرجه البيهقي: ٢٣٢/٥ من حديث أبي داود به.

١٧٥٣ - حَدَّثَنَا مُسَدَّدٌ: حَدَّثَنَا يَحْيَى عَنْ شُعْبَةَ بِهَذَا الْحَدِيثِ بِمَعْنَى أَبِي الْوَلِيدِ. قَالَ: ثُمَّ سَلَّتِ الدَّمَ بِيَدِهِ.
قَالَ أَبُو دَاوُدَ: رَوَاهُ هَمَّامٌ قَالَ: سَلَّتِ الدَّمَ عَنْهَا بِإِصْبَعِهِ.
قَالَ أَبُو دَاوُدَ: هَذَا مِنْ سُنَنِ أَهْلِ الْبَصْرَةِ الَّذِينَ تَفَرَّدُوا بِهِ.

1754. Al-Miswar bin Makḥramah, and Marwān, both narrated: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ left (for Makkah) in the Year of Al-Hudaibiyah. When he reached Dhul-Hulaifah, he garlanded his sacrificial animal, marked it, and entered into the state of Ihrām." (Ṣaḥīḥ) ١٧٥٤ - حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الْأَعْلَى بْنُ حَمَادٍ: حَدَّثَنَا سُفْيَانُ بْنُ عُيَيْنَةَ عَنِ الزُّهْرِيِّ، عَنْ عُرْوَةَ، عَنِ الْمِسْوَرِ بْنِ مَخْرَمَةَ وَمَرْوَانَ أَنَّهُمَا قَالَا: خَرَجَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ عَامَ الْحُدَيْبِيَّةِ فَلَمَّا كَانَ بِبَيْتِ الْحَلِيفَةِ قَلَدَ الْهَدْيِ وَأَشْعَرَهُ وَأَحْرَمَ.

Chapter 15. On Substituting The Sacrificial Animals

1756. Ibn ‘Umar reported: “Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb had (assigned) a Bukht camel to offer as sacrifice, but he was offered three hundred Dinār for it. So he came to the Prophet ﷺ and said: ‘O Messenger of Allāh, I had assigned a Bukht camel for a Hadī, but I was offered three hundred Dinār for it. Should I sell it and buy with its price (other) camels?’ He replied: ‘No, sacrifice that very one.’” (Da‘if)
Abū Dāwud said: This was because he had already marked it.

قَالَ أَبُو دَاوُدَ: أَبُو عَبْدِ الرَّحِيمِ خَالِدُ بْنُ أَبِي زَيْدٍ خَالَ مُحَمَّدٍ يَعْنِي ابْنَ سَلَمَةَ، رَوَى عَنْهُ حَجَّاجُ بْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ عَنْ جَهْمِ بْنِ الْجَارُودِ، عَنْ سَالِمِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ قَالَ: أَهْدَى عُمَرُ بْنُ الْخَطَّابِ بُحْتِيًّا فَأَعْطِي بِهَا ثَلَاثَ مِائَةِ دِينَارٍ فَأَتَى النَّبِيَّ ﷺ فَقَالَ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ! إِنِّي أَهْدَيْتُ بُحْتِيًّا فَأَعْطَيْتُ بِهَا ثَلَاثَ مِائَةِ دِينَارٍ فَأَبِيعُهَا وَأَشْتَرِي بِثَمَنِهَا بُدْنًا؟ قَالَ: «لَا أَنْحَرَهَا إِلَّاهَا».

قَالَ أَبُو دَاوُدَ: هَذَا لِأَنَّهُ كَانَ أَشْعَرَهَا .

تخريج: [إسناده ضعيف] أخرجه أحمد: ١٤٥/٢ عن محمد بن سلمة به وشك ابن خزيمة في صحته، ح: ٢٩١١ * جهم أو شهيم وثقه ابن حبان وحده وجهله ابن خزيمة وغيره وهو الراجح.

Comments:

A camel specified as a Hadī may not be substituted by another animal.

Chapter 16. Regarding One Who Sends A Sacrificial Animal But Remains In Residence

1757. It was reported from Aflah bin Humaid, from Al-Qāsim, from ‘Āishah, who said: “I twisted the garlands of the Messenger of Allāh’s ﷺ sacrificial camel with my own two hands, and then he marked it and put the garlands on it, and sent it to the House (in

Comments:

Sending the sacrificial animal to Makkah does not dictate that a person has to abide by the rules of Ihrām; not until he or she enters into Ihrām.

1758. It was reported from Ibn Shihāb, from ‘Urwah and ‘Amrah bint ‘Abdur-Rahmān, that ‘Āishah said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ would send sacrificial animals from Al-Madīnah, and I would twist the garlands for his animals. And he would not abstain from anything that one in Ihrām would abstain from.” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

1759. It was reported from Ibn ‘Awn, from Al-Qāsim bin Muḥammad and from Ibrāhīm — he claimed that he heard it from the two of them, but he did not remember which of them it was from — that the two of them said: “Āishah, the Mother of the Believers said: ‘The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ sent a sacrificial animal, and I was the one who twisted the garlands with my own two hands from dyed cotton that we had. He then remained in a state outside of Ihrām, doing what a man would do with his wife.’” (Ṣaḥīḥ) تخریج: متفق عليه من حدیث القاسم بن محمد به انظر، ح: ۱۷۵۷.

Comments:

In fact, this Hadīth is a rejoinder to the those who maintain that when a person has put a garland around the neck of a Hadī and sent it off, all the obligations of a Muḥrim become binding on him. The Hadīth refutes their contention. The truth is that nobody becomes a Muḥrim, that is, nobody enters the ritual state of sanctity, unless he enters Ihrām.

Chapter 17. On Riding Sacrificial Animals

(المعجم ۱۷) بَابُ: فِي رُكُوبِ الْبَدَنِ

(التحفة ۱۸)

1760. Abū Hurairah narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ saw a man leading a sacrificial camel, so he said: "Ride it!" But he replied, "It is a sacrificial camel." So the Prophet ﷺ said, the second or third time: "Woe to you, ride it!" (Sahīh)

۱۷۶۰ - حَدَّثَنَا الْقَعْنَبِيُّ عَنْ مَالِكٍ، عَنْ أَبِي الزُّنَادِ، عَنِ الْأَعْرَجِ، عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ: أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ رَأَى رَجُلًا يَسُوقُ بَدَنَةً فَقَالَ: «ارْكَبْهَا» قَالَ: «إِنَّهَا بَدَنَةٌ قَالَ: «ارْكَبْهَا وَيْلَكَ» فِي الثَّانِيَةِ أَوْ فِي الثَّلَاثَةِ.

1761. Abū Az-Zubair said: "I asked Jābir bin 'Abdullāh about riding a sacrificial animal, so he replied: 'I heard the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ say: "Ride it in a just manner if you are forced to do so, until you are able to find another mount." (Sahīh)

تخریج: أخرجه مسلم، الحج، باب جواز ركوب البدنة المهداة لمن احتاج إليها، ح: ۱۳۲۴ من حدیث يحيى بن سعيد القطان به وهو في مسند أحمد: ۳/ ۳۱۷.

Comments:

There is no harm in riding a Hadī if need be.

Chapter 18. Regarding The Sacrificial Animal Being Unable To Continue Traveling Before Reaching (Makkah)

1762. Nājiyah Al-Aslamī narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ sent some sacrificial camels with him (to Makkah), and said: "If any of them cannot continue traveling, then slaughter it, dip its sandals in its blood, and leave it to the people."^[1] (Sahīh)

تخریج: [صحيح] أخرجه الترمذي، الحج، باب ما جاء إذا عطب الهدى ما يصنع به؟، ح: ٩١٠ وابن ماجه، ح: ٣١٠٦ من حديث هشام بن عروة به وصححه ابن خزيمة، ح: ٢٥٧٧ وابن حبان، ح: ٩٧٦: والحاكم على شرط الشيخين: ٤٤٧/١ ووافقه الذهبي وقال الترمذي: "حسن صحيح".

1763. Ibn 'Abbās narrated: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ sent so-and-so Al-Aslamī with eighteen camels, so he asked: 'What if some of them become too fatigued for me (to continue with)?' He said: 'Slaughter them, then dip their sandals in their blood and strike them on their humps, and do not eat from them — you or your companions.'" Or he said: "or your traveling-companions." (Sahīh)

Abū Dāwud said: The one that was alone in narrating this Hadīth said: "Do not eat from it — you or your traveling-companions."

And in the narration of 'Abdul-Wārith: "place them them on their humps" instead of: "strike them."

Abū Dāwud said: I heard Abū Salamah say: "When you maintain

Comments:

If the sacrificial animal gets too tired to move further or nears death, it should be slaughtered then and there, and the garland and sandals hung around its neck, marked with blood, as an indication to people that it was a sacrificial animal.

1764. It was reported from ‘Alī, that he said: “When the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ sacrificed his camels, he sacrificed thirty with his own hands, and he then commanded me to sacrifice the rest.” (Da‘īf)

According to other authentic narrations, the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ slaughtered sixty three camels himself and asked ‘Alī to slaughter the rest for him.

Even camels knew the high station of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, and felt honored to be slaughtered by his blessed hand.

1766. ‘Arafah bin Al-Hārith Al-Kindi^[1] narrated: “I witnessed, during the Farewell Pilgrimage, the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ being brought a sacrificial camel. He said: ‘Call Abūl-Ḥasan for me,’ so ‘Alī was called for. He told him: ‘Hold on to the lower part of the spear,’ while he held on to the top part of it. He then thrust it into the camel. After he had finished (the sacrifice), he sat upon his mule and placed ‘Alī with him.” (Da‘īf)

Chapter 21. The Time Of Ihrām

1770. It was reported from Sa'eed bin Jubair that he said to 'Abdullāh bin 'Abbās: "O Abū-'Abbās! I am amazed at how the Companions of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ have differed regarding when he entered the state of Ihrām." He replied: "I am the most knowledgeable person regarding this. Indeed, the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ only performed one Hajj, so they differed from this. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ left (Al-Madīnah) intending to perform Hajj, so when he prayed two Rak'ahs in his Masjid at Dhul-Hulaifah, he entered it (the state of Ihrām) at his sitting place (after prayer) — so he began saying the Talbiyahs for Hajj after he had completed the two Rak'ahs. Some people heard this from him and memorized it. He then mounted (his camel), and once his camel had stood up, he said the Talbiyah, and some people heard this. This is because people used to come to him in groups, so they heard him say it (the Talbiyah) when his camel stood up, so they said: 'The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ entered (into Ihrām) when his camel stood up.' The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ then continued onwards, until he had reached the peak of Al-Baidā', and he said the Talbiyah.

Some people heard this, so they said: 'He only entered into Ihrām after he had reached the peak of Al-Baidā.' By Allāh, he entered (into Ihrām) at his prayer place, and he announced (the Ihrām) after his camel had stood up, and he announced it after he had reached the peak of Al-Baydā'."

Sa'eed added: "So whoever took the saying of Ibn 'Abbās would enter into Ihrām after completing the two Rak'ahs at his place of prayer." (Da'if)

Prayer may be shortened only after one has set out on a journey. And so did the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, on reaching Dhul Hulaifah, the first stage of his journey (to Makkah).

1774. It was reported from Al-Ḥasan, from Anas bin Mālik that the Prophet ﷺ prayed Zuhr and then mounted his camel. Once he had reached the peak of Al-Baydā', he announced his Ihrām. (Saḥīh)

Chapter 22. Stipulating Conditions During Hajj

1776. Ibn ‘Abbās narrated that Dūbā‘ah bint Az-Zubair bin ‘Abdul-Muṭṭalib came to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and said: “O Messenger of Allāh! I wish to perform Hajj, should I make a condition?” He said: “Yes.” She asked: “So what should I say?” He said: “Say: ‘Labaik! Allāhumma labaik! Wa maḥillī minal-ardī haithu ḥabastanī. (I respond to your call O Allāh, I respond. And my place of leaving the (state of) Ihrām will be where You prevent me).’” (Ṣaḥīh)

Chapter 23. Performing The Ifrād Hajj

1777. It was reported from ‘Abdur-Raḥmān bin Al-Qāsim, from his father, from ‘Āishah, that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ performed Hajj by Ifrād (i.e., only Hajj). (Ṣaḥīh)

In such a situation, a woman should change her intention from 'Umrah to Hajj.

1779. It was reported from Abū Al-Aswad Muḥammad bin ‘Abdur-Raḥmān Ibn Nawfal, from ‘Urwah bin Az-Zubair, from ‘Āishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ, who said: “We went with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ during the year of the Farewell Pilgrimage. Some of us entered Ihrām for 'Umrah, and some of us entered Ihrām for Hajj and 'Umrah, and some of us entered Ihrām for Hajj (alone). The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ entered Ihrām for Hajj. 1781. Mālik reported from Ibn Shihāb, from 'Urwah bin Az-Zubair, from 'Āishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ, that she said: "We went with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ during the Farewell Pilgrimage, and entered Ihrām for 'Umrah. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ then said: 'Whoever has his sacrificial animals with him, let him announce his Ihrām for Hajj along with an 'Umrah, and let him not leave his state (of Ihrām) until he completes them both.' So I reached Makkah while I was in my menses, and I did not do the Tawāf around the House, nor (the Sa'ī) between Aṣ-Ṣafā and Al-Marwah. So I complained to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ because of that, and he said: 'Undo your hair, and comb it, and enter Ihrām for Hajj, and leave the 'Umrah.' So that is what I did, and once we had finished the Hajj, the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ sent me with 'Abdur-Raḥman bin Abī Bakr to Tan'im, and I performed 'Umrah. He said: 'This is in place of your 'Umrah.' So as for those who had entered Ihrām for 'Umrah, they performed the Tawāf around the House, and between Aṣ-Ṣafā and Al-Marwah, and then they left the state of Ihrām. Then they performed another Tawāf for their Hajj, after they had returned to Minā. As for those who had combined between the Hajj and

A person who originally puts on Ihrām to perform Hajj but carries no sacrificial animal with him, has the option to change his Ihrām into that for 'Umrah.

1783. It was reported from Ibrāhīm, from Al-Aswad, from ‘Āishah, that she said: “We left with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ only intending to perform Hajj. Once we arrived, we performed Tawāf of the House, and the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ commanded those who did not have any sacrificial animals to leave their Ihrām. In the pre-Islamic Age of Ignorance, it was considered a sin to perform 'Umrah along with Hajj or during the months of Hajj. That was why the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ gave this instruction.

1785. It was reported from Al-Laith, from Abū Az-Zubair, from Jābir, who said: “We came with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ having entered Ihrām for Hajj only (Ifrād), whereas ‘Aishah entered Ihrām for 'Umrah. But when she reached Sarf, she bled (with her menses). Once we arrived (in Makkah), we performed the Tawāf around the Ka‘bah, and between Aṣ-Ṣafā and Al-Marwah. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ commanded that those among us who did not have the sacrificial animals should leave their state of Ihrām. We said: ‘What is now permissible (for us)?’ He said: ‘Everything.’ So we went to (our) wives, and used perfume, and wore our (normal) clothes, even though there were only four nights between us and (the day of)

^[1] That is Muḥammad bin Yaḥyā bin Fāris, Adh-Dhuhli, the one that Abū Dāwud heard this from. And the “he” being referred too is ‘Uthmān bin ‘Umar, from whom Adh-Dhuhli heard the narration.

^[2] That is, Adh-Dhuhli said this, explaining the narration.

'Arafah. We then entered the Ihrām on the Day of Tarwiyah (the eighth of Dhul-Hijjah). The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ came to 'Aishah, but found her crying. He said: 'What is the matter?' She said: 'The matter is that my menses have started, and the people had left their Ihrām, but not me, and I did not perform Tawāf around the House. And now the people are going for Hajj!' So he said: 'This is a matter that Allāh has decreed for the daughters of Ādam, so perform Ghusl, then enter Ihrām for Hajj.' She did so, and stood along with the people (at 'Arafah), until, when she became pure, she performed the Tawāf of the House, and between Aş-Şafā and Al-Marwah. The Prophet ﷺ then said: 'You have now left the Ihrām after (performing) both Hajj and Umrah together.' She said: 'O Messenger of Allāh! I find myself (upset) that I did not perform the Tawāf around the House until after I had performed the Hajj.' So he said: 'So go, O 'Abdur-Raḥmān, and allow her to perform an Umrah from Tan'im,' and this was the night of Al-Ḥaşbah."^[1] (Ṣaḥīḥ)

1786. It was reported from Ibn Juraij, that Abū Az-Zubair informed him that he heard Jābir say: "The Prophet ﷺ came to 'Aishah." Mentioning some of this incident (as in no. 1785). He said:

Comments:

It is permissible to perform 'Umrah together with Hajj, and during the days of Hajj provided there is no problem or difficulty. It was considered a major sin to do so in the pre-Islamic Age of Ignorance.

Comments:

Literally, Qirān means “to join or connect.” Technically, it means the intent to perform Hajj and 'Umrah together. The procedure is to enter Ihrām to perform Hajj and 'Umrah along with a Hadī. On reaching Makkah, the pilgrim performs the rites of 'Umrah first but he is not free from the obligations of Ihrām upon the completion of the rites of 'Umrah. He remains in Ihrām until he has performed all the rites of Hajj. Only then shall he be free from Ihrām.

1796. It was reported from Abū Qilābah from Anas, that the Prophet ﷺ spent the night — meaning in Dhul-Ḥulaifah — until the morning. He then mounted (his camel). When he reached Al-Baidā', he praised Allāh, glorified Him and said the Takbīr, then entered Ihrām for Hajj and 'Umrah. The people did likewise. When he arrived (at Makkah), he ordered the people to exit from their Ihrām, until the Day of Tarwiyah (the eighth of Dhul-Ḥijjah), when they entered into Ihrām for Hajj. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ sacrificed seven camels with his own hands, while they were standing. (Saḥīh)

Abū Dāwud said: Anas alone narrated that the Prophet ﷺ began by praising Allāh, glorifying him, and saying the Takbīr, then began the Talbiyah.

These narrations are varied, not inconsistent, the variety owing to the various experiences of Companions, each narrating what he heard or saw.

1797. Al-Barā' bin 'Azib narrated: “I was with 'Alī, may Allāh be pleased with him, when the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ placed him as a governor of Yemen. I obtained some amount (of gold) with him.

When 'Alī reached the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, from Yemen, he found Fāṭimah (may Allāh be pleased with her) wearing dyed clothes, and she had perfumed the house with Nadūh.^[1] She said: 'What is the matter with you? For the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ has commanded his Companions to leave the state of Ihrām.' He said to her: 'I have entered Ihrām for the same (rites) as the Prophet ﷺ.' He then went to the Prophet ﷺ, who said to him: 'What have you done?' He said: 'I have entered Ihrām for the same (rites) as the the Prophet ﷺ.' So the Prophet ﷺ said: 'As for me, I have brought my Hadī with me, and combined (Qirān).' He then said: 'Sacrifice sixty-seven, or sixty-six, camels, and keep for yourself thirty-three, or thirty-four. And take from every animal a small portion (of meat) for me.'" (Da'if)

الْيَمَنِ، قَالَ: فَأَصَبْتُ مَعَهُ أَوْاقًا قَالَ: فَلَمَّا قَدِمَ عَلَيَّ مِنَ الْيَمَنِ عَلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ قَالَ: وَجَدْتُ فَاطِمَةَ [رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهَا] قَدْ لَبَسَتْ ثِيَابًا صَبِيغًا وَقَدْ نَضَحَتِ الْبَيْتَ بِبُضُوحٍ فَقَالَتْ: مَا لَكَ؟ فَإِنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ قَدْ أَمَرَ أَصْحَابَهُ فَأَحْلُوا. قَالَ: قُلْتُ لَهَا: إِنِّي أَهْلَلْتُ بِإِهْلَالِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ. قَالَ: فَأَتَيْتِ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ فَقَالَ لِي: «كَيْفَ صَنَعْتَ؟» قَالَ: قُلْتُ: أَهْلَلْتُ بِإِهْلَالِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ. قَالَ: «فَإِنِّي قَدْ سَفَّتُ الْهَدْيَ وَقَرَنْتُ». قَالَ: فَقَالَ لِي: «انْحُرْ مِنَ الْبَدَنِ سَبْعًا وَسِتِّينَ أَوْ سِتًّا وَسِتِّينَ، وَأَمْسِكْ لِتَنْفَسِكَ ثَلَاثًا وَثَلَاثِينَ أَوْ أَرْبَعًا وَثَلَاثِينَ، وَأَمْسِكْ لِي مِنْ كُلِّ بَدَنَةٍ مِنْهَا بَضْعَةً».

1798. Aṣ-Ṣubāi bin Ma'bad said: "I began the Talbiyah for both of them (Hajj and Umrah) together, so 'Umar said to me, 'You have been guided to the Sunnah of your Prophet.'" (Ṣaḥīh)

[1] Its meaning is "diffused" or "effused" and they say that it is a type of perfume mixture whose fragrance is diffused.

1799. (Another chain of narration) Aṣ-Ṣubāī bin Ma‘bad, who said: “I was a Bedouins man and a Christian, and then I accepted Islam. I went to a relative of mine by the name of Hudaim bin Thurmulah, and said: ‘O so-and-so! I am eager for Jihād, and I see that Hajj and Umrah are obligatory on me, so how can I combine between them?’ He said: ‘Combine (the two together), and slaughter what you are able for the Hadī.’ So I entered Ihrām for both of them together. When I reached Al-‘Udhaib, I met Salmān bin Rabi‘ah and Zaid bin Ṣūhān — and had begun the Talbiyah for both of them (together). So one of them said to the other: ‘This person is as ignorant as his camel!’ And it was as if they had thrown a mountain on me! So I went to ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb, may Allāh be pleased with him, and said: ‘O Commander of the Believers, I was a Bedouins man, and a Christian, and then I accepted Islam. And I am eager for Jihād, and I saw that Hajj and Umrah are obligatory on me, so I went to a relative of mine, who told me: ‘Combine (the two) together, and slaughter what you are able to for the Hadī.’ So I began the Talbiyah for both of them together.’ ‘Umar said to me: ‘You have been guided to the Sunnah of your Prophet ﷺ.’” (Ṣaḥīh)

1805. 'Abdullāh bin 'Umar narrated: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ performed Tammatu' with 'Umrah, joining it into Hajj during the Farewell Pilgrimage, and he gave the Hadī, and he brought the Hadī with him from Dhūl-Hulāifah. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ began with the Talbiyah for 'Umrah, and then the Talbiyah for Hajj. And the people also performed Tammatu' with 'Umrah, joining it into Hajj along with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ. Some people had a Hadī so they brought the Hadī with them, while others did not have a Hadī. When the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ arrived in Makkah, he told the people: 'Whoever among you has a Hadī, then nothing that has become prohibited upon him will become permissible, until he completes his Hajj. But whoever among you does not have a Hadī, then let him perform Tawāf around the House, and between Aṣ-Ṣafā and Al-Marwah, and cut his hair, and then let him exit the state of Ihrām. Then he walked at a brisk pace for three circuits of the seven, and walked normally for the (remaining) four. After he had finished the Tawāf, he prayed two Rak‘ah behind the Station (of Ibrāhīm), and said the Taslīm. He then turned and went toward Aş-Şafā, and went between Aş-Şafā and Al-Marwah seven times. He did not leave his state of Ihrām until he had completed his Hajj and sacrificed his Hadī on the Day of Sacrifice, and performed the Tawāf of the House. Then everything that had been prohibited for him became permissible (he left the state of Ihrām). Those who had brought a Hadī with them did exactly as the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ did.” (Şahīh)

Comments:

The wives of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, exited Ihrām because they had not brought the sacrificial animals along with them. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, however, remained in the state of Ihrām.

Chapter (...) A Person Entering Ihrām For Hajj And Then Changing It To 'Umrah

(المعجم...) - بَابُ الرَّجُلِ يَهْلُ بِالْحَجِّ
ثُمَّ يَجْعَلُهَا عُمْرَةً (التحفة ٢٥)

1807. Sulaim bin Al-Aswad narrated that Abū Dharr used to say regarding those who had (intended) Hajj and then cancelled it in favor of 'Umrah: "This was only for those who accompanied the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ." (Da'if)

١٨٠٧ - حَدَّثَنَا هَنَادٌ يَعْنِي ابْنَ السَّرِيِّ
عَنِ ابْنِ أَبِي زَائِدَةَ: أَخْبَرَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ إِسْحَاقَ
عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ الْأَسْوَدِ، عَنْ سُلَيْمِ بْنِ
الْأَسْوَدِ: أَنَّ أَبَا ذَرٍّ كَانَ يَقُولُ فِي مَنْ حَجَّ ثُمَّ
فَسَخَّهَا بِعُمْرَةٍ لَمْ يَكُنْ ذَلِكَ إِلَّا لِلرَّكِبِ الَّذِينَ
كَانُوا مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ.

1808. It was reported from Al-Ḥārith bin Bilāl bin Al-Ḥārith, from his father who said: "O Messenger of Allāh! cancelling (the Ihrām of Hajj (in lieu of an 'Umrah) — is it specific for us, or for those after us?" He replied: "Rather, it is specifically for you." (Da'if)

١٨٠٨ - حَدَّثَنَا الثَّقَلِيُّ: أَخْبَرَنَا عَبْدُ
الْعَزِيزِ يَعْنِي ابْنَ مُحَمَّدٍ: أَخْبَرَنَا رَبِيعَةُ بْنُ أَبِي
عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ عَنِ الْحَارِثِ بْنِ بِلَالِ بْنِ
الْحَارِثِ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ قَالَ: قُلْتُ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ!
فَسَخُّ الْحَجِّ لَنَا خَاصَّةٌ أَوْ لِمَنْ بَعْدَنَا؟ قَالَ:

Chapter 25. A Person Performing Hajj On Behalf Of Another

1809. ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Abbās narrated: “Al-Faḍl bin ‘Abbās was riding on the same mount along with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, when a woman from the tribe of Khath‘am came to him seeking a verdict. He (Al-Faḍl) began staring at her, and she at him, but the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ turned Al-Faḍl’s face to the other side. She said: ‘O Messenger of Allāh! Allāh’s obligation of Hajj upon His servants has found my father an old man — he cannot sit upon a mount. May I perform Hajj on his behalf?’ He replied: ‘Yes,’ and this was during the Farewell Pilgrimage.” (Sahih) تخریج: أخرجه البخاري، الحج، باب وجوب الحج وفضله... إلخ، ح: ١٥١٣ ومسلم، الحج، باب الحج عن العاجز لزمانة وهرم ونحوهما أو للموت، ح: ١٣٣٤ من حديث مالك به وهو في الموطأ (يحيى): ٣٥٩/١.

Comments:

If a person is critically sick and there is little hope he can get well again, another person may perform a surrogate (substitute) Hajj on his behalf. In case there is hope he will get better, he has to wait until he regains his health. A woman may perform a surrogate Hajj for her father provided she has already performed her obligatory Hajj.

1810. It was reported from Abū Razīn that he asked: “O Messenger of Allāh! My father is an old man who cannot perform Hajj, or ‘Umrah, or (ride) a mount.” He replied: “Perform Hajj and ‘Umrah on behalf of your father.” (Sahih)

(المعجم ٢٥) - بَابُ الرَّجُلِ يَحُجُّ عَنْ غَيْرِهِ (التحفة ٢٦)

١٨١٠ - حَدَّثَنَا حَفْصُ بْنُ عَمْرٍو وَمُسْلِمٌ ابْنُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ، بِمَعْنَاهُ، قَالَا: حَدَّثَنَا شُعْبَةُ عَنْ الثُّعْمَانِ بْنِ سَالِمٍ، عَنْ عَمْرٍو بْنِ أَوْسٍ، عَنْ أَبِي رَزِينٍ - قَالَ حَفْصٌ فِي حَدِيثِهِ: رَجُلٌ مِنْ بَنِي غَامِرٍ - أَنَّهُ قَالَ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ! إِنَّ أَبِي شَيْخٌ كَبِيرٌ لَا يَسْتَطِيعُ الْحَجَّ وَالْعُمْرَةَ وَلَا الظَّنَّ قَالَ: «أَحُجُّ عَنْ أَبِيكَ وَاعْتَمِرْ».

Comments:

According to Imām Aḥmad, there is no Hadīth better than this one to prove that Umrah is obligatory.

1811. It was reported from Ibn ‘Abbās that the Prophet ﷺ feared a man saying: “Labbaik (Here I am) from Shubrumah.” So he said: “Who is Shubrumah?” He said: “My brother.” Or: “A relative of mine.” He said: “Have you performed Hajj for yourself yet?” He said: “No.” So he said: “Perform Hajj for yourself, then perform Hajj for Shubrumah.” (Da‘īf)

A surrogate Hajj may be performed by a person only if he has already performed his own obligatory Hajj.

Chapter 26. The Procedure Of The Talbiyah

(المعجم ٢٦) بَابُ: كَيْفَ التَّلْبِيَّةِ
(التحفة ٢٧)

1812. It was reported from Nāfi‘, from ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar that the Talbiyah of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ was as follows: “Labbaik! Allāhumma labbaik! Lā sharika laka labbaik! Innal-ḥamda wanni‘mata laka, wal-mulka, lā sharika laka (I respond to Your call, O Allāh, I respond to Your call. I

Chapter 28. When Should The One Performing 'Umrah Discontinue The Talbiyah ?

1817. It was reported from Ibn Abī Lailā, from 'Atā', from Ibn 'Abbās, from the Prophet ﷺ that he said: "The one performing 'Umrah should continue the Talbiyah until he touches the (Black) Stone."

(Da'if)

Abū Dāwud said: It was reported by 'Abdul-Mālik bin Abī Sulaimān, and Hammām, from 'Atā', from Ibn 'Abbās, in Mawqūf form.

Chapter 29. The One In Ihrām Who Disciplines His Slave

1818. It was reported from Asmā' bint Abī Bakr, that she said: "We went with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ for Hajj. When we reached Al-'Arj, the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ camped, and we camped with him. 'Āishah sat next to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, and I sat next to my father. Abū Bakr, may Allāh be pleased with him, and the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ both had one camel, which, along with their provisions, was with a slave of Abū Bakr. Abū Bakr waited for him to return, but when he came, he did not had the camel. He said: 'Where is your camel?' He replied: 'I lost it

Chapter 30. A Person Entering Into Ihrām While Wearing His Regular Clothes

1819. It was reported from Ṣafwān bin Ya'lā bin Umayyah, from his father that a person came to the Prophet ﷺ while he was at Al-Ji'irānah, and he had traces of Khalūq — or he said: "Saffron." — on him. He was wearing a Jubbah. He said: "O Messenger of Allāh! What do you command me to do regarding my 'Umrah?' So Allāh, Blessed and Most High, revealed Revelation to the Prophet ﷺ, and after it was complete, he said: "Where is the person who was asking about the 'Umrah? Wash the traces of Khalūq off from you" or: "the traces of saffron," — and take off your Jubbah, and do in your 'Umrah as you do in your Hajj." (Ṣaḥīh)

Chapter 31. What The Muḥrim Should Wear

(المعجم ٣١) - بَابُ مَا يَلْبَسُ الْمُحْرِمُ

(التحفة ٣٢)

1823. It was reported from Az-Zuhrī, from Sālim, from his father (Ibn 'Umar) who said: "A man asked the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ what the Muḥrim should avoid wearing? So he replied: "He should not wear a Qamis, nor a Bumus, nor trousers, nor a turban, nor a garment which has been touched by Wars or saffron, nor Khuffs — except one who does not find sandals. If one does not find sandals, then he may wear Khuffs but let him cut them so that they are below his ankles." (Sahih)

1825. It was reported from Al-Laith, from Nāfi', from Ibn 'Umar,

١٨٢٥ - حَدَّثَنَا قُتَيْبَةُ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ: حَدَّثَنَا اللَّيْثُ عَنْ نَافِعٍ، عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ

from the Prophet ﷺ, with its meaning (similar to no. 1823), and he added: "And a woman should not cover her face, nor should she wear gloves." (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Abū Dāwud said: Ḥātim bin Ismā'il and Yaḥyā bin Ayyūb reported this Hadīth from Mūsā bin 'Uqbah, from Nāfi', with the same as what Al-Laith said. Mūsā bin Ṭāriq reported it from Mūsā bin 'Uqbah in Mawqūf form from Ibn 'Umar. And similarly, 'Ubaidullāh bin 'Umar, Mālik, and Ayyūb reported it in Mawqūf form. And Ibrāhīm bin Sa'eed (Al-Madānī) reported it from Nāfi', from Ibn 'Umar, from the Prophet ﷺ: "The Muḥrimah is not to cover her face nor wear gloves."

Abū Dāwud said: Ibrāhīm bin Sa'eed (Al-Madānī) is a Shaiikh from the people of Al-Madīnah, there are not many narrations for him.

1827. It was reported from Ibn Ishāq who said: "Nāfi', the freed slave of 'Abdullāh bin 'Umar narrated to me, from 'Abdullāh bin 'Umar, that he heard the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ prohibit women in Ihrām from wearing gloves and the face-veil, and any garment that was touched by Wars or saffron. And she may wear whatever else she pleased of any garments, regardless of color, whether it is Mu'asfar,^[1] or silk. (She may also wear) a Hullah, trousers, and Qamiṣ, and Khuff. (Hasan)

Abū Dāwud said: 'Abdah also reported this from Ibn Ishāq, from Nāfi', as did Muḥammad bin Salamah, from Muḥammad bin Ishāq, up to his saying: "And any garment that was touched by Wars or saffron." And they did not mention what is after it.

Chapter 37. A Muḥrim Bathing

(المعجم ٣٧) - بَابُ الْمُحْرِمِ يَغْتَسِلُ

(التحفة ٣٨)

1840. It was reported from Ibrāhīm bin 'Abdullāh bin Ḥunain, from his father, that 'Abdullāh bin 'Abbās and Al-Miswar bin Makḥramah had a disagreement when they were at Al-Abwā'. Ibn 'Abbās said: 'A Muḥrim may wash his hair,' whereas Al-Miswar said: 'A Muḥrim cannot wash his hair.' So 'Abdullāh bin 'Abbās sent me to Abū Ayyūb Al-Anṣārī. I found him taking a bath between two (wooden) posts, having screened himself with a garment. I gave him Salām, so he asked: 'Who is this?' I said: 'I am 'Abdullāh bin Ḥunain. 'Abdullāh bin 'Abbās sent me to you in order to ask you how the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ would wash his hair while he was in the state of Ihrām.' So Abū Ayyūb placed his hand on the garment and lowered it so that I could see his head. He said to someone who was pouring water over him: 'Pour some,' so he

Comments:

This Ḥadīth proves that a person in Ihrām may take a bath, or shower, as well as wash his head, no matter whether it is an obligatory Ghusl or for relief and comfort. It does not matter if, in the course of bath, some hair falls off while washing.

(التحفة ٣٩)

1841. It was reported from Nāfi', from Nubaih bin Wahb, one of the brethren of Banū 'Abdud-Dār, that 'Umar bin 'Ubaidullāh sent someone to Abān bin 'Uthmān bin 'Affān — and he was the leader of the Hajj that year. They were both in the state of Ihrām. He asked: 'I wish to marry Talḥah bin 'Umar to the daughter Shaibah bin Jubair, and I want you to attend as well.' But Abān disapproved of that, and said that he had heard his father, 'Uthmān bin 'Affān, say that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: 'A Muḥrim is not to marry, nor should he marry others.'" (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Chapter 40. The Meat Of Game For The Muḥrim

(المعجم ٤٠) - بَابُ لَحْمِ الصَّيْدِ لِلْمُحْرِمِ
(التحفة ٤١)

1849. It was reported from Ishāq bin ‘Abdullāh bin Al-Ḥārith that his father — Al-Ḥārith, who was the deputy for ‘Uṭhmān, may Allāh be pleased with him, over At-Ṭā’if — prepared some food for ‘Uṭhmān, which included quail, partridge and wild game. He sent some to ‘Alī, may Allāh be pleased with him. When the messenger came to him, he was collecting leaves for his camels, shaking them off of his hand. The messenger said: ‘Eat.’ He replied: ‘Give it to those who are not in the state of Ihrām, for we are in Ihrām.’ Then ‘Alī, may Allāh be pleased with him said: ‘I ask, by Allāh, those of the (tribe) of Ashja’ that are here: Do you not know that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ was given a onager to eat from while he was in the state of Ihrām, and he refused to eat of it?’ They replied: ‘Yes.’” (Da’if)

Comments:

It is prohibited for a person in the state of Ihrām to hunt animals on land or to cooperate with, or help a hunter in his hunt. If an animal is hunted with the intention to feed persons in the state of Ihrām, it is not permissible for them to accept the invitation.

1850. It was reported from 'Aṭā', from Ibn 'Abbās that he said: "O Zaid bin Arqam, do you know about the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ having been given the shank of an (animal) that had been hunted, and he did not accept it, saying: 'I am in the state of Ihrām?'” Zaid replied: "Yes." (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Comments:

Being prevented, or Iḥṣār refers to the case when something occurs that restricts a person's ability to complete the rites of Hajj, like the passage being cut off, severe sickness, broken bones, etc.

1863. (Another chain) from 'Ikrimah, from 'Abdullāh bin Rāfi', from Al-Ḥajjāj bin 'Amr, from the Prophet ﷺ, that he said: "Whoever breaks (a limb) or is afflicted with a limp, or becomes (too) ill" — and he mentioned its meaning. (Ṣaḥīh)

1864. It was reported from 'Amr bin Maimūn who said: "I heard Abū Hāḍir Al-Himyārī narrating to Abū Maimūn bin Mihrān, he said: "I went to perform 'Umrah the year that the people of Ash-Shām had besieged Ibn Az-Zubair in Makkah. People from my tribe had sent their Hadī with me. When we reached the people of Ash-Shām, they prevented us from entering the Sacred Precinct, so I sacrificed the animals at that place, and left the state of Ihrām, and then returned home. The next year, I went again in order to make up my 'Umrah, and went to Ibn 'Abbās and asked him about it. He said: 'Substitute your animals, for the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ commanded his Companions to substitute their animals that they had sacrificed in Al-Hudaibiyah during the 'Umrah of Qadā.'" Chapter 44. Entering Makkah

(المعجم ٤٤) - بَابُ دُخُولِ مَكَّةَ

(التحفة ٤٥)

1865. It was reported from Ayyūb, from Nāfi', that Ibn 'Umar would spend the night at Dhī Tuwā before entering Makkah. Then, in the morning, he would perform Ghusl, and enter Makkah during the day. He would mention that the Prophet ﷺ used to do the same. (Sahīh)

Chapter 45. Raising One's Hand When Seeing The House

(المعجم ٤٥) بَابُ: فِي رَفْعِ الْيَدِ إِذَا رَأَى الْبَيْتَ (التحفة ٤٦)

1870. Al-Muhājir Al-Makkī said that Jābir bin 'Abdullāh was asked about a person raising his hands upon seeing the House. He said: "I did not think that anyone would do this except the Jews. And we performed Hajj with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, and he did not use to do it." (Ḍa'īf)

١٨٧٠ - حَدَّثَنَا يَحْيَى بْنُ مَعِينٍ: أَنَّ مُحَمَّدَ بْنَ جَعْفَرٍ حَدَّثَهُمْ: حَدَّثَنَا شُعْبَةُ سَمِعْتُ أَبَا قُرَظَةَ يُحَدِّثُ عَنِ الْمُهَاجِرِ الْمَكِّيِّ قَالَ: سَأَلَ جَابِرُ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ عَنِ الرَّجُلِ يَرَى الْبَيْتَ يَرْفَعُ يَدَيْهِ؟، فَقَالَ: مَا كُنْتُ أَرَى أَحَدًا يَفْعَلُ هَذَا إِلَّا الْيَهُودَ، فَذُحِّجْنَا مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ فَلَمْ يَكُنْ يَفْعَلُهُ.

Comments:

All the narrations relating to this case are weak. There is no proof that it is Sunnah to raise up one's hands on seeing the House of Allāh.

1871. It was reported from 'Abdullāh bin Rabāh Al-Anṣārī, from Abū Hurairah, that when he entered Makkah, the Prophet ﷺ, performed Tawāf around the House, and prayed two Rak'ah behind the Station (of Ibrāhīm) — meaning on the Day of Conquest. (Ṣaḥīḥ) تخریج: [إسناده صحيح] أخرجه النسائي في الكبرى، ح: ١١٢٩٨ من حديث سلام بن مسكين ومسلم، الجهاد، باب فتح مكة، ح: ١٧٨٠ من حديث ثابت البناني به.

١٨٧٢ - حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ حَبَّالٍ: حَدَّثَنَا بِهِزُ بْنُ أَسَدٍ وَهَاشِمٌ يَعْنِي ابْنَ الْقَاسِمِ قَالَا: حَدَّثَنَا سُلَيْمَانُ بْنُ الْمُعِيرَةَ عَنْ ثَابِتٍ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ ابْنِ رَبَاحٍ، عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ: أَقْبَلَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ فَدَخَلَ مَكَّةَ، فَأَقْبَلَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ إِلَى الْحَجَرِ فَاسْتَلَمَهُ ثُمَّ طَافَ بِالْبَيْتِ ثُمَّ أَتَى الصَّفَا فَعَلَاهُ حَيْثُ يُنْظَرُ إِلَى الْبَيْتِ، فَرَفَعَ يَدَيْهِ فَجَعَلَ يَذْكُرُ اللَّهَ عَزَّوَجَلَّ مَا شَاءَ أَنْ يَذْكُرَهُ وَيَدْعُوهُ. قَالَ: وَالْأَنْصَارُ تَحْتَهُ. قَالَ هَاشِمٌ: فَدَعَا وَحَمِدَ اللَّهَ وَدَعَا بِمَا شَاءَ أَنْ يَدْعُوهُ.

Comments:

When one has climbed Aṣ-Ṣafā, one should face the Ka'bah and raise up one's hands in supplication.

Chapter 46. On Kissing The Black Stone

(المعجم ٤٦) بَابُ: فِي تَقْبِيلِ الْحَجَرِ

(التحفة ٤٧)

1873. ‘Abis bin Rabī’ah narrated that ‘Umar, may Allāh be pleased with him, came to the (Black) Stone and kissed it, then said: “I know that you are only a stone that can neither benefit nor harm (anything). And were it not for the fact that I saw the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ kiss you, I would not kiss you.” (Sahīh)

١٨٧٣ - حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ كَثِيرٍ: أَخْبَرَنَا سُفْيَانُ عَنِ الْأَعْمَشِ، عَنِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ، عَنِ عَائِيسِ بْنِ رَبِيعَةَ، عَنِ عُمَرَ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ: أَنَّهُ جَاءَ إِلَى الْحَجَرِ فَقَبَّلَهُ فَقَالَ: إِنِّي أَعْلَمُ أَنَّكَ حَجَرٌ لَا تَنْفَعُ وَلَا تَضُرُّ، وَلَوْلَا أَنِّي رَأَيْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَقْبَلُكَ مَا قَبَّلْتُكَ.

Comments:

It is reprehensible (Makrūh) to kiss anything out of reverence for it, without a supporting proof in Islamic law.

Chapter 47. Touching The (Other) Corners

(المعجم ٤٧) - بَابُ اسْتِلامِ الْأَرْكَانِ

(التحفة ٤٨)

1874. It was reported from Laith, from Ibn Shihāb, from Sālim, from Ibn ‘Umar, who said: “I did not see the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ touch any corners of the House except for the two southern ones.”^[1] (Sahīh)

١٨٧٤ - حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو الْوَلِيدِ الطَّيَالِسِيُّ: حَدَّثَنَا لَيْثٌ عَنِ ابْنِ شِهَابٍ، عَنِ سَالِمٍ، عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ: لَمْ أَرِ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَمْسُحُ مِنَ الْبَيْتِ إِلَّا الرُّكْنَيْنِ الْيَمَانِيِّينِ.

he was informed of ‘Āishah’s statement: “Part of the Hijr is (included) in the House.” Ibn ‘Umar said: “By Allāh, I think that ‘Āishah heard this from the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ. I think that the only reason the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ left touching those two corners is because they were not built on the foundations of the House. And the only reason that people perform Tawāf from behind the Hijr is because of this.” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Comments:

During Tawāf one must pass outside the Hijr, also referred to as the Ḥaṭīm (the unroofed portion of the Ka’bah on the northern side).

1876. It was reported from ‘Abdul-‘Azīz bin Abī Rawwād, from Nāfi‘, from Ibn ‘Umar, who said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ would never leave touching the Yemeni corner and the Stone in each of his circuits.” Nāfi‘ said: “And ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar would do the same.” (Ḥasan)

تخريج: [إسناده حسن] أخرجه النسائي، مناسك الحج، باب استلام الركنين في كل طواف، ح: ٢٩٥٠ من حديث يحيى القطان به.

Comments:

One should kiss the Black Stone or touch it with one’s hand, as for the Yemeni Corner, one should only touch it.

Chapter 48. Regarding The Obligatory Tawāf

(المعجم ٤٨) - بَابُ الطَّوَافِ الْوَاجِبِ

Comments:

1. According to an authentic narration, the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, used to touch the Black Stone with his stick, and also kiss the stick. — (Ṣaḥīḥ Muslim, Ḥadīth no.1275)
2. The reason why the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ performed Tawāf of the Ka'bah while riding a camel was to enable the people to see clearly how he performed the act of circumambulation.

1878. Ṣafiyyah bint Shaibah narrated: “After the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ arrived in Makkah and rested during the Year of Conquest, he performed Tawāf upon a camel, touching the Corner with a Mihjan in his hand, while I was looking at him.” (Ḥasan)

١٨٧٨ - حَدَّثَنَا مُصَرِّفُ بْنُ عَمْرٍو الْيَامِيُّ: حَدَّثَنَا يُونُسُ بْنُ بَكَيْرٍ: حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ إِسْحَاقَ: حَدَّثَنِي مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ جَعْفَرِ بْنِ الزُّبَيْرِ عَنْ عُبَيْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ أَبِي نَوْرٍ، عَنْ صَفِيَّةَ بِنْتِ شَيْبَةَ قَالَتْ: لَمَّا أَطْمَأَنَّ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ بِمَكَّةَ عَامَ الْفَتْحِ طَافَ عَلَى بَعِيرٍ يَسْتَلِمُ الرُّكْنَ بِمِخْجَنِ فِي يَدِهِ. قَالَتْ: وَأَنَا أَنْظَرُ إِلَيْهِ.

1880. Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh narrated: “The Prophet ﷺ performed Tawāf during the Farewell Pilgrimage upon his camel, and (he also rode it) between Aş-Şafā and Al-Marwah, so that people could see him, above them, and that they may ask him, for the people had surrounded him.” (Sahih) تخریج: أخرجه مسلم، الحج، باب جواز الطواف على بعير وغيره ... إلخ، ح: ١٢٧٣ من حديث ابن جريج به.

1881. It was reported from ‘Ikrimah, from Ibn ‘Abbās that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ entered Makkah while he was suffering from an ailment, so he performed Tawāf upon his camel. Every time he passed the Corner, he would touch it with his Mihjan. After he had finished his Tawāf, he sat his camel down and prayed two Rak’ah. (Da’if)

Chapter 50. Ar-Ramal (Walking Briskly During Ṭawāf)

1885. Abū Aṭ-Ṭufail said to Ibn ‘Abbās: “Your people say that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ walked briskly (Ramal) around the House, and that it is a Sunnah.” He replied: “They have told the truth, and they are mistaken.” He said: “And how have they told the truth, and how are they mistaken?” He replied, “They told the truth: The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ walked briskly around the House. And they are mistaken: It is not a Sunnah. The Quraiṣh said, during the time of Al-Hudaibiyah: ‘Leave Muḥammad and his Companions until they die the death of An-Naghaf.’^[1] So when they agreed to come the following year and stay in Makkah for three days, the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ came while the pagans were in the direction of Mount Qu‘aiqī‘ān. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said to his Companions: ‘Walk briskly around the House three times,’ and it is not a Sunnah.” He then said: “Your people say that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ went between Aṣ-Ṣafā and Al-Marwah upon his camel, and that it is a Sunnah.” He replied: “They have told the truth, and they are mistaken.” He said: “And how have they told the truth, and how

It is a Sunnah for males to walk briskly with a wide gait during the first three rounds of Ṭawāf Al-Qudūm (the Ṭawāf of Arrival), it is called Ramal.

1886. It was reported from Sa'eed bin Jubair, who narrated from Ibn 'Abbās, that he said: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ came to Makkah and the fever of Yathrib had made them weak. So the pagans said: 'A people who are weak due to the fever are coming to you — they have met from it (the city of Yathrib) evil.' Allāh the Exalted informed His Prophet ﷺ regarding what they said, so he commanded them to walk briskly (Ramal) during the first three circuits, and to walk normally between the two (southern) corners. So when they saw them walk briskly, they said: 'These people whom you mentioned had become weak due to the fever — they are stronger than us!'"

Ibn 'Abbās added: "And he did not

Comments:

It is not possible to correctly interpret the Qur'an by mere knowledge of the Arabic language alone, rather it is required that one learn the Sunnah.

1900. It was reported from Muḥammad bin 'Abdullāh bin As-Sā'ib, from his father, that he would lead Ibn 'Abbās and make him stand at the third corner next to the Corner that is next to the Stone — next to the door. Ibn 'Abbās would say to him: "Have you been informed that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ used to perform Ṣalāt here?" He would reply: "Yes." Then he would stand up to perform Ṣalāt. (Da'if)

1901. It was reported from Hishām

١٩٠١ - حَدَّثَنَا الْقَعْنَبِيُّ عَنْ مَالِكٍ، عَنْ

bin 'Urwah, from his father, that one day, when he was young, he asked 'Āishah, regarding the statement of Allāh: Verily, Aṣ-Ṣafā and Al-Marwah are of the Symbols of Allāh...;^[1] “(Based on this), I don't see any penalty upon a person if he does not perform Tawāf between them.”^[2] 'Āishah, may Allāh be pleased with her, replied: “No, had the (meaning) been as you imply, it would have been: ‘...there is no sin upon him if he does not walk between them.’ This Verse was revealed regarding the Anṣār. They would (before Islam) begin their Talbiyah (for Hajj) for Manāh, and Manāh was in the direction of Qudaid. And they would feel uncomfortable with walking between Aṣ-Ṣafā and Al-Marwah, so when Islam came, they asked the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ about it. So Allāh revealed: Verily, Aṣ-Ṣafā and Al-Marwah are of the Symbols of Allāh....” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Allāh ﷺ performed 'Umrah. He performed Tawāf around the House, and prayed two Rak'ah behind the Station while he had some people who were covering him from the crowd. Someone asked 'Abdullāh: "Did the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ enter the Ka'bah?" to which he replied: "No." (Sahih)

The event dates back to 'Umrat Al-Qada' performed in the year 7 H. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, did not enter the Ka'bah at that time.

Chapter 56. The Description Of The Prophet's ﷺ Hajj

1905. Ja'far bin Muḥammad narrated from his father, that he said, "We visited Jābir bin 'Abdullāh, and when we came to him, he asked us to introduce ourselves, until my turn came. So I said: 'I am Muḥammad bin 'Alī bin Ḥusain.' So he lowered his hand to my head, and unbuttoned my top and bottom buttons, then placed his hand in between my chest — and I was at that time a young boy — and said: 'Welcome, and be at ease, O nephew! Ask whatever you wish.' So I asked him, and he was blind. When the time for prayer came, he stood up, and he was wrapped in a garment. Every time he tried to place it over his shoulder, it fell off due to its small size. He led us in prayer, and his Ridā' was next to him on a rack. I then said: 'Inform me of the Hajj of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ.'

"He motioned with his fingers until he had closed nine of them, and said: 'The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ remained for nine years, not having performed Hajj. Then, in the tenth year, he announced to the people that he would go for Hajj. So a lot of people came to Al-Madīnah, all of them wishing to follow the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and do as he did. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ left (Al-Madīnah), and we all left with him. When we came to Dhūl-Hūlaifah, Asmā' bint Umais gave birth to Muḥammad bin Abū Bakr, so she sent someone to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ asking what she should do. He replied: "Perform Ghusl, and tighten a cloth around your private part, and enter the state of Ihṛām."

"The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ prayed in the Masjid, and then mounted his camel Qaṣwā', until it reached the peak of Al-Baidā'. There were people in front of him as far as my eye could see, riding, and walking; and a similar amount to his right; and a similar amount to his left, and also behind him — an amount equivalent to them. And the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ was among us, and to him the Qur'ān was being revealed, and he knew its interpretation. So whatever he did, we also did. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ began uttering the Talbiyah of Tawhīd: "*Labbaik Allāhumma labbaik, labbaikā lā sharika laka labaik! Messenger of Allāh ﷺ did not prevent them from saying anything. But he continued repeating his Talbiyah. And we only intended to perform Hajj, not even being aware of the 'Umrah, until, when we came to the House with him, he touched the (Black Stone) Corner, and walked briskly for three circuits, and (he walked) normally for four.

So whoever among you does not have a Hadī with him, let him exit the state of Ihrām, and make this an 'Umrah.'

forever?' So the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ intertwined the fingers of one hand with the fingers of the other and said: "Umrah has been joined with Hajj," (motioning) with his hands twice: 'Nay, but forever, forever. Nay, but forever, forever.'

And 'Alī, may Allāh be pleased with him, arrived from Yemen, bringing with him the sacrificial animals of the Prophet ﷺ. He found Fāṭimah, peace be upon her, outside of her Ihrām, wearing dyed clothes and applying kohl to her eyes. So 'Alī, may Allāh be pleased with him, reprimanded her, and said: 'Who commanded you to do this?' She replied: 'My father.'

"And 'Alī, may Allāh be pleased with him, would (later) say — while he was in Al-'Irāq — 'I went to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ complaining about Fāṭimah regarding her actions, seeking his verdict (based) on what she said, so I told him that I reprimanded her, and that she had replied that her father had told her to do so. He (ﷺ) said: "She has told the truth, she has told the truth. What did you say when you started your Hajj?" I replied: "I said: 'O Allāh! I enter Ihrām for whatever the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ has entered Ihrām.'" So he said: 'In that case, I have the Hadī with me, so do not leave the state of Ihrām.'" (Jābir continues:)

The total number of the Hadī that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ brought from Al-Madīnah and 'Alī brought from Yemen came to one hundred.

So everyone left the state of Ihrām and cut their hair, except for the Prophet ﷺ and those who had a Hadī with them.

“On the Day of Tarwiyah (the eighth of Dhul-Hijjah), when they set out for Minā, they all entered into Ihrām for Hajj. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ rode (to Minā), and prayed Zuhr and 'Asr, and Maghrib, and 'Ishā', and Ṣubḥ there. He then waited for a while until the sun had risen, and commanded that a tent of hair^[1] of his be placed at Namirah. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ continued onwards, and the Quraish did not doubt that he would stop at Al-Mash'ar Al-Harām of Al-Muzdalifah, as they would do in the days of Jahiliyyah. But the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ pressed onwards until he arrived at 'Arafah, and saw the tent that had been placed for him at Namirah. He encamped there, until the sun had begun its descent. He then commanded that his camel Al-Qaṣwā' be readied, and mounted it until he reached the center of the valley. He delivered a sermon and said: ‘Your blood and wealth is sacred to you, just as the sanctity of this day, in this sacred month, in this sacred place. Verily, everything that occurred in Jahiliyyah is under my foot (abolished), null and void. And your right upon them is that they do not allow anyone that you do not like to tread on your bedding. If they do (some sin), hit them without causing any wounds. And their right over you is their sustenance, and their clothing, according to what is customary. And I have left amongst you something that you will never go astray after: The Book of Allāh. And you will be asked about me, so what will you say?"

prayed 'Aṣr, and did not pray anything between them.

“He then rode Al-Qaṣwā’ until he arrived at the place (of Mount ‘Arafah), and he made his camel’s back face the rocks, and (stood) such that the throng of pedestrians was in front of him. He faced the Qiblah, and remained standing until the sun had set and its brightness lessened — until its last portion disappeared.

“He placed Usāmah behind him (on his camel), and went on. But the crowd had squeezed Al-Qaṣwā’, such that its head was hitting the front of the saddle, and he (ﷺ) was saying, motioning with his right hand: ‘Gently, O people! Gently, O people.’

“Whenever he reached a hillock, he would loosen its reign so that it could ascend. He then came to Al-Muzdalifah, and combined between Al-Maghrib and 'Ishā' (prayers) with one Adhān and two Iqāmahs” — ‘Uthmān (one of the narrators) said: “And he did not pray any voluntary prayers in between them.” — Then they (the narrators) were in accord.

“The Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ) then lay down until dawn broke, upon which he prayed Fajr when the light of dawn had become clear to him” — Sulaimān (one of the narrators) said: “With the Adhān and Iqāmah.” Then they (the narrators) were in accord —; He then rode Al-Qaṣwā’ to the Al-Mash'ar Al-Ḥarām and ascended it.”

— ‘Uthmān and Sulaimān (among the narrators) said: “He faced the Qiblah, praised Allāh, and said the Takbīr and the Tahīl.” ‘Uthmān added: “And extolled His oneness.” — hands sixty-three (camels), and he commanded 'Alī to sacrifice the remaining ones, so he shared the sacrificial animals with him. He then ordered a small portion from every camel be taken to be cooked in a pot, and they ate from its meat and drank from its broth. He then rode (his camel), and went to the House, praying Zuhr in Makkah. He then went to Banū 'Abdul-Muṭṭalib while they were drawing out Zamzam (water), and said: 'Keep taking it out, O Banū 'Abdul-Muṭṭalib, for if not for the fact that people would eventually take your (rights) of drawing the water away from you, I would have drawn with you.' They gave him a bucket, and he drank from it."

Comments:

1. Those who performed Hajj together with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, numbered ninety thousand or, according to some, one hundred and thirty thousand Muslims.
2. It is better to slaughter the sacrificial animal by one's own hands. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, sacrificed as many animals as the years of his age. In addition to the tenth of Dhul-Hijjah, there are three more days of sacrifice (Ayyām At-Tashriq) but the first day of sacrifice is the best since the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, did all his sacrifices the first day.
3. The Tawāf on the 10th of Dhul-Hijjah is a pillar (Rukn) and a fundament of Hajj. It is also called Tawāf Al-Ifādah

1906. Ja'far bin Muḥammad narrated from his father, that the Prophet ﷺ prayed Zuhr and Aṣr at 'Arafah, with one Adhān and two Iqāmahs, and he did not pray any voluntary prayers between them. And he prayed Maghrib and 'Ishā'

Chapter 59. Leaving (Minā) For 'Arafah

1913. Ibn 'Umar narrated: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ departed from Minā after he had prayed Ṣubḥ the morning of the Day of 'Arafah. When he came to 'Arafah, he camped at Namirah — and this is the place that the Imām (leaders) camp. When the time for Zuhr had come, he left at the middle of the day^[1] and then combined between Zuhr and ʿAṣr. Then he delivered a sermon to the people, and then left to stand at the standing place in 'Arafah.” (Ḥasan)

Chapter 60. Entering 'Arafah

1914. Sa'eed bin Ḥassān narrated that when Al-Ḥajjāj had killed Ibn Az-Zubair, he sent for Ibn 'Umar and asked him: “What hour did the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ leave (for 'Arafah) on this day?” He replied: “When it was that time, we left.” When Ibn 'Umar desired to depart, they said: “The sun has not started its descent.” So he (continued to)

Chapter 62. The Place Of Standing At 'Arafah

1919. Yazīd bin Shaibān narrated: "Ibn Mirba' Al-Anṣārī came to us, and we were at 'Arafah" — at a place that was far from the Imām according to 'Amr (one of the narrators) — "(Ibn Mirba') said: 'I am the messenger of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ to you. He tells you: 'Camp at your places of worship, for you are upon a legacy of the legacies of your father Ibrāhīm.'" (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Comments:

The whole plain of 'Arafat is a place for standing.

Chapter 63. Departing From 'Arafah

(المعجم ٦٣) - بَابُ الدَّفْعَةِ مِنْ عَرَفَةَ

(التحفة ٦٤)

1920. It was reported from Ibn 'Abbās, that he said: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ departed from 'Arafah in a peaceful (and unhurried) manner, having placed Usāmah behind him, and he said: 'O people! Be gentle, for piety is not achieved by aggravating the horses and camels.' So I did not see them (the animals) raising their legs in haste until reaching Jam' (Al-Muzdalifah)." — Wahb (one of the narrators) added: "Then he placed Al-Faḍl bin 'Abbās behind him. And he said: 'O people! Piety is not achieved by aggravating the horses and camels, so be gentle.'" He said: "So I did not see them (the animals) raising their legs in haste until reaching Minā." 1923. It was reported from Hishām bin 'Urwah, from his father, that he said: "Usāmah was asked — while I was with him — 'How did the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ ride during his Farewell Pilgrimage when he left ('Arafah)?' He replied: 'He would ride at a moderate pace, but if he found an empty gap, he would quicken his pace.'" (Ṣaḥīḥ)

[1] Indicating something similar to the narration mentioned earlier, that he did not do it in the utmost form.

[2] Did it in a complete manner, with this and the earlier version, the indication is that perhaps he did not perform a complete Wudu' after urinating, and Allah knows best.

from Ibn Shihāb (Az-Zuhrī), from Sālim bin 'Abdullāh bin 'Umar, from 'Abdullāh bin 'Umar, that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ combined between Maghrib and 'Ishā' at Al-Muzdalifah. (Ṣaḥīḥ)

1927. It was reported from Hammād bin Khālid, from Ibn Abī Dhī'b from (Ibn Shihāb) Az-Zuhrī, with his chain and its meaning. He said: "With an Iqāmah, and then an Iqāmah, combining between them." (Ṣaḥīḥ)

1928. It was reported from 'Uthmān bin 'Umar, from Ibn Abī Dhī'b, from Az-Zuhrī, with the chain of Ibn Ḥanbal from Hammād, and its meaning.

He said: "With one Iqāmah for every prayer. And he did not call (the Adhān) for the first, nor did he pray any voluntary prayer after either of them."

Mukhlad (one of the narrators) said: "He did not call (the Adhān) for even one of them." (Ṣaḥīḥ)

[1] That is, Aḥmad, who also reported this Hādīth to Abū Dāwūd, explained that in another version which Wakī' reported, this is what he said.

Comments:

The mention of not calling the Adhān is an error in this narration.

1929. ‘Abdullāh bin Mālik: “I prayed Maghrib with Ibn ‘Umar as three and 'Ishā’ as two Rak'ahs. Mālik bin Al-Hārith said to him: ‘What prayer is this?’ He replied: ‘I prayed them with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ in this place with one Iqāmah.’” (Da'if)

Comments:

According to this Hadūth, the two prayers were offered with one Iqāmah. This is in contrast with other, more authentic narrations saying that the Iqāmah was called twice, once for each prayer.

1930. Sa'eed bin Jubair and ‘Abdullāh bin Mālik both narrated: “We prayed Maghrib and 'Ishā’ with Ibn ‘Umar at Al-Muzdalifah with one Iqāmah...” and he mentioned the meaning of the narration of Ibn Kathīr (one of the narrators who narrated the previous version). (Sahīh)

1933. Ash‘ath bin Sulaim narrated from his father that he said: “I came with Ibn ‘Umar from ‘Arafāt to Al-Muzdalifah. He would never tire from saying the Takbīr and Tahlīl, until we reached Al-Muzdalifah. He then called the Adhān and Iqāmah, or commanded someone to do so, and led us in Maghrib, praying three Rak‘ahs. Then he turned to us and said: ‘The prayer,’ and then led us in ‘Ishā’, praying two Rak‘ahs. He then called for his dinner.” He (Ash‘ath) said: “‘Ilāj bin ‘Amr informed me with the like of my father’s narration from Ibn ‘Umar, so Ibn ‘Umar was questioned about that, to which he replied: ‘I prayed with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ in this fashion.’” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Comments:

Meaning, staying anywhere in those locations is valid, it is not required to stay exactly where the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ stayed while in those places.

1938. ‘Umar bin Al-Khattāb said: “The people during the times of Jahiliyyah would not depart (from Al-Muzdalifah) until they saw the sun over (the mountain of) Thabīr. But the Prophet ﷺ differed from them and left before the sun rose.”

1940. It was reported from Salamah bin Kuhail, from Al-Hasan Al-'Uranī, from Ibn 'Abbās who said: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ sent us — the young lads of Banū 'Abdul-Muṭṭalib — on the night of Al-Muzdalifah, before others. We were upon some donkeys. He began to pat our thighs, and say: 'O young children! Do not pelt the Jamrah until the sun rises.'" (Da'if)

Comments:

The time for pelting the Jamrah on the 10th of Dhul-Hijjah begins after sunrise.

1942. It was reported from ‘Āishah, may Allāh be pleased with her, that she said: “The Prophet ﷺ sent Umm Salamah the night before the Day of Sacrifice, and she pelted the Jamrah before Fajr, then she continued (to Makkah) to perform the Ifādah (Tawāf). And that was the day that she was supposed to be with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ.” (Ḥasan)

Comments:

The Muḥassir Valley was the place where the 'Owners of the Elephant' were chastised by Allāh. If one must pass through a place of divine chastisement, one should do so quickly.

Chapter 66. The Day Of The 'Great Hajj'

(المعجم ٦٦) - بَابُ يَوْمِ الْحَجِّ الْأَكْبَرِ
(التحفة ٦٧)

1945. Ibn 'Umar narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, during the Hajj that he performed, stood on the Day of Sacrifice between the Jamrahs, and said: "What day is this?" They replied: "This is the Day of Sacrifice." He replied: "This is the Day of the Great Hajj." (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Chapter 67. The Sacred Months

(المعجم ٦٧) - بَابُ الْأَشْهُرِ الْحُرْمِ
(التحفة ٦٨)

1947. Abū Bakrah narrated that the Prophet ﷺ delivered a sermon

١٩٤٧ - حَدَّثَنَا مُسَدَّدٌ: حَدَّثَنَا إِسْمَاعِيلُ: حَدَّثَنَا أَيُّوبُ عَنْ مُحَمَّدٍ، عَنِ أَبِي بَكْرَةَ: أَنَّ

in his Hajj, and said: "The time has returned to its original state — the state it was in when Allāh created the heavens and earth. The year is twelve months, four of which are sacred. Three of these are consecutive: Dhūl-Qa'dah, and Dhūl-Hijjah, and Muḥarram, and (the fourth is) the Rajab of Muḍar, which is between Jumādā and Sha'bān." (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Chapter 68. Whoever Missed 'Arafah

1949. 'Abdur-Raḥmān bin Ya'mar Ad-Dailī said: "I came to the Prophet ﷺ while he was at 'Arafāt. A group of people from Najd came, and they asked someone to call out to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ: 'What is the Hajj?' The Prophet ﷺ ordered someone to proclaim: 'The Hajj, the Hajj, is the Day of 'Arafah. Whoever comes before the Subh prayer of the Day of Jam' (Al-Muzdalifah), he has completed his Hajj. The days of Minā are three. Whoever wishes to hasten (to depart) after two days, he will have no blame upon him, and whoever delays, he will have no blame on him.' Then the Prophet ﷺ placed someone behind him, and he began to proclaim this." (Sahih)

(المعجم ٦٨) - بَابُ مَنْ لَمْ يَذْرِكْ عَرَفَةَ (التحفة ٦٩)

١٩٤٩ - حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ كَثِيرٍ: أَخْبَرَنَا سُفْيَانُ: حَدَّثَنِي بُكَيْرُ بْنُ عَطَاءٍ عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ يَعْمَرَ الدَّيْلِيِّ قَالَ: أَتَيْتُ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ وَهُوَ بِعَرَفَةَ، فَجَاءَ نَاسٌ - أَوْ نَفَرٌ - مِنْ أَهْلِ نَجْدٍ، فَأَمَرُوا رَجُلًا فَنَادَى رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ كَيْفَ الْحَجِّ؟ فَأَمَرَ رَجُلًا فَنَادَى:

Abū Dāwud said: This is how Mīhrān reported it from Sufyān; he said: "The Hajj, the Hajj." While Yaḥyā bin Sa'eed Al-Qaṭṭān reported it from Sufyān, he said: "The Hajj." one time.

Comments:

Staying at the plains of 'Arafāt is a pillar (Rukn), one of the fundamental rites of Hajj. One must stay there, even though briefly. Its time begins from the ninth of Dhul-Hijjah, after the sun has crossed the meridian, and ends just before Fajr on the following day. Whoever fails to stay at 'Arafāt, then he has not performed Hajj.

1950. It was reported that 'Urwah bin Muḍarris Aṭ-Ṭā'ī said: "I came to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ at his place of standing" — meaning at Jam' (Al-Muzdalifah), and said: 'I come, O Messenger of Allāh, from the mountain of Ṭayy. I have exhausted my animal, and tired myself, by Allāh, I have not left a single mountain except that I have stood on it. Is my Hajj valid?' So the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: 'Whoever prays this prayer with us, and had come to 'Arafāt before

قال أبو داود: وكذلك رواه مهرا عن سفيان قال: «الحج، الحج» مرتين. ورواه يحيى بن سعيد القطان عن سفيان قال: «الحج» مرة.

(المعجم ٦٩) - بَابُ التَّزْوِيلِ بِيَمْنَى

(التحفة ٧٠)

1951. ‘Abdur-Raḥmān bin Mu‘adh narrated from one of the Companions of the Prophet ﷺ that he narrated: “The Prophet ﷺ delivered a sermon at Minā, and instructed (the people) to take their places. He said: ‘Let the Muhājir camp here,’ and he pointed to the right of the Qiblah, ‘...and the Anṣār here,’ and he pointed to the left of the Qiblah, ‘...and then let the people camp around them.’” (Sahīh)

It was reported from Sarrā' bint Nabhān — and she had owned a house during Jāhiliyyah — [1] narrated: “The Prophet ﷺ delivered a sermon to us on the ‘Day of Heads,’ and he said: ‘What day is this?’ We replied: ‘Allāh and His Messenger know best.’ He said: ‘Is this not the middle day of the days of Tashrīq?’” (Hasan)

Comments:

The three days following the 10th of Dhul-Hijjah are called The Days of Tashrīq, so called because Tashrīq means “to cut meat in strips and dry them in the sun (for preservation).”

Chapter 71. Whoever Said That A Sermon Is Delivered On The Day of Sacrifice

Chapter 75. The Ṣalāt At Minā

(المعجم ٧٥) - بَابُ الصَّلَاةِ بِمِنَى

(التحفة ٧٦)

1960. ‘Abdur-Raḥmān bin Yazīd narrated: “‘Uthmān prayed four Rak’ah at Minā. ‘Abdullāh (bin Mas’ūd) then said: “I prayed two Rak’ahs with the Prophet ﷺ, and two Rak’ahs with Abū Bakr, and two Rak’ahs with ‘Umar,” — Ḥaḥṣ (one of the narrators) added: “And with ‘Uthmān at the beginning of his rule, then he completed it (started praying four later).” — The addition from here on is from Abū Mu‘āwiyah (one of the narrators) — “Then your paths have differed after this. How I wish that I could substitute these four Rak’ahs with two that will be accepted!” — Al-A‘mash (one of the narrators) said: “So Mu‘āwiyah bin Qurrah narrated to me from some Shaikhs of his that ‘Abdullāh prayed four?!” He said: “So it was said to him: ‘You criticized ‘Uthmān, then you prayed four?’ He said: ‘Differing is even worse!’” (Saḥīḥ)

Chapter 77. Regarding Stoning The Jimār

1966. Sulaimān bin 'Amr bin Al-Aḥwaṣ narrated from his mother that she said: “I saw the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ stone the Jamrah from the bottom of the valley, while he was on his mount. He would say the Takbīr with every pebble, while a person behind him was sheltering him. I asked who he was, and I was told: ‘Al-Faḍl bin Al-'Abbās.’ The crowd became more, so the Prophet ﷺ said: ‘O people! Do not kill one another! Comments:

1. On the tenth of Dhul-Hijjah, Jamrat Al-'Aqabā is pelted with pebbles after sunrise. On other days, all the three Jamrahs are pelted with pebbles after the sun crosses the meridian.

2. It is Sunnah to raise up hands and say a long supplication after pelting the first and the second Jamrah. It is not Sunnah to do so after the third Jamrah.

1974. 'Abdur-Rahmān bin Yazīd narrated that when Ibn Mas'ūd reached the large Jamrah, he would stand such that the Ka'bah was towards his left, and Minā towards his right, and then he would pelt the Jamrah with seven pebbles. He would say: "This is how the one upon whom Sūrat Al-Baqarah was revealed would stone." (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Comments:

According to other Aḥādīth also, he struck the Jamrah with pebbles from the side of the valley.

1975. It was reported from Abū Al-Baddāḥ bin 'Āṣim, from his father, that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ granted a concession to the caretakers of camels regarding spending the nights (in Minā).^[1] He commanded them to stone on the Day of Sacrifice, then to stone the next day for that day, and the day after it, and then to stone on the day of departure. Chapter 78. Regarding Trimming Short And Shaving The Hair

1979. It was reported from Mālik, from Nāfi', from Ibn 'Umar, that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: "O Allāh! Have mercy on those who shaved their hair." They said: "O Messenger of Allāh! And those who trimmed it." He said: "O Allāh! Have mercy on those who shaved their hair." They said: "O Messenger of Allāh! And those who trimmed it." He said: "And those who trimmed it." (Ṣaḥīh)

Chapter 79. Regarding Umrah

(المعجم ٧٩) - بَابُ الْعُمْرَةِ (التحفة ٨٠)

1986. Ibn ‘Umar narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ performed Umrah before performing the Hajj. (Sahih)

١٩٨٦ - حَدَّثَنَا عُمَانُ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ: حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ يَزِيدَ وَيَحْيَى بْنُ زَكَرِيَّا عَنْ ابْنِ جُرَيْجٍ، عَنْ عِكْرِمَةَ بْنِ خَالِدٍ، عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ

قَالَ: اعْتَمَرَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ قَبْلَ أَنْ يُحْجَّ.

تخریج: أخرجه البخاري، العمرة، باب من اعتمر قبل الحج، ح: ١٧٧٤ من حديث ابن جريج به.

1987. Ibn 'Abbās said: "I swear by Allāh, the only reason that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ commanded 'Aishah to perform 'Umrah in Dhūl-Ḥijjah is to eradicate the belief of the people of Shirk. For this group of people from Quraish, and those who were upon their religion, used to say: 'When the hair (of the animals) has grown, and the travel-marks (of the animals) have disappeared, and the month of Ṣafar has started, then it is permissible for one to perform 'Umrah.' So they would prohibit an 'Umrah until Dhūl-Ḥijjah and Muḥarram had finished." (Hasan)

1988. Abū Bakr bin 'Abdur-Raḥmān said: "The messenger of Marwān that was sent to Umm Ma'qal, informed me that she said: 'Abū Ma'qal was performing Hajj with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, so when he arrived, Umm Ma'qal said: "You know that I too am required to perform Hajj." So they both walked to the Prophet ﷺ and entered upon him. She said: "O Messenger of Allāh! Hajj is obligatory upon me, and Abū Ma'qal has (a spare) camel!" Comments:

If one has not performed Hajj, and they do perform 'Umrah in Ramaḍān, they will still be required to perform the obligatory Hajj.

1989. (Another chain) that Umm Ma'qal narrated: “When the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ went on his Farewell Hajj, we owned a camel that Abū Ma'qal had bequeathed in the Cause of Allāh. We were afflicted with a sickness, and Abū Ma'qal died. The Prophet ﷺ performed (his Hajj), and when he had returned, I went to him. He said: ‘O Umm Ma'qal! What prevented you from performing Hajj with us?’ She replied: ‘I was ready (to come), but Abū Ma'qal died, and we had a camel that we were supposed to perform Hajj on, but Abū Ma'qal bequeathed it in the Cause of Allāh.’ The Prophet ﷺ said: ‘So why did you not come with us, for Hajj is also in the Cause of Allāh!?’ But if you missed this Hajj with us, then perform an ‘Umrah in Ramaḍān, for it is like a Hajj.’”

1990. Ibn 'Abbās narrated: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ wanted to go for Hajj, so a woman said to her husband: 'Let me perform Hajj along with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ on your camel.' He said: 'I don't have (any camel) that you can perform Hajj on.' She said: 'Let me perform Hajj on that camel of yours,' and she named it. He replied: 'That one is bequeathed for the Cause of Allāh, the Mighty and Sublime.' So he went to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and said: 'My wife sends her Salām and the mercy of Allāh to you. She asked me to let her perform Hajj with you, for she asked: "Let me perform Hajj along with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ on your camel." I told her: "I don't have (any camel) that you can perform Hajj on." She said: "Let me perform Hajj on that camel of yours," and she named it. So I replied: "That one is bequeathed for the Cause of Allāh, the Mighty and Sublime." The Prophet ﷺ said: 'Indeed, were you to allow her to perform Hajj on it, that would be in the Cause of Allāh.' He said: 'And she asked me to ask you what

Comments:

It is more correct to say that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, performed four 'Umrahs. When Āishah, may Allāh be pleased with her, said he performed two 'Umrahs, she did not count the 'Umrah of Al-Hudaibiyah, because the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ was denied passage to Makkah by the pagans, and he had to go back to Al-Madīnah without performing it. She also did not count the 'Umrah he did along with Hajj. In view of this, it may be said that he performed only two 'Umrahs independently and separately.

1992. Mujāhid narrated that Ibn
'Umar was asked: "How many
'Umrahs did the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ perform?" He replied:
"Two." Āishah said: "Ibn 'Umar knows that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ performed three 'Umrahs, not including the one that he did with his Farewell Pilgrimage." (Da'if)

The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, performed 'Umrah at night and returned the same night to Jī'irānah. So, he spent the night there. That is why most people remained unaware of his 'Umrah.

It is obligatory on a pilgrim, as he returns from 'Arafāt and Al-Muzdalifah, to perform Tawāf around the Ka'bah on the tenth of Dhul-Hijjah, or any time later. This circumambulation is called Tawāf Al-Ifādah. It is better to perform it on the 10th of Dhul-Hijjah or any time during the three days following it.

He said: 'Let the last act that she does be the Tawāf.'" So Al-Hārith said: "And that is exactly what the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ told me as well.' 'Umar said: 'Woe to you! You asked me regarding a matter that you had already asked the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ?! (And was it not possible) that I would contradict him?'" (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Chapter 85. Regarding The Farewell Tawāf

2005. It was reported from Al-Qāsim, from 'Āishah, may Allāh be pleased with her, that she said: "I entered Ihrām for 'Umrah from Tan'im, and then entered (Makkah) and completed my 'Umrah. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ waited for me at Al-Abṭah until I had finished, and then commanded the people to commence their travel. And the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ went to the 2006. (Another chain) from Al-Qāsim, from ‘Āishah, that she said: “I left (Makkah) with him — meaning with the Prophet ﷺ — along with the remaining crowd. He camped at Al-Muḥaṣṣab...” — Abū Dāwud said: Ibn Bashshār (one of the narrators) did not mention the incident of her being sent to Tan‘īm — “...then I came to him in the early morning. He commanded his Companions to depart (for Al-Madīnah), and he too left, and went to the House before the Ṣubḥ prayer, performed the Tawāf, and then left for Al-Madīnah.” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

٢٠٠٦ - حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ بَشَّارٍ: حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو بَكْرِ بْنُ يَعْنِي الْحَقَيْي: حَدَّثَنَا أَفْلَحُ عَنْ الْقَاسِمِ، عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ: خَرَجْتُ مَعَهُ - تَعْنِي مَعَ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ - فِي النَّفْرِ الْآخِرِ فَتَزَلَّ الْمُحَصَّبَ.

Chapter 86. (Camping In The Valley Of) Al-Muḥaṣṣab

(المعجم ٨٦) - بَابُ التَّحْصِيبِ

(التحفة ٨٧)

2008. 'Āishah narrated: "The only reason that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ camped at Al-Muḥaṣṣab was to facilitate the exit (from Makkah), and it is not a Sunnah. So whoever wishes to do so may camp there, and who so wishes to may leave it."

Comments:

Since the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, dismounted here and so did his Rightly-Guided Khalifah, it is, no doubt, recommended to stop over here. 'Āishah and Ibn 'Abbās considered it a common stopping-place.

2009. Abū Rāfi' said: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ did not command me to camp there, but I set his tent out, so he camped." — Musad-dad (one of the narrators) said: "He (Abū Rāfi') was in charge of the belongings of the Prophet ﷺ" — 'Uthmān (one of the narrators) said: "At Al-Abṭah."

Comments:

The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, left his property in Makkah when he emigrated to Al-Madīnah. Abū Tālib's property was inherited by Tālib and 'Aqil. Ja'far and 'Alī were excluded because they had converted to Islam. Tālib disappeared, leaving no trace, on the Day of Badr and, consequently, 'Aqil took possession of the property.

2011. Abū Hurairah narrated that when the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ wanted to depart from Minā, he said: “We will depart tomorrow...” and the rest of the Ḥadīth is similar (to no. 2010), but he did not mention the first part, nor did he mention the Valley of Banū Kinānah. (Ṣaḥīḥ)

(المعجم ٩٠) بَابُ: فِي نَبِيذِ السَّقَايَةِ
(التحفة ٩١)

2021. Bakr bin 'Abdullāh narrated that a man said to Ibn 'Abbās: "Why is it that this house (of yours) gives Nabīdh (to the Muḥrim) to drink, whereas their cousins give them milk, honey and Sawīq? Is it because of miserliness, or poverty?" Ibn 'Abbās replied: "Neither are we miserly nor are we poor! Rather, the Messenger of

Chapter 91. Staying In Makkah

(المعجم ۹۱) - بَابُ الْإِقَامَةِ بِمَكَّةَ

(التحفة ۹۲)

2022. 'Umar bin 'Abdul-'Azīz asked As-Sā'ib bin Yazīd: "Have you heard anything about residing in Makkah?" He replied: "Ibn Al-Haḍramī informed me that he heard the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ say to the Emigrants: '(It is permitted) to stay at the Ka'bah for three days after completing (the rites).'"^[1] (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Chapter 92. Praying In The Ka'bah

(المعجم ٩٢) - بَابُ الصَّلَاةِ فِي الْكَعْبَةِ

(التحفة ...)

2023. 'Abdullāh bin 'Umar narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ entered the Ka'bah along with Usāmah bin Zaid, 'Uthmān bin Ṭalḥah Al-Ḥajabī and Bilāl. They then closed the door, and remained inside. Ibn 'Umar said: "So I asked Bilāl when he exited: 'What did the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ do?' He replied: 'He (stood such that) one pillar was on his left, two to his right, and three behind him — and the (roof of the) Ka'bah at that time was supported by six pillars — and then prayed.'" We learn from this Hadīth that a Sutrah (screen) should be at least three fore-arms length away from the person praying.

2026. ‘Abdur-Raḥmān bin Ṣafwān narrated that he asked ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb: “What did the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ do when he entered the Ka‘bah?” He replied: “He prayed two Rak‘ah.” (Ṣaḥīh)

Comments:

If a person has the chance to enter the Ka‘bah, he should perform two Rak‘ahs there. If he does not have the chance, he may perform the prayer in the Ḥaṭīm which is also a part of the Ka‘bah.

2027. Ibn ‘Abbās narrated: “When the Prophet ﷺ entered Makkah, he refused to enter the Ka‘bah while it had its idols. So he commanded that they be removed. The statues of Ibrāhīm and Ismā‘il were removed, and they had in their hands arrows that were used for divination. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: ‘May Allāh curse them (the pagans)! I swear by Allāh, they knew that Ibrāhīm and Ismā‘il never used these divination arrows.’ He then entered the House, and said the Takbīr in its corners and edges, and then left without praying in it.” (Ṣaḥīh)

تخريج: أخرجه البخاري، الحج، باب من كبر في نواحي الكعبة، ح: ١٦٠١ عن أبي معمر به.

Comments:

The “divining arrows” were, in fact, three wooden sticks. On one of them was inscribed the word “Do,” on the other “Do not,” and the third one was blank. When a pagan Arab wanted to travel, or do something, he would come to a functionary of the Ka'bah, and ask him whether he should do such and such thing or not. The functionary would put those sticks into a box, shake it and draw a stick, and tell the person to act accordingly. In case he drew a blank stick, the functionary would keep on drawing the sticks until there was a result.

Chapter 93. Regarding Ṣalāt In The Hijr

2028. 'Āishah narrated: "I very much desired to enter the House and pray in it. Once the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ held on to my hand and brought me into the Hijr, and said: 'Whenever you wish to enter the House, pray in the Hijr, for it is a part of the House. Your people, when they built the Ka'bah, fell short (in building material), so they left it out of the House.'" (Ṣaḥīḥ)

تخريج: [صحيح] أخرجه الترمذي، الحج، باب ما جاء في الصلاة في الحجر، ح: ٨٧٦ والنسائي، ح: ٢٩١٥ من حديث عبدالعزيز الدراوردي به وقال الترمذي: "حسن صحيح".

Comments:

When the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, was thirty-five years old, the Quraish planned to rebuild the structure of the Ka'bah, which had become, by then, quite old and weak. They also decided to use only pure money, and refused to accept money from whoredom, usury and extortions, or earned by any other unfair means. But the money so collected fell short. So they reduced the length of the Ka'bah, about six arms length, on its northern side. This left-out portion is called the Hijr or Ḥaṭīm.

Chapter 93. Entering The Ka'bah

2029. 'Āishah narrated: "The Prophet ﷺ once left me and he was very happy, but then returned in a state of sadness. He said: 'I entered the Ka'bah, and had I known what I know now, I would not have entered it. I fear that I might have made matters difficult

Chapter 94/95. On Going To Al-Madīnah

2033. Abū Hurairah narrated that the Masājid: Prophet ﷺ said, “Do not undertake a journey except to (one of) three Masjids: Al-Masjid Al-Harām, and this Masjid of mine, and Masjid Al-Aqṣa.” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

٢٠٣٣ - حَدَّثَنَا مُسَدَّدٌ: حَدَّثَنَا سُوَيْبَانُ عَنْ
الزُّهْرِيِّ، عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ الْمُسَيْبِ، عَنْ أَبِي
هُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ قَالَ: «لَا تُسَدُّ الرَّحَالُ
إِلَّا إِلَى ثَلَاثَةِ مَسَاجِدَ: مَسْجِدِ الْحَرَامِ،
وَمَسْجِدِي هَذَا، وَالْمَسْجِدِ الْأَقْصَى».

Comments:

Expounding the foregoing Hadīth, Al-Khattābī has dealt with it exhaustively. To put his exposition briefly, what the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said concerns vows. That is, if a person has vowed to offer a prayer in a certain Masjid, he has the choice to either pray in that very Masjid or any other Masājid, for all Masājid are equal. But if he has vowed to pray in any of the three aforementioned Masājid, it becomes obligatory on him to fulfill his vow. The reason is that these are special Masjids, the Masjids of Prophets. We have been commanded to follow them.

Chapter 95/96. Regarding The Sacredness Of Al-Madīnah

2034. ‘Alī narrated: “We did not write anything from the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ except for the Qur’an, and what is contained in this Ṣaḥīfah. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: ‘Al-Madīnah is sacred, the area between ‘Ā’ir and Thawr. Whoever introduces any Hadath or gives refuge to a Muḥdith, upon him will be the curse of Allāh, the angels and all the people, and no ‘Adl or Ṣarf^[1] will be accepted

Comments:

1. 'Alī, may Allāh be pleased with him, had no esoteric knowledge or special directive given to him in secrecy. Whatever he had or received, he disclosed it to others.
2. Al-Madīnah, with its boundaries mentioned in the Ḥadīth is as sacred and inviolable as Makkah.
3. Muḥdith, and it may be read: Muḥdath, the first is more popular as it appears in our text, and it refers to one who aids or harbors the criminal. The meaning of Muḥdath is the innovated thing itself., for which “giving refuge” would mean accepting and abiding by it. See Minnat Al-Mun'im.

2035.(Another chain) from 'Alī, may Allāh be pleased with him, regarding this narration (as no. 2034), from the Prophet ﷺ, who said: “Its vegetation shall not be cut, nor will its game be molested, nor will its lost objects be taken — except by one who wishes to (take it) in order to announce it to others. And it is not permitted for a man to carry arms in it in order to fight. And it is not permitted for its trees to be cut, except for a man who wishes to feed his camel.” (Ḥasan)

٢٠٣٥ - حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ الْمُثَنَّى: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الصَّمَدِ: حَدَّثَنَا هَمَّامٌ: حَدَّثَنَا قَتَادَةُ عَنْ أَبِي حَسَّانَ، عَنْ عَلِيِّ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ فِي هَذِهِ الْقِصَّةِ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ قَالَ: «لَا يُحْتَلَى خَلَاهَا وَلَا يُتَقَرَّرُ صَيْدُهَا وَلَا يُلْتَفَطُ لِقَطْعِهَا إِلَّا لِمَنْ أَشَادَ بِهَا، وَلَا يَصْلُحُ لِرَجُلٍ أَنْ يَحْمِلَ فِيهَا السَّلَاحَ لِقِتَالٍ، وَلَا يَصْلُحُ أَنْ يُطْعَمَ مِنْهَا شَجَرَةٌ إِلَّا أَنْ يَغْلِفَ رَجُلٌ بَعِيرَهُ».

2037. Sulaimān bin Abī ‘Abdullāh narrated: “I saw Sa’d bin Abī Waqqāṣ take (to task) a person who was hunting in the sanctuary of Al-Madīnah — the very territory that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ had declared sacred. He took his clothes (as punishment), so his guardians came to him (Sa’d) and spoke with him regarding that. He replied: ‘The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ declared this sanctuary sacred, and said: “Whoever finds anyone hunting in it should take his clothes (as punishment),” and I will not return anything that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ allowed for me. But if you wish, I will give you its price (in money).’” (Da‘īf)

Comments:

Among the places worth visiting in Al-Madīnah, the most important is the Qubā' Masjid. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, said that a prayer in that Masjid is like 'Umrah in terms of reward.

Chapter 96/97. Visiting Graves

(المعجم ٩٦، ٩٧) - بَابُ زِيَارَةِ الْقُبُورِ

2041. Abū Hurairah narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: "Never does a person send his Salām to me except that Allāh returns my spirit to me that I may return the Salām to him." (Ḍa'īf)

Comments:

"Allāh returns my spirit to me", these words have been interpreted in a variety of ways. But, ultimately, it comes to one conclusion, namely, that it is a matter relating to the Unseen in Al-Barzakh, the realm between this life and the Hereafter.

2042. (Another chain) from Abū Hurairah, that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: "Do not make your houses into graves, and do not make my grave an 'Eid (a regular place of visitation), and send your Ṣalāt upon me, for your Ṣalāt will reach me wherever you might be." (Ḥasan)

تخریج: [إسناده حسن] أخرجه أحمد: ٣٦٧/٢ عن عبدالله بن نافع بن أبي نافع الصائغ القرشي المخزومي به.

Comments:

The example of a cemetery is very apt, because neither prayers nor formulae of remembering Allāh are said there. Neither is the Qur'ān recited there. So a house where no prayers are said is as good as a cemetery. That is why men have been specially told to perform their voluntary prayers in their houses.

٢٠٤٣ - حَدَّثَنَا حَامِدُ بْنُ يَحْيَى: حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ مَعْنٍ الْمَدَنِيُّ: أَخْبَرَنِي دَاوُدُ بْنُ خَالِدٍ عَنْ رَبِيعَةَ بْنِ أَبِي عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ، عَنْ رَبِيعَةَ يَعْنِي ابْنَ الْهَدَيْرِ، قَالَ: مَا سَمِعْتُ طَلْحَةَ بْنَ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ يُحَدِّثُ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ حَدِيثًا قَطُّ غَيْرَ حَدِيثٍ وَاحِدٍ، قَالَ: قُلْتُ: وَمَا هُوَ؟ قَالَ: خَرَجْنَا مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ نُرِيدُ قُبُورَ الشُّهَدَاءِ حَتَّى إِذَا أَشْرَفْنَا عَلَى حَرَّةٍ وَاقِمٍ، فَلَمَّا تَدَلَّيْنَا مِنْهَا فَإِذَا قُبُورٌ بِمَحْنِيَّةٍ، قَالَ: قُلْنَا: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ! أَقُبُورٌ إِخْوَانِنَا هَذِهِ؟ قَالَ: «قُبُورٌ أَصْحَابِنَا»، فَلَمَّا جِئْنَا قُبُورَ الشُّهَدَاءِ قَالَ: «هَذِهِ قُبُورٌ إِخْوَانِنَا».

Comments:

The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, used to visit the graves of martyrs and pray for them. He called the martyrs "my brothers," a title of honor, and the others "my Companions."

2044. Nāfi' stated that 'Abdullāh bin 'Umar narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ made his camel to rest at Al-Baṭḥā' — in Dhūl-Ḥulaifah, and prayed in it. Nāfi' added: "So 'Abdullāh bin 'Umar would do so as well." (Ṣaḥīḥ)

12. THE BOOK OF MARRIAGE

(المعجم ١٢) - أَوَّلُ كِتَابِ النِّكَاحِ

(التحفة ٦)

Chapter 1. The Encouragement To Marry

2046. It was reported from 'Alqamah, that he said: "I was once walking with 'Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd in Minā when 'Uthmān met him, and asked to talk to him privately. When 'Abdullāh saw that he had no need, he said: 'Come, O 'Alqamah,' so I came. 'Uthmān then said to him: 'O Abū 'Abdur-Raḥmān, should we not get you married to a young girl, perhaps you will regain some of what you have lost!' 'Abdullāh responded: 'If you say this, then I have heard the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ say: "Whoever among you is capable of marriage should get married, for it is a cause of lowering the gaze, and a protection of one's private parts, and whoever cannot do so should fast, for it will act as a Wija' for him."^[1]

Comments:

1. One who has enough means to maintain a family should marry.
2. Marrying ensures modesty and chastity which is vital for a healthy social life.
3. A financially weak person should fast to ward off lustful desires.

النِّكَاحِ (التحفة ١)

٢٠٤٦ - حَدَّثَنَا عُثْمَانُ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ:

حَدَّثَنَا جَرِيرٌ عَنِ الْأَعْمَشِ، عَنِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ، عَنِ عَلْقَمَةَ قَالَ: إِنِّي لَأُمْسِي مَعَ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ مَسْعُودٍ بِيَمِينِي إِذْ لَفِيَهُ عُثْمَانُ فَاسْتَحْلَاهُ، فَلَمَّا رَأَى عَبْدُ اللَّهِ أَنْ لَيْسَتْ لَهُ حَاجَةٌ قَالَ لِي: تَعَالَ يَا عَلْقَمَةَ! فَجِئْتُ، فَقَالَ لَهُ عُثْمَانُ: أَلَا نَزَوَّجُكَ يَا أَبَا عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ! جَارِيَةً بَكْرًا لَعَلَّهُ يَرْجِعُ إِلَيْكَ مِنْ نَفْسِكَ مَا كُنْتَ تَعْهَدُ؟ فَقَالَ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ: لَئِنْ قُلْتَ ذَلِكَ لَقَدْ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَقُولُ: «مَنْ اسْتَطَاعَ مِنْكُمْ الْبَاءَةَ فَلْيَتَزَوَّجْ فَإِنَّهُ أَعْضٌ لِلْبَصْرِ وَأَخْصَنُ لِلْفَرْجِ، وَمَنْ لَمْ يَسْتَطِعْ مِنْكُمْ فَعَلَيْهِ بِالصَّوْمِ فَإِنَّهُ لَهُ وَجَاءٌ».

Chapter 2. What Has Been Ordered Regarding Marrying A Religious Woman

(المعجم ٢) - بَابُ مَا يُؤْمَرُ بِهِ مِنْ تَزْوِيجِ
ذَاتِ الدِّينِ (التحفة ٢)

2047. Abū Hurairah narrated that the Prophet ﷺ said: “Women are married for four (reasons): For their wealth, their nobility, their beauty, and their religion. So be successful with one of religion — may your hands be covered in dust!” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

٢٠٤٧ - حَدَّثَنَا مُسَدَّدٌ: حَدَّثَنَا يَحْيَى يَعْنِي
ابْنَ سَعِيدٍ: حَدَّثَنِي عُبَيْدُ اللَّهِ: حَدَّثَنِي سَعِيدُ بْنُ
أَبِي سَعِيدٍ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ عَنْ
النَّبِيِّ ﷺ قَالَ: «تُنكَحُ النِّسَاءَ لِأَرْبَعٍ: لِمَالِهَا
وَلِحَسَبِهَا وَلِحَمَالِهَا وَلِدِينِهَا، فَأَظْفَرُ بِذَاتِ
الدِّينِ تَرِبَتْ يَدَاكَ».

Comments:

The Arabic proverb “Taribat yadāk” (may your hands be covered in dust) is said to awaken a desire or longing for something. It is a way of exhortation, not an imprecation. While marrying a woman, one should give precedence to her religiosity and piety over her other qualities.

Chapter 3. Marrying Virgins

(المعجم ٣) بَابُ: فِي تَزْوِيجِ الْأَبْكَارِ
(التحفة ٣)

2048. Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh narrated: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said to me: ‘Have you gotten married?’ I replied: ‘Yes.’ He said: ‘To a virgin, or one previously married?’ I said: ‘To one previously married.’ He said: ‘And why not to a virgin whom you would play with, and who would play with you?’” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

٢٠٤٨ - حَدَّثَنَا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ حَنْبَلٍ: حَدَّثَنَا
أَبُو مُعَاوِيَةَ: أَخْبَرَنَا الْأَعْمَشُ عَنْ سَالِمِ بْنِ
أَبِي الْجَعْدِ، عَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ قَالَ: قَالَ
لِي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «أَتَزَوَّجْتَ؟» قُلْتُ: نَعَمْ،
قَالَ: «يَكْرُ أَمْ يَيْبُ؟» قُلْتُ: نَيْبًا قَالَ: «أَفَلَا
يَكْرًا تَلَاعِبُهَا وَتَلَاعِبُكَ».

Chapter (...) The Prohibition Of Marrying Women Who Do Not Give Birth

(المعجم...) - بَابُ النَّهْيِ عَنِ تَزْوِيجِ
مَنْ لَمْ يَلِدْ مِنَ النِّسَاءِ (التحفة ٤)
قال أبو داود: كَتَبَ إِلَيَّ حُسَيْنُ بْنُ حُرَيْثِ
الْمُرَوَّزِيُّ.

2049. Ibn ‘Abbās narrated: “A man came to the Prophet ﷺ and said: ‘My wife does not prevent the touch of one who touches.’ He replied: ‘Separate from her.’ He said: ‘I fear that my soul will be attached to her.’ He said: ‘Then enjoy her.’” (Sahih)

٢٠٤٩ - حَدَّثَنَا الْفَضْلُ بْنُ مُوسَى عَنِ
الْحُسَيْنِ بْنِ وَاقِدٍ، عَنْ عُمَارَةَ بْنِ أَبِي
حَفْصَةَ، عَنْ عِكْرِمَةَ، عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ:
جَاءَ رَجُلٌ إِلَى النَّبِيِّ ﷺ فَقَالَ: إِنَّ امْرَأَتِي لَا
تَمْنَعُ يَدَ لَأَمْسٍ. قَالَ: «عَرَّبَهَا». قَالَ: أَخَافُ
أَنْ تَتَّبِعَهَا نَفْسِي. قَالَ: «فَاسْتَمْتِعْ بِهَا».

تخریج: [إسناده صحيح] أخرجه النسائي، الطلاق، باب ما جاء في الخلع، ح: ٣٤٩٤ عن الحسين بن حريث به.

Comments:

It is an authentic Hadith. “It is: She does not prevent one who intends immorality with her; or, she does not prevent anyone who seeks something from her husband’s wealth.” (Awn Al-Ma’būb) See An-Nasā’ī nos. 3231 and 3494. And they say it means simply that she, being a dignified and respectable woman, does not feel alienated or repelled by strangers (and yet is not guilty of immoral conduct). Thereupon, the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ counseled him to divorce her, but when he told him his weakness, he let him keep her.

2050 (A). It was reported from Mustalim bin Sa’eed the son of the sister of Manṣūr bin Zādhān, from Manṣūr, meaning Ibn Zādhān, from Mu’āwiyah bin Qurrah, from Ma’qal bin Yasār, who said: “A man came to the Prophet ﷺ and said: ‘I have encountered a woman of nobility and beauty, but she cannot give birth. Should I marry her?’ He said: ‘No.’ The man then came to him a second time, but he prohibited him. He then came for the third time, and the Prophet ﷺ said: ‘Marry loving women who give birth, for I will compete with you against other nations.”

Comments:

It does not mean that there is an absolute ban on marrying a barren woman. In fact, a marriage has many motives. Marrying such a woman is permissible, even desirable, for some reasons.

2050 (B). (Al-Ḥasan bin ‘Alī narrated to us: “I heard Yazīd bin Hārūn saying: ‘I saw Mustalim, he would stumble right and left.’” Al-Ḥasan bin ‘Alī said: “His side never touched the ground for forty years.” Abū Dāwūd said: Mustalim bin Sa‘eed was the son of the brother, or the son of the sister of Maṣṣūr bin Zādhān, he went for seventy days without a drink of water.) (Hasan)

Chapter 4. Regarding Allāh’s Statement: The Fornicatress Does Not Marry Except A Fornicator

(المعجم ٤) بَابُ: فِي قَوْلِهِ تَعَالَى: ﴿الزَّانِي لَا يَنْكِحُ إِلَّا زَانِيَةً﴾ [النور: ٣] (التحفة ٥)

٢٠٥٢ - حَدَّثَنَا مُسَدَّدٌ وَأَبُو مَعْمَرٍ قَالَا: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الْوَارِثِ عَنْ حَبِيبٍ: حَدَّثَنِي عَمْرُو بْنُ شُعَيْبٍ عَنْ سَعِيدِ الْمَقْبَرِيِّ، عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «لَا يَنْكِحُ الزَّانِي الْمَجْلُودَ إِلَّا مِثْلَهُ».

وقال أبو معمر: قال حدثنا حبيب المعلم عن عمرو بن شعيب.

تخريج: [إسناده صحيح] أخرجه أحمد: ٣٢٤/٢ من حديث عبدالوارث به وصححه الحاكم: ١٦٦/٢ ووافقه الذهبي.

Comments:

This Hadith further explains and confirms what has been said in the previous Hadith, namely, a man of ill repute should marry a woman like him.

Chapter 5. A Man Frees His Slave And Then Marries Her

(المعجم ٥) بَابُ: فِي الرَّجُلِ يُعْتَقُ أَمَتَهُ ثُمَّ يَتَزَوَّجُهَا (التحفة ٦)

٢٠٥٣ - حَدَّثَنَا هَنَّادُ بْنُ السَّرِيِّ: حَدَّثَنَا عَبَّاسُ بْنُ مُطَرِّفٍ، عَنْ عَامِرٍ، عَنْ أَبِي بُرْدَةَ، عَنْ أَبِي مُوسَى قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «مَنْ أَعْتَقَ جَارِيَتَهُ وَتَزَوَّجَهَا كَانَ لَهُ أَجْرَانِ».

Comments:

This Hadith exhorts the Muslims to free the captives and slaves.

2054. Anas bin Mālik narrated that the Prophet ﷺ freed Ṣafīyah, and made that (emancipation) her dowry. (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Chapter 6. Foster-Feeding Prohibits What Lineage Prohibits

2055. ‘Āishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ, narrated that the Prophet ﷺ said: “Foster-feeding prohibits what is prohibited by delivery.” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

(المعجم ٦) بَابُ: يَحْرُمُ مِنَ الرَّضَاعَةِ مَا يَحْرُمُ مِنَ النَّسَبِ (التحفة ٧)

٢٠٥٥ - حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ مَسْلَمَةَ عَنْ مَالِكٍ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ دِينَارٍ، عَنْ سُلَيْمَانَ ابْنِ يَسَارٍ، عَنْ عُرْوَةَ، عَنْ عَائِشَةَ زَوْجِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ قَالَ: «يَحْرُمُ مِنَ الرَّضَاعَةِ مَا يَحْرُمُ مِنَ الْوِلَادَةِ».

Comments:

Rabibah (step-daughter) that is, the daughter of one's wife from her previous husband, is also unlawful when her mother is married to him.

Chapter 7. Regarding The Husband Of The Foster-Mother

(المعجم ٧) بَابُ: فِي لَبَنِ الْفَحْلِ
(التحفة ٨)

2057. 'Aishah narrated: "Aflah bint Abī Al-Qu'ais entered upon me, so I covered myself from him. He said: 'Do you cover yourself from me, even though I am your uncle?' I said: 'How so?' He replied: 'My brother's wife breast-fed you.' I replied: 'It was the woman who breast-fed me, not the man.' When the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ came, I informed him of that, and he replied: 'He is your uncle, so he

Comments:

A woman who suckles is a foster mother, and, hence, her husband is a foster father, and her brother is a foster uncle. In short, one is connected with the relatives of his or her foster mother in the same way as one's own parents.

Chapter 8. Regarding Breast-Feeding An Adult

(المعجم ٨) بَابُ: فِي رَضَاعَةِ الْكَبِيرِ

(التحفة ٩)

2058. ‘Āishah narrated: “Once the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ visited me and saw a man sitting with me.” — Ḥaḥḥ (one of the narrators) said: “He disapproved of that, and his face changed.” — “I said: ‘O Messenger of Allāh! He is my brother through fosterage.’ He replied: ‘Be careful regarding your brothers, for breast-feeding is (only established through) through hunger.’” (Saḥīḥ)

Comments:

Suckling shall be taken into account only if it takes place within a span of two years and with the purpose to feed an infant, that is, when an infant is suckled until it is satisfied. This point has been explained further in another Ḥadīth, that an infant has been suckled five times.

2059. It was reported that Sulaimān bin Al-Mughīrah narrated from Abū Mūsā, from his father, from a son of ‘Abdullāh bin Mas‘ūd, from Ibn Mas‘ūd, who said: “There is no fosterage except

In the presence of a more learned person, it does not behoove a person of lower rank to give a ruling on a point of law. That is the way to honor learned scholars.

Chapter 9. (About) Who Was Made Prohibited Through Adult Fosterage

(المعجم ٩) - بَابُ مَنْ حَرَّمَ بِهِ
(التحفة ١٠)

revealed: 'Name them by their father's...' up to His saying: '...your brothers in faith, and your freed slaves.'^[1] So their names were then restored to their father's, and the one whose father was not known became a Mawlā and a brother in religion. The wife of Abū Ḥudhaifah, Sahlah bint Suhail bin 'Amr Al-Qurashī Al-'Āmirī came and said: 'O Messenger of Allāh, we used to consider Sālim a son, and he would live with me and Abū Salamah in one house, and see me as I am (normally in my home). And you are aware of what Allāh has revealed regarding them (adopted children), so what do you think should be done with him (Sālim)?' He replied: 'Breast-feed him.' So she breast-fed him five breast-feedings, and he became like a foster-son to her." And so 'Āishah would follow that decision, and would command her sister's daughters and brother's daughters to breast-feed five times those whom 'Āishah wished to visit her, even if he was an adult, and they would then visit her. As for Umm Salamah and the rest of the Prophet's ﷺ wives, they refused to allow anyone to visit them after such a breast-feed, unless he was breast-fed while an infant. And they would say to 'Āishah: "By Allāh, we do not know, for this might have been a concession from the Prophet ﷺ to Sālim, specifically for him and not for anyone else." (Sahīh)

According to the majority of scholars, suckling a more than two-year old infant does not establish foster relationship.

Chapter 10. Does Breast-Feeding Less Than Five Times Establish Fosterage?

2062. It was reported from ‘Amrah bint ‘Abdur-Raḥmān, from ‘Āishah, that she said: “Allāh had initially revealed in the Qur’ān that ten feedings prohibit (marriage); then this was abrogated with five known breast-feedings. So when the Prophet ﷺ passed away, this was recited as part of the Qur’ān.” (Saḥīḥ)

Chapter 12. Women Whom It Is Disliked To Combine Between (In Marriage)

(المعجم ١٢) - بَابُ مَا يُكْرَهُ أَنْ يَجْمَعَ بَيْنَهُنَّ مِنَ النِّسَاءِ (التحفة ١٣)

2065. It was reported from Dāwud bin Abī Hind, from ‘Āmir, from Abū Hurairah, that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: "A woman should not be married alongside her paternal aunt, nor an aunt alongside her brother's daughter, nor a woman alongside her maternal aunt, nor a maternal aunt alongside her sister's daughter. And one who is older should not be married alongside one who is younger, nor one who is younger alongside one who is older." (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Comments:

It is prohibited to combine (that is, marry) a paternal aunt and her niece, or a maternal aunt and her niece concurrently. This prohibition is temporary, not permanent, if he was no longer married to the niece, he could marry her aunt, etc.

2066. It was reported from Ibn Shihāb, who said: “Qabīṣah bin Dhūw’ayb informed me that he heard Abū Hurairah saying: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ prohibited (that a man) combine between a woman and her maternal aunt and between a woman and her paternal aunt.” (Sahih)

Comments:

‘Alī’s planned second marriage, had it taken place, would hurt Fāṭimah, a thing which, in turn, would hurt the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ. This would ultimately be harmful to ‘Alī himself. That is the reason why ‘Alī was told not to marry Abū Jahl’s daughter, aside from the issue of what comes with marrying the daughter of Abū Jahl. This case proves that Muslims are forbidden to cause annoyance to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ by an action even if it is otherwise permissible.

2070. (Another chain) with this narration (similar to no. 2069), he said: “So ‘Alī, may Allāh be pleased with him, did not pursue that proposal.” (Sahih)

٢٠٧١ - حَدَّثَنَا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ يُونُسَ وَقُتَيْبَةُ بْنُ

narrated that he heard the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ say, while he was upon the Minbar: “Banū Hishām bin Al-Mughīrah have asked my permission to marry their daughter to ‘Alī bin Abī Ṭālib. So I will not give them permission, and again I will not give them permission, and again I will not give them permission, unless Ibn Abī Ṭālib wishes to divorce my daughter and marry their daughter. For my daughter is a part of me, whatever causes her doubt causes me doubt, and whatever hurts her hurts me.” (Sahih) سَعِيدُ الْمَعْنَى قَالَ أَحْمَدُ: حَدَّثَنَا اللَّيْثُ: حَدَّثَنِي عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ أَبِي مُؤَيْبَةَ الْقُرَشِيُّ النَّبِيُّ أَنَّ الْمَسُورَ بْنَ مَخْرَمَةَ حَدَّثَهُ أَنَّهُ سَمِعَ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ عَلَى الْمِنْبَرِ يَقُولُ: «إِنَّ بَنِي هِشَامِ بْنِ الْمُغِيرَةِ اسْتَأْذَنُوا أَنْ يُنْكِحُوا ابْنَتَهُمْ مِنْ عَلِيِّ بْنِ أَبِي طَالِبٍ فَلَا أَدْنُ ثُمَّ لَا أَدْنُ ثُمَّ لَا أَدْنُ! إِلَّا أَنْ يُرِيدَ ابْنُ أَبِي طَالِبٍ أَنْ يُطَلِّقَ ابْنَتِي وَيَنْكِحَ ابْنَتَهُمْ فَإِنَّمَا ابْنَتِي بَضْعَةٌ مِنِّي يُرِيدُنِي مَا أَرَابَهَا وَيُؤْذِنُنِي مَا آذَاهَا» وَالْإِخْبَارُ فِي حَدِيثِ أَحْمَدَ.

Comments:

The Hadūth gives the reason why the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ did not like ‘Alī to take the daughter of Abū Jahl as a second wife.

Chapter 13. Regarding Mut’ah Marriages

(المعجم ١٣) بَابُ: فِي نِكَاحِ الْمُتْعَةِ
(التحفة ١٤)

2072. Az-Zuhrī narrated: “We were in the company of ‘Umar bin ‘Abdul-‘Azīz, and began discussing Mut’ah with women. A person by the name of Rabī’ bin Sabrah said: ‘I testify that I heard my father say, that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ forbade it during the Farewell Pilgrimage.’” (Da’if)

Chapter 14. Regarding Shighār Marriages

(المعجم ١٤) بَابُ: فِي الشُّغَارِ
(التحفة ١٥)

2074. It was reported from Nāfi', from Ibn 'Umar, that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ forbade Shighār marriages.

Musad-dad (one of the narrators) added in his narration: "So I said to Nāfi':^[1] 'What is Shighār?' He said: 'A man marries his daughter and the gift (of dowry) is that he gets to marry the other man's daughter. Or he marries the sister of a man and marries him to his sister without a gift (of dowry).'" (Sahih)

Comments:

Among the various modes of marriage prevalent in the pre-Islamic Age of Ignorance, one was Mut'ah, a temporary marriage contracted for a specified time period. Islam prohibited this type of temporary marriage.

2075. Al-A'raj narrated that Al-'Abbās bin 'Abdullāh bin Al-'Abbās married his daughter to 'Abdur-Raḥmān bin Al-Ḥakam, while 'Abdur-Raḥmān married his daughter to him (Al-'Abbās), making the two women the dowry ٢٠٧٥ - حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ يَحْيَى بْنِ فَارِسٍ: حَدَّثَنَا يَعْقُوبُ بْنُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ: حَدَّثَنَا أَبِي عَنْ ابْنِ إِسْحَاقَ: حَدَّثَنِي عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ ابْنُ هُرَيْرَةَ الْأَعْرَجُ: أَنَّ الْعَبَّاسَ بْنَ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ ابْنَ الْعَبَّاسِ أَنْكَحَ عَبْدَ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنَ الْحَكَمِ.

Comments:

Scholars are unanimous over the prohibition of the Shighār marriage.

Chapter 14/15. Regarding Tahlīl (Intentionally Marrying A Divorcee To Make Her Permissible For Her First Husband)

(المعجم ١٤، ١٥) بَابُ: فِي التَّحْلِيلِ
(التحفة ١٦)

2076. 'Alī narrated: — Ismā'il (one of the narrators) said: "And I think it was from the Prophet ﷺ" — "The one who marries in order to make a woman permissible (for her first husband) is cursed, as is the one on whose behalf it was done." (Da'if)

Comments:

It is prohibited to marry a woman irrevocably divorced (that is, divorced three times) and have relations with her, solely with the intent to enable her first husband to re-marry her. Both the one who does that, and the one for whom it is done, have been cursed by the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ.

٢٠٧٧ - حَدَّثَنَا وَهْبُ بْنُ بَقِيَّةَ عَنْ خَالِدٍ، عَنْ حُصَيْنٍ عَنْ عَامِرٍ، عَنِ الْحَارِثِ الْأَعْوَرِ، عَنْ رَجُلٍ مِنْ أَصْحَابِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ قَالَ: قَرَأْنَا أَنَّهُ عَلِيٌّ، عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ بِمَعْنَاهُ.

Chapter 15/16. A Slave Getting Married Without The Permission Of His Owner

2078. It was reported from Muḥammad bin ‘Aqīl, from Jābir, who said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: ‘Any slave who marries without the permission of his owner is a fornicator.’” (Da‘īf)

Abū Dāwud said: This Hadīth is weak, rather, it is Mawqūf, and it is a statement of Ibn ‘Umar.

2081. It was reported from Nāfi‘, from Ibn ‘Umar, that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “Let not any of you give a proposal of marriage after the proposal of his brother, and let him not sell after his brother has sold, except with his permission.” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Comments:

When a person sends a word to a woman’s guardian asking for her hand, another Muslim should not send his proposal to them, knowing that the first person has as yet received no reply to his request.

Chapter 17/18. A Person Looks At A Woman Whom He Desires To Marry

2082. Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “If any of you proposes for a woman, then if he is able to look at what will cause him to marry her, he should do so.” Jābir added: “So I proposed for the hand of a young girl, and I would hide myself (to look at) her, until I saw of her what caused me to marry her, so I married her.” (Ḥasan)

ابن المُسَيَّبِ، عن أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «لَا يَخْطُبُ الرَّجُلُ عَلَى خِطْبَةِ أَخِيهِ».

Comments:

Looking at what is normally visible of the woman one wants to marry before marriage is preferable and commendable (Mustahabb). That is what Jābir, may Allāh be pleased with him, did, but free and unrestricted contacts or meetings are prohibited.

Chapter 18/19. Regarding The Guardian

(المعجم ۱۸، ۱۹) بَابُ: فِي الْوَالِيِّ

(التحفة ۲۰)

2083. ‘Āishah narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “Any woman who marries without the permission of her guardian — then her marriage is void,” (he repeated it) three times, and he added: “So if he consummated the marriage with her, she is entitled to the dowry because of what he has attained from her. And if they differ, then the Sulṭān is the guardian of the one who does not have one.” (Ṣaḥīh)

Comments:

A woman's close relatives who decide important matters relating to her are called “legal guardians” (Awliyā', singular: Walī). Her paternal relatives (Aṣabah) have priority over her other relatives, according to most scholars. In case she has no relative, the ruler is her Walī (legal guardian). The ruling that no adult girl or woman may be married without the permission of her legal guardian is based on the textual evidence in the Qur'ān and Ḥadīth. Abū Hurairah narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “No woman should arrange the marriage of another woman, and no woman should arrange her own marriage. The adulteress is the who arranges her own marriage.” (Sunan Ibn Mājah, Ḥadīth 1882).

Chapter 19/20. Regarding The Guardian Preventing The Woman From Marriage

2087. Ma'qal bin Yasār narrated: "I had a sister, and suitors would come to me proposing for her. A cousin of mine came (as a suitor), so I married her to him. He then divorced her with a revocable divorce, and left her until her waiting period finished. So when suitors came for her, he too came and proposed. I said: 'By Allāh! I will never marry her to you again.' So Allāh revealed, regarding me: And if you divorce women, and they have completed their appointed terms, do not prevent them from marrying their husbands...^[1] So I expiated for my oath, and married her off to him." (Sahih)

Comments:

A legal guardian must have regard and take into consideration the woman's choice or inclination to marry a particular person. Moreover, this event proves that marriage is invalid without the consent of a woman's legal guardian.

Chapter 20/21. If Two Guardians Marry Her Off

2088. It was reported from Al-Ḥasan, from Samurah, that the Prophet ﷺ said: "Any woman who was married off by two guardians (to two different persons) will be

2089. It was reported from Ibn ‘Abbās, regarding the Verse: “It is not permitted for you to inherit women against their will. And do not prevent them from re-marrying...” Ibn ‘Abbās said: “If a person died, his guardians had more right to his wife than her own guardians. If one of them wished, he would marry her, and if they wished, they would not marry her. So this Verse was revealed in regard to this practice.” (Sahih)

Chapter 22/23. Seeking The Girl's Permission

2092. It was reported from Yahyā from Abū Salamah, from Abū Hurairah, that the Prophet ﷺ said: "A previously married woman is not married until she commands so, and a virgin (is not married) except with her permission." They asked: "And what will (count) as her permission?" He replied: "That she remains silent." (Sahih)

Comments:

It is not proper for a father to give away his daughter in marriage to someone without her consent. In case the father's action is improper or injudicious, the judge has the right to revoke the marriage agreement.

Chapter 24/25. Regarding Widowed And Divorced Women

(المعجم ٢٤، ٢٥) بَابُ: فِي النِّيبِ

(التحفة ٢٦)

2098. It was reported from Mālik, from ‘Abdullāh bin Al-Faḍl, from Nāfi‘ bin Jubair, from Ibn ‘Abbās, who said that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “The widow has more right regarding herself than her guardian, and the virgin is asked regarding herself. And her consent is her silence.” (Ṣaḥīh)

Comments:

It is better for a legal guardian to marry a widow to a person of her choice or liking, providing there is no legal reason making him not suitable.

2101. Khansā' bint (Khidhām) Al-Anṣāriyyah narrated that her father married her to someone and she had been previously married, but she did not approve of the marriage. So she went to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and mentioned it to him, and he cancelled the marriage. (Sahīh)

Chapter 25/26. Regarding Suitability

(المعجم ٢٥، ٢٦) بَابُ: فِي الْأَكْفَاءِ

(التحفة ٢٧)

2102. Abū Hurairah narrated that Abū Hind cupped the Prophet ﷺ on his scalp. The Prophet ﷺ said: “O Banū Bayāḍah, marry (your daughters) to Abū Hind, and propose to him (for his daughters).” And he added: “And if there is any good in any of the medicines that you cure yourselves with, it is in cupping.” (Hasan)

تخریج: [إسناده حسن] أخرجه الدارقطني: ٣/٣٠٠، ح: ٣٧٥٢ من حديث حماد بن سلمة به وصححه ابن حبان، ح: ١٢٤٩ والحاكم: ١٦٤/٢ على شرط مسلم ووافقه الذهبي.

Comments:

Chapter 26/27. Marrying Someone That Is Not Yet Born

2103. Maimūnah bint Kardam narrated: “I went with my father for Hajj with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, and I saw the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ. My father came close to him, and he (the Prophet ﷺ) was atop a camel of his, so he stopped and listened to him, and he had a small stick with him — the type that is used to discipline schoolchildren — I heard the Bedouins and the people say: ‘(Make way for the one) with the stick, (make way for the one) with the stick, (make way for the one) with the stick.’ So my father managed to come close to him, held on to his stirrup, and testified to his (Messengership). The Prophet ﷺ stopped to listen to him, so he said: — ‘I was present at the army of ‘Athrān — Ibn Al-Muthanna (one of the narrators) said: “Gathrān.” — Tāriq bin Al-Muraqqa’ said: “Who will give me a spear, in return for its prize?” I said: “And what is its prize?” He replied: “I will marry the first daughter that is born to me to him.” So I gave him my spear. Then I did not see him, until I heard that a daughter had been born to him, and had become of age. I came to him, and said: ‘Prepare my wife for me (to take)!’ But he swore that he would not give her to me until I gave her a new dowry — other than what I had already given him (the spear).

Comments:

One Uqiyyah is forty Dirhams of silver. Hence, the amount of twelve and a half Uqiyyah comes to five hundred Dirhams. According to more modern rates, one Dirham is 2.975 grams of silver, and, according to some earlier scholars, 3.06 grams.

2106. Abū Al-'Ajfā' As-Sulamī narrated that 'Umar bin Al-Khattāb once delivered a sermon in which he said: "Verily, do not make women's dowries expensive, for had this been a means of praise in this world, or a means of pleasing Allāh, then the first person that would have done so would have been the Prophet ﷺ. But the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ did not give any of his wives more than twelve Uqiyyah as dowry, nor was the dowry for any of his daughters more than that." (Ḥasan)

Comments:

A rich or well-to-do person may give more in a dowry (Mahr). It is not forbidden, providing the intention is not to show off. To give large sums of money as a Mahr for ostentation or to force the groom to do so, or the groom withholding it — all would be improper. Likewise, it is also wrong for a well-to-do man to fix a small amount of Mahr.

2108. Az-Zuhrī said: “An-Najāshī married Umm Ḥabībah bint Abī Sufyān to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ with a dowry of four thousand Dirhams, and he wrote to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ regarding this, and he ﷺ accepted it.” (Da'if)

Comments:

The marriage agreement should bind the bridegroom to pay a Mahr which is reasonable and convenient for both, the bride and the bridegroom.

2110. It was reported from Mūsā bin Muslim Ibn Rūmān, from Abū Az-Zubair, from Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh, that the Prophet ﷺ said: “Whoever gives as dowry to a woman a cupped hand’s worth of barley or dates has made her permissible.” (Da‘īf)

Abū Dāwud said: ‘Abdur-Raḥmān bin Mahdī reported it from Šāliḥ bin Rūmān, from Abū Az-Zubair, from Jābir in Mawqūf form. And Abū ‘Āšim reported it from Šāliḥ bin Rūmān, from Abū Az-Zubair, from Jābir; he said: “During the lifetime of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, we would engage in Mut‘ah marriages in exchange for only a handful of food (as dowry).”

Abū Dāwud said: Ibn Juraij reported it from Abū Az-Zubair, from Jābir similar to the meaning of Abū ‘Āšim.

Temporary marriage (Mut'ah) was permissible but banned later. The Hadīth appears to date back to the time before it was prohibited permanently.

Chapter 29/30. On the Dowry Being Some Actions That He Must Perform

2111. Sahl bin Sa'd As-Sā'idi narrated that a woman came to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and said: "O Messenger of Allāh, I have given myself to you as a gift." She remained standing for a long time, until a man stood up and said: "O Messenger of Allāh, marry her to me, if you do not desire her." The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: "Do you have any dowry to give her?" He replied: "I have only this Izār of mine." The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: "If you give her your Izār, you will be confined (to your house), having no Izār! So go find something else." He said: "I can't find anything." He replied: "Go find (something), even if it be an iron ring!" So he searched, but could not find anything. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ then said to him: "Do you have anything of the Qur'an (memorized)?" He replied: "Yes, this Sūrah, and this Sūrah," and others that he named. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: "I have married her to you with what is with you of the Qur'an." (Ṣaḥīḥ)

1. A marriage agreement without a specified Mahr is valid but it obligates the groom to pay a Mahr similar to that normally paid to other women of the bride’s family, like her mother, sister, etc — in the event that the husband dies.
2. A woman whose husband died before the consummation of marriage shall complete her Iddah (the legally prescribed period of waiting during which a woman may not remarry after being widowed or divorced) prior to remarriage.

2117. ‘Uqbah bin ‘Āmir narrated that the Prophet ﷺ told a man: “Are you satisfied if I marry you to so-and-so?” He said: “Yes.” And he asked the woman: “Are you satisfied if I marry so-and-so to you?” She replied: “Yes.” So they were married to one another, and the man consummated the marriage without specifying the dowry amount, and he did not give her anything (as dowry). He had participated during Al-Ḥudaybiyyah — and everyone who had participated in Al-Ḥudaybiyyah had been allocated a share of (the produce of) Khaibar. So when he was about to die, he said: ‘The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ married me to so-and-so, and I did not specify her dowry, nor did I give her

Comments:

It is the Sunnah of Allāh's Messenger to begin a discourse on important matters with similar to this sermon. It should especially be recited on the occasion of a wedding, although it is not a pillar (Rukn) vital to the validity of wedlock. For a wedding to be valid, only the consent of the Walī, the bridegroom and bride, as well as witnesses, are essential.

(المعجم ٣٥، ٣٦) - بَابُ مَا يُقَالُ

لِلْمُتَزَوِّجِ (التحفة ٣٧)

2130. Abū Hurairah narrated that the Prophet ﷺ would say, when he wished to congratulate someone who got married: “Bāarak Allāhu laka, wa bāaraka ‘alaika, wa jama‘ bainakumā fi khair (May Allāh bless you, and (shower) His blessings upon you, and combine you together in good).” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Chapter 36/37. A Man That Marries A Woman And Finds Her Pregnant

(المعجم ٣٦، ٣٧) - بَابُ الرَّجُلِ يَتَزَوَّجُ

الْمَرْأَةَ فَيَجِدُهَا حُبْلَى (التحفة ٣٨)

٢١٣١ - حَدَّثَنَا مَخْلَدُ بْنُ خَالِدٍ وَالْحَسَنُ ابْنُ عَلِيٍّ وَمُحَمَّدُ بْنُ أَبِي السَّرِيِّ الْمَعْنَى قَالُوا: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الرَّزَّاقِ: أَخْبَرَنَا ابْنُ جُرَيْجٍ

“from the Companions of the Prophet ﷺ”, he did not say “from the Anṣār” — then they (the narrators) were in accord: “whose name was Baṣrah said: ‘I married a virgin who was still in her private compartment. When I entered upon her, I found that she was pregnant. The Prophet ﷺ said: ‘She is due her dowry because of the fact that you made her private part permissible for you, and the child will be a slave to you. And when she gives birth, lash her.’” Al-Ḥasan (one of the narrators) said: “inflict the punishment on her.”

(Da'if)

Abū Dāwud said: Qatādah reported this Ḥadīth from Sa'eed bin Yazīd, from Ibn Al-Musayyab, and Yaḥyā bin Abī Kathīr reported it from Yazīd bin Nu'aim, from Sa'eed bin Al-Musayyab and 'Atā' Al-Khurāsānī, from Sa'eed bin Al-Musayyab, and they all narrated it in Mursal form from the Prophet ﷺ. And in the narration of Yaḥyā bin Abī Kathīr it says that Baṣrah bin Aktham married a woman, and each of them said in his narration: “He made the child a slave for him.”

قال أبو داود: روى هذا الحديث قتادة عن سعيد بن يزيد، عن ابن المسيب، ورواه يحيى بن أبي كثير عن يزيد بن نعيم، عن سعيد بن المسيب وعطاء الخراساني عن سعيد بن المسيب، أرسلوه، كلهم، عن النبي ﷺ. وفي حديث يحيى بن أبي كثير أن بصره بن أكنم نكح امرأة، وكلهم قال في حديثه جعل الولد عبدًا له.

Comments:

If a man, having more than one wife, conducts himself apparently with justice and fairness, he would not be held accountable for his natural inclination for any one of them.

2135. It was reported from Hishām bin ‘Urwah, from his father, that ‘Āishah said: “O nephew! The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ would not prefer any one of us to another with regards to spending time with us. And hardly a day would go by except that he would visit all of us, and he would come close to each woman, without touching her, until he reached the one whose turn it was, then he would spend the night with her. And when Sawdah bint Zam‘ah had become old, and feared that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ would leave her, she said: ‘O Messenger of Allāh! My day is for ‘Āishah.’ So the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ accepted that from her. Chapter 40/41. The Rights Of A Woman Upon Her Husband

(المعجم ٤٠، ٤١) بَابُ: فِي حَقِّ الْمَرْأَةِ عَلَى زَوْجِهَا (التحفة ٤٢)

2142. It was reported from Ḥakīm bin Mu‘āwiyah Al-Qushairī, from his father, that he asked: “O Messenger of Allāh! What are the rights that our wives have over us?” He replied: “That you feed her when you eat, and clothe her when you wear clothes, and that you avoid hitting her in the face, or disgracing her, and that you avoid abandoning her except at home.” (Sahih)

٢١٤٢ - حَدَّثَنَا مُوسَى بْنُ إِسْمَاعِيلَ: حَدَّثَنَا حَمَادٌ: أَخْبَرَنَا أَبُو قَزَعَةَ الْبَاهِلِيُّ عَنِ حَكِيمِ بْنِ مُعَاوِيَةَ الْقُشَيْرِيِّ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ قَالَ: قُلْتُ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ! مَا حَقُّ زَوْجَةِ أَحَدِنَا عَلَيْهِ؟ قَالَ: «أَنْ تُطْعِمَهَا إِذَا طَعِمْتَ، وَتَكْسُوَهَا إِذَا كُنْسَيْتَ» أَوْ «اُكْتَسَبْتَ وَلَا تَضْرِبَ الْوَجْهَ، وَلَا تُقْبِحَ، وَلَا تَهْجُرَ إِلَّا فِي الْبَيْتِ».

Abū Dāwud said: The meaning of “disgracing her” is to say: “May Allāh disfigure you.”

قَالَ أَبُو دَاوُدَ: «وَلَا تُقْبِحَ» أَنْ تَقُولَ: قَبَحَكَ اللَّهُ.

تخریج: [إسناده صحيح] أخرجه أحمد: ۳/۵ من حديث حماد بن سلمة، وابن ماجه، النكاح، باب حق المرأة على الزوج، ح: ۱۸۵۰ من حديث أبي قزعة به.

۲۱۴۳ - حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ بَشَّارٍ: حَدَّثَنَا يَحْيَى: حَدَّثَنَا بَهْزُ بْنُ حَكِيمٍ: حَدَّثَنَا أَبِي عَنْ جَدِّي قَالَ: قُلْتُ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ! نِسَاؤُنَا مَا نَأْتِي مِنْهُنَّ وَمَا نَذَرُ؟ قَالَ: «إِنَّكَ حَرَّتُكَ أُنِّي شِئْتِ، وَأَطْعَمَهَا إِذَا طَعِمْتَ، وَآكُمَهَا إِذَا آكَمْتِ، وَلَا تُفْجِحِ الْوَجْهَ وَلَا تَضْرِبِ». قَالَ أَبُو دَاوُدَ: رَوَى شُعْبَةُ: «تُطْعَمُهَا إِذَا طَعِمْتَ، وَتَكْسُوهَا إِذَا اكْتَسَيْتِ».

He said: "It is not permissible for a man who believes in Allāh and the Last Day that he discharges his water to a field that belongs to another" — meaning pregnant women, "and it is not permissible for a man who believes in Allāh and the Last Day that he uses a slave woman (sexually) until he confirms that she is free (of pregnancy). And it is not permissible for a man who believes in Allāh and the Last Day that he sells any spoils of war until it has been divided." (Hasan) الصَّنْعَانِي، عَنْ زُوَيْفِعِ بْنِ ثَابِتِ الْأَنْصَارِيِّ قَالَ: قَامَ فِينَا خَطِيبًا قَالَ: أَمَا إِنِّي لَا أَقُولُ لَكُمْ إِلَّا مَا سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَقُولُ يَوْمَ حُنَيْنٍ، قَالَ: «لَا يَحِلُّ لِامْرَأَةٍ يُؤْمِنُ بِاللَّهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ أَنْ يَسْقِيَ مَاءَهُ زَرْعَ غَيْرِهِ» - يَعْنِي إِتْيَانَ الْحَبَالَى، «وَلَا يَحِلُّ لِامْرَأَةٍ يُؤْمِنُ بِاللَّهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ أَنْ يَقَعَ عَلَى امْرَأَةٍ مِنَ السَّبْيِ حَتَّى يَسْتَبْرئَهَا، وَلَا يَحِلُّ لِامْرَأَةٍ يُؤْمِنُ بِاللَّهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ أَنْ يَبِيعَ مَغْنَمًا حَتَّى يُقَسَّمُ».

And he added: "And whoever believes in Allāh and the Last Day should not ride an animal from the spoils of the Muslims, such that when it tires he returns it to the spoils. And whoever believes in Allāh and the Last Day should not wear a garment from the spoils of the Muslims, such that when it wears out, he returns it back." (Hasan)

النِّكَاحِ (التحفة ٤٦)

2160. It was reported from ‘Amr bin Shu’aib, from his father, from his grandfather, that the Prophet ﷺ said: “When one of you marries a woman, or buys a servant, let him say: ‘Allāhumma! Innī as’aluka khairahā wa khaira mā jabaltahā ‘alaihi, wa a’ūdhu bika min sharrihā wa min sharri mā jabaltahā ‘alaih [O Allāh! I ask You of the good in her, and the good of what You have bestowed upon her (in her character). And I seek Your refuge from her evil, and the evil of what you have bestowed upon her (in her character).]’ And if he buys a mount, let him hold on to its forehead and say similarly.”

(Hasan)

Abū Dāwud said: Abū Sa‘eed added:^[1] “Then let him hold on to her forehead and supplicate for blessings” regarding the female servant.

شْتَمَ ﴿﴾، ح: ٤٥٢٨ من حديث سفيان الثوري به .

2164. It was reported from Ibn ‘Abbās, that Ibn ‘Umar made a mistake, and Allāh will forgive him. Rather, this (Verse was revealed) regarding a group of Anṣār — and they had been pagans, and a group of Jews — and they were People of the Scripture. The Jews would think that they were superior to them in knowledge; therefore the Anṣār would follow them in many of their ways. And of the ways of the People of the Scripture was that they would only approach their women from the side, for that is the most covered a woman can be. And this group of Anṣār had taken this act from them. As for the Quraish, they would spread their women in a manner that was objectionable to them, and would enjoy them from the front and from the back, and while lying down. So when the Muhājir arrived in Al-Madīnah, a man from among them married one of the ladies of the Anṣār, and he desired to do the same with her, but she reprimanded him, and said: ‘We used to be approached from our sides, so either do the same, or don’t come near me!’ And their matter spread (among the people), until the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ heard of it. At this, Allāh revealed: ‘Your women are as a tilth to you, so approach your tilth as and when you please...’, meaning: from their fronts, and from their backs, and while they are lying down, (but as

Chapter 45/46. Regarding Menstruating Women And Embracing Them

2165. Anas bin Mālik narrated: “When a Jewish woman would be in her menses, they would bar her from the house, and they would not eat with her, drink with her, or interact in the house with her. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ was asked about that, at which Allāh revealed: ‘They ask you regarding menses. Say: That is an harm, so abstain from women in their menses...’ until the end of the Verse.^[1] The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ then said: ‘Interact with them in their houses, and do everything except intercourse.’ The Jews then said: ‘This person does not leave any affair of ours except that he differs with us in it!’ So Usaid bin Ḥudair and ‘Abbād bin Bishr came to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and said: ‘O Messenger of Allāh, the Jews have said such and such, so should we not also have intercourse with them during their menses?’ At this, the face of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ changed (in anger), until

Comments:

‘Azl means separating from the wife just before climax and ejaculating outside of her.

“Will we do this while the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ is in our midst without having asked him first?” So we asked him about it, and he said: “There will be no harm upon you if you don’t do it. There is no soul that will be created until the Day of Judgment except that it shall be created.” (Sahih)

Comments:

'Azl is undesirable.

2173. Jābir narrated that a man from the Anṣār came to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and said: “I own a slave-girl whom I visit (cohabit with), and I dislike that she should become pregnant.” He replied: “Practice 'Azl if you wish, for whatever has been decreed for her will occur.” After a period of time, the man returned and said: “My slave-girl has become pregnant.” He said: “I had already informed you, whatever had been decreed for her will come to pass.” (Sahih)

Chapter 48/49. What Is Disliked Of A Man Mentioning What He Experienced With His Wife

2174. Abū Naḍrah narrated that a Shaiḥh from Ṭufāwah said: “I stayed as a guest in the house of Abū Hurairah in Al-Madinah, and

(المعجم ٤٨، ٤٩) - بَابُ مَا يُكْرَهُ مِنْ ذَمْرِ الرَّجُلِ مَا يَكُونُ مِنْ إِصَابَتِهِ أَهْلَهُ (التحفة ٥٠)

٢١٧٤ - حَدَّثَنَا مُسَدَّدٌ: حَدَّثَنَا بِشْرٌ: حَدَّثَنَا الْحُرَيْرِيُّ؛ ح: وَحَدَّثَنَا مُؤَمَّلٌ: حَدَّثَنَا إِسْمَاعِيلُ؛ ح: وَحَدَّثَنَا مُوسَى: حَدَّثَنَا حَمَادٌ

I never saw any of the Companions of the Prophet ﷺ more eager to please or serve his guest than him. Once, I was with him while he was lying on a bed, and he had a bag full of pebbles, or date-pits. And there was a black slave-girl of his (sitting on the floor) below him. He would perform Tasbiḥ with the stones, until he had finished what was in the bag, upon which he threw the bag at her upon that the slave-girl collected them and returned the bag to him. He then said: 'Should I not tell you about the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and I?' I said: 'Yes!' He said: 'Once, I was cleaning my teeth (with a Siwāk) in the Masjid when the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ entered and said: 'Where is the lad from Daws (Abū Hurairah)?' three times. A man said: 'O Messenger of Allāh, he is over there in the corner of the Masjid, brushing his teeth.' So he walked towards me until he reached me. He placed his hand upon me, and said some good words. I stood up, and he walked to the place where he led the prayer. He then turned to face the congregation, and there were two rows of men and one row of women, or one row of men and two rows of women. He said: 'If Shaitān causes me to forget anything in the prayer, then let the people say Tasbiḥ, (i.e., say, Subḥan Allāh) and let the women clap.' He then led the people in prayer, and he didn't forget anything in it. He then said: 'Stay in your places, stay in your places...” — Mūsā (one of the narrators) added: “ over here. Then, he praised Allāh and glorified him, and said, ‘Amma ba’du ‘As to what follows —” then the narrators were in accord: “He then faced the men and said: ‘Is there any man among you who goes to his wife, closes the door, and draws the curtain, thus screening himself with the screen of Allāh?’ They said: ‘Yes.’ He continued: ‘Then he sits afterwards and says: “I did this, I did that?”’ But they, too, remained silent at that. He then turned to the women and asked: “Are they any among you who discuss this?” But they remained silent. Then a young girl who had just passed puberty rose up on one of her knees, and stood up above the rest so that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ could see her and listen to her, and said: ‘O Messenger of Allāh, verily the men talk about this, and the women talk about it.’ He said: ‘Do you know what the example of that is? The example of that is like a female Shaitān who meets a male Shaitān, and he uses her to satisfy his desires while people look at them. Verily, the perfume of men is that whose scent is apparent and not its color. Verily, the perfume of women is that whose color is apparent and not its scent.”

Chapter 3. Regarding The Abhorrence Of Divorce

(المعجم ٣) بَابُ: فِي كَرَاهِيَةِ الطَّلَاقِ (التحفة ٣)

2177. It was reported from Ma‘rūf, from Muḥārib, that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “Allāh has not permitted anything that is more detestable to Him than divorce.” (Ḥasan)

٢١٧٧ - حَدَّثَنَا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ يُونُسَ: حَدَّثَنَا مُعَرَّفٌ عَنْ مُحَارِبِ قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «مَا أَحَلَّ اللَّهُ شَيْئًا أْبْغَضَ إِلَيْهِ مِنَ الطَّلَاقِ».

تخريج: [حسن] أخرجه البيهقي ٣٢٢/٧ من حديث أبي داود به وسنده ضعيف لإرساله وانظر الحديث الآتي.

2178. It was reported from Muḥārib bin Dithār, from Ibn ‘Umar, that the Prophet ﷺ said: “The most detestable of all permitted matters to Allāh the Exalted is divorce.” (Ḥasan)

تخريج: [إسناده حسن] أخرجه البيهقي ٣٢٢/٧ من حديث أبي داود وصححه الحاكم: ٢/١٩٦ ووافقه الذهبي على شرط مسلم ورواه ابن ماجه، ح: ٢٠١٨ من طريق آخر عن محارب بن دثار به.

Chapter 4. Regarding The Divorce According To The Sunnah

(المعجم ٤) بَابُ: فِي طَلَاقِ السُّنَّةِ (التحفة ٤)

take her back, then keep her until she is pure and then menstruates, and then becomes pure (again). Then, if he desires, he may keep her after that, and if he desires, he may divorce her before touching her. And that is the waiting period that Allāh has commanded to divorce women in.” (Sahih)

تخريج: أخرجه البخاري، الطلاق، باب: وقول الله تعالى: ﴿يَا أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ إِذَا طَلَقْتُمُ النِّسَاءَ...﴾ إلخ، ح: ٥٢٥١، ومسلم، الطلاق، باب تحريم طلاق الحائض بغير رضاها... إلخ، ح: ١٤٧١ من حديث مالك به وهو في الموطأ (يحيى): ٥٧٦/٢.

2180. It was reported from Al-Laith, from Nāfi' that Ibn 'Umar divorced one of his wives while she was menstruating with one divorce — narrating the same meaning as the narration of Mālik (no. 2179). (Sahih)

تخريج: أخرجه البخاري، الطلاق، باب: ﴿ويعولتهن أحق بردهن﴾ في العدة... إلخ، ح: ٥٣٣٢، ومسلم، انظر الحديث السابق، كلاهما عن قتيبة به.

تخريج: أخرجه مسلم، الطلاق، باب تحريم طلاق الحائض بغير رضاها... إلخ، ح: ٥/١٤٧١ من حديث وكيع به.

٢١٨٢ - حَدَّثَنَا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ صَالِحٍ: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْسَةُ: حَدَّثَنَا يُونُسُ عَنْ ابْنِ شِهَابٍ: أَخْبَرَنِي سَالِمُ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ عَنْ أَبِيهِ: أَنَّهُ طَلَّقَ

while she was in her menses. ‘Umar mentioned this to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, and he ﷺ became very angry with that. He then said: “Command him to take her back, then, let him keep her until she becomes pure, then has her menses, then becomes pure (again). Then, if he wishes, he can divorce her while she is in her state of purity and before he touches her. And that is the divorce in the proper waiting period that Allāh the Exalted has commanded.”

(Ṣaḥīḥ)

تخریج: أخرجه البخاري، الأحكام، باب: هل يقضي القاضي أو يقضي وهو غضبان؟، ح: ٧١٦٠ من حديث يونس بن يزيد ومسلم، الطلاق، باب تحريم طلاق الحائض بغير رضاها، ح: ٤/١٤٧١ من حديث ابن شهاب الزهري به.

2183. It was reported from Ayyūb, from Ibn Sīrīn that Yūnus bin Jubiar informed him that he asked Ibn ‘Umar: “How many times did you divorce your wife?” He replied: “Once.” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

تخریج: [إسناده صحيح] أخرجه مسلم، الطلاق، باب تحريم طلاق الحائض بغير رضاها ... إلخ، ح: ٧/١٤٧١ من حديث أيوب السخيتاني به وهو في مصنف عبدالرزاق، ح: ١٠٩٥٩ بطوله، ورواه البخاري انظر الحديث الآتي.

Comments:

1. These Aḥādīth are related to the meaning of the first Verse of the Sūrat At-Ṭalāq: Divorce them during their (legal waiting) period (65:1), that is, divorce them during the time they are in a state of purity, provided no intercourse takes place during this time.
2. Divorcing a woman during the period of her menstruation is contrary to Sunnah. However, if one divorces one’s wife during those days, the majority of scholars consider it a valid divorce.
3. If a woman has been divorced during her period of menses, that divorce shall be considered as one divorce, and the husband shall be told to retract. The right to retract rests with the husband, not with the legal guardian.

2184. It was reported from Yazīd bin Ibrāhīm, from Muḥammad bin Sīrīn, that Yūnus bin Jubair narrated to him: “I asked ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar regarding a man who divorces his wife while she was in her menses. He said: ‘Do you know Ibn ‘Umar?’ I replied: ‘Yes.’ He said: “‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar divorced his wife while she was in her menses, so ‘Umar went to the Prophet ﷺ and asked him about that. He replied: “Command him to take her back, then, divorce her at the beginning of her waiting period.” I said: ‘So should that (divorce) be counted?’ He replied: ‘And what else? Do you suppose he was incapable and acted like a fool?’” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

2185. It was reported from Abū Az-Zubair that he heard ‘Abdur-Raḥmān bin Ayman, the freed slave of ‘Urwah, asking Ibn ‘Umar — while Abū Az-Zubair was listening: “What is your opinion regarding a man who divorced his wife while she was in her menses?” He replied: “‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar divorced his wife while she was in her menses during the life of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ. So ‘Umar asked the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and said: ‘‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar divorced his wife while she was menstruating.’” ‘Abdullāh (Ibn ‘Umar) said: “So he (ﷺ) returned her to me, and did not consider it to be anything. And he said: ‘Once

عَبْدَ اللَّهِ بْنَ عُمَرَ طَلَّقَ امْرَأَتَهُ وَهِيَ حَائِضٌ،
فَأَتَى عُمَرَ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ فَسَأَلَهُ فَقَالَ: «مَرَّةٌ

فَرَدَّهَا عَلَيَّ وَلَمْ يَرَهَا شَيْئًا، وَقَالَ: إِذَا
طَهَّرْتَ فَلْيُطَلِّقْ أَوْ لِيُصَبِّحْكَ. قَالَ ابْنُ عُمَرَ:
وَقَرَأَ النَّبِيُّ ﷺ: (يَا أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ إِذَا طَلَّقْتُمُ

she is pure, let him divorce her, or let him keep her.” Ibn ‘Umar added: “And the Prophet ﷺ recited: O Prophet, if you divorce women, then divorce them at the beginning of their waiting periods.^[1]” (Sahih)

Abū Dāwūd said: This Hadīth was reported from Ibn ‘Umar by Yūnus bin Jubair, Anas bin Sirīn, Sa‘eed bin Jubair Zaid bin Aslam, Abū Az-Zubair, and Mansūr who reported it from Abū Wā’il, and with all of them is the meaning that the Prophet ﷺ commanded him to take her back until she became pure, then, if he desired, he should divorce her, or if he desired, he should keep her.

Abū Dāwūd said: And this is how Muḥammad bin ‘Abdur-Raḥmān reported it from Sālim, from Ibn ‘Umar. As for the narration of Az-Zuhri from Sālim, and that of Nāfi‘ from Ibn ‘Umar, (its meaning is) that the Prophet ﷺ commanded him to take her back until she became pure, and then menstruated, and then became pure, and then if he wished, he could divorce her or keep her.

Abū Dāwūd said: And it has been related from ‘Aṭā’ Al-Khurāsānī, from Al-Ḥasan, from Ibn ‘Umar, similar to the narration of Nāfi‘ and Az-Zuhri, and all of these narrations contradict what Abū Az-Zubair said.

Chapter 5. A Man Takes His Wife Back Without Any Witnesses

2186. ‘Imrān bin Ḥuṣāin was asked about a person who divorces his wife, and then engages (in intercourse) with her, without any witnesses of the divorce or of taking her back. He replied: “You have divorced contrary to the Sunnah, and you have taken her back contrary to the Sunnah. Have her divorce and your taking her back witnessed, and don’t repeat this.” (Hasan)

If he decides to return to his wife, it is recommended to have two witnesses informed of that.

Chapter 6. Regarding The Sunnah For Divorcing Slaves

2187. Abū Hasan, a freed-slave from Banū Nawfal, informed that he asked Ibn ‘Abbās regarding a slave who was married to a slave-girl but had divorced her twice; they were then both freed, so is it allowed for him to propose to her? He replied: “Yes, this is what the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ decreed.” (Da‘if)

Chapter 7. Regarding A Divorce Before The Marriage

(المعجم ٧) بَابُ: فِي الطَّلَاقِ قَبْلَ النِّكَاحِ (التحفة ٧)

2190. It was reported from ‘Amr bin Shu’aib, from his father, from his grandfather, that the Prophet ﷺ said: “There is no divorce except with (someone) in your possession, and there is no freeing (of a slave) except someone you own, and there is no transaction except with something that you own.”

Ibn Aṣ-Ṣabbāḥ (one of the narrators) added: “And there is no fulfilling of a vow except with what you own.” (Hasan)

٢١٩١ - حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ الْعَلَاءِ: أَخْبَرَنَا أَبُو أُسَامَةَ عَنْ الْوَلِيدِ بْنِ كَثِيرٍ: حَدَّثَنِي عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنُ الْحَارِثِ عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ بِإِسْنَادِهِ وَمَعْنَاهُ زَادَ: «وَمَنْ حَلَفَ عَلَى مَعْصِيَةٍ فَلَا يَمِينُ لَهُ، وَمَنْ حَلَفَ عَلَى قَطِيعَةٍ رَحِمَ فَلَا يَمِينُ لَهُ».

[1] “No swearing (Yamīn)” meaning either, he may not do what he swore to do, but he must atone for that, or, he is not considered one who swore, that is, the oath does not count, and he need not atone for it. See nos. 3272-3274.

Chapter 8. Regarding Divorcing By Mistake

2193. ‘Āishah narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “There is no divorce, nor freeing (of a slave) in the state of Ighlāq.” (Hasan)

Abū Dāwud said: I think that Ghilāq is anger.

Comments:

Ighlāq, means; “closed”. In the matter of divorce, it means “a deranged state of mind.” It may be due to drunkenness, a fit of demonic possession, or an uncontrollable fit of rage.

Chapter 9. Regarding A Divorce That Was Said In Jest

2194. Abū Hurairah narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “Three things, when done in earnest are counted as earnest, and when done in jest, are also counted as earnest: Marriage, divorce, and taking (a divorcee) back.” (Hasan)

Chapter 9,10. The Abrogation Of Taking Back A Wife After The Third Divorce

2195. It was reported from ‘Alī bin Ḥusain bin Wāqid, from his father, from Yazīd An-Naḥwī, from ‘Ikrimah, from Ibn ‘Abbās, that he recited (the Verse): “And divorced women shall wait regarding themselves for three menstrual periods. And it is not lawful for them to conceal what Allāh has created in their wombs”^[1] and said: “This was because a person who had divorced his wife was entitled to take her back, even if he had divorced her three times. But then that was abrogated, and (Allāh) said: Divorce is two times.”^[2] (Hasan)

It was reported from Ibn Juraij that one of the sons of Abū Rāfi‘, the freed slave of the Prophet ﷺ, informed him from ‘Ikrimah, the freed slave of Ibn ‘Abbās, from Ibn ‘Abbās, that he said: “Abd Yazīd, the father of Rukānah, and his brothers, divorced Umm Rukānah, and married a woman from Muzainah. She (the woman from Muzainah) came to the Prophet ﷺ and said: ‘He is as useful to me as this hair,’ and plucked a hair from her head: ‘So separate us from each other.’ The Prophet ﷺ became angry at that, so he called for Rukānah and his brothers, and asked those who were seated with him: ‘Do you see that so-and-so resembles Abd Yazīd in this way, and this one resembles him in that way?’ They said: ‘Yes.’ So the Prophet ﷺ said to Abd Yazīd: ‘Divorce her,’ and he did so. Then he said: ‘Take back your wife, the mother of Rukānah and his brothers.’ He said: ‘I divorced her three times, O Messenger of Allāh!’ He replied, ‘I know. his father, from his grand father — that Rukānah divorced his wife irrevocably (Al-Battah), and the Prophet ﷺ returned her to him^[1] — it is more correct, because the son and family of a man are more knowledgeable of him. So Rukānah only divorced his wife with an irrevocable divorce and the Prophet ﷺ counted it as one.

Ibn ‘Abbās remained quiet, until I thought that he would return her to him. Then he said: ‘One of you goes and commits a foolish act, and then cries out, “O Ibn ‘Abbās! O Ibn ‘Abbās!” even though Allāh says: And whoever has Taqwā of Allāh, Allāh will make a way out for him.^[2] So you did not have Taqwā of Allāh, and I do not find any way out for you. 2198. It was reported from Muḥammad bin Iyās that Ibn ‘Abbās, Abū Hurairah, and ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Amr bin Al-‘Āṣ were all asked regarding a virgin whose husband divorced her three times. They all replied: “She is not permitted for him until after she has married another husband (and that husband divorces her).” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Abū Dāwud said: Mālik reported from Yaḥayā bin Sa‘eed, from Bukair bin Al-Ashajj, from Mu‘āwiyah bin Abi ‘Ayyāsh, that he bore witness to this story when Muḥammad bin Iyās bin Al-Bukair came to Ibn Az-Zubair and ‘Āṣim bin ‘Umar and asked them regarding this issue. They both said: “Go to Ibn ‘Abbās and Abū Hurairah, for we left them while they were at ‘Āishah’s house, may Allāh be pleased with her.” Then he cited this narration.

Abū Dāwud said: And the saying of Ibn ‘Abbās that a triple divorce is irrevocable, regardless of whether the marriage has been consummated or not, and that she is not permitted for her husband until she marries another person, is similar to another narration from him, regarding Ṣarf, then Ibn ‘Abbās retracted from that.^[1]

2199. It was reported from Ayyūb and others, from Ṭāwūs, that a man by the name of Abū Aṣ-Ṣahbā' would frequently ask Ibn 'Abbās questions. Once, he said: "Are you not aware of the fact that if a man divorced his wife thrice, before he consummated the marriage with her, they would consider it as one during the time of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, and Abū Bakr, and the early period of 'Umar?" Ibn 'Abbās replied: "Yes, they would consider that if a man divorced his wife thrice before he consummated the marriage with her, it would be counted as one during the time of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, and Abū Bakr, and the early period of 'Umar. But when they saw people doing this (frequently), he said: 'Consider it all upon them.'" (Da'if)

(المعجم ١٠، ١١) بَابُ: فِي مَا عَنِيَ بِهِ الطَّلَاقُ وَالنِّيَّاتُ (التحفة ١١)

2201. ‘Umar bin Al-Khattāb narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “Actions are only done with intentions, and every person will only obtain what he intended. So whoever intended to emigrate for the sake of Allāh and His Messenger, then his emigration is for Allāh and His Messenger. And whoever emigrated due to a worldly benefit that would come to him, or because he wished to marry a woman, then his emigration will be for that which he emigrated.” (Ṣaḥīh)

Chapter 13/14. Regarding An Irrevocable (Al-Battah) Divorce

2206. It was reported from Nāfi' bin 'Ujair bin 'Abd Yazīd bin Rukānah, that Rukānah bin Abd Yazīd divorced his wife Suhaimah irrevocably (Al-Battah), and he then informed the Prophet ﷺ about that, and said: "By Allāh, I only intended one!" The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: "You swear by Allāh that you only intended one?" He replied: "I swear by Allāh that I only intended one." So the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ returned her to him. He then divorced her the second time during the era of 'Umar, and then the third time during the era of Divorce does not become valid until a person articulates the meaning of divorce, verbally or in writing. Just thinking of divorce does not make it valid.

Comments:

In case there is no conjugal felicity or harmony among couples, and the husband is unwilling to divorce and the wife is insisting on separation, there is no other way for the wife except to go to a Qāḍī (judge) and present her case before him. If the judge, after reviewing the facts of the case, asks the wife to return the Mahr the husband gave her, and then he revokes the marriage agreement binding them, this kind of separation is called Khul' (dislocation, discharge, etc) in Islamic law.

2227. It was reported from ‘Amrah bint ‘Abdur-Raḥmān bin Sa’d Ibn Zurārah, that Ḥabībah bint Sahl Al-Anṣāriyyah was married to Thābit bin Qais bin Shammās. Once the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ came out (of his house) in the early morning and found her at his door. He asked: “Who is this?” She replied: “I am Ḥabībah bint Sahl.” He said: “And what is the matter?” She replied: “Thābit bin Qais and I cannot (remain together).” So when Thābit bin Qais came, the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said to him: “This is Ḥabībah bint Sahl, and she has said whatever Allāh has willed her to say.” And Ḥabībah said: “O Messenger of Allāh! I (still) have everything that he has given me.” So the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said to Thābit bin Qais: “Take it from her,” so he took it from her, and she then went to her house. (Sahīh)

Chapter 18/19. Regarding A Slave Woman Who Was Married To A Slave Or Free Man And Then Freed

2231. It was reported from Khālīd Al-Ḥadh-dhā', from 'Ikrimah, from Ibn 'Abbās that Mughīth was a slave, and he said: "O Messenger of Allāh, intercede on my behalf with her."^[1] So the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: "O Barīrah; fear Allāh, for he is your husband, and the father of your children." She said: 'O Messenger of Allāh, are you commanding me with that?' He replied: "No, I am only an intercessor." And his tears were flowing down his cheeks, so the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said to 'Abbās: "Does it not amaze you how much Mughīth loves her, yet she hates him so?" (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Comments:

According to Shaikh Al-Albānī, the statement "he was a free man" is an interpolation, being merely the statement of Al-Aswad bin Yazid, and, according to Imām Al-Bukhārī, Munqata' (an interrupted chain of narration), while Ibn 'Abbās' statement "her husband was a slave" is more correct.

Chapter 20/21. When Will She Have Such An Option?

(المعجم ۲۰، ۲۱) بَابُ: حَتَّى مَتَى يَكُونُ لَهَا الْخِيَارُ (التحفة ۲۱)

2236. It was reported from Abān bin Ṣāliḥ from Mujāhid — and from Hishām bin 'Urwah from his father — (both of them) from 'Āishah, that Barīrah was set free while she was married to Mughīth, a slave of the family of Abū Aḥmad. So the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ allowed her the option, and told her, "If he approaches you, then you do not have any option." (Da'if)

Chapter 22/23. If One Of The Two Who Are Married Accepts Islam

2238. It was reported from Ibn 'Abbās that a man accepted Islam and came to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ. Then his wife came as a Muslim after him. He said: "O Messenger of Allāh, she accepted Islam along with me so return her to him." (Da'if)

(المعجم ٢٢، ٢٣) بَابُ: إِذَا أَسْلَمَ أَحَدُ الزَّوْجَيْنِ (التحفة ٢٣)

Comments:

In case, the couple are separated, their child, providing he is of sound judgment, shall be given the right to choose any of the two. As for the child lacking such ability, scholars have different opinions. For example, a male child will remain in custody of his mother for seven years and a female child for nine years. Later, they will be handed over to the father.

Chapter 26/27. Regarding Li'ān (Mutual Cursing)

(المعجم ۲۶، ۲۷) بَابُ: فِي اللَّعَانِ (التحفة ۲۷)

2245. It was reported from Mālik, from Ibn Shihāb that Sahl bin Sa'd As-Sā'idī informed him, that

۲۲۴۵ - حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ مَسْلَمَةَ الْقَعْنَبِيُّ عَنْ مَالِكٍ، عَنْ ابْنِ شِهَابٍ: أَنَّ

'Uwaimir bin Ashqar Al-'Ajlanī went to 'Āṣim bin 'Adī and said: "O 'Āṣim, what do you think if a man found another man with his wife — should he kill him, in which case you would then execute him, or what else should he do?" 'Āṣim, ask the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ on my behalf regarding this." So 'Āṣim asked the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, but the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ disliked this issue, and criticized it, so much so that 'Āṣim felt distressed because of what he heard from the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ. When 'Āṣim returned to his family, 'Uwaimir came to him and said: "O 'Āṣim! What did the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ say to you?" He replied: "You did not bring me any good! The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ disliked the issue that I asked him about." 'Uwaimir said: "I swear by Allāh, I will not stop until I ask him myself about it." So 'Uwaimir then went to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ while he was sitting among the people, and said: "O Messenger of Allāh! What do you think if a man found another man with his wife — should he kill him, in which case you would then execute him, or what else should he do?" So the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: "Some (Verses of the) Qur'ān has been revealed regarding you and your spouse, so go and bring her."

Sahl continued: "So they then pronounced the curse upon one another, and I was present along with the people in front of the

Comments:

If a husband discovers adultery committed by a wife but he does not have four witnesses to testify to that, he may go to the court and swear four times before the judge that his wife has committed adultery, and swears the fifth time invoking Allāh’s curse upon himself if he were lying. Then the woman swears four times that he is a liar, and she swears a fifth time invoking Allāh’s wrath upon herself in case his allegation is true. This procedure is called Li‘ān (cursing). This is followed by a permanent separation of the husband and wife, and the marriage is dissolved.

2246. It was reported from Muḥammad bin Ishāq, that ‘Abbās bin Sahl bin Sa’d narrated to him, from his father, that the Prophet ﷺ said to ‘Aṣim bin ‘Adī: “Keep the woman with you until she gives birth.” (Ḥasan)

The couple were separated because the marriage agreement had been revoked by Li'an, not by divorce. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ did not give him a command to divorce his wife. There was no need for that. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ ruled that they were to be separated. This separation is permanent and irrevocable. This obviates the need to utter the statement of divorce.

2254. It was reported from Hishām bin Ḥassān, that ‘Ikrimah narrated to him, from Ibn ‘Abbās that Hilāl bin Umayyah accused his wife of committing adultery with Sharīk bin Saḥmā’. He made this accusation in front of the Prophet ﷺ, who then said: “Bring the evidence, or else the penalty (will be inflicted) on your back.” He said: “O Messenger of Allāh, if a person sees another man on his wife, should he go and find evidence?” But the Prophet ﷺ continued to say: “Bring the evidence, or else the penalty (will be inflicted) on your back.” Hilāl said: “I swear by the One Who has sent you with the truth as a Prophet, I am indeed telling the truth. And of a surety, Allāh will reveal about me something which will free the penalty from my back.” So the following was revealed: “And those who accuse their wives, and have no witnesses besides themselves...” and he continued reciting until; “he is among the truthful ones.”

The Prophet ﷺ then turned away and called for both of them. They both came, and Hilāl bin Umayyah stood and testified. And the Prophet ﷺ said: “Allāh knows that one of you two is lying, so will either of you repent?” She then stood up and testified, but when she was at the fifth one — that may the anger of Allāh be upon her if he is telling the “Hilāl said: ‘I swear by Allāh I have told the truth regarding her.’ She replied: ‘He has lied.’ The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: ‘Have the two of them pronounce the Li’an.’ Hilāl was told: ‘Testify,’ so he swore by Allāh four times that he was telling the truth. When it was time for the fifth, it was said to him: ‘O Hilāl! Fear Allāh, for the punishment of this world is easier (to bear) than the punishment of the Hereafter. And this (the fifth curse) is the one that inflicts the punishment upon you.’ He said: ‘I swear by Allāh, Allāh will not punish me regarding her, just as He will not whip me due to her.’ He then testified that the curse of Allāh would be upon him if he were of the liars. She was then asked to testify, so she swore by Allāh four times that he was lying. When it was time for the fifth, she was told: ‘Fear Allāh, for the punishment of this world is easier (to bear) than the punishment of the Hereafter. And this (the fifth curse) is the one that inflicts the punishment upon you.’ So she hesitated for some time, then said: ‘By Allāh, I will not disgrace my people.’ She then testified the fifth time that the punishment of Allāh would be upon her if he were telling the truth.

Scholars differ over the historical background of the Verses of Li'ān, and about whose case they were revealed.

2257. It was reported from 'Amr that he heard Sa'eed bin Jubair saying: "I heard Ibn 'Umar saying: 'The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said to the two who pronounced Li'ān:

Chapter 27/28. Doubting The Child's Paternity

2260. It was reported from Sufyān, from Az-Zuhrī, from Sa'eed, from Abū Hurairah who said: "A man from the tribe of Banū Fazārah came to the Prophet ﷺ and said: 'My wife has given birth to a black child.' He said: 'Do you have any camels?' He said: 'Yes.' He asked: 'What colors are they?' He said: 'Red.' He asked: 'Are there any that are dark?' He said: 'Indeed, there is one that is dark.' He said: 'So where do you think that is from?' He replied: 'Perhaps it acquired it (the dark color) from one of its ancestors.' He then said: 'And this one — perhaps it (too) acquired it from one of its ancestors?'" (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Comments:

In the pre-Islamic Age of Jāhiliyah, men kept slave-girls to make them earn money or for sexual indulgence. Often they would wrangle over the ownership of a child born of a slave-girl, the owner of a slave-girl and the adulterer each claiming the child to be his own. Islam ruled that the child belongs to the owner (of the slave-girl), not the adulterer.

Comments:

If a child is claimed by several persons or a woman is suspected of having slept with several persons, it being unclear whose child it is, an expert and honest physiognomist may be asked to decide the issue. If physiognomy were a false science, the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ would not rejoice at the statement of the physiognomist.

Chapter 31/32. Those Who Said That Lots Should Be Drawn If They Differ About The Child

2269. It was reported from ‘Abdullāh bin Al-Khalīl, from Zaid bin Arqam, who said: “I was sitting with the Prophet ﷺ when a person came from Yemen and said: ‘Three people from the people of Yemen came to ‘Alī arguing over a child. And they all had intercourse with a woman, in the same time frame, between two cycles. He asked two of them: “Give up the child to this one,” but they became argumentative. Then he said to another two: “Give up the child to this one,” but they became argumentative. The he said to another two: “Give up the child to this one,” but they became argumentative. So he said: “You are a group of partners (in the act) who are differing with each other. I am going to draw lots between you, so whoever pulls (the correct) lot will get the child, and he must pay the other two companions two-thirds of the blood money.” And he then gave (the child) to the one who won the lot.’ At this, the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ laughed (so

Comments:

When both the sides of a matter (pros and cons) seem to be almost the same or of an equal weight and it becomes difficult to decide, it is then permissible to decide the issue by means of lots as 'Alī, may Allāh be pleased with him, did, or, as the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ used to do for choosing any one of his wives to accompany him on his journey.

Chapter 32/33. Regarding The Types Of Marriages That Were Practiced Before Islam

2272 'Āishah, may Allāh be pleased with her, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ, narrated that there were four types of marriages that were practiced in Jāhiliyyah. There was a type which is what the people do today: A man would propose to another man (guardian) for his female ward's (hand in marriage), and would give her a dowry and then marry her. Another type was that a man would say to his wife, after she had finished her menses: 'Call so-and-so, and mate with him,' and her husband would avoid her until it was clear that she was pregnant from that other man whom she was mating with. After her pregnancy was apparent, her husband could then enjoy her if he pleased. And they would only do that type because they desired a bright (and noble) child. This type of marriage was called: 'Mating marriage.' Another type of marriage was that a group of men, less than ten, would visit a woman, all of them enjoying her. So if she became pregnant and gave birth, then a few nights after her delivery, she would call for all of them, and none of them could refuse to come. When they would all gather, she would say to them: 'You know (the result) of what you have done, and I have given birth, and he is your child: O so-and-so,' and she would name whomever she pleased, so her child would be considered his. And the fourth type was that a lot of men would enter upon a woman, for she would not turn away any that came to her — and these were the prostitutes. They would place flags on their doors, and these would act as signs; whoever wanted them would enter in upon them. If she became pregnant and gave birth, then after her delivery, they would all gather and call a Qāfah. Then the child would be given to the one whom he saw fit, and so it would be given to him, and called his son. None could refuse that. So when Allāh sent Muḥammad ﷺ, he obliterated all the marriages of the People of Jāhiliyyah except for the marriage of the Muslims today. (Sahīh)

Comments:

All these cases date back to the Age of Jāhiliyyah when such nasty things were common and the pagans did not feel ashamed of children born out of wedlock. But Islam has ruled the child "belongs to the owner of the bed." From the face of the child in the afore-mentioned case, it appeared that he was the son of 'Utbah, and that he was an illegitimate child, but in his case the rule was followed and he was given over to "the owner of the bed."

2274. 'Amr bin Shu'aib narrated from his father, from his grandfather that a man stood up in front of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and said: "So-and-so is my son, for I fornicated with his mother in the times of Jāhiliyyah." The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: 'There is no prescribing (of genealogies) in

She gave birth to a black son, like me, and I named him 'Abdullāh. Then I engaged in intercourse with her, and she gave birth to a black son like me, and I named him 'Ubaidullāh. But then a Roman slave of my master's, by the name of Yuḥannah, ruined her, and spoke with her in their language. She gave birth to a boy who looked like a lizard. I said to her: 'What is this?' She replied: 'This is Yuḥannah's (child).' So we complained to 'Uthmān regarding the both of them. He asked them, and they both confessed (to the fornication). He said to them: 'Are you willing that I judge between you with the judgment of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ? The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ ruled that the child is ascribed to the bed'" — (one of the narrators said) I think he said: "So he lashed him, and lashed her, and they were both slaves." (Da'if)

This authentic Hadīth proves that, until a mother marries again, she has the right to keep the child more than the father and, even after marriage, she has the right to keep the child with her with the consent of the father. In case he does not agree, the child will be given over to the father.

2277. It was reported from Abū Maimūnah Salmā, the freed-slave of some people of Al-Madīnah, a truthful man, that he said: “Once, while I was sitting with Abū Hurairah, a Persian lady came to him with a son of hers. Her husband had divorced her, and both of them were claiming him. She said, speaking to him in Farsi, ‘My husband wishes to take my son.’ Abū Hurairah replied: ‘Draw lots over him,’ and he spoke to her (in her language). Her husband then came and said: ‘Who is trying to snatch my child away from me?’ Abū Hurairah said: ‘O Allāh! I am

Comments:

In the matter of bringing up and taking care of children, priority is given to the mother, as mentioned in the foregoing Hadith, followed by the maternal aunt, followed by paternal relatives. According to Ibn Taimiyyah and Ibn Al-Qayyim, while keeping in view this order of priority, it is also very important to take into account the interest of the child, his present and his future.

2281. Asmā' bint Yazīd bin As-Sakan Al-Anṣāriyyah narrated that she was divorced (by her husband) during the time of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, and at that time there used to be no waiting period for the divorcee. So when she was divorced, Allāh revealed the waiting period for the divorced lady. Therefore, she was the first regarding whom these Verses of the waiting period for divorced women were applied. Comments:

It is said that Asmā' bint Yazīd was the (paternal) cousin of Mu'adh bin Jabal. She had given the pledge of loyalty to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and was a message-bearer for women, carrying their messages to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ. In the Battle of Yarmūk, she killed nine Romans using a tent pole taken from her tent.

The Iddah of a normal divorcee is three turns of menses and purity. The Iddah of a woman in a state of menopause or of a girl with irregular menses not fixed as of yet, is three months. There is no Iddah for a woman divorced before the consummation of marriage. A pregnant woman divorced or widowed, shall wait until the delivery of the child. The Iddah of a widow is four months and ten days.

Chapter 37/39. Regarding The Maintenance Of One Who Has Been Irrevocably Divorced

2284. It was reported from Sufyān, from Abū Salamah bin ‘Abdur-Raḥmān from Fāṭimah bint Qais, that Abū ‘Amr bin Ḥaṣṣ divorced her irrevocably, and he was not present (in the city). So he sent his representative to her with some barley, but she considered this to be very little. He replied: “I swear by Allāh, you do not have the right to (receive) anything from me!” So she went to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and mentioned that to him. He told her: “You do not have the right of maintenance from him.” And he commanded her to observe her waiting period in the house of Umm Sharīk, then he said: “She is a woman whom my Companions visit. Observe your waiting period in the house of Ibn Umm Maktūm, for he is a blind man and you may take off your garments. When you have completed (your waiting period), inform me.” She said: “So when I had finished (the waiting period), I mentioned to him that Mu‘āwiyah bin Abī Sufyān and Abū Jahm both proposed for my hand. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: ‘As for Abū Jahm, his stick never leaves his shoulders. And as for Mu‘āwiyah, he is poor, having no wealth. Comments:

1. In marriage and other important matters, one should take the counsel of the devout and the wise. Prayer of Guidance (Istikhārah) is another important means to reach a decision in such matters.
2. Fāṭimah bint Qais' husband was Abū Ḥaḥṣ bin Al-Mughīrah, according to most narrations.

2287. It was reported from Muḥammad bin ‘Amr from Yaḥya, from Abū Salamah, from Fāṭimah bint Qais, she said: “I was married to a man from the Banū Makhzūm, and he divorced me irrevocably.” And then he cited similar to the narration of Mālik.^[1] But he said in it: “Do not give yourself to anyone without (asking) me.” (Sahih)

Abū Dāwud said: Ash-Sha‘bī, Al-Bahī, and ‘Aṭā’ reported it like that from ‘Abdur-Raḥmān bin ‘Aṣim, and Abū Bakr bin Abī Al-Jahm, all of them from Fāṭimah bint Qais; that her husband divorced her for the third time.

2288. It was reported from Ash-Sha‘bī, from Fāṭimah bint Qais, that her husband divorced her for the third time, so the Prophet ﷺ did not assign her any maintenance or residence. (Sahih)

2289. It was reported from ‘Uqail, from Ibn Shihāb, from Abū Salamah, from Fāṭimah bint Qais, that she was married to Abū Ḥafṣ bin Al-Mughīrah, and he divorced her the final of the three divorces. So she went to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and asked him regarding leaving her house. He commanded her to go to the house of Ibn Umm Maktūm, who was blind. But Marwān refused to believe this narration of hers — that the divorced woman leaves her house. ‘Urwah said: And ‘Āishah also rejected this from Fāṭimah bint Qais.

Abū Dāwud said: Ṣāliḥ bin Kaisān, Ibn Juraij, and Shu‘aib bin Abī Ḥamzah all reported it from Az-Zuhrī.

Comments:

This narration is brief but the following Hadīth is more detailed. Marwān had sent someone to gather this information.

2290. It was reported from Ma‘mar from Az-Zuhrī, from ‘Ubadullāh, who said: “Marwān sent (Qabīshah) to Fāṭimah bint Qais to ask her (about her story). She informed him that she was married to Abū Ḥafṣ, and the Prophet ﷺ had made ‘Alī a governor over a part of Yemen. So Abū Ḥafṣ went with him, and sent her a divorce that was remaining (the third divorce). And he commanded Ayyāsh bin Abī Rabī'ah and Al-Ḥārith bin Hishām to support her, but they both said: 'By Allāh! She is not entitled to any maintenance, unless she be pregnant.' So she went to the Prophet ﷺ, who said: 'You are not entitled to any maintenance unless you are pregnant.' She asked his permission to move (to another house), and he gave her permission. She then said: 'Where shall I move to, O Messenger of Allāh?' He replied: 'To (the house) of Ibn Umm Maktūm — and he was a blind man — for you can take off (change) your garments in front of him and he will not see you.' She remained there until her waiting period finished, and then the Prophet ﷺ married her to Usāmah.

"Qabīshah then returned to Marwān and informed him of this. Marwān replied: 'We have not heard this Hadīth except from (this) woman, so we will take the safer opinion which we found the people following.' When Fāṭimah heard this, she replied: '(The judge) between us is the Book of Allāh, for Allāh says: Divorce them for their waiting periods..., until... perhaps Allāh will bring something new to pass.'^[1] She said: 'So what new thing can happen after the third?'" (Ṣaḥīh)

Abū Dāwud said: Yūnus reported

قال أبو داود: ورواه محمد بن إسحاق عن الزهري أن قبصة بن ذؤيب حدثه بمعنى دل على خير عبيد الله بن عبد الله حين قال: فرجع قبصة إلى مروان فأخبره بذلك.

it like that from Az-Zuhrī. As for Az-Zubaidī, he reported both of the Aḥādīth; that of ‘Ubaidullāh, with the meaning narrated by Ma‘mar, and that of Abū Salamah with the meaning narrated by ‘Uqail.

Abū Dāwud said: Muḥammad bin Ishāq reported it from Az-Zuhrī; that Qabiṣah bin Dhuwaib narrated to him, with a meaning supporting the narration of ‘Ubaidullāh bin ‘Abdullāh when he said: “So Qabiṣah returned to Marwān and informed him of this.”

Comments:

The opinion of Marwān bin Ḥakam, ‘Āishah, and ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb was that an irrevocably divorced woman had a right to be provided a place to live during her Iddah, and that the husband must provide that. But the statement of Fāṭimah bint Qais is clearer and has more weight, especially because she was the woman in this case, and it was she who had been divorced. So, obviously, her statement, quoting the Prophet ﷺ, that ‘an irrevocably divorced woman had no right to maintenance and housing’ has more weight. The foregoing Verses of the Qur’ān seem to suggest that they concern women who have been given revocable divorces, not those irrevocably divorced.

Chapter 42/44. Regarding Such A Woman Moving To Another Residence

2300. It was reported from Zainab bint Ka‘b bin ‘Ujrah, that Al-Furai‘ah bint Mālik bin Sinān — the sister of Abū Sa‘eed Al-Khudrī — narrated that she went to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ in order to seek his permission to go to her family’s house in Banū Khudrah. And that was because her husband had gone out in order to find some slaves of his that had run away, but when he reached the beginning of Al-Qadūm, they (slaves) caught up with him and killed him. She said: “So I asked the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ about returning to my family since I had no house that I owned, nor any sustenance. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, ‘Yes,’ so I left, until I was at his house, or at the Masjid, when he called me, or called for me. I went back to him, and he said: ‘What did you say?’ So I repeated the story of what happened to my husband. He said: ‘Remain in your house until the appointed time finishes.’ So I stayed there for the waiting period of four months and ten days. Then, during the (rule) of ‘Uthmān bin ‘Affān, he called me and asked me

It is obligatory upon a widow to spend her 'Iddah period in the same house where her husband died, except in abnormal circumstances making it impossible for her to live there.

'Aṭā' said: "(In the beginning), if she had wished, she could pass the waiting period in his house and be provided maintenance based on his will. And if she had wished, she could leave, based on Allāh's statement: "So if they leave, there is no sin upon you regarding what they do."^[2] Then, the (laws) of inheritance were revealed, so the ruling of living (at her husband's house) was abrogated. She may pass her waiting period wherever she wishes." (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Abū As-Sanābil bin Ba‘kak visited her, and he was of the tribe of ‘Abdud-Dār. He said to her: “How come I see you having beautified yourself? Perhaps you wish to get married? I swear by Allāh, you will not get married until four months and ten days pass.” Subai‘ah said: “When he told me that, then as soon as night fell, I grabbed my garments and went to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, and asked him about that. He gave me the verdict that I had become permissible (for marriage) as soon as I had given birth, and he commanded me to get married if I so desired.”

Ibn Shihāb said: “I don’t see any problem if she gets married after her delivery, even if she is still bleeding. However, her husband should not approach her until she becomes pure.” (Ṣaḥīh)

Comments:

The law that a widow shall wait for a period of four months and ten days, and the law that a pregnant woman shall wait until she has delivered the child are not contradictory to each other. The former period (four months and ten days) is for women who are not pregnant. As for pregnant women, the Iddah period continues until the delivery of the child.

1. A slave woman who is the mother of her owner's child is called an Umm Walad (mother of a child).

[1] Referring to Sūrat At-Ṭalāq.

[2] Slave woman who has borne a child.

2. There is a difference of opinion among scholars as to the 'Iddah period of the Umm Walad whose master has died. Some say that the 'Iddah period for her is three menses, and others say it is one menstrual cycle. But according to those scholars who maintain that this narration is authentic, her 'Iddah period is four months and ten days. Allāh knows best.

Chapter 47/49. The Thrice Divorced Woman Cannot Return To Her Husband Until She Re-Marries

2309. 'Āishah narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ was asked about a man who divorced his wife for the third time, so she married another husband, who then divorced her before engaging in intercourse with her: Is she permissible for her first husband? The Prophet ﷺ replied: "She is not permissible for her first husband until she tastes his pleasure and he tastes hers." (Da'īf)

Comments:

It is inferred from this Hadīth that just another wedding is not enough, but normal marital relation between the divorced wife and her second husband must take place. If the second husband divorces her without this marital relationship, the woman shall not be lawful for her first husband. Hence, those who marry a thrice divorced woman with the intention to make her lawful for her first husband, in fact, commit adultery, since this conditional marriage is not a valid marriage.

Chapter 1. The Beginning Of The Ordainment Of Fasting

(المعجم ١) - بَابُ مَبْدَأِ فَرَضِ الصِّيَامِ
(التحفة ١)

to the command of Allāh, abstains, from dawn to sunset, from all things that would invalidate his fast, such as food, drink, and sexual activity. These things are normally permitted in life but prohibited during the fast.

2314. Abū Ishāq reported from Al-Barā', who said: "When a man fasted, then slept, he would not eat until the next (sunset). Şirmah bin Qais Al Anşārī^[1] was fasting, and he came to his wife and asked her: 'Do you have anything (to eat)?' She replied: 'No, but I will go and seek something for you.' While she was away, sleep overpowered him. When she saw him asleep upon her return, she said: 'What a disappointment for you!' Thus by midday of the following day he fainted, as he used to work all day long on his land. That was mentioned to the Prophet ﷺ, and the following was revealed: It is made lawful for you to have sexual relations with your wives on the night of fast....' He recited up to: of dawn.^[2] (Ṣaḥih)

Comments:

On the face of it, this Hadīth seems to be in conflict with the one before it, for it states that until then, the rule was that even if a person that had fasted in the day had a nap after Iftār (regardless of whether he had performed his 'Ishā' prayer or not), the door of having food, drink and sexual relations was legally closed for him. Scholars of Hadīth, however, see no conflict between the two and suggest that either of the two actions (sleep or 'Ishā' prayer) was cause enough to bar a person from indulging in those acts until the next Iftār time. Thereafter, Allāh granted the permission to perform those acts from

Comments:

There is an allowance for men and women who are either too old or are not able to bear fasting, to pay the compensation in lieu of the missed fast. The concession also applies to pregnant and breast-feeding women whose babies might be at risk if they fast. Such women can forgo the fast for the time being. There is, however, a difference of opinion in this later case, as to whether or not they shall make up for their missed fasts later on.

Chapter 4. The Month May Be Twenty-Nine Days

(المعجم ٤) - بَابُ الشَّهْرِ يَكُونُ تِسْعًا

وَعِشْرِينَ (التحفة ٤)

2319. It was reported from Sa'eed bin 'Amr, meaning Ibn Sa'eed bin Al-'Ās, from Ibn 'Umar, who said: "Allāh's Messenger ﷺ said: 'We are an unlettered nation, we cannot write nor calculate. The month is thus, and thus, and thus.'" (One of the narrators) Sulaimān closed one of his fingers the third time, indicating that a month is twenty-nine days, and (sometimes) thirty. (Ṣaḥīḥ)

٢٣١٩ - حَدَّثَنَا سُلَيْمَانُ بْنُ حَرْبٍ: حَدَّثَنَا شُعْبَةُ عَنْ الْأَسْوَدِ بْنِ قَيْسٍ، عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو يَعْنِي ابْنَ سَعِيدِ بْنِ الْعَاصِ، عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «إِنَّا أُمَّةٌ أُمِّيَّةٌ لَا نَكْتُبُ وَلَا نَحْسِبُ. الشَّهْرُ هَكَذَا وَهَكَذَا وَهَكَذَا» وَحَسَسَ سُلَيْمَانُ إِصْبَعَهُ فِي الثَّلَاثَةِ يَعْنِي تِسْعًا وَعِشْرِينَ وَثَلَاثِينَ.

Comments:

"We are an illiterate nation" may be understood in the historical context that reading and writing was rare in the Arab society of those days. Very few people knew it.

2320. Nāfi' reported from Ibn 'Umar, who said: "Allāh's Messenger ﷺ said: 'The month consists of twenty-nine days. Do not fast until you see it (the crescent) and do not break the fast until you see it (the crescent). If it is cloudy, then complete thirty days.'" He said: "So when it was the twenty-ninth of Sha'bān, Ibn 'Umar would appoint somebody to sight the crescent for him. If it was sighted then so (he would fast). If it was not sighted, and there was no cloud or dust on the horizon, he would not fast the next morning. If it was not sighted due to clouds or dust, he would fast the next morning.” He said: “And Ibn ‘Umar would end his fasting along with the people, without counting this way. (Ṣaḥīḥ)

تخريج: أخرجه مسلم، الصيام، باب وجوب صوم رمضان لرؤية الهلال ... الخ، ح: ٦/١٠٨٠ من حديث أيوب السخيتاني به وسنده صحيح.

2321. Ayyūb said: “‘Umar bin ‘Abdul-‘Azīz wrote to the people of Al-Baṣrah: ‘It has been conveyed to us, from the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ...’” — similar to the (previous) narration of Ibn ‘Umar, from the Prophet ﷺ. And he added: “The best means of calculation is that if we sight the crescent of Sha‘bān on such and such date,^[1] then Allāh Willing, the fast will begin on such and such date unless the crescent is sighted before that.” (Ḍa‘īf)

تخريج: [إسناده ضعيف] أخرجه البيهقي: ٢٠٥/٤ من حديث أبي داود به وانظر الحديث السابق: ٢٣٢٠ الحديث مرسل، ولم يخبر الإمام عمر بن عبدالعزيز بلغه به.

2322. Ibn Mas‘ūd said: “We fasted with the Prophet ﷺ for twenty-nine days, more often than we fasted with him for thirty days.” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

٢٣٢٢ - حَدَّثَنَا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ مَنِيعٍ عَنْ ابْنِ أَبِي زَائِدَةَ، عَنْ عَيْسَى بْنِ دِينَارٍ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ الْحَارِثِ بْنِ أَبِي ضِرَارٍ، عَنْ ابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ قَالَ: لَمَّا صُمْنَا مَعَ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ تِسْعًا وَعِشْرِينَ أَكْثَرُ مِمَّا صُمْنَا مَعَهُ ثَلَاثِينَ.

[1] Meaning: “If we sight it on the thirtieth night of Rajab.”

تخريج: [إسناده صحيح] أخرجه الترمذي، الصوم، باب ما جاء أن الشهر يكون تسعًا وعشرين، ح: ٦٨٩ عن أحمد بن منيع به * يحيى بن زكريا بن أبي زائدة: صرح بالسماع.

Comments:

Twenty-nine days of fasting carries as much merit and reward as of thirty days since the deciding factor is one's sincerity and obedience to the commands of Allāh.

2323. It was reported from ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin Abī Bakrah, from his father, from the Prophet ﷺ that he said: “The two months of ‘Eid are never incomplete; Ramaḍān and Dhul-Hijjah.” (Sahih)

تخريج: أخرجه مسلم، الصيام، باب بيان معنى قوله ﷺ: "شهرًا عيد لا ينقصان"، ح: ١٠٨٩ من حديث يزيد بن زريع، والبخاري، الصوم، باب: شهرًا عيد لا ينقصان، ح: ١٩١٢ من حديث خالد الحداء به.

Comments:

Meaning, even if the month is less than thirty days, the reward will not be diminished.

Chapter 5. When The People Are Mistaken In Sighting The Crescent.

2324. It was reported from Muḥammad bin Al-Munkadir, from Abū Hurairah — and he mentioned the Prophet ﷺ in it, he said: “Your breaking of the fast (‘Eid Al-Fitr) is the day that (all of) you break your fast, and your sacrificing (‘Eid Al-Adhā), is on the day that (all of) you sacrifice, and all of ‘Arafat is a place of standing, and all of Minā is a place for slaughtering, and all of the mountain paths of Makkah are a place of slaughtering, and all of Jam‘ (Muzdalifah) is a place of halting.” (Sahih)

(المعجم ٥) بَابُ: إِذَا أَخْطَأَ الْقَوْمُ
الهِلَالَ (التحفة ٥)

٢٣٢٤ - حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عُبَيْدٍ: حَدَّثَنَا حَمَّادٌ فِي حَدِيثِ أَيُّوبَ عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ الْمُثَنَّبِيِّ، عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ ذَكَرَ النَّبِيُّ ﷺ فِيهِ قَالَ: «وَفِطْرُكُمْ يَوْمَ تَفْطُرُونَ وَأَضْحَاكُمْ يَوْمَ تُضْحُونَ وَكُلُّ عَرَفَةَ مَوْقِفٌ وَكُلُّ مِنَى مَنَحَرٌ، وَكُلُّ فِجَاجٍ مَكَّةَ مَنَحَرٌ وَكُلُّ جَمْعٍ مَوْقِفٌ».

تخريج: [إسناده صحيح] أخرجه الدارقطني: ١٦٤/٢ والبيهقي: ٣/٣١٧ من حديث أبي داود

به، ورواه ابن ماجه، ح: ١٦٦٠ بسند آخر به مختصراً.

Comments:

Meaning, when the Muslims recognize it to be these days, then the reward is in accord, even if there was an error in witnessing the new crescent of the month.

Chapter 6. When (Sighting the Crescent for) The Month Was Obscured

(المعجم ٦) بَابُ: إِذَا أُغْمِيَ الشَّهْرُ
(التحفة ٦)

2325. ‘Abdullāh bin Abī Qais said: “I heard ‘Āishah, may Allāh be pleased with her, saying: ‘The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ used to be more tentative in ascertaining the days of Sha‘bān then any other month. Then he would fast upon the sighting (of the crescent) of Ramādān. If it was obscured from him,^[1] he would complete thirty days (of Sha‘bān) and then fast.” (Sahīh)

تخریج: [إسناده صحيح] أخرجه ابن عبد البر في التمهيد: ٣٥٣/١٤ من حديث أبي داود به، وهو في مسند الإمام أحمد: ١٤٩/٦ وصححه ابن خزيمة، ح: ١٩١٠ وابن حبان، ح: ٨٦٩، والحاكم على شرط الشيخين: ٤٢٣/١ ووافقه الذهبي.

2326. It was reported from Rib‘ī bin Hīrāsh, from Hūdhaifah, who said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: ‘Do not precede the month (by fasting) until you sight the crescent, or you have completed the count (of thirty days). Then fast until you sight the crescent, or you have completed the count (of thirty days).” (Sahīh)

٢٣٢٦ - حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ الصَّبَّاحِ الْبَرْزَأُ: حَدَّثَنَا جَرِيرُ بْنُ عَبْدِ الْحَمِيدِ الصَّبَّيِّ عَنْ مَنْصُورِ بْنِ الْمُعْتَمِرِ، عَنْ رَبِيعِ بْنِ جِرَاشٍ، عَنْ حُدَيْفَةَ قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «لَا تَقْدَمُوا الشَّهْرَ حَتَّى تَرَوْا الْهِلَالَ أَوْ تُكْمِلُوا الْعِدَّةَ ثُمَّ صُومُوا حَتَّى تَرَوْا الْهِلَالَ أَوْ تُكْمِلُوا الْعِدَّةَ».

Abū Dāwud said: Sufyān and others reported it from Mansūr, from Rib‘ī, from a man among the Companions of the Prophet ﷺ — without naming Hūdhaifah.

قَالَ أَبُو دَاوُدَ: رَوَاهُ سُفْيَانُ وَغَيْرُهُ عَنْ مَنْصُورٍ، عَنْ رَبِيعِ بْنِ جِرَاشٍ مِنْ أَصْحَابِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ لَمْ يُسَمَّ حُدَيْفَةَ.

[1] Meaning if it were cloudy or the like and the crescent was not visible.

تخريج: [إسناده صحيح] أخرجه النسائي، الصيام، باب ذكر الاختلاف على منصور في حديث ربيعي فيه، ح: ٢١٢٨ من حديث جرير به، وصححه ابن خزيمة، ح: ١٩١١ وابن حبان، ح: ٨٧٥.

Chapter 7. Whoever Said That If It Is Obscured From You (The Crescent), Then Fast Thirty Days

2327. It was reported from Simāk, from 'Ikrimah, from Ibn 'Abbās, who said: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: 'Do not precede the month by fasting a day or two, except if one has been in practice of fasting on a particular day, and do not fast until you sight it (the crescent), then fast until you sight it. If it is obscure due to weather, then complete the count of thirty (days), and then break the fast. The month (may be) twenty-nine days. (Da'if)

Abū Dāwud said: It was reported with similar meaning by Ḥātim bin Abī Ṣagīrah, Shu'bah and Al-Ḥasan bin Ṣāliḥ, from Simāk, but they did not mention: "and then break the fast."

Abū Dāwud said: He is Ḥātim bin Muslim bin Abī Ṣagīrah, and Abū Ṣagīrah is his mother's husband.

Chapter 8. Regarding Preceding (Ramaḍān By Fasting At The End of Sha'ḥbān)

2328. 'Imrān bin Ḥuṣain said: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ asked

(المعجم ٧) - بَابُ مَنْ قَالَ: فَإِنْ غَمَّ عَلَيْكُمْ فَصُومُوا ثَلَاثِينَ (التحفة ٧)

قَالَ أَبُو دَاوُدَ: رَوَاهُ حَاتِمُ بْنُ أَبِي صَغِيرَةَ وَشُعْبَةُ وَالْحَسَنُ بْنُ صَالِحٍ عَنْ سِمَاكٍ بِمَعْنَاهُ، لَمْ يَقُولُوا: «ثُمَّ أَفْطَرُوا».

قَالَ أَبُو دَاوُدَ: وَهُوَ حَاتِمُ بْنُ مُسْلِمٍ بْنِ أَبِي صَغِيرَةَ وَأَبُو صَغِيرَةَ: رَوْحُ أُمِّهِ.

(المعجم ٨) بَابُ: فِي التَّقَدُّمِ (التحفة ٨)

٢٣٢٨ - حَدَّثَنَا مُوسَى بْنُ إِسْمَاعِيلَ: حَدَّثَنَا حَمَادٌ عَنْ ثَابِتٍ، عَنْ مُطَرِّفٍ، عَنْ

a man: 'Did you fast from the last days (Sarar)^[1] of Sha'bān?' He said: 'No.' The Prophet ﷺ said: 'After completing (the fast of Ramaḍān) fast a day.' One of the two of them (the narrators) said: "Two days." (Sahih)

تخريج: أخرجه مسلم، الصوم، باب صوم سرر شعبان، ح: 1161/ب/199 من حديث حماد ابن سلمة والبخاري، الصوم، باب الصوم من آخر الشهر، ح: 1983 من حديث مطرف به.

Comments:

This Hadith might apparently seem to be in conflict with the preceding one. The disparity, however, is resolved when we consider the fact that this permission or instruction is only meant for the person who is already under a vow to observe the fasts, or has constantly been observing those fasts on those particular days. No other person who is neither under a vow nor has been accustomed to observing those fasts but wishes to keep them as voluntary fasts is allowed to do so.

2329. Abū Al-Azhar Al-Mugīrah bin Farwah said: "Mu'āwiyah stood among the people in Dair Miṣhal which is at the gate of Ḥimṣ. He said: 'O people! We have sighted the crescent (of Sha'bān) on such and such day. We will fast in advance (in Sha'bān before Ramaḍān). Anyone who likes to do so, he may do so.'" He said: "Mālik bin Hubairah As-Saba'i stood up and said: 'O Mu'āwiyah! Did you hear this from Allāh's Messenger ﷺ or is it something from your opinion?' He replied: 'I heard the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ saying: "Fast the (beginning of the) month, and Sirrahu (its end)."' (Hasan) ٢٣٢٩ - حَدَّثَنَا إِبْرَاهِيمُ بْنُ الْعَلَاءِ الرُّبَيْدِيُّ مِنْ كِتَابِهِ: حَدَّثَنَا الْوَلِيدُ بْنُ مُسْلِمٍ: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ الْعَلَاءِ عَنْ أَبِي الْأَزْهَرِ الْمُغِيرَةَ بْنِ فَرَوَةَ قَالَ: قَامَ مُعَاوِيَةُ فِي النَّاسِ بِدَيْرِ مِسْحَلِ الَّذِي عَلَى بَابِ حِمصَ فَقَالَ: يَا أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ! إِنَّا قَدْ رَأَيْنَا الْهَيْلَالَ يَوْمَ كَذَا وَكَذَا، وَأَنَا مُتَقَدِّمٌ بِالصِّيَامِ، فَمَنْ أَحَبَّ أَنْ يَفْعَلَهُ فَلْيَفْعَلْهُ قَالَ: فَقَامَ إِلَيْهِ مَالِكُ بْنُ هُبَيْرَةَ السَّبْتِيُّ، فَقَالَ: يَا مُعَاوِيَةُ! أَشَيْءٌ سَمِعْتَهُ مِنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ أَمْ شَيْءٌ مِنْ رَأْيِكَ؟ قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَقُولُ: «صُومُوا الشَّهْرَ وَسِرَّهُ».

Comments:

The preferable interpretation would be “in the last days of the month.”

Chapter 9. When The Crescent Is Sighted In A Land A Night Before It Is Sighted In Other Lands

2332. It was reported from Muḥammad bin Abī Ḥarmalah, who said: “Kuraib informed me that Umm Al-Faḍl, the daughter of Al-Ḥārith sent him to Mu‘āwiyah in Ash-Shām. He said: ‘I arrived in Ash-Shām and took care of her affairs. The crescent for Ramāḍan was sighted while I was in Ash-Shām. We sighted the crescent on the night of Friday. Then I arrived in Al-Madīnah at the end of the month. Ibn ‘Abbās questioned me, then asked me about the crescent; “When did you sight the crescent?” I said: “I saw it on the night of Friday.” He said: “Did you see it yourself?” I said: “Yes, and the people (also) saw it, and they fasted, and Mu‘āwiyah fasted.” He said: “But we saw it on the night of Saturday, so we will not stop fasting until we complete thirty, or we see it.” So I said: “Is not the sighting of Mu‘āwiyah, and his fasting sufficient for you?” He said: “No; this is how Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ commanded us.” (Ṣaḥīḥ) في آخِرِ الشَّهْرِ، فَسَأَلَنِي ابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ؟، ثُمَّ ذَكَرَ الْهَيْلَالَ فَقَالَ: مَتَى رَأَيْتُمُ الْهَيْلَالَ؟ قُلْتُ: رَأَيْتُهُ لَيْلَةَ الْجُمُعَةِ. قَالَ: أَنْتَ رَأَيْتَهُ؟ قُلْتُ: نَعَمْ وَرَأَى النَّاسُ، وَصَامُوا وَصَامَ مُعَاوِيَةُ، قَالَ: لَكِنَّا رَأَيْنَاهُ لَيْلَةَ السَّبْتِ، فَلَا نَزَالَ نَصُومُهُ حَتَّى نُكْمِلَ الثَّلَاثِينَ أَوْ نَرَاهُ، فَقُلْتُ: أَفَلَا تَكْتَفِي بِرُؤْيِي مُعَاوِيَةَ وَصِيَامِهِ؟ قَالَ: لَا، هَكَذَا أَمَرَنَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ.

Comments:

“This is how Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ commanded us” meaning, as Ibn ‘Abbās narrated from him ﷺ in no. 2327.

2333. Al-Ash‘ath reported from Al-Ḥasan (Al-Baṣrī), regarding a man who was in a certain land and he fasted on Monday. Two men testified that they sighted the crescent on the night of Sunday. He said: “That man does not make that day up, nor do the people of his land, unless they knew that the people of a land of the Muslims had fasted on Sunday; only then they will make it up.” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

٢٣٣٣ - حَدَّثَنَا عُبَيْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ مُعَاذٍ: حَدَّثَنِي أَبِي: حَدَّثَنَا الْأَشْعَثُ عَنِ الْحَسَنِ: فِي رَجُلٍ كَانَ بِمِصْرٍ مِنَ الْأَمْصَارِ فَصَامَ يَوْمَ الْإِثْنَيْنِ، وَشَهِدَ رَجُلَانِ أَنَّهُمَا رَأَيَا الْهَيْلَالَ لَيْلَةَ الْأَحَدِ، فَقَالَ: لَا يَقْضِي ذَلِكَ الْيَوْمَ الرَّجُلُ وَلَا أَهْلُ مِصْرِهِ إِلَّا أَنْ يَعْلَمُوا أَنَّ أَهْلَ مِصْرٍ مِنْ أَمْصَارِ الْمُسْلِمِينَ قَدْ صَامُوا يَوْمَ الْأَحَدِ فَيَقْضُونَهُ.

Chapter 10. That It Is Disliked To Fast The Day of Doubt

2334. It was reported from Abū Ishāq, from Ṣilah, who said: "We were with 'Ammār on the day of doubt. A sheep was brought and some of the people avoided eating it. 'Ammār said: 'Anyone who fasts on this day disobeys Abul-Qāsim عليه السلام.'" (Da'if)

Comments:

"The day of doubt" means the day when the appearance or otherwise of the new crescent is uncertain.

Chapter 11. Regarding Whoever Connected Sha'bān With Ramaḍān^[1]

2335. It was reported from Abū Salamah, from Abū Hurairah, from the Prophet ﷺ that he said: "Do not precede fasting Ramaḍān by fasting a day or two, except for a fast that a man fasts (as a habit); (if it is so) then let him fast that fast." (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Comments:

The statements of Umm Salamah, and 'Āishah (see no. 2431) may be construed as referring to the Prophet's ﷺ practice of fasting on many more days of Sha'bān than in any other month of the year except Ramaḍān.

Chapter 12. About That Being Disliked

(المعجم ١٢) بَابُ: فِي كَرَاهِيَةِ ذَلِكَ
(التحفة ١٢)

2337. It was reported from 'Abdul-'Azīz bin Muḥammad who said: "‘Abbād bin Kathīr arrived in Al-Madīnah and went to a gathering of Al-'Alā'. He took Al-'Alā' by his hand and made him stand up. 'Abbād said: 'O Allāh! He is narrating from his father, from Abū Hurairah, that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: "When the middle of Sha'bān comes, then do not fast."’ Al-'Alā' said: 'O Allāh! Indeed my father narrated that to me, from Abū Hurairah, from the Prophet ﷺ." (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Abū Dāwud said: Ath-Thawrī, Shibl bin Al-'Alā', Abū 'Umais, and Zuhair bin Muḥammad reported it from Al-'Alā'.

asked Ahmad: "Why is that?" He said: "Because of the narration which he had, that the Prophet ﷺ used to connect Sha'bān with Ramaḍān, and he reported from the Prophet ﷺ what contradicts it."

Abū Dāwud said: According to me, this does not contradict that, and no one except Al-'Alā' narrated this from his father.

Comments:

Ruling about the undesirability of fasting in the second half of Sha'bān applies only to those persons who have not been observing fasts as a habit during those days. Those habituated to doing so are exempt from this ruling.

Chapter 13. Testimony Of Two Men About Sighting The Crescent Of Shawwāl

2338. It was reported from Abū Mālik Al-Ashja'ī, that Ḥusain bin Al-Ḥārith Al-Jadālī — from the tribe of Jadālah Qais — narrated: "A governor of Makkah delivered a speech, he said: 'The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ took an oath from us, that we perform our rites after sighting the crescent. If we do not sight it, and two just persons testify to (seeing) it, we should perform the rites on the basis of their testimony.' — (Abū Mālik said:) "I asked Al-Ḥusain bin Al-Ḥārith: 'Who is this governor of Makkah?' He said: 'I don't know.' Sometime later he met me and said: 'He is Al-Ḥārith bin Ḥātib, the brother of Muḥammad bin Ḥātib.'" — "The governor then said: 'Among you is

2339. It was reported from Rib'ī bin Hīrāsh, from a man among the Companions of the Prophet ﷺ, who said: "The people differed (about sighting the crescent of Shawwāl) on the last day of Ramaḍān. Then two Bedouins arrived and testified before the Prophet ﷺ, that they had seen the crescent the previous evening. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ ordered the people to break their fast."

In his narration, Khalaf (one of the narrators) added: "And that they go to the Muṣalla the (following) morning." (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Comments:

The beginning of Ramaḍān is proved either, through the completion of thirty days of Sha'bān, or through sighting the crescent, even though it be by a single trustworthy Muslim.

Chapter 14. Regarding The Testimony Of A Single Person About Seeing The Crescent Of Ramaḍān.

2340. It was reported (from Al-Walīd bin Abī Thawr and Zā'idah) from Simāk, from 'Ikrimah, from Ibn 'Abbās, who said: "A Bedouin came to the Prophet ﷺ and said: 'I have sighted the crescent.'" — In his narration, Al-Ḥasan (one of the narrators) added: "Meaning: 'of Ramaḍān.'" —

"The Prophet ﷺ said: 'Do you testify that none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh?' He said: 'Yes.' The Prophet ﷺ said: 'Do you testify that Muḥammad is the Messenger of Allāh?' He said: 'Yes.'

The Prophet ﷺ said: 'O Bilāl! Call out to the people that they must fast tomorrow.'" (Da'īf)

الْعُدَاءَ (التحفة ١٦)

2344. Al-‘Irbād bin Sāriyah said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ invited me to the Sahūr during Ramaḍān, and said: “Come to the blessed breakfast.” (Ḥasan)

Comments:

It goes without saying that the Prophet ﷺ does not speak of his own desire, but only speaks what has been revealed to him. It is, therefore, necessary that even if a person feels no desire for food so early in the morning, he should at least have a date or a morsel or two, or even a few draughts of water, in order to be a recipient of the blessing promised by the Prophet ﷺ.

2345. Abū Hurairah reported that the Prophet ﷺ said: “Dates are a preferred Sahūr for the believer.” (Ṣaḥīh) ٢٣٤٥ - حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو دَاوُدَ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا عَمْرٌو بْنُ الْحَسَنِ بْنِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ الْوَزِيرِ أَبُو الْمُطَرِّفِ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ مُوسَى عَنْ سَعِيدِ الْمَقْبُرِيِّ، عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ قَالَ: «نِعْمَ سَحُورُ الْمُؤْمِنِ التَّمْرُ».

Comments:

The date-palm is through and through a blessed tree, and it is desirable to make it a part of our menu for Suhūr and Ifṭār.

Chapter 17. The Time Of Suhūr

(المعجم ١٧) - بَابُ وَقْتِ السُّحُورِ
(التحفة ١٧)

2346. It was reported from ‘Abdullāh bin Sawādah Al-Qushairī, from his father who said: “I heard Samurah bin Jundab delivering a sermon in which he said: ‘The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “The Adhān of Bilāl should not prevent you from your Sahūr, neither should the whiteness of horizon which is like this (vertical), until it spreads out horizontally.” (Sahih)

٢٣٤٦ - حَدَّثَنَا مُسَدَّدٌ: حَدَّثَنَا حَمَادُ بْنُ زَيْدٍ عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ سَوَادَةَ الْقُشَيْرِيِّ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ سَمْرَةَ بْنَ جُنْدَبٍ يَخْطُبُ وَهُوَ يَقُولُ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «لَا يَمْنَعَنَّ مِنْ سَحُورِكُمْ أَذَانُ بِلَالٍ وَلَا بَيَاضُ الْأَفُقِ الَّذِي هَكَذَا حَتَّى يَسْتَطِيرَ».

Comments:

The dawn is of two types: The false dawn, and the true dawn. Suhūr may be eaten as long as the false dawn lasts, but its time ends as soon as the true dawn appears. Bilāl used to call the Adhān during the false dawn, in order to alert the people. The false dawn is when the whiteness of light begins to ascend towards the sky, but then a more enduring whiteness appears and spreads horizontally all around. This signals the true dawn of the morning.

2347. ‘Abdullāh bin Mas‘ūd said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: ‘The Adhān of Bilāl should not prevent one of you from his Sahūr, for he says the Adhān” — or he said: ‘call’ — “so that those praying can return, and to wake the sleeping among you. Dawn is not like this” — Musad-dad (one of the narrators) said: “And Yahya

2348. It was reported from Qais bin Talaq, from his father who said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: ‘Eat and drink, and the ascending white light should not prevent you from it, so continue to eat and drink till the redness appears horizontally.’” (Hasan)

Abū Dāwud said: This is among that which the people of Yamamah are alone with (in narrating).

Comments:

That the time to stop eating is when whiteness begins to spread all around. Nevertheless, if the sky is overcast, some kind of redness also becomes evident in the sky. However, as a general rule, it is whiteness alone that appears in the sky.

2349. ‘Adī bin Ḥātim said: “When this Verse was revealed: “Until the white thread (light) of dawn appears to you distinct from the black thread (darkness of night)”^[3] — I took a white rope and a black rope, and kept them under my pillow. I observed them

Comments:

What we conclude from this Hadīth is that even an ‘Arab would misunderstand the meanings of the Qur’ān, without the guidance of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ explaining its meanings.

Chapter 18. A Man Who Hears The Call While A Vessel Is In His Hand

2350. Abū Hurairah said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: ‘If one of you hears the call for prayer and the vessel is in his hand, he should not put it down till he fulfills his need from it.’” (Ḥasan)

Comments:

If the end-time for Suḥūr has approached and the call to the morning prayer has begun, it is still allowed for the fasting person to finish what he has in his hand.

Chapter 19. The Time For The Fasting Person To Break (His Fast)

2351. It was reported from ‘Āsim bin ‘Umar, from his father who said: “The Prophet ﷺ said: ‘When the night approaches from here (the east), and the day retreats from here (the west)’” — Musaddad (one of the narrators) added: “and the sun sets” — it is time for the fasting person to break the fast.” (Sahih)

2352. It was reported from ‘Abdullāh bin Abī Awfā, that he said: “We accompanied the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ on a journey while he was fasting. When the sun set he said: “O Bilal! Dismount and mix some Sawīq for us.” He said: “O Messenger of Allāh! If you waited till the evening!” He said: “Dismount and mix some Sawīq for us.” He said: “O Messenger of Allāh! The day still remains with you.” He said: “Dismount and mix some Sawīq for us.” He got down and prepared it. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ drank from it and then said: “If you see the night approaching from here, it is time for a fasting person to break the fast,” and he pointed towards east with his finger. (Sahih)

Comments:

The time for Iftār begins immediately upon the setting of the sun. Waiting after sunset or delaying Iftār as a precautionary measure has no meaning. The Hadīth also gives us the golden rule that, in order to remove any possible doubts in the minds of the people, it is sometimes a good idea to let people have further clarification even regarding “obvious” matters.

Chapter 20. The Recommendation Of Hastening To Break The Fast

2353. It was reported from Abū Hurairah, from the Prophet ﷺ that he said: “The religion (of Islam) will continue to be manifest as long as people hasten to break their fast (at its earlier time) because the Jews and Christians delay it.” (Hasan)

تخريج: [إسناده حسن] أخرجه ابن ماجه، الصيام، باب ما جاء في تعجيل الإفطار، ح: ١٦٩٨ من حديث محمد بن عمرو اللثبي به وصححه ابن خزيمة، ح: ٢٠٦٠ وابن حبان، ح: ٨٨٩، والمحاكم على شرط مسلم: ٤٣١/١ ووافقه الذهبي.

2354. It was reported from Abū Aṭīyah, who said: “Masrūq and I entered upon ‘Āishah, and said: ‘O Mother of the Believers! There are two men from the Companions of Muḥammad ﷺ. One of them hastens to break his fast and hastens the prayer, and the other delays breaking his fast and delays the prayer.’ She asked: ‘Which one of the two hastens to break the fast and hastens to pray?’ We said: “‘Abdullāh (Ibn Mas‘ūd).’ She said: ‘The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ used to do so.’” (Sahih)

Chapter 21. What To Use To Break One's Fast

(المعجم ٢١) - بَابُ مَا يُفْطَرُ عَلَيْهِ

(التحفة ٢١)

2355. It was reported from Ar-Rabbāb, from Salmān bin 'Āmir — her paternal uncle — he said: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: 'When one of you fasts, then let him break his fast with dates (Tamr), and if he does not find dates, then with water for indeed water is purifying.'" (Sahih)

٢٣٥٥ - حَدَّثَنَا مُسَدَّدٌ: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الْوَالِدِ بْنُ زِيَادٍ عَنْ عَاصِمِ الْأَحْوَلِ، عَنْ حَفْصَةَ بِنْتِ سِيرِينَ، عَنِ الرَّبَّابِ، عَنْ سَلْمَانَ بْنِ عَامِرٍ عَمَّهَا قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «إِذَا كَانَ أَحَدُكُمْ صَائِمًا فَلْيُفْطِرْ عَلَى التَّمْرِ، فَإِنْ لَمْ يَجِدِ التَّمَرَ فَعَلَى الْمَاءِ فَإِنَّ الْمَاءَ طَهُورٌ».

Comments:

Fast, as a rule, can be broken with any type of food or drink that is permissible, while dates or water are the most blessed for that purpose.

2356. It was reported from Thābit Al-Bunānī, that he heard Anas bin Mālik saying: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ would break his fast with fresh dates (Ruṭab) before praying, if there were no fresh dates, then with dried dates (Tamr), if he did not have dried dates, then he would take some mouthfuls of water." (Hasan)

Chapter 22. The Saying At The Time Of Breaking The Fast

(المعجم ٢٢) - بَابُ الْقَوْلِ عِنْدَ الْإِفْطَارِ
(التحفة ٢٢)

2357. Marwān — meaning Ibn Sālim Al-Muqaffa' — said: "I saw Ibn 'Umar take hold of his beard and trim whatever exceeded the palm. He said: The Prophet ﷺ used to say, when breaking his fast: "Dhahabaz-zamā'u wabtallatil-urūqu wa thabatal-ajru in shā' Allāh (The thirst is gone, and the veins are quenched, and the reward is assured — if Allāh wills)." (Hasan)

تخريج: [إسناده حسن] أخرجه النسائي في عمل اليوم والليلة، ح: ٢٩٩ والكبرى، ح: ١٠١٣١ من حديث علي بن الحسن بن شقيق به وحسنه الدارقطني: ١٨٢/٢ وصححه الحاكم: ٤٢٢/١ ووافقه الذهبي.

Comments:

The practice of trimming the part of the beard beyond the fistful is reported, with authentic chains of narration, from other Companions aside from Ibn 'Umar, and he also is one of those that reported the order to grow the beard from the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ. See no. 4199.

2358. It was reported from Ḥuṣain, from Mu'ādḥ bin Zahrah that he conveyed to him that the Prophet ﷺ used to say when breaking fast: "Allāhumma! Laka ṣumtu wa 'alā rizqika aftarṭu (O Allāh! For You I have fasted, and upon your provision I have broken my fast)." (Da'if) ٢٣٥٨ - حَدَّثَنَا مُسَدَّدٌ: حَدَّثَنَا هُشَيْمٌ عَنْ حُصَيْنٍ، عَنْ مُعَاذِ بْنِ زُهْرَةَ: أَنَّهُ بَلَغَهُ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ كَانَ إِذَا أَفْطَرَ قَالَ: «اللَّهُمَّ! لَكَ صُمْتُ وَعَلَى رِزْقِكَ أَفْطَرْتُ».

Chapter 23. Breaking The Fast Before Sunset

(المعجم ٢٣) - بَابُ الْفِطْرِ قَبْلَ غُرُوبِ الشَّمْسِ (التحفة ٢٣)

2359. It was reported from Abū Usāmah, from Hishām bin ‘Urwah, from Fāṭimah bint Al-Mundhir, from Asmā’ bint Abī Bakr who said: “We broke fast one day during the month of Ramaḍān, while it was cloudy, during the lifetime of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, then the sun came out.”

Abū Usāmah said: “I asked Hishām: “Were they ordered to make it up?” He said: “Is anything else possible?” (Ṣaḥīh)

تخريج: أخرجه البخاري، الصوم، باب: إذا أفطر في رمضان ثم طلعت الشمس، ح: ١٩٥٩ من حديث أبي أسامة به.

Comments:

There is difference of opinion among the scholars on the necessity of making up in such case. The dominant opinion, however, is that making it up is required.

Chapter 24. Al-Wiṣāl (Continuous Fasting)^[1]

(المعجم ٢٤) بَابُ فِي الْوِصَالِ (التحفة ٢٤)

2360. Ibn ‘Umar said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ prohibited us from Wiṣāl. They said: ‘But you practice Wiṣāl O Messenger of Allāh?’ He said: ‘I am not like you, I am provided with food and drink.’” (Ṣaḥīh)

تخريج: أخرجه البخاري، الصوم، باب الوصال، ح: ١٩٦٢ ومسلم، الصيام، باب النهي عن الوصال، ح: ١١٠٢ من حديث مالك به وهو في الموطأ (يحيى): ٣٠٠/١.

[1] Meaning, not breaking one’s fast at night, nor eating before dawn, and continuing days on end like that.

2361. Abū Sa‘eed Al-Khudhri reported that he heard the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ saying: “Do not fast Wiṣāl. If any one of you wants to fast continuously, he should only do so until prior to dawn.” They said: “But you practice Wiṣāl.” He said: “I am not like you, I have One who provides me with food, and provides me with drink.” (Saḥīh)

تخريج: أخرجه البخاري، الصوم، باب الوصال، ح: ١٩٦٣ من حديث يزيد بن عبد الله بن الهاد به.

Chapter 25. A Fasting Person Backbiting

المعجم (٢٥) - بَابُ الْغَيْبَةِ لِلصَّائِمِ

(التحفة ٢٥)

2362. It was reported from Abū Hurairah, who said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: ‘If one does not avoid speaking Zūr, and acting upon it, Allāh is in no need of him abstaining from his food and his drink.’”

٢٣٦٢ - حَدَّثَنَا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ يُونُسَ: حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ أَبِي ذُنْبٍ عَنِ الْمُقْبَرِيِّ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «مَنْ لَمْ يَدَعْ قَوْلَ الزُّورِ وَالْعَمَلَ بِهِ، فَلَيْسَ لِلَّهِ حَاجَةٌ أَنْ يَدَعَ طَعَامَهُ وَشَرَابَهُ» قَالَ أَحْمَدُ: فَهَمَّتْ إِسْنَادُهُ مِنْ ابْنِ أَبِي ذُنْبٍ وَأَفْهَمَنِي الْحَدِيثَ رَجُلٌ إِلَى جَنْبِهِ أَرَاهُ ابْنَ أُخِيهِ.

Aḥmad (Ibn Yunus, one of the narrators) said: “I learned the chain of narrators from Ibn Abī Dhi‘b, but a man beside him made me understand Hadīth. I think he was his nephew.”^[1] (Saḥīh) تخريج: أخرجه البخاري، الصوم، باب من لم يدع قول الزور والعمل به في الصوم، ح: ١٩٠٣ من حديث محمد بن عبد الرحمن بن أبي ذنب به.

2363. Abū Hurairah reported that the Prophet ﷺ said: “When one of you fasts, you should not behave

٢٣٦٣ - حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ مَسْلَمَةَ الْقَعْنَبِيُّ عَنِ مَالِكٍ، عَنْ أَبِي الزِّنَادِ، عَنْ

^[1] It appears to mean that he did hear it from Ibn Abī Dhi‘b, but he was not sure of some of the details of the chain of narration, and the man did hear it and explained what was not clear for him.

immorally nor arrogantly. If some one fights him, or abuses him, he should say: 'I am fasting, I am fasting.'” (Sahīh)

تخريج: أخرجه البخاري، الصوم، باب فضل الصوم، ح: ١٨٩٤ عن القعني به مطولاً وهو في الموطأ (يحيى): ١/٣١٠ ورواه مسلم، ح: ١١٥١ من طريق آخر عن أبي الزناد به.

Comments:

A Muslim, as a rule, is commanded to abstain from things like vulgar and obscene talk and other activities of the Days of Ignorance. And when he is fasting, it is all the more important that he observe abstinence from all evil activities in all circumstances. Rather than engaging in disputes, he is advised to plainly declare to his opponent that he is fasting, so that all doors to any bad conduct are shut.

Chapter 26. The Siwāk For The Fasting Person

(المعجم ٢٦) - بَابُ السَّوَاكِ لِلصَّائِمِ
(التحفة ٢٦)

2364. It was reported from ‘Ubadullāh bin ‘Āmir bin Rabī‘ah, from his father who said: “I saw the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ using a Siwāk while he was fasting.” Musad-dad (one of the narrators) added: “He did it so often, that I lost count of it.” (Da‘īf)

تخريج: [إسناده ضعيف] أخرجه الترمذي، الصوم، باب ما جاء في السواك للصائم، ح: ٧٢٥ من حديث سفیان الثوري به وقال: "حسن" * عاصم بن عبيدالله: ضعيف.

Comments:

Provided that no external substance be swallowed, there is no harm in cleaning the mouth by any means while fasting.

Chapter 27. The Fasting Person Pouring Water Upon Himself Due To Thirst, And Exaggerating In Sniffing Water Into The Nose

(المعجم ٢٧) - بَابُ الصَّائِمِ يَصُبُّ عَلَيْهِ الْمَاءَ مِنَ الْعَطَشِ وَيُبَالِغُ فِي الْأَسْنِشَاقِ
(التحفة ٢٧)

2365. It was reported from Abū Bakr Ibn ‘Abdur-Raḥmān, from

٢٣٦٥ - حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ مَسْلَمَةَ

someone from among the Companions of the Prophet ﷺ; "I saw the Prophet ﷺ ordering people, while traveling during the Year of the Conquest of Makkah, to break the fast. He said: 'Energize for your enemy.' And the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ (himself) fasted." Abū Bakr said: "The one who narrated to me said: 'I saw the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ at Al-'Araj pouring water over his head while he was fasting, due to thirst or the heat.'" (Ṣaḥīh) (يحيى): ٢٩٤/١ ولبعض الحديث شاهد عند مسلم، ح: ١١١٤.

Comments:

In order to fight extreme heat or thirst, a fasting person is allowed to pour water on his head or body, or take a shower, or put a wet cloth on his body.

2366. ‘Aṣim bin Laqīṭ bin Ṣabrah reported from his father, Laqīṭ bin Ṣabrah, who said: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: 'Exaggerate in sniffing water,^[1] unless you are fasting.'" (Ṣaḥīh)

٢٣٦٦ - حَدَّثَنَا قُتَيْبَةُ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ: حَدَّثَنَا

Chapter 28. The Fasting Person Being Cupped

(المعجم ٢٨) بَابُ فِي الصَّائِمِ يَحْتَجِمُ
(التحفة ٢٨)

2367. It was reported from Thawbān, from the Prophet ﷺ that he said: "The one who cups, and the one who is cupped, have broken their fast.”

In his narration, Shaibān (one of the narrators) said: “Abū Qilābah informed me that Abū Asmā’ Ar-Raḥabī informed him, that Thawbān, the freed slave of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, informed him that he heard it from the Prophet ﷺ. (Ṣaḥīḥ)

حَسَنُ بْنُ مُوسَى: حَدَّثَنَا شَيْبَانُ جَمِيعًا عَنْ يَحْيَى، عَنْ أَبِي قِلَابَةَ، عَنْ أَبِي أَسْمَاءَ يَعْنِي الرَّحْبِيِّ، عَنْ ثَوْبَانَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ قَالَ: «أَفْطَرَ الْحَاجِمُ وَالْمَحْجُومُ».

تخریج: [إسناده صحيح] أخرجه ابن ماجه، الصيام، باب ما جاء في الحجامة للصائم، ح: ١٦٨٠ من حديث شيبان به وهو في مسند أحمد: ٦٥٧/١ وأطراف المسند: ٢٨٣/٥ وصححه ابن خزيمة، ح: ١٩٦٢، ١٩٦٣ وابن حبان، ح: ٨٩٩ والحاكم على شرط الشيخين: ٤٢٧/١ ووافقه الذهبي.

2368. (Another chain) from Shaibān, from Yahyā: “Abū Qilābah Al-Jarmī narrated to me, that he was informed, that Shaddād bin Aws was walking along with the Prophet ﷺ... so he mentioned similarly (to no. 2367). (Ṣaḥīḥ)

تخریج: [إسناده صحيح] أخرجه ابن ماجه، الصيام، باب ما جاء في الحجامة للصائم، ح: ١٦٨١ من حديث أبي قلابة به وهو في مسند أحمد: ٢٨٣/٥.

2369. (Another chain) From Ayyūb, from Abū Qilābah, from Al-Ash’ath, from Shaddād bin Aws, that Messenger of Allāh ﷺ came to a man at Al-Baqī’ while he was cupping when eighteen (days) had passed of Ramaḍān. The Prophet ﷺ was holding my hand. He said: “The one who cups and the one who is cupped have broken their fast.” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Abū Dāwūd said: Khālid Al-Hadh-dhā’ narrated similarly, from Abū

قال أبو داود: روى خالد الحذاء عن

Messenger of Allāh ﷺ was cupped while he was fasting. (Sahih)

Abū Dāwud said: Wuhaib bin Khālid reported it from Ayyūb, similarly with his chain, and Ja'far bin Rabī'ah and Hishām, meaning Ibn Ḥassān, reported it from 'Ikrimah, from Ibn 'Abbās, similarly.

عِكْرِمَةَ، عن ابن عَبَّاسٍ: أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ أَحْتَجَمَ وَهُوَ صَائِمٌ.

تخريج: أخرجه البخاري، الطب، باب: أية ساعة يحتجم، ح: ٥٦٩٤ عن أبي معمر به.

2373. It was reported from Miqsam, from Ibn 'Abbās that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ was cupped while he was fasting, and in a state of Ihram. (Da'if)

٢٣٧٣ - حَدَّثَنَا حَفْصُ بْنُ عُمَرَ: حَدَّثَنَا شُعْبَةُ عَنْ يَزِيدَ بْنِ أَبِي زِيَادٍ، عَنْ مِقْسَمٍ، عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ: أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ أَحْتَجَمَ وَهُوَ صَائِمٌ مُحْرِمٌ.

تخريج: [إسناده ضعيف] أخرجه الترمذي، الصوم، باب ما جاء من الرخصة في ذلك، ح: ٧٧٧ من حديث يزيد بن أبي زياد به وقال: "حسن صحيح" وسنده ضعيف، انظر: ١٤٧٤، ١٨٩٨ وللحديث شواهد عند البخاري، ح: ١٨٣٥ وغيره * يزيد ضعيف، والحديث السابق: ٢٣٧٢ يعني عنه.

2374. It was reported from 'Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Abī Lailā, who said: "A man from among the Companions of the Prophet ﷺ narrated to me, that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ prohibited cupping and continuous fasting, but he did not make them (absolutely) unlawful, out of mercy to his Companions. He was asked: "O Messenger of Allāh! But you observe continuous fast until prior to dawn. He said: "I fast continuously until prior to dawn, and my Lord provides me food and drink." (Da'if)

٢٣٧٤ - حَدَّثَنَا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ حَنْبَلٍ: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنُ مَهْدِيٍّ عَنْ سُفْيَانَ، عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ عَابِسٍ، عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ ابْنِ أَبِي لَيْلَى: حَدَّثَنِي رَجُلٌ مِنْ أَصْحَابِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ: أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ نَهَى عَنِ الْجِمَامَةِ وَالْمَوَاصِلَةِ وَلَمْ يَحْرَمْهُمَا إِبْقَاءَ عَلَيَّ أَصْحَابِهِ، فَقِيلَ لَهُ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ! إِنَّكَ تُوَاصِلُ إِلَى السَّحَرِ، فَقَالَ: «إِنِّي أَوْاصِلٌ إِلَى السَّحَرِ وَرَبِّي يُطْعِمُنِي وَيَسْقِينِي».

2375. It was reported that Anas said: "We would not avoid cupping for the fasting person except if it caused a difficult hardship." (Ṣaḥīḥ)

٢٣٧٥ - حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ مَسْلَمَةَ: حَدَّثَنَا سُلَيْمَانُ يَعْنِي ابْنَ الْمُغِيرَةَ عَنْ نَائِبِ قَالَ: قَالَ أَنَسٌ: مَا كُنَّا نَدْعُ الْحِجَامَةَ لِلصَّائِمِ إِلَّا كَرَاهِيَةَ الْجَهْدِ.

تخريج: [إسناده صحيح] رواه البخاري، ح: ١٩٤٠ من حديث ثابت به بغير هذا اللفظ.

Comments:

The Ḥadīth means that cupping, as a rule, does not break the fast. The only consideration is that it might entail weakness to the fasting person. If no such fear exists, then it is permissible.

Chapter 30. Regarding The Fasting Person Having A Wet Dream During The Day In Ramaḍān.

2376. It was reported from Zaid bin Aslam, from a man from his companions, from a man among the Companions of the Prophet ﷺ, who said: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: "The fast is not broken for one who vomited, nor had a sexual dream, nor being cupped." (Daʿīf)

Comments:

As to the meaning, the Ḥadīth is correct, i.e., the things mentioned in it are proved from other sound Aḥādīth. It may be mentioned here that deliberate vomiting invalidates the fast although unintentional vomiting will not harm it.

Chapter 31. Regarding A Fasting Person Using Kohl At The Time Of Sleeping

2377. It was narrated by 'Abdur-Raḥmān bin An-Nu'mān bin Ma'bad bin Hawdhah, from his father, from his grandfather, from the Prophet ﷺ that he ordered

Comments:

It is allowed for a fasting husband and wife to kiss each other on condition that they keep control over themselves. However, if they fear that they will not be able to keep within limits, they must abstain from it, similarly, it may be disliked for the young people in general. See no. 2387.

2385. It was reported from Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh, who said: “‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb said: ‘I got excited, so I kissed while I was fasting. I said: “O Messenger of Allāh! I have done a horrible thing today; I kissed while I was fasting. He said: “What do you think if you rinse your mouth with water while fasting?” — in his narration, ‘Eisā bin Ḥammād (one of the narrators) said: “I (‘Umar) said: ‘There would be no harm in that.’” — then both of them were in accord.^[1] — “He said: ‘Then what?’” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Chapter 34. The Fasting Person Swallowing Saliva

(المعجم ٣٤) - بَابُ الصَّائِمِ يَبْلَعُ الرِّيقَ
(التحفة ٣٤)

2386. It was reported from Miṣḍa‘ Abī Yaḥyā, from ‘Aishah that the Prophet ﷺ used to kiss her while he was fasting, and suck her tongue. (Ibn Al-A‘rābī said: “It has been conveyed to me from Abū Dāwud, that he said: “This chain is not Ṣaḥīḥ.”)^[2] (Da‘īf)

Chapter 35. That It is Disliked In The Case Of A Young Person (While Fasting)

2387. It was reported from Abū Hurairah, that he said: “A man asked the Prophet ﷺ about embracing (a woman) while fasting? The Prophet ﷺ allowed him. Another one came and asked him, the Prophet ﷺ prohibited him. The one whom he allowed was an old man, and the one whom he prohibited was a young man.” (Hasan)

Chapter 36. Whoever Awoke in the Morning In A State Of Sexual Impurity During Ramaḍān

2388. It was reported from ‘Aishah and Umm Salamah, the wives of the Prophet ﷺ, that they said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ would awake in the morning in a state of sexual impurity.” — in his narration, ‘Abdullāh Al-Adhramī (one of the narrators) said: “during Ramaḍān” — “due to sexual intercourse, not due to a wet dream, then he would fast.” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Abū Dāwūd said: So few are those who narrate this statement, meaning; “he would awake in the morning, in a state of sexual impurity, during Ramaḍān.” While the Ḥadīth is only: “That the Prophet ﷺ would awake in the

Comments:

A fast is not invalid merely because the one fasting began it in a state of impurity.

2389. It was reported from ‘Āishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ, that a man said to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, while he was standing at the door: “O Messenger of Allāh! I woke up in the morning while I was in a state of sexual impurity, and I want to fast.” The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said to him: “And I also wake up in the morning while I was in a state of sexual impurity, and I want to fast, so I performed Ghusl and fast.” The man said: “O Messenger of Allāh! You are not like one of us, Allāh has forgiven your past and future sins.” The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ got angry and said: “I swear by Allāh! I hope that I am the most fearful of Allāh, and most knowledgeable of you all in what I follow.” (Ṣaḥīḥ) from Abū Hurairah, who said: “A man came to the Prophet ﷺ and said: ‘I am ruined.’ He said: ‘What is the matter with you?’ He said: ‘I had sexual intercourse with my wife in Ramaḍān (in daytime while fasting).’ He said: ‘Do you have the means of freeing a slave?’ He said: ‘No.’ He said: ‘Can you fast for two consecutive months?’ He said: ‘No.’ He said: ‘Can you feed sixty poor people?’ He said: ‘No.’ He said: ‘Sit down.’

۲۳۹۰ - حَدَّثَنَا مُسَدَّدٌ وَمُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عِيسَى الْمَعْنَى قَالَا: حَدَّثَنَا سُفْيَانُ قَالَ مُسَدَّدٌ: قَالَ:

A bushel (‘Arak) of dates was brought to the Prophet ﷺ. Then he said: ‘Give this in charity.’ He said: ‘O Messenger of Allāh! There is nobody between the two lava fields of it (Al-Madīnah) poorer than my family.’” He said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ laughed till his eye-teeth were visible, and he said: ‘Feed it to your family.’”

2391. Ma‘mar reported this Hadīth, with its meaning, from Az-Zuhri, and (in it) Az-Zuhri added: “This was only a special concession for him specifically. So if a man were to do that today, he will have no choice but to expiate for it.” (Ṣaḥīh)

Abū Dāwud said: It has been reported by Al-Laiḥ bin Sa‘d, Al-Awzā‘ī, Manṣūr bin Al-Mu‘tamir

2392. It was reported from Mālik, from Ibn Shihāb (Az-Zuhrī), from Ḥumaid bin 'Abdur-Raḥmān, from Abū Hurairah, that a man broke his fast (intentionally) during Ramaḍān, so the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ ordered him to emancipate a slave, or fast for two consecutive months, or feed sixty poor people. He said: "I am not able." The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said to him: "Sit down." A bushel (Araq) of dates was brought to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ. Then he said: "Take this and give it in charity." He said: "O Messenger of Allāh! There is no one needier than I am." The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ laughed till his pre-molar teeth were visible, and he said to him: "Eat it yourself." (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Abū Dāwud said: Ibn Juraij reported it from Az-Zuhrī, with the wording of Mālik; that a man broke his fast, and he said in it: "or emancipate a slave, or fast for two months or feed sixty poor people."

قَالَ أَبُو دَاوُدَ: وَرَوَاهُ ابْنُ جُرَيْجٍ عَنِ الزُّهْرِيِّ عَلَى لَفْظِ مَالِكٍ: أَنَّ رَجُلًا أَفْطَرَ، وَقَالَ فِيهِ: أَوْ تُعْتِقَ رَقَبَةً، أَوْ تَصُومَ شَهْرَيْنِ أَوْ تُطْعِمَ سِتِّينَ مِسْكِينًا.

Comments:

The sequential order indicated in the Hadīth has to be maintained in performing expiation, since the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ only suggested the second and third modes of expiation after the questioner's expression of inability to implement the first.

2393. It was reported from Hishām bin Sa'd, from Ibn Shihāb (Az-Zuhri), from Abū Salamah bin 'Abdur-Rahmān, from Abū Hurairah, who said: "A man who broke his fast in Ramaḍān came to the Prophet ﷺ," then narrated the rest of the Hadīth (as no. 2392) and said: "A bushel ('Araq) containing fifteen Ṣā' of dates was brought to the Prophet ﷺ." And he said in it: "Eat it yourself, and (feed) your family, and fast for a day, and seek forgiveness from Allāh." (Da'if)

2394. It was reported from 'Abbād bin 'Abdullāh bin Az-Zubair, that he heard 'Āishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ, saying: "A man came to the Prophet ﷺ in the Masjid during Ramaḍān, and said: 'O Messenger of Allāh! I have been burnt (ruined).' The Prophet ﷺ asked him: 'What happened to him.' He said: 'I had sexual intercourse with my wife.' He said: 'Give charity.' He said: 'I swear by Allāh! Comments:

This narration appears again in the Book of Vows (number 3311), and before that (3310) is a Hadīth narrated by Ibn ‘Abbās in which the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ ordered making up the fast by a sister of one who died and it was due. Ibn ‘Abbās interpreted these to refer to when one vowed to fast, as did Aḥmad and apparently the author.

2401. Ibn ‘Abbās said: “If a man falls ill during Ramaḍān and dies without recovering from it (so that he could fast), a poor person should

Comments:

Most editions of Abū Dāwud do not mention a chapter here.

2404. It was reported from Tāwūs, from Ibn 'Abbās who said: "The Prophet ﷺ left Al-Madīnah for Makkah. When he reached 'Uṣfān he asked for a vessel of water, and raised it up to his mouth, to show it to the people. And that was during Ramaḍān."

So Ibn 'Abbās used to say: "The Prophet ﷺ fasted and broke his fast. Whoever wishes to fast can do so, and whoever wishes to break his fast can do so." (Ṣaḥīh)

٢٤٠٤ - حَدَّثَنَا مُسَدَّدٌ: حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو عَوَانَةَ

عَنْ مَنصُورٍ، عَنْ مُجَاهِدٍ، عَنْ طَاوُسٍ، عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ: خَرَجَ النَّبِيُّ ﷺ مِنَ الْمَدِينَةِ إِلَى مَكَّةَ حَتَّى بَلَغَ عُسْفَانَ ثُمَّ دَعَا بِإِنَاءٍ فَرَفَعَهُ إِلَى فِيهِ لِيُرِيَهُ النَّاسَ، وَذَلِكَ فِي رَمَضَانَ، فَكَانَ ابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ يَقُولُ: قَدْ صَامَ النَّبِيُّ ﷺ وَأَفْطَرَ، فَمَنْ شَاءَ صَامَ وَمَنْ شَاءَ أَفْطَرَ.

Comments:

This happened while the Prophet ﷺ and his Companions were on their way for the Conquest of Makkah. This Ḥadīth proves that if a person on journey intends to fast for that day, he can break it at any time for a genuinely valid reason.

2405. It was reported from Anas, who said: "We traveled with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ in Ramaḍān. Some of us fasted and others did not. Those who fasted did not find fault with those who broke their fast, neither did those who broke their fast find fault with those who fasted." (Ṣaḥīh)

٢٤٠٥ - حَدَّثَنَا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ يُونُسَ: حَدَّثَنَا

زَائِدَةُ عَنْ حُمَيْدِ الطَّوِيلِ، عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ: سَافَرْنَا مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ فِي رَمَضَانَ، فَصَامَ بَعْضُنَا، وَأَفْطَرَ بَعْضُنَا، فَلَمْ يَعْيبِ الصَّائِمُ عَلَى الْمُمْطِرِ، وَلَا الْمُمْطِرُ عَلَى الصَّائِمِ.

2406. It was reported from Qaza'ah, who said: "I came to Abū Sa'eed Al-Khudrī, while he was giving Fatwa for the people and they were surrounding him, so I waited until he was alone. When he was alone, I asked him about fasting during Ramaḍān while traveling. He said: 'We went out with the Prophet ﷺ during Ramaḍān in the Year of the Conquest of Makkah. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ fasted, and we fasted with him until we reached a certain stage. He (ﷺ) said: "You have come near your enemy, and you will be stronger if you break your fast." When morning came, some of us fasted, and others broke their fast.' He said: 'We proceeded further and dismounted at a stage. He (ﷺ) said: "You are going to attack your enemy tomorrow morning, and by breaking the fast, you will be stronger, so break your fast." So this was a resolute order of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ.' Abū Sa'eed said: 'I found myself fasting along the Prophet ﷺ before and after that.'" (Saḥīḥ)

٢٤٠٦ - حَدَّثَنَا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ صَالِحٍ وَوَهَبُ ابْنُ بَيَانَ الْمَعْنَى قَالَا: حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ وَهَبٍ: حَدَّثَنِي مُعَاوِيَةُ عَنْ رَبِيعَةَ بْنِ يَرِيدَ، أَنَّهُ حَدَّثَهُ، عَنْ قَزَعَةَ قَالَ: أَتَيْتُ أَبَا سَعِيدٍ الْخُدْرِيَّ وَهُوَ يُفْتِي النَّاسَ وَهُمْ مُكْبُونَ عَلَيْهِ فَانْتَهَرْتُ خَلْوَتَهُ، فَلَمَّا خَلَا سَأَلْتُهُ عَنْ صِيَامِ رَمَضَانَ فِي السَّفَرِ؟ فَقَالَ: خَرَجْنَا مَعَ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ فِي رَمَضَانَ عَامَ الْفَتْحِ، فَكَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَصُومُ وَنَصُومُ حَتَّى بَلَغَ مَنْزِلًا مِنَ الْمَنَازِلِ فَقَالَ: «إِنَّكُمْ قَدْ دَنَوْتُمْ مِنْ عَدُوِّكُمْ وَالْفِطْرُ أَقْوَى لَكُمْ»، فَأَصْبَحْنَا، مِنَّا الصَّائِمُ، وَمِنَّا الْمُفْطِرُ. قَالَ: ثُمَّ سِرْنَا فَتَرَلْنَا مَنْزِلًا، فَقَالَ: «إِنَّكُمْ تُصَبِّحُونَ عَدُوِّكُمْ، وَالْفِطْرُ أَقْوَى لَكُمْ فَأَفْطِرُوا» فَكَانَتْ عَزِيمَةً مِنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ. قَالَ أَبُو سَعِيدٍ: ثُمَّ لَقَدْ رَأَيْتُنِي أَصُومُ مَعَ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ قَبْلَ ذَلِكَ وَبَعْدَ ذَلِكَ.

Comments:

Fasting or not while on a journey is dependent on the individual's situation and judgment.

Chapter 43. The Preference To Break The Fast (While On A Journey)

(المعجم ٤٣) - بَابُ اخْتِيَارِ الْفِطْرِ

(التحفة ٤٣)

2407. It was reported from Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh that the Prophet ﷺ saw a man being shaded while surrounded by a crowd of people. He said: “It is not part of righteousness to fast on a journey.” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

٢٤٠٧ - حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو الْوَلِيدِ الطَّيَالِسِيُّ: حَدَّثَنَا شُعْبَةُ عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ يَعْنِي ابْنَ سَعْدِ بْنِ ذُرَّارَةَ، عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو بْنِ حَسَنِ، عَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ: أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ رَأَى رَجُلًا يُظَلَّلُ عَلَيْهِ وَالرَّحَامُ عَلَيْهِ، فَقَالَ: «لَيْسَ مِنَ الْبِرِّ الصِّيَامُ فِي السَّفَرِ».

2408. Ibn Sawādah Al-Qushairī narrated from Anas bin Mālik — a man from Banū ‘Abdullāh bin Ka‘b, brethren of Banū Qushair — who said: “A contingent from the cavalry of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ raided us. I reached,” or he said: “I went to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ while he was taking his meal. He said: ‘Sit down and share some of this meal of ours.’ I said: ‘I am fasting.’ He said: ‘Sit down, I will tell you about Ṣalāt and about fasting. Allāh has remitted a portion of the prayer, or half of the prayer, and fasting from a traveler, and a suckling mother, or pregnant woman.’ By Allāh! He mentioned both of them, or one.” He said: “I regretted not eating from the meal of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ.” (Ḥasan)

Chapter 44. Whoever Preferred To Fast (While On A Journey)

(المعجم ٤٤) - بَابُ مَنْ اخْتَارَ الصِّيَامَ

(التحفة ٤٤)

2409. Abū Ad-Dardā' said: "We accompanied the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ in one of his battles during extreme heat. It was so hot that we used to put our hands on our head or our palms on our head. Nobody among us was fasting except the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and 'Abdullāh bin Rawāḥah. (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Chapter 45. When Does The Traveler Break His Fast After Setting Out?

(المعجم ۴۵) بَابُ: مَتَى يُفْطِرُ الْمَسَافِرُ إِذَا خَرَجَ؟ (التحفة ۴۵)

2412. Ja’far (Ibn Musāfir) said: (‘Ubaid Ibn) Jubair said: Kulaib bin Dhuhl Al-Ḥaḍramī narrated from ‘Ubaid (Ibn Jabr), he said: “I accompanied Abū Baṣrah Al-Ghifārī, a Companion of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, on a ship departing from Al-Fuṣṭāt during the month of Ramaḍān. He boarded the ship, and then his meal was served.” — in his narration, (one of the narrators) Ja’far said: “He did not go beyond the houses, but asked for dinning sheet.” — “He said: ‘Come forward.’ I said: ‘Do you not see the houses?’ Abū Baṣrah said: ‘Do you object to the Sunnah of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ?’” — Ja’far said in his version: “Then he ate.” (Da’if)

Comments:

It is allowed to break the fast as soon as the journey begins. Reaching a certain distance from home is not a condition for availing oneself of the concession.

Chapter 46. The Extent Of The Distance For Breaking The Fast

2413. It was reported from Manṣūr Al-Kalbī, that once Dīḥyah bin Khalīfah left from a village of Damascus a distance as much as is between the village of ‘Aqabah and Al-Fuṣṭāṭ in Ramaḍān, and that is three miles. He then broke his fast, and some people broke their fast along with him, but some of them did not like to break their fast. When he returned to his village, he said: “By Allāh! Today I saw something which I never dreamt of seeing. Some people detested the guidance of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and his Companions,” addressing it to those who fasted. He then said: “O Allāh! Take me to You!” (Hasan)

(المعجم ٤٦) - بَابُ قَدْرِ مَسِيرَةِ مَا يُفْطِرُ فِيهِ (التحفة ٤٦)

تخريج: [إسناده حسن] أخرجه أحمد: ٣٩٨/٦ من حديث الليث بن سعد به وشك فيه ابن خزيمة، ح: ٢٠٤١ * منصور الكلبي وثقه العجلي وابن حبان: ٤٢٩/٥.

2414. It was reported from Nāfi‘, who said: “Ibn ‘Umar used to leave to go to Al-Ghābah (a place near Al-Madīnah). He would not break his fast, neither would he shorten his Ṣalāt.” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

٢٤١٤ - حَدَّثَنَا مُسَدَّدٌ: حَدَّثَنَا الْمُعْتَمِرُ عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ، عَنْ نَافِعٍ: أَنَّ ابْنَ عُمَرَ كَانَ يَخْرُجُ إِلَى الْغَابَةِ فَلَا يُفْطِرُ وَلَا يَقْصُرُ.

تخريج: [إسناده صحيح] أخرجه البيهقي: ٤/٢٤١ من حديث أبي داود به.

Comments:

‘Aqabah is a place at a distance of about twenty-two km. from Al-Madīnah towards Syria, and as such both breaking the fast and performing the shortened Ṣalāt are allowable at such distance.

Chapter 47. Whoever Said: “Indeed I Fasted All Of Ramaḍān”

2415. Abū Bakrah said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: ‘One of you should not say: ‘Indeed I fasted all of Ramaḍān, and stood (in the voluntary night prayer) for all of Ramaḍān.’” (Da‘īf)

He (Al-Ḥasan, one of the narrators) said: “I do not know whether he disliked the sanctification of (saying) that, or he said: ‘He must have slept or rested.’”

Chapter 48. Regarding Fasting On The Two ‘Eid

2416. It was reported from Abū ‘Ubaid, who said: “I attended the ‘Eid with ‘Umar. He began with the Ṣalāt before the sermon, and then said: ‘The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ prohibited us from fasting on these two days. As for the Day of Al-Adhā, then it is when you eat the meat of your sacrificed animals, and as for the Day of Al-Fiṭr it is the breaking of your fast.’” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Comments:

The three days after ʿEid Al-Adḥā (meaning the 11th, 12th, and 13th of Dhul-Hijjah) are known as the Days of Tashrīq and especially for those performing Hajj; the Days of Minā. The reason why they are called Days of "Tashrīq" is because the dried pieces of the flesh of sacrificial animals appear shining in the sun during these days.

Chapter 49. Fasting The Days Of At-Tashrīq

(المعجم ٤٩) - بَابُ صِيَامِ أَيَّامِ التَّشْرِيقِ
(التحفة ٤٩)

2418. It was reported from Mālik, from Yazīd bin Al-Hād, from Abū Murrāh, the freed slave of Umm Hanī, that he entered along with ʿAbdullāh bin ʿAmr upon his father, ʿAmr bin Al-ʿĀs. He served the two of them some food, and said: "Eat." He said: "I am fasting." ʿAmr said: "Eat, as these are the days in which the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ ordered us to eat our meals and prohibited us from fasting." Mālik said: They were the days of Tashrīq. (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Comments:

The Days of Tashriq are in fact part of ‘Eid Al-Adha. In general, it is not allowed to observe optional fasts during these days. Nevertheless, for a person who is performing Hajj At-Tamattu’ and does not have the capacity to offer an animal in sacrifice, the rule is that he has to observe ten compensatory fasts — three during the period of Hajj and seven on reaching back home. Such a person is allowed to fast three days during the Days of Tashriq. See no. 1999 of Al-Bukhārī.

Chapter 50. The Prohibition Of Specifying Friday For Fasting

2420. Abū Hurairah said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: ‘Do not fast on Friday, unless you fast a day before or after it.’” (Sahih)

(المعجم ٥٠) - بَابُ النَّهْيِ أَنْ يُخَصَّ يَوْمٌ الْجُمُعَةِ بِصَوْمٍ (التحفة ٥٠)

Chapter 51. The Prohibition Of Specifying Saturday For Fasting

2421. ‘Abdullāh bin Busr As-Sulamī reported from his sister, — (one of the narrators) Yazid said: (His sister’s name is) Aṣ-Ṣammā’ — that the Prophet ﷺ said: “Do not fast on Saturday, except what has been made obligatory on you. If one of you cannot find anything but a skin of a grape, or a piece of wood from a tree, then let him chew it.” (Ḥasan)

Abū Dāwud said: This Ḥadīth is abrogated.

(Abū Dāwud said: ‘Abdullāh bin Busr is from Ḥimṣ, and this Ḥadīth is abrogated by the Ḥadīth of Juwairiyah.)

تخريج: [إسناده حسن] أخرجه الترمذي، الصوم، باب ما جاء في صوم يوم السبت، ح: ٧٤٤ وابن ماجه، ح: ١٧٢٦ عن حميد بن مسعدة به وقال الترمذي: "حسن".

Comments:

The majority of the scholars consider it disliked to single out Saturday for fasting by itself.

Chapter 52. The Permission For That

2422. It was reported from Juwairiyah bint Al-Ḥārith, that the Prophet ﷺ entered upon her on Friday while she was fasting. He said: “Did you fast yesterday?” She said: “No.” He said: “Do you intend to fast tomorrow?” She said: “No.” He said: “Then break your fast.” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

[1] It appears to mean he was not narrating it, considering it to be not correct, but later he would narrate that he heard it, after he found it was being spread about.

[2] Meaning, the Hadīth of ‘Abdullāh bin Busr, no. 2421.

Messenger of Allāh ﷺ got angry at what he said. When ‘Umar observed this (his anger), he said: ‘We are satisfied with Allāh as our Lord, Islam as our religion and Muḥammad as our Prophet. We seek refuge in Allāh from the anger of Allāh and the anger of His Messenger.’ Umar kept on repeating these words until the anger of Prophet ﷺ receded. He then said: ‘O Messenger of Allāh! What about a person who fasts continuously?’ He said: ‘He is neither fasting, nor breaking fast.’ — in his narration, Musad-dad said: “He has never fasted nor broke his fast, or; he has neither fasted, nor broke fast.” Ghailān (one of the narrators) was in doubt. — “He said: ‘O Messenger of Allāh! What about a person who fasts two days, and does not fast one day?’ He said: ‘Is there anybody who can do that?’ He said: ‘O Messenger of Allāh! What about a person who fasts for a day, and breaks his fast for a day?’ He said: ‘That is the fast of Dāwud.’ He said: ‘O Messenger of Allāh! What about a person who fasts for a day and breaks his fast for two days?’ He said: ‘I wish I could do that.’ Then the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: ‘(Fasting) three days from every month, and Ramaḍān to Ramaḍān, this is fasting all the time. And fasting the Day of ‘Arafah; I hope from Allāh that it may expiate for (the sins of) the preceding and the following year. And fasting the Day of ‘Ashūrā’, I

Chapter 54. Regarding Fasting In The Sacred Months

(المعجم ٥٤) بَابُ: فِي صَوْمِ أَشْهُرِ الْحَرَمِ (التحفة ٥٤)

2428. It was reported from Mujībah Al-Bāhiliyyah, from her father, or her paternal uncle, that he came to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, then he left and returned after one year when his condition and appearance had changed. He said: "O Messenger of Allāh! Do you not recognize me?" He said: "And who are you?" He said: "I am Al-Bāhili, who came to you last year." He said: "What made you change, you used to be good in appearance?" I said: "I have not eaten food since I left you, except at night." The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: "Why did you torture yourself?" Then he said: "Fast the month of patience (Ramaḍān) and one day from each month." He said: "Increase for me, for I have more power." He said: "Fast for two days." He said: "Increase for me." He said: "Fast for three days". He said: "Increase for me." He said: "Fast during the sacred months and (then) leave it, fast during the sacred months and (then) leave it, fast during the sacred months, and (then) leave it." He indicated by his three fingers, he joined them, and then opened them, (indicating to fast at

Chapter 55. Regarding Fasting In Muharram

(المعجم ٥٥) بَابُ: فِي صَوْمِ الْمُحَرَّمِ
(التحفة ٥٥)

2429. Abū Hurairah said: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: 'The most virtuous fast, after the month of Ramaḍān, Allāh's month Al-Muharram, and the most virtuous Ṣalāt after the obligatory Ṣalāt is prayer during the night."

In his narration, Qutaibah (one of the narrators) did not say: "month," he (merely) said: "Ramaḍān." (Ṣaḥīḥ)

2430. It was reported from Uthman, meaning Ibn Ḥakīm, that he said: I asked Sa'eed bin Jubair about fasting during Rajab. He said: "Ibn 'Abbās informed me: 'The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ used to fast to such an extent that we would say (to ourselves): He will never break his fast. And he would go without fasting to such an extent that we would say: He will never fast.'" (Ṣaḥīḥ)

٢٤٣٠ - حَدَّثَنَا إِبْرَاهِيمُ بْنُ مُوسَى: أَخْبَرَنَا عِيسَى: حَدَّثَنَا عُثْمَانُ يَعْنِي ابْنَ حَكِيمٍ قَالَ: سَأَلْتُ سَعِيدَ بْنَ جُبَيْرٍ عَنْ صِيَامِ رَجَبٍ، فَقَالَ: أَخْبَرَنِي ابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ: أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ كَانَ يَصُومُ حَتَّى نَقُولَ: لَا يُفْطِرُ، وَيَنْفُطِرُ حَتَّى نَقُولَ: لَا يَصُومُ.

Comments:

Rajab is one of the four sacred months, and it can be said in the light of this Hadīth that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ fasted many days of this month. It may also mean that, like other months, in this month as well he fasted and did not fast, in turns. Thus there is no special ruling nor command concerning fasting during this month.

Chapter 56. Regarding Fasting In Sha'bān

(المعجم ٥٦) بَابُ: فِي صَوْمِ شَعْبَانَ
(التحفة ٥٦)

2431. ‘Āishah, may Allāh be pleased with her, said: “The most beloved of months to fast for the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ was Sha'bān, then he would join it with Ramaḍān.” [1] (Ṣaḥīḥ)

تخریج: [إسناده صحيح] أخرجه النسائي، الصيام، باب صوم النبي ﷺ بأبي هو وأمي وذكر اختلاف الناقلين للخبر في ذلك، ح: ٢٣٥٢ من حديث معاوية بن صالح به وهو في مسند أحمد: ١٨٨/٦.

Comments:

Sha'bān is a month of immense excellence. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ was wont to fasting excessively in this month. He is also known to have said that the deeds of men are presented before Allāh in this month, and that he ﷺ also wished that his deeds were presented while he was fasting. (Sunan An-Nasā'ī, no. 2359).

Chapter 57. Regarding Fasting In Shawwāl

(المعجم ٥٧) بَابُ: فِي صَوْمِ شَوَّالٍ
(التحفة ٥٧)

2432. ‘Ubaidullāh bin Muslim Al-Qurashī reported from his father: “I asked” — or “the Prophet ﷺ was asked about fasting all the time. He said: ‘Your family has a right over you. Fast during Ramaḍān, and the following month, and every Wednesday and Thursday. Then you will have

Chapter 58. Regarding Fasting Six Days In Shawwāl

(المعجم ٥٨) بَابُ: فِي صَوْمِ سِتَّةِ أَيَّامٍ
مِنْ سُؤَالِ (التحفة ٥٨)

2433. ‘Umar bin Thābit Al-Anṣārī reported from Abū Ayyūb, a Companion of the Prophet ﷺ, from the Prophet ﷺ, that he said: “Whoever fasted Ramaḍān, then followed with six days in Shawwāl, it will be as if he had fasted all the time.” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

٢٤٣٣ - حَدَّثَنَا الثَّقَلِيُّ: حَدَّثَنَا
عَبْدُ الْعَزِيزِ بْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ عَنْ صَفْوَانَ بْنِ سُلَيْمٍ
وَسَعْدِ بْنِ سَعِيدٍ، عَنْ عُمَرَ بْنِ ثَابِتِ
الْأَنْصَارِيِّ، عَنْ أَبِي أَيُّوبَ صَاحِبِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ
عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ قَالَ: «مَنْ صَامَ رَمَضَانَ ثُمَّ
اتَّبَعَهُ بِسِتِّ مِنْ سُؤَالٍ فَكَأَنَّمَا صَامَ الدَّهْرَ».

تخریج: أخرجه مسلم، الصيام، باب استحباب صوم ستة أيام من شوال اتباعاً لرمضان، ح: ١١٦٤ من حديث سعد بن سعيد به.

Comments:

These six days may be consecutive, or separate days after ‘Eid Al-Fitr.

Chapter 59. How The Prophet ﷺ Would Fast

(المعجم ٥٩) بَابُ: كَيْفَ كَانَ يَصُومُ
النَّبِيُّ ﷺ؟ (التحفة ٥٩)

2434. It was reported from Abū Salamah bin ‘Abdur-Raḥmān, from ‘Āishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ, who said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ used to fast to such an extent that we would say (to ourselves): ‘He will never break his fast,’ and he would go without fasting to such an extent that we

Chapter 60. Regarding Fasting Monday And Thursday

(المعجم ٦٠) بَابُ: فِي صَوْمِ الْإِثْنَيْنِ وَالْخَمِيسِ (التحفة ٦٠)

2436. It was reported from the freed slave of Usāmah bin Zaid, that he accompanied Usāmah to the valley of Al-Qur'ān, in pursuit of his wealth (camels). He used to fast on Mondays and Thursdays. He said to him: "Why do you fast on Mondays and Thursdays while you are an old man?" He said: "The Prophet of Allāh ﷺ used to fast on Mondays and Thursdays, and he was asked about it. He said: 'The deeds of the servants (of Allāh) are presented to Allāh on Monday and Thursday.'" (Da'if)

Abū Dāwud said: This is how it was said by Hishām Ad-Dastawā'i, from

٢٤٣٦ - حَدَّثَنَا مُوسَى بْنُ إِسْمَاعِيلَ: حَدَّثَنَا أَبَانُ: حَدَّثَنَا يَحْيَى عَنْ عُمَرَ بْنِ أَبِي الْحَكَمِ بْنِ تُوْبَانَ، عَنْ مَوْلَى قُدَامَةَ بْنِ مَطْعُونٍ، عَنْ مَوْلَى أُسَامَةَ بْنِ زَيْدٍ: أَنَّهُ انْطَلَقَ مَعَ أُسَامَةَ إِلَى وَادِي الْقُرَى فِي طَلَبِ مَالٍ لَهُ، فَكَانَ يَصُومُ يَوْمَ الْإِثْنَيْنِ وَيَوْمَ الْخَمِيسِ فَقَالَ لَهُ مَوْلَاهُ: لِمَ تَصُومُ يَوْمَ الْإِثْنَيْنِ وَيَوْمَ الْخَمِيسِ وَأَنْتَ شَيْخٌ كَبِيرٌ؟، فَقَالَ: إِنَّ نَبِيَّ اللَّهِ ﷺ كَانَ يَصُومُ يَوْمَ الْإِثْنَيْنِ وَيَوْمَ الْخَمِيسِ، وَسُئِلَ عَنْ ذَلِكَ، فَقَالَ: «إِنَّ أَعْمَالَ الْعِبَادِ تُعْرَضُ يَوْمَ الْإِثْنَيْنِ وَيَوْمَ

Comments:

This provides information concerning the system of the presentation of the people's actions and deeds before Allāh that reach Him directly without break or delay. These presentations vary in nature: some take place daily, others weekly and others on Mondays and Thursdays, and others during the month of Sha'bān.

Chapter 61. Regarding Fasting The Ten (Days)

(المعجم ٦١) بَابُ: فِي صَوْمِ الْعَشْرِ
(التحفة ٦١)

2437. It was reported from Al-Ḥurr bin (Aṣ-Ṣayyāḥ), from Hunaidah bin Khālid, from his wife, from one of wives of the Prophet ﷺ, who said: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ used to fast (the first) nine days of Dhul-Hijjah, and the day of 'Ashūrā', and three days every month: the first Monday of the month, and Thursday."^[2]

٢٤٣٧ - حَدَّثَنَا مُسَدَّدٌ: حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو عَوَانَةَ

Comments:

These Ahādīth are proof of the fact that there is great merit in fasting and doing other virtuous deeds during the first nine days of Dhul-Hijjah.

Chapter 62. Regarding Not Fasting During The Ten (Days) of Dhul-Hijjah

(المعجم ٦٢) بَابُ: فِي فِطْرِ الْعَشْرِ
(التحفة ٦٢)

2439. 'Aishah said: "I never saw the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ fasting during the (first) ten (days of Dhul-Hijjah)."
(Sahīh)

٢٤٣٩ - حَدَّثَنَا مُسَدَّدٌ: حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو عَوَانَةَ عَنْ الْأَعْمَشِ، عَنْ إِبْرَاهِيمَ، عَنِ الْأَسْوَدِ، عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ: مَا رَأَيْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ صَائِمًا الْعَشَرَ قَطُّ.

تخریج: أخرجه مسلم، الاعتكاف،: باب صوم عشر ذي الحجة، ح: ٩/١١٧٦ من حديث الأعمش به.

Comments:

What is popularly known as the 'ten days of Dhul-Hijjah' in fact means the first nine days of that month. It is among the most desirable acts of devotion to observe fasts in these nine days.

Chapter 63. Regarding Fasting On (The Day Of) 'Arafah At 'Arafāt

(المعجم ٦٣) بَابُ: فِي صَوْمِ [يَوْمِ] عَرَفَةَ بِعَرَفَةَ (التحفة ٦٣)

2440. It was reported from 'Ikrimah, who said: "We were in the house of Abū Hurairah when he narrated to us that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ prohibited fasting the day of 'Arafah at 'Arafāt."
(Hasan)

تخريج: [إسناده حسن] أخرجه ابن ماجه، الصيام، باب صيام يوم عرفة، ح: ١٧٣٢ من حديث حوشب بن عقيل به وصححه ابن خزيمة، ح: ٢١٠١ والحاكم: ٤٣٤/١ ولم أر لمضعفه حجة.

Comments:

The ninth day of Dhul-Hijjah on which those performing Hajj stand or halt on the plains of 'Arafāt is called the Day of 'Arafah.

2441. It was reported from 'Abdullāh bin 'Abbās, from Umm Al-Faḍl bint Al-Hārith, that some people disputed in front of her on the day of 'Arafah about whether the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ was fasting or not, some of them said: 'He is fasting,' and some of them said: 'He is not fasting.' So I sent to him a cup of milk while he was halted atop his camel at 'Arafāt, and he drank from it." (Sahīh)

Chapter 64. Regarding Fasting The Day of 'Ashūrā'

2442. 'Āishah said: "The day of 'Ashūrā' was a day that the people of Quraish used to fast during Jāhiliyyah (the days of pre-Islamic Ignorance), and the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ used to fast it in Jāhiliyyah. When the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ arrived in Al-Madīnah, he fasted it and ordered others to fast it. When fasting in Ramaḍān was enjoined, it became the obligation, and 'Ashūrā' was abandoned. Whoever wanted to, he would fast, and whoever wanted to, he would leave it." (Sahīh)

(المعجم ٦٤) بَابُ: فِي صَوْمِ يَوْمِ
عَاشُورَاءَ (التحفة ٦٤)

٢٤٤٢ - حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ مَسْلَمَةَ عَنْ مَالِكٍ، عَنْ هِشَامِ بْنِ عُرْوَةَ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ: كَانَ يَوْمُ عَاشُورَاءَ يَوْمًا تَصُومُهُ قُرَيْشٌ فِي الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ، وَكَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَصُومُهُ فِي الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ، فَلَمَّا قَدِمَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ الْمَدِينَةَ صَامَهُ وَأَمَرَ بِصِيَامِهِ، فَلَمَّا فُرِضَ رَمَضَانُ كَانَ هُوَ الْفَرِيضَةَ وَتَرَكَ عَاشُورَاءَ، فَمَنْ شَاءَ صَامَهُ وَمَنْ شَاءَ تَرَكَهُ.

2444. Ibn ‘Abbās said: “When the Prophet ﷺ arrived in Al-Madīnah, he found the Jews fasting on ‘Āshūrā’. They were asked about that, and they said: ‘It is the day in which Allāh granted victory to Mūsā over Fir‘awn, and we fast it out of reverence for it.’ The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: ‘We are more worthy of Mūsā than you people,’ and he ordered fasting it.” (Ṣaḥīh) ٢٤٤٤ - حَدَّثَنَا زِيَادُ بْنُ أَيُّوبَ: حَدَّثَنَا هُشَيْمٌ: أَخْبَرَنَا أَبُو بَشِيرٍ عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ جُبَيْرٍ، عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ: لَمَّا قَدِمَ النَّبِيُّ ﷺ الْمَدِينَةَ وَجَدَ الْيَهُودَ يَصُومُونَ عَاشُورَاءَ، فَسُئِلُوا عَنْ ذَلِكَ فَقَالُوا: هُوَ الْيَوْمُ الَّذِي أَظْهَرَ اللَّهُ فِيهِ مُوسَى عَلَى فِرْعَوْنَ، وَنَحْنُ نَصُومُهُ تَعْظِيمًا لَهُ، فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «نَحْنُ أَوْلَى بِمُوسَى مِنْكُمْ» وَأَمَرَ بِصِيَامِهِ.

Chapter 65. What Has Been Related Regarding ‘Āshūrā’ Being The Ninth Day (Of Muḥarram)

(المعجم ٦٥) - بَابُ مَا رُوِيَ أَنَّ عَاشُورَاءَ الْيَوْمِ التَّاسِعُ (التحفة ٦٥)

2445. It was reported from Abū Ghaṭafān who said: “I heard ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Abbās saying:

٢٤٤٥ - حَدَّثَنَا سُلَيْمَانُ بْنُ دَاوُدَ الْمَهْرِيُّ: أَخْبَرَنَا ابْنُ وَهَبٍ: أَخْبَرَنِي يَحْيَى

‘When the Prophet ﷺ fasted the day of ‘Ashūrā’ and ordered us to fast, they said: “O Messenger of Allāh! It is a day revered by the Jews and Christians.” The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “When the next year comes, we will fast on the ninth.” The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ died before the arrival of next year.” (Sahih)

ابْنُ أَيُّوبَ أَنَّ إِسْمَاعِيلَ بْنَ أُمَيَّةَ الْقُرَشِيَّ حَدَّثَهُ، أَنَّهُ سَمِعَ أَبَا غَطَفَانَ يَقُولُ: سَمِعْتُ عَبْدَ اللَّهِ بْنَ عَبَّاسٍ يَقُولُ: جِئْنَا صَامَ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ يَوْمَ عَاشُورَاءَ وَأَمَرَنَا بِصِيَامِهِ قَالُوا: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ! إِنَّهُ يَوْمٌ تُعَظَّمُهُ الْيَهُودُ وَالنَّصَارَى، فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «إِذَا كَانَ الْعَامُ الْمُقْبِلُ ضَمْنَا يَوْمَ التَّاسِعِ»، فَلَمْ يَأْتِ الْعَامُ الْمُقْبِلُ حَتَّى تُوَفِّي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ.

Comments:

Based upon other Ahādīth narrated by Ibn ‘Abbās, as well as authentic narrations from him, the meaning of these narrations is fasting the ninth along with the tenth of Muḥarram.

2446. It was reported from Al-Ḥakam bin Al-A‘raj, who said: “I came to Ibn ‘Abbās while he was reclining with his head on his Ridā’ in Al-Masjid Al-Ḥarām. I asked him about fasting on the day of ‘Ashūrā’. He said: ‘When you see the crescent of Muḥarram, then count (the days), when it is the ninth day, then arise fasting in the morning.’ I said: ‘Is that how Muḥammad ﷺ fasted? He said: “That is how Muḥammad ﷺ fasted.”’ (Sahih)

Chapter 66. The Virtues Of Fasting It (‘Ashūrā’)

(المعجم ۶۶) بَابُ: فِي فَضْلِ صَوْمِهِ
(التحفة ۶۶)

2447. ‘Abdur-Raḥmān bin

۲۴۴۷ - حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ الْمُنْهَالِ:

Maslamah narrated from his paternal uncle, that the people of the tribe of Aslam came to the Prophet ﷺ. He said: "Are you people fasting today?" They said: "No." He said: "Complete the rest of the day, and make it up." (Da'if)
Abū Dāwud said: Meaning; the day of 'Ashūrā'.

حَدَّثَنَا يَزِيدُ بْنُ زُرَيْعٍ: حَدَّثَنَا سَعِيدٌ عَنْ قَتَادَةَ،
عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ مَسْلَمَةَ، عَنْ عَمِّهِ: أَنَّ

Comments:

It is a 'weak' narration. Sahih Muslim (nos. 1135 & 1136) contains Ahādīth of the same meaning but they make no mention of completing the day's fast.

Chapter 67. Fasting A Day, And Not Fasting A Day

2448. 'Abdullāh bin 'Amr said: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said to me: 'The most beloved fast to Allāh is fast of (Prophet) Dāwud, and the most beloved Ṣalāt to Allāh is Ṣalāt of Dāwud, he used to sleep half of the night, then pray for one third, and sleep one sixth, and he would go without fasting for one day, and fast the next day.'" Comments:

The reason why 13th, 14th and 15th of the lunar month are called the "white days" is because the moon is full during these days.

2450. ‘Abdullāh bin Mas‘ūd said: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ used to fast — meaning from the Ghurrah (beginning) of each month — three days. (Hasan)

٢٤٥٠ - حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو كَامِلٍ: حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو دَاوُدَ: حَدَّثَنَا شَيْبَانُ عَنْ عَاصِمٍ، عَنْ زُرِّ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ قَالَ: كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَصُومُ - يَعْنِي مِنْ غُرَّةِ كُلِّ شَهْرٍ - ثَلَاثَةَ أَيَّامٍ.

Chapter 70. Whoever Said That There Is No Concern To Specify (The Day Of Fasting) Of The Month

2453. It was reported from Mu'adhah, who said: "I said to 'Āishah: 'Did the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ fast three days every month?' She said: 'Yes.' I said: 'Which days of the month would he fast?' She said: 'He was not specific about any particular day of the month he fasted.'" (Sahih)

Chapter 71. The Intention For Fasting

2454. It was reported from Ḥafṣah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ, that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: "Whoever did not intent to fast before Fajr, then there is no fast for him." (Da'if)

Abū Dāwud said: Al-Laith and Ishāq bin Hāzim also reported it

٢٤٥٢ - حَدَّثَنَا زُهَيْرُ بْنُ حَرْبٍ: حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ فُضَيْلٍ: حَدَّثَنَا الْحَسَنُ بْنُ عُبَيْدِ اللَّهِ عَنْ هُمَيْدَةَ الْخَزَاعِيِّ، عَنْ أُمِّهِ قَالَتْ: دَخَلْتُ عَلَى أُمَّ سَلَمَةَ فَسَأَلْتُهَا عَنِ الصِّيَامِ فَقَالَتْ: كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَأْمُرُنِي أَنْ أَصُومَ ثَلَاثَةَ أَيَّامٍ مِنْ كُلِّ شَهْرٍ، أَوَّلُهَا الْإِثْنَيْنِ وَالْخَمِيسِ.

Comments:

In case of obligatory fasts it is necessary to have the intention before Fajr, and it is preferable to do it separately for each day. It must, however, be noted that intention means the determination of the heart.

Chapter 72. Regarding The Allowance For That

2455. It was reported from 'Aishah, may Allāh be pleased with her, who said: "When the Prophet ﷺ would entering upon me, he would say: 'Do you have food?' If we say no, he would say: '(Then) I am fasting.'"

(One of the narrators) Wakī' added: " ('Aishah said:) When he entered upon us another day we said to him: 'O Messenger of Allāh! Some Hais has been given to us and we kept it for you.' He said: 'Bring it to me.'" (Ṭalḥah said:) "He was fasting since morning, but then broke his fast." (Ṣaḥīh)

Comments:

In case of voluntary fasts, we have the concession to make the intention even after Fajr.

2456. It was reported from Umm Hānī', who said: "On the Day of the Conquest — the Conquest of Makkah — Fāṭimah came and sat on the left of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, and Umm Hānī' on his right." She said: "A slave-girl came with a — vessel containing some drink, and gave it to the Prophet ﷺ who drank from it. He then gave it to Umm Hānī', who drank from it." She said: "O Messenger of Allāh! I broke my fast, I was fasting." He said to her: "Were you making up something?" She said: "No." He said: "If it is voluntary, it will not harm you." (Da'if) me if I pray," she recites two *Sūrah*s, and I prohibited her from that." He said: "Then he (the Prophet ﷺ) said: 'If one Sūrah was recited it would be sufficient for the people.' And about her statement: "He makes me break my fast," she keeps on fasting and I am a young man, and I am not that patient.' Upon that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: 'A woman is not to fast except with her husband's permission.' And about her statement that I do not pray until sunrise; we are from a class of people known for it, we cannot wake up till the sun rises.' He said: 'Then when you wake up, pray.'"

Abū Dāwud said: Ḥammād — meaning Ibn Salamah — reported it; "from Ḥumaid or Thābit, from Abū Al-Mutawakkil."

Comments:

The rule for the one who overslept or forgot (as preceded) is to perform the Ṣalāt as soon as they wake up or remember.

Chapter 75. Regarding A Fasting Person Who Is Invited To A Walimah (Wedding Feast)

2460. It was reported from Abū Khālid, from Hishām, from Ibn Sirīn, from Abū Hurairah who said: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: 'If one of you is invited (for a meal) then let him accept (the invitation), if he is not fasting, then let him eat, and if he is fasting, then let him pray (Faluṣalli).”

قَالَ أَبُو دَاوُدَ: رَوَاهُ حَمَّادٌ - يَعْنِي ابْنَ سَلَمَةَ - عَنْ حُمَيْدٍ أَوْ ثَابِتٍ، عَنْ أَبِي الْمُتَوَكِّلِ.

Hishām said: “And the Ṣalāt means to supplicate (for the host).” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Abū Dāwud said: Ḥafṣ bin Ghiyāth also reported it from Hishām.

تخريج: أخرجه مسلم، النكاح، باب الأمر بإجابة الداعي إلى دعوة، ح: ١٤٣١ من حديث

حفص بن غياث عن هشام بن عروة به.

Comments:

The implication here is that the fasting person should also join the meal and supplicate for the host. If it is an optional fast, it is also allowed to break it in such a situation.

Chapter 76. What A Fasting Person Says When Invited To A Meal

2461. Abū Hurairah said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: ‘If one of you is fasting, and is invited to a meal, then let him say: ‘I am fasting.’” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

تخريج: أخرجه مسلم، الصيام، باب ندب الصائم إذا دعي إلى الطعام ... إلخ، ح: ١١٥٠

Comments:

It is preferable to attend the meal to which one is invited. Nevertheless, it is also permissible that the person informs the hosts that he is fasting.

Chapter 77. Al-I'tikāf

2462. ‘Āishah said: “The Prophet ﷺ used to observe I'tikāf in the last ten days of Ramaḍān until Allāh took him, then his wives observed I'tikāf after him.” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Comments:

Confining oneself in a Masjid for prayers and invocation to Allāh is known as I'tikāf. A women can also perform I'tikāf with the permission of her husband. The place of I'tikāf, even for the woman, is not her home but only the Masjid.

2463. Ubayy bin Ka'b said: "The Prophet ﷺ used to observe I'tikāf in the last ten of Ramaḍān, then he did not observe it for a year, when the next year came, he observed it for twenty nights." (Sahīh)

Comments:

It is not compulsory to make up for the intended voluntary actions. There is, however, much reward for redeeming such acts. The Prophet ﷺ was himself very particular about it.

2464. It was reported from Yaḥyā bin Sa'eed, from 'Amrah, from 'Āishah, who said: "When the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ wanted to observe I'tikāf, he would pray Fajr and enter his place of I'tikāf." She said: "On one occasion, he wanted to observe I'tikāf during the last ten of Ramaḍān." She said: "He ordered his tent to be pitched and it was pitched. When I saw that, I also ordered for my tent to be pitched, and it was pitched." She said: "And other wives of the Prophet ﷺ ordered it to be pitched and it was pitched. After he prayed Fajr, he saw the tents and said: 'What is this? Is it righteousness that you seek?'" She

Comments:

What we infer from this is that I'tikāf can also be performed in the middle of Ramaḍān.

Chapter 79. The Person Observing I'tikāf Entering His House For A Need

(المعجم ٧٩) - بَابُ الْمُعْتَكِفِ يَدْخُلُ

2467. It was reported from Mālik, from Ibn Shihāb (Az-Zuhri), from 'Urwah bin Az-Zubair, from 'Amrah bint 'Abdur-Rahmān, from 'Āishah, who said: "While the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ was observing I'tikāf, he would bring his head near me to comb it, and he would not enter the house except for a person's needs." Abū Dāwud said: And Yūnus reported it from Az-Zuhri like that. No one followed up Mālik with; "Urwah from 'Amrah." Ma'mar, Ziyād bin Sa'd, and others reported it from Az-Zuhri: "from 'Urwah, from 'Āishah."

I spoke to him and then got up to return. He stood up with me to see me to the house.” Her dwelling was in the abode of Usāmah bin Zaid. Two men from the Anṣār passed by (while he was with her). When they saw the Prophet ﷺ they hastened on. The Prophet ﷺ said: “Take it easy, she is Ṣafīyyah bint Ḥuyyay.” They said: ‘Glory be to Allāh! O Messenger of Allāh!’ He said: ‘The Shaiṭān flows through the human like the flow of blood, so I was afraid that it might have cast something in your hearts.’ or he said: ‘evil.’” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

2474. It was reported from Abū Dāwūd,^[1] that ‘Abdullāh bin Budail narrated from ‘Amr bin Dīnār, from Ibn ‘Umar, who said: “During Jāhiliyyah, ‘Umar, may Allāh be pleased with him, vowed to observe I’tikāf near the Ka‘bah for a night or a day. He asked the Prophet ﷺ about that. He said: ‘Observe I’tikāf and fast.’” (Ḍa‘īf)

تخریج: [إسناده ضعيف] أخرجه النسائي في السنن الكبرى، ح: ٣٣٥٥ من حديث عبدالله ابن بديل به وقال أبو بكر النيسابوري: "هذا حديث منكر... وابن بديل ضعيف الحديث" (الدارقطني: ٢٠١، ٢٠٠/٢) والحديث الصحيح ليس فيه "وصم".

2475. (Another chain) from ‘Amr bin Muḥammad, meaning Al-‘Anqarī, from ‘Abdullāh bin Budail, with his chain, similarly (as no. 2474). He said: “So while he was observing I’tikāf, people began saying ‘Allāhu Akbar.’ ‘Umar said: ‘What is this O ‘Abdullāh?’ He said: ‘Captives from Hawāzin have been set free by the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ.’ He (‘Umar) said: ‘Send that slave girl with them.’”^[2] (Ḍa‘īf)

2477. Abū Sa'eed Al-Khudrī said: "A Bedouin asked the Prophet ﷺ about Hijrah (emigration). He said: 'May mercy of Allāh be on you, the matter of Hijrah is severe. Do you have any camels?' He said: 'Yes.' He said: 'Do you pay the Ṣadaqah (Zakāt) due on them?' He said: 'Yes.' He said: 'Then do deeds from beyond the sea (in your land), indeed Allāh will not leave any of your deeds (unrewarded).'" (Ṣahih)

Comments:

Hijrah literally means to abandon, to renounce, to forgo. In this context Hijrah refers to leaving the land of disbelievers for the land of the Muslims. Hijrah is also mentioned in Ahādīth with the meaning of abandoning disobedience for obedience.

2478. It was reported from Al-Miqdām bin Shuraiḥ, from his father, who said: "I asked 'Āishah, may Allāh be pleased with her about

Comments:

Before the conquest of Makkah, it was compulsory for the Muslims to emigrate to Al-Madīnah if they were able. After the conquest of Makkah, it was no longer an obligation to emigrate to Al-Madīnah.

2481. ‘Āmir said: “A man came to ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Amr while there were some people with him, so he sat with him. He said: ‘Inform me of something you heard from the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ.’ He said: ‘I heard the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ say: “The Muslim is the one from whose tongue and hands the Muslims are safe, and the Muhājir (emigrant) is the one who abandons what Allāh has prohibited.” (Ṣaḥīh)”

Chapter 3. Regarding Residing In Ash-Shām.

2482. ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Amr said: “I heard the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ say: ‘There will be a Hijrah (to Shām) after Hijrah (to Al-Madīnah), and the best of the inhabitants of the earth will be those most adherent to the Ibrāhīm’s Hijrah. In the Ḥadīth literature, Ash-Shām refers to the area north of the Arabian Peninsula. It includes Lebanon, Jordan, Palestine north western ‘Iraq, and the present day Syria.

Chapter 4. Regarding The Continuance Of Jihād.

2484. ‘Imrān bin Ḥuṣāin said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: ‘There always will remain a group from my Ummah fighting upon the truth, victorious over those who oppose them, until the last of them fight Al-Masīhid-Dajjāl.’” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

العلاء يزيد بن عبدالله بن الشخير أحمد: ٤/٤٣٤ وصححه الحاكم على شرط مسلم: ٤/٤٥٠ ووافقه الذهبي وللحديث شواهد كثيرة.

Comments:

The implication of this narration in relation to the chapter heading is that Jihād will remain as the group that is victorious upon the truth will fight the Dajjāl. It is the belief of Ahl As-Sunnah Wal-Jamā'ah that Jihād with every Muslim leader of a land abides.

Chapter 5. Regarding The Reward Of Jihād.

(المعجم ٥) بَابُ: فِي ثَوَابِ الْجِهَادِ
(التحفة ٥)

2485. It was reported from Abū Sa'eed that the Prophet ﷺ was asked: "Who among the believers are most perfect in Faith?" He said: "A man who fights (Jihād) in the cause of Allāh with himself and his wealth, and a man who worships Allāh in a pass among the mountain passes, who has protected the people from his evil." (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Comments:

This Ḥadīth mentions two traits of Faith, which appear unrelated. The first listed is Jihād in the Cause of Allāh. The second is seclusion to protect people from one's evil. These are in reality related, because the one who flees to seclusion protects the people from his evil, by not lending his hand to sectarian strife and bloodshed which they claim is Jihād, demanding him to participate in.

Chapter 6. Regarding The Prohibition Of Wandering (As-Siyāḥah)^[1]

^[1] “With Salām.” Scholars have listed this narration, and explained it, relating to two topics. They say: “bi-salām” can mean: “with Salām” as translated here, and it means he gives the greeting of Salām when entering his house. And they say that bi-salām means he enters his house, to stay there, and to avoid Fūnah that appears. In this case the translation would be: “And a man who enters his house for security” or similar to that, and its meaning is, that he does so to keep the people safe from his participation in one side or another during the Fūnah.

Chapter 16. Regarding The Virtue Of Keeping Watch In The Cause Of Allāh, The Mighty And Sublime

2501. Sahl bin Al-Ḥanzaliyyah narrated that they traveled with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ on the day of Ḥunain, so they traveled (in a caravan of camels) for a long time until evening came. (He said) "I attended a prayer along with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ when a horseman came and said: 'O Messenger of Allāh! I traveled ahead of you until I ascended such and such mountain, and I saw Ḥawāzin, all together with their women, cattle, and sheep gathered at Ḥunain.' The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ smiled and said: 'That will be spoils for the Muslims tomorrow, if Allāh wills.' Then he said: 'Who will stand guard for us tonight?' Anas bin Abī Marthad Al-Ganawī said: 'I will do it O Messenger of Allāh!' He said: 'Then mount.' So he mounted his horse and came to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said to him: 'Go through this mountain pass until you come to the peak. We should not be exposed to any danger from your direction tonight.' In the

We have not heard from him.' The call for the prayer was made, and while the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ was praying, he began to glance towards the mountain pass. After he finished the prayer and said the Salām, he said: 'Cheer up for your horseman has come.' We started to look through the trees in the ravine, and sure enough he had come. He stood by the side of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and said the Salām to him, and said: 'I went until I reached the top of this mountain pass as ordered by the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ. In the morning I checked both of the ravines but saw no one.' The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said to him: 'Did you dismount during the night?'. He said: 'No, except to pray or to relive myself.' 2503. It was reported from Abū Umāmah, from the Prophet ﷺ, who said: "Anyone who does not go to battle, nor equip a fighter, nor look after the family of a fighter while he is away, Allāh will strike him with a sudden calamity." In his narration, (one of the narrators) Yazīd bin 'Abd Rabbih said: "...Before the Day of Resurrection." (Hasan)

2504. It was reported from Anas, that the Prophet ﷺ said: "Perform Jihād against the idolators, with your wealth, yourselves, and your tongues." (Hasan)

٢٥٠٤ - حَدَّثَنَا مُوسَى بْنُ إِسْمَاعِيلَ: حَدَّثَنَا حَمَادٌ عَنْ حُمَيْدٍ، عَنْ أَنَسٍ: أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ قَالَ: «جَاهِدُوا الْمُشْرِكِينَ بِأَمْوَالِكُمْ وَأَنْفُسِكُمْ وَأَلْسِنَتِكُمْ».

Comments:

Since all of the religions is commanding good and forbidding evil, the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ explained many of its elements with the same levels of commanding good and forbidding evil; that is, changing the evil into goodness with the hand if one is able, if not then with the tongue, and if not then in the heart (see nos. 1140, and 4340). Similar is the case with Hijrah and Jihād, all of it is commanding good and forbidding evil, and it is required upon every Muslim, within their ability.

Chapter 18. Regarding Abrogation Of The Command For Mass Deployment By Specific Deployment

(المعجم ١٨) بَابُ: فِي نَسْخِ نَفِيرٍ
الْعَامَّةِ بِالْخَاصَّةِ (التحفة ١٩)

2505. It was reported from 'Ikrimah, from Ibn 'Abbās who said: "If you march not forth, He will punish you with a painful torment..."^[1] and "...It was not becoming of the people of Al-Madinah..." up to: "...What they used to do..." has been abrogated by the following Verse: "And it is not (proper) for the believers to go out to fight all together."^[2] (Hasan)

تخريج: [إسناده حسن] أخرجه البيهقي: ٤٧/٩ من حديث أبي داود به.

Comments:

Meaning, the command given earlier to set out all together for Jihād was later abrogated.

2506. It was reported from 'Abdul-Mu'min bin Khālid Al-Ḥanafī, who said: "Najdah bin Nufai' narrated to me, he said: 'I asked Ibn 'Abbās about this Verse: "If you march not forth, He will punish you with a painful torment." He replied: "The rain was withheld from them, and that was their punishment."^[3] (Da'if)

Chapter 19. The Allowance To Stay Behind Due To An Excuse

(المعجم ١٩) - بَابُ الرَّخْصَةِ فِي الْقُعُودِ
مِنَ الْعُذْرِ (التحفة ٢٠)

2507. Zaid bin Thābit said: “I was beside the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ when divinely-inspired tranquility overtook him. The thigh of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ fell down on my thigh, and I didn’t find anything heavier than the thigh of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ. He then regained his composure and said: ‘Write.’ So I wrote down on a shoulder (blade): ‘Not equal are those of the believers who sit (at home) among the believers, and the Mujāhidīn in Allāh’s cause’ until the end of the Verse. Ibn Umm Maktūm — who was a blind man — stood up when he heard the superiority of the Mujāhidīn, and said: ‘O Messenger of Allāh! What about those believers who are not able to perform Jihād?’ As soon as he finished asking, divinely inspired tranquility overtook the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ. His thigh fell down on my thigh, and I felt the heavy weight for the second time as I had felt it the first time. Then the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ regained his composure, and said: ‘Read O Zaid.’ So I read: Not equal are those of the believers who sit (at home). The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: Except those who are disabled’ (reciting) the complete Verse.”^[1] Zaid said: “Allāh, the Mighty and Sublime,

Comments:

There is no sin if the people who are either sick or blind or disabled, or have some other genuine excuses stay behind from Jihād.

2508. It was reported from Mūsā bin Anas bin Mālik, from his father, that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “You left behind people in Al-Madīnah, you do not journey anywhere, nor do you spend (in charity), nor do you cross a valley, except that they are with you in it.” They said: “O Messenger of Allāh! And how can they be with us while they are still in Al-Madīnah?” He replied: “They were detained by a valid excuse.” (Ṣaḥīh)

٢٥٠٨ - حَدَّثَنَا مُوسَى بْنُ إِسْمَاعِيلَ: حَدَّثَنَا حَمَّادٌ عَنْ حُمَيْدٍ، عَنْ مُوسَى بْنِ أَنَسِ ابْنِ مَالِكٍ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ قَالَ: «لَقَدْ تَرَكْتُمْ بِالْمَدِينَةِ أَقْوَامًا مَا سِرْتُمْ مَسِيرًا، وَلَا أَنْفَقْتُمْ مِنْ نَفَقَةٍ، وَلَا قَطَعْتُمْ مِنْ وَادٍ إِلَّا وَهُمْ مَعَكُمْ فِيهِ». قَالُوا: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ! وَكَيْفَ يَكُونُونَ مَعَنَا وَهُمْ بِالْمَدِينَةِ؟ قَالَ: «حَبَسَهُمُ الْعُدْرُ».

Chapter 20. What Is Accepted As Participation in Battle

2509. It was reported from Zaid bin Khālid Al-Juhanī that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “Whoever equips a fighter in the cause of Allāh, (it is as if) he has fought, and whoever looks after his family in goodness, then he has fought.”^[1] (Ṣaḥīh)

(المعجم ٢٠) - بَابُ مَا يُجْزَى مِنْ الْعَزْوِ (التحفة ٢١)

٢٥٠٩ - حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ عَمْرٍو بْنِ أَبِي الْحَجَّاجِ أَبُو مَعْمَرٍ: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الْوَارِثِ: حَدَّثَنَا الْحُسَيْنُ: حَدَّثَنِي يَحْيَى: حَدَّثَنِي أَبُو سَلَمَةَ: حَدَّثَنِي بُسْرُ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ: حَدَّثَنِي زَيْدُ بْنُ خَالِدِ الْجُهَنِيِّ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ قَالَ: «مَنْ

2510. It was reported from Abū Sa‘eed Al-Khudrī that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ sent a detachment to Banū Lihyān, and said: “From every two men, one should go.” Then he said to the one staying behind: “If anyone of you looks after the family and wealth of one who goes forth, he will get the likes of half the reward of the one going forth.” (Saḥīh)

تخريج: أخرجه مسلم، الإمامة، باب فضل إعانة الغازي في سبيل الله بمركوب وغيره ... إلخ، ح: ۱۸۹۶ عن سعيد بن منصور به وهو في سننه، ح: ۲۳۲۶.

Comments:

If the person staying behind has willingly volunteered himself for this role, he will only get half of the reward. In case both of them were equally eager to participate in Jihād, but it was the Commander who picked one of them for the campaign and assigned the duty of looking after the family to the other, both will get equal rewards. And Allāh knows best.

Chapter 21. Regarding Bravery and Cowardice

(المعجم ۲۱) بَابُ: فِي الْجُرْأَةِ وَالْجُبْنِ
(التحفة ۲۲)

2511. Abū Hurairah said: I heard the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ say: “The most evil (trait) in a man are severe stinginess and uninhibited cowardice.” (Saḥīh)

۲۵۱۱ - حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ الْجَرَّاحِ عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ يَزِيدَ، عَنْ مُوسَى بْنِ عَلِيٍّ بْنِ رَبَاحٍ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنْ عَبْدِ الْعَزِيزِ بْنِ مَرْوَانَ قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ أَبَا هُرَيْرَةَ يَقُولُ: سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ

In Arabic the meanings of the word Shuhh includes greed and miserliness.

Chapter 22. Regarding The Saying Of Allāh, The Mighty And Sublime: And Do Not Throw Yourselves Into Destruction^[1]

2512. It was reported from Aslam Abū 'Imrān, who said: "We went on a military expedition from Al-Madīnah headed for Constantinople, and 'Abdur-Rahmān bin Khālid bin Al-Walīd was (commander) over the group. The Romans had gathered before the wall of the city (ready to fight). So a man went to attack the enemy. Thereupon the people said: 'Stop, stop! None has the right to be worshiped but Allāh! He is throwing himself into destruction!' Thus Abū Ayyūb said: 'This Verse was revealed about us, the people of the Anṣār, when Allāh granted victory to His Prophet ﷺ and gave Islam dominance, we said: "Come, let us stay with our wealth (and properties) and improve it." Thereupon, Allāh, the Mighty and Sublime, revealed: "And spend in the cause of Allāh, and do not throw yourselves into destruction." So, to "throw oneself into destruction"

Comments:

When the circumstances behind the revelation of a Verses of the Qur’ān are known, then it is important to learn them to know its interpretation. What we learn from the facts mentioned above is that too much occupation with worldly affairs and neglecting commanding good and forbidding evil is a recipe for self-destruction.

Chapter 23. Regarding Shooting

(المعجم ٢٣) بَابُ: فِي الرَّمِيِّ

(التحفة ٢٤)

2513. It was reported from ‘Uqbah bin ‘Āmir, who said: “I heard the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ say: ‘Allāh, the Mighty and Sublime, will admit three people into Paradise by one arrow: The one made it and seeks good (in reward) by his making it; the one who shoots it, and the one who hands it to him. So shoot and ride, but your shooting is dearer to me than your riding. Every kind of amusement is futile except three: A man’s training his horse, playing with his wife, and his shooting with his bow and arrow. A person who abandons shooting after learning it, out of an aversion for it, then it is a favor he has abandoned” or he said: “(it is a favor) for which he was ungrateful.” (Ḥasan)

(المعجم ٢٤) بَابُ: فِيمَنْ يَغْزُو وَيُلْتَمِسُ الدُّنْيَا (التحفة ٢٥)

2515. It was reported from Mu‘ādh bin Jabal that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “Military campaigns are of two types: As for the one who fights (in the cause of Allāh) seeking His Countenance, obeys the Imām, spends what is precious, deals with ease with his associates, and avoids mischief, whether he is asleep or awake, he is earning reward. But as for the one who fights out of pride, and in order to show off and gain a reputation, and disobeys the Imām, and spreads mischief in the land, he comes back empty-handed.” (Da‘if)

2516. It was reported from Ibn Mikraz, a man from the people of Ash-Shām, from Abū Hurairah, that a man said: “O Messenger of Allāh! A man wants to engage in Jihād in the cause of Allāh, while he seeks some worldly gains?” The Prophet ﷺ said: “He will have no reward.” So this was very difficult on the people. They said to the man: “Go back to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and ask him again, for you might not have been able to make him understand properly.” He came back and said: “O Messenger of Allāh! A man wants to engage in Jihād in the cause of Allāh while he seeks some worldly gains?” The Prophet ﷺ said: “He will have no reward.” They said to the man: “Go back to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ,” so he said it to him for a third time. Chapter 25. Regarding The Virtue Of Martyrdom

2520. It was reported from Sa'eed bin Jubair, from Ibn 'Abbās, who said: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: "When your brothers were struck down at Uḥud, Allāh placed their souls inside green birds who frequent the rivers of Paradise, eating from its fruits and nestling in golden lamps hanging in the shade of the Throne (of Allāh). When they experienced the sweetness of their food, drink and rest, they said: 'Who will inform our brethren about us, that we are alive in Paradise provided with provision, so that they may not be disinterested in Jihād or draw back in war?' Allāh Most High said: 'I shall inform them.'" He (the narrator) said: "Then Allāh, the Mighty and Sublime revealed: 'Think not of those who are killed in the cause of Allāh as dead...' until the end of the Verse."^[1]

2524. Ubaid bin Khālid As-Sulamī said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ made a bond of brotherhood between two men, one of them was killed, and the other one died after him by a week or thereabout. We performed (the Janāzah) Ṣalāh for him. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ asked: ‘What did you say?’ We said: ‘We supplicated for him, and we said: “O Allāh! Forgive him and join him with his companion.”’ The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “So where is his Ṣalāt in comparison to his (companion’s) Ṣalāt, and his fasting in comparison to his (companion’s) fasting — (one of the narrators) Shu‘bah was not sure about: “his fasting” — “And his deeds in comparison to his (companion’s) deeds. Indeed the distance between them is like the distance between the heavens and the earth.” (Hasan)

Comments:

A martyr is doubtless accorded a special status and rank, but some non-martyrs also can secure higher ranks by virtue of their unfailing sincerity, piety and abundant virtuous deeds. It is understood by some of the commentaries, that in this narration, the mention of the more exalted of deeds is regarding the second one who died, and that perhaps the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ knew of his sincerity in his good deeds. It appears that the author considered the meaning to be the opposite, based upon where he narrated it, that is, that the second man's deeds were below that of the first. And Allāh knows best.

Chapter 28. Regarding Fighting For Wages

2525. It was reported from the paternal nephew of Abū Ayyūb, from Abū Ayyūb, that he heard the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ saying: "The lands will be conquered by you, and you will be groups of armies, levied for deployments. A man will be unwilling to take part in the deployment, so he will escape from his people. Then he will go around offering himself to various tribes (for wages), saying: 'Who will hire me to take his place in such and such expedition? Who will hire me to take his place in such and such expedition?' Lo! He is a hireling until the last drop of his blood." (Da'if)

Chapter 30. A Man Who Fights For The Wages Of His Service

2527. It was reported from Ya'lā bin Munyah, who said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ announced an expedition, and I was an old man and I had no servant. I looked for someone to hire who could take my place, and he would receive his share. So I found a man who at the time of departure came to me and said: ‘I do not know, what are the shares? And what will my share be? So fix an amount (as wages) for me, whether there are any shares or not.’ So I offered him three Dinars. When the spoils of war arrived, I wanted to offer him his share, but then I remembered the Dinars. I came to the Prophet ﷺ and mentioned the issue to him. He said: ‘I do not find for him — in this expedition of his — in this world and in the Hereafter, except for those Dinars which were offered.’” (Sahih)

۲۵۲۷ - حَدَّثَنَا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ صَالِحٍ: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ وَهَبٍ: أَخْبَرَنِي عَاصِمُ بْنُ حَكِيمٍ عَنِ يَحْيَى بْنِ أَبِي عَمْرٍو السَّيِّبَانِيِّ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ الدَّيْلَمِيِّ أَنَّ يَعْلىَ بْنَ مُثَنِّةٍ قَالَ: أَدَّنَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ بِالْعَزْوِ وَأَنَا شَيْخٌ كَبِيرٌ لَيْسَ لِي خَادِمٌ، فَالْتَمَسْتُ أَجِيرًا يَكْفِينِي، وَأُجْرِي لَهُ سَهْمُهُ، فَوَجَدْتُ رَجُلًا، فَلَمَّا دَنَا الرَّجُلُ أَنَايَ فَقَالَ: مَا أُدْرِي مَا السُّهُمَانُ؟ وَمَا يَبْلُغُ سَهْمِي؟ فَسَمَّ لِي شَيْئًا كَانَ السَّهْمُ أَوْ لَمْ يَكُنْ، فَسَمَّيْتُ لَهُ ثَلَاثَةَ دَنَانِيرَ فَلَمَّا حَضَرَتْ غَنِيمَتُهُ أَرَدْتُ أَنْ أُجْرِيَهُ لَهُ سَهْمُهُ فَذَكَرْتُ الدَّنَانِيرَ، فَجِئْتُ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ فَذَكَرْتُ لَهُ أَمْرَهُ فَقَالَ: «مَا أَجِدُ فِي عَزْوَتِهِ هُذِهِ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ إِلَّا دَنَانِيرُهُ الَّتِي سَمَّيْتُ».

Comments:

In case of need, a believer is allowed to engage a hireling to perform Jihād etc. on his behalf. The reward for his participation in such an expedition shall, however, depend on the purity of his intention and the degree of his sincerity in performing the act. If he really means to achieve the pleasure and closeness to the mercy of Allāh through his action, he would get a double benefit, viz. spoils of war and reward from Allāh in the Hereafter.

Chapter 31. Regarding A Man Who Goes To Battle While His Parents Object

2528. It was reported from Sufyān, (who said): “‘Aṭā’ bin As-Sā’ib narrated to us, from his father, from ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Amr who said: ‘A man came to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, and said: “I came to you to pledge allegiance to emigrate and I have left behind my parents weeping.” He said: “Go back to them, and make them smile as you have made them weep.” (Ḥasan)

2529. It was reported from Sufyān, from Ḥabīb bin Abī Thābit, from Abul-‘Abbās, from ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Amr, who said: “A man came to the Prophet ﷺ and said: ‘O Messenger of Allāh! Shall I engage in Jihād?’ He said: ‘Do you have parents?’ He said: ‘Yes.’ He said: ‘Strive in looking after them.’” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Comments:

Looking after and taking care of one's parents is the foremost duty of Muslim children. Such service is given preference over any fighting.

2530. It was reported from Abū Al-Haitham, from Abū Sa'eed Al-Khudrī, that a man emigrated to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ from Yemen. He asked: "Do you have anybody in Yemen?" He said: "My parents." He asked: "Did they give you permission?" He said: "No." He said: "Go back and seek their permission. If they give you permission, then go for Jihād, and if not, then devout yourself to their wellbeing." (Da'if)

Chapter 32. Regarding Women Participating In Battle

(المعجم ٣٢) بَابُ: فِي النِّسَاءِ يَغْزُونَ
(التحفة ٣٤)

2531. It was reported from Anas, who said: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ used to take Umm Sulaim and few other women from the Anṣār on expeditions. They would supply water and tend to the injured." (Sahih)

٢٥٣١ - حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ السَّلَامِ بْنُ مُطَهَّرٍ: حَدَّثَنَا جَعْفَرُ بْنُ سُلَيْمَانَ عَنْ ثَابِتٍ، عَنْ أَنَسِ قَالَ: كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَغْزُو بِأُمَّ سُلَيْمٍ وَنِسْوَةٍ مِنَ الْأَنْصَارِ لِيَسْقِيَنَّ الْمَاءَ وَيُدَاوِينَ الْجُرْحَى.

Comments:

Women can attend to the needs of fighters in the cause of Allāh. These duties may be performed by women in proper Hijāb. It is, therefore, necessary that the women chosen for the job should have been trained for the purpose.

Chapter 33. Regarding Fighting Against The Tyrant Rulers

2532. It was reported from Anas bin Mālik, that he said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “Three things are from the basis of Faith: To refrain from (killing) a person who utters: None has the right to be worshiped but Allāh, and not to declare a person a disbeliever for committing a sin, and not to expel him from Islam by an action. And, Jihād abides, since the day Allāh dispatched me (as a Prophet) until the last of my nation fight Ad-Dajjāl. Jihād will not be invalidated by the tyranny of a tyrant nor the justice of one who is just. And, to have Faith in the Divine Decree.”

It was reported from Makhūl from Abū Hurairah, that he said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: ‘Jihād is obligatory on you with every commander, righteous or wicked, and the prayer is binding behind every Muslim, righteous or wicked, even if he commits major sins. And (funeral) prayer is obligatory for every Muslim, whether, righteous or wicked even if he commits major sins.’”^[1]

Chapter 34. A Person Being Transported For Battle At The Expense Of Others

2534. It was reported from Nubaiḥ Al-‘Anazī from Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh, that he narrated from the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, when he intended to go on an expedition, he said: “O people of the Emigrants (Muhājirūn) and Helpers (Anṣār)! Among your brothers are some who do not have wealth, nor any family. All of you should share your riding beast with two or three others.” So there was none of us with a ride but he shared it equally with others in turns. That is, with one of them. He (Jābir) said: “I therefore took two or three persons with me. I rode on my camel taking turns like one of them.” (Ḥasan)

Chapter 35. Regarding A Person Going To Battle, Seeking Reward And Spoils Of War

2535. Ibn Zugb Al-Ayādī reported that ‘Abdullāh bin Hawālah Al-Azdī visited him, and narrated to him saying: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ sent us on foot to get the spoils, but we returned without any spoils. Chapter 36. A Person Who Sells His Self (For The Sake Of Allāh)

2536. It was reported from Murrah Al-Hamdānī from 'Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd, who said: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: 'Our Lord, the Mighty and Sublime, admires a man who goes to battle in the cause of Allāh, the Mighty and Sublime, and they retreat' — meaning his companions — 'but he knows what is required of him, so he returns until his blood is shed. Allāh, the Mighty and Sublime, says to His Angels: "Look at my slave. He came back desiring what I have for him (reward), and fearing what I have (punishment), until his blood was shed."' (Hasan)

Chapter 37. A Person Who Accepts Islam, And Is Killed In The Same Spot, In The Cause Of Allāh, The Most High

(المعجم ٣٧) بَابُ: فِيمَنْ يُسَلِّمُ وَيُقْتَلُ
مَكَانَهُ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى (التحفة ٣٩)

2537. It was reported from Muḥammad bin ‘Amr, from Abū Salamah, from Abū Hurairah, that ‘Amr bin Uqaish had dealt in Ribā during Jāhiliyyah, so he did not like to accept Islam without retrieving it. He came during the battle of Uḥud and said: “Where are my paternal cousins?” They replied: “At Uḥud.” He said: “Where is so-and-so?” They replied: “At Uḥud.” He said: “Where is so-and-so?” They replied: “At Uḥud.” He then got dressed in his coat of armor, mounted his horse and proceeded towards them. When the Muslims saw him they said: “Stay away from us O ‘Amr!” He said: “I have become a believer.” He fought until he was wounded. He was carried to his family, injured. Sa’d bin Mu’ādh visited him, and said to his sister: “Ask him, why did he fight; out of partisanship for his people, or out of anger for them, or out of anger of Allāh?” He said: “Out of anger of Allāh and His Messenger.” He then died, and entered Paradise, and he had not performed a single Ṣalāt for Allāh. (Ḥasan)

Chapter 38. Regarding A Man Who Dies By His Own Weapon

(المعجم ٣٨) بَابُ: فِي الرَّجُلِ يَمُوتُ

بِسَلَاحِهِ (التحفة ٤٠)

2538. It was reported from Salamah bin Al-Akwa' who said: "In the battle of Khaibar my brother fought fiercely. His sword rebounded back upon him and killed him, thus the Companions of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ started talking about that and having doubts, saying: 'A man dieing by his own weapon.' The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: 'He died striving as a Mujāhid.'" — (One of the narrators) Ibn Shihāb said: "Then I asked the son of Salamah bin Al-Akwa', and he narrated it to me from his father, similarly, except that he said: 'Then the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: "They lied, he died striving as a Mujāhid, so he will have his rewards, twice.'" (Sahih) from Juḥainah. One of the Muslims pursued a man from them. He struck at him but missed, and injured himself with the sword. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: ‘Your brother, O group of Muslims!’ The people rushed towards him, but found him dead. So the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ wrapped him in his garments with his blood, and offered the (funeral) prayer for him, and buried him. They said: ‘O Messenger of Allāh! Is he a martyr?’ He said: ‘Yes, and I am a witness for him.’” (Da‘īf)

Chapter 39. Supplication When Meeting (The Enemy)

(المعجم ٣٩) - بَابُ الدُّعَاءِ عِنْدَ اللَّقَاءِ
(التحفة ٤١)

2540. It was reported from Mūsā bin Ya‘qūb Az-Zam‘ī, from Abū Ḥāzim, from Sahl bin Sa‘d who said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: ‘Two supplications are not turned back,’ or ‘rarely turned back: The supplication at the time of the call (to prayer), and at the time of battle when the two sides engage.’” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Mūsā said: “And Rizq bin Sa‘eed bin ‘Abdur-Raḥmān narrated to me, from Abū Ḥāzim, from Sahl bin Sa‘d, from the Prophet ﷺ: ‘...and during the rain.’”

Calling the Adhān and engaging in Jihād are both means of exalting the Word of Allāh. Therefore, supplications made at these times are blessed with acceptance by Allāh.

Chapter 40. Regarding A Person Who Asks Allāh For Martyrdom

(المعجم ٤٠) بَابُ: فِيمَنْ سَأَلَ اللَّهَ
الشَّهَادَةَ (التحفة ٤٢)

2541. It was reported from Mu'ādh bin Jabal that he heard the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ say: "Whoever fights in the cause of Allāh as long as the time between two milkings of a she-camel, Paradise is guaranteed for him. And whoever asks Allāh with sincerity in his soul to be killed, and then dies, or is killed, he will have the reward of a martyr."

٢٥٤١ - حَدَّثَنَا هِشَامُ بْنُ خَالِدٍ أَبُو مَرْوَانَ
وَابْنُ الْمُصَفَّى قَالَا: حَدَّثَنَا بَقِيَّةٌ عَنْ ابْنِ
تَوْبَانَ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ يَرُدُّ إِلَى مَكْحُولٍ إِلَى مَالِكِ
ابْنِ يُخَايِمِرَ أَنَّ مُعَاذَ بْنَ جَبَلٍ حَدَّثَهُمْ أَنَّهُ
سَمِعَ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَقُولُ: «مَنْ قَاتَلَ فِي
سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ فُوقَ نَاقَةٍ فَقَدْ وَجِبَتْ لَهُ الْجَنَّةُ،
وَمَنْ سَأَلَ اللَّهَ الْقَتْلَ مِنْ نَفْسِهِ صَادِقًا ثُمَّ مَاتَ
أَوْ قُتِلَ فَإِنَّ لَهُ أَجْرَ شَهِيدٍ». زَادَ ابْنُ الْمُصَفَّى
مِنْ هُنَا: «وَمَنْ جُرِحَ جُرْحًا فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ،
أَوْ نُكِبَ نَكْبَةً، فَإِنَّهَا تَجِيءُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ كَأَعْرَبِ
مَا كَانَتْ، لَوْ أَنَّهَا لَوْنُ الزُّعْفَرَانِ وَرِيحُهَا رِيحُ
الْمِسْكِ، وَمَنْ خَرَجَ بِهِ خُرَاجٌ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ
عَزَّوَجَلَّ فَإِنَّ عَلَيْهِ طَابَعُ الشُّهَدَاءِ».

(One of the narrators) Ibn Al-Muṣaffā added in his narration from here onwards: "And whoever gets wounded in the cause of Allāh, or suffers injury, it (the injury) will come on the Day of Resurrection flowing more abundantly than ever, its color will be the color of saffron, and its fragrance the fragrance of musk. And whoever suffers from an ulcerated wound in the cause of Allāh, the Mighty and Sublime, then upon him will be the stamp of the martyrs." (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Comments:

A she-camel once milked is given a few minutes' respite before being milked again. The Arabic term for this interval is Fuwāq. Sincerity of intention can take a man to such great height and ranks where no one, in the ordinary course of action, would even hope to reach.

Chapter 41. Regarding It Being Disliked To Clip The Forelocks and Tails of Horses

2542. It was reported from ‘Utbah bin ‘Abd As-Sulamī, that he heard the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ saying: “Do not clip the forelocks, manes, or tails of horses. For they use their tails to drive away flies, and their manes provide them with warmth, and the goodness is tied in their forelocks.” (Da‘if)

Chapter 42. Regarding What Colors Are Recommended In Horses

2543. It was reported from Muḥammad bin Muḥājir Al-Anṣārī, (he said): “‘Aqīl bin Shabīb narrated to me, from Abū Wahb Al-Jushāmī, who was a Companion, who said: ‘The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “You should seek out Kumair^[1] horses with a white mark on the face and white feet, or red (Ashqar) with a white mark on the face and white feet, or black with a white mark on the face and white feet.” (Da‘if)

Comments:

The noted scholar Aṭ-Ṭībī points out, among other things, the difference in the names of horses on the basis of their colors saying that Ashqar is wherein the black dominates the red, while Kumait is the one that has black hair on its neck and tail.

2544. (Another chain) from Muḥammad bin Muḥājir Al-Anṣārī (who said): “‘Aqīl bin Shabīb narrated to us, from Abū Wahb, who said: ‘The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “You should seek out red (Ashqar) horses with a white mark on the face and white feet.” So he mentioned similarly. Muḥammad — meaning Ibn Muḥājir said: “And I asked him: ‘Why are the Ashqar more superior?’ He replied: ‘Because the Prophet ﷺ sent an expedition, and the one who first brought the news of victory was the rider on an Ashqar horse.’” (Da‘if)

Comments:

A believer does not behave in a rough way with anyone, or anything under his charge.

2549. It was reported from 'Abdullāh bin Ja'far who said: "One day the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ seated me behind him on his mount. He told me something secretly which I am not going to let anybody know. When relieving himself, the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ liked to find a place where he was well concealed, a hill or a cluster of date-palms." He said: "Once he entered the garden of a man from Anṣār where he found a camel. When it saw the Prophet ﷺ it began crying and its tears flowed. The Prophet ﷺ came to it and stroked the back of its head and it became silent. He then said: 'Who is the owner of this camel? Whose camel is this?' A young boy from the Anṣār came forward and said: 'It belongs to me O Messenger of Allāh ﷺ!' He said: 'Do you not fear Allāh regarding this animal which Allāh has put in your possession? It complained to me that you keep it hungry and overburden it, causing fatigue.'" (Sahīh)

2550. It was reported from Abū Hurairah that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “Once while a man was walking on the road, he became extremely thirsty. He found a well and went down into it. He drank from the water and came out. He saw a dog panting heavily and eating soil due to its thirst. The man said: ‘This dog must be in the same condition of thirst as I was,’ so he went down into the well, and filled his Khuff with water, and held it by his mouth until he climbed up. He gave water to the dog to drink. Allāh accepted his deed and forgave him.” They said: “O Messenger of Allāh! Are there rewards for us in our animals?” He said: “For every moist liver (living creature) there is a reward.” (Sahih)

Chapter (...) Regarding Dismounting At Camps

2551. Anas bin Mālik said: “Whenever we dismounted at a camp, we would not perform any voluntary prayer (Nusabbiḥ) until we let the mounts graze.”^[1]

(المعجم...) بَابُ: فِي نَزْوِلِ الْمَنَازِلِ
(التحفة ٤٨)

٢٥٥١ - حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ الْمُثَنَّى: حَدَّثَنِي مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ جَعْفَرٍ: أَخْبَرَنَا شُعْبَةُ عَنْ حَمْرَةَ الضَّبِّيِّ قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ أَنَسَ بْنَ مَالِكٍ

[1] Commentaries on Sunan Abū Dāwud explain that Nusabbiḥ means perform voluntary prayer. This is the statement of Al-Khaṭṭābī and it is cited by Al-‘Azīmābādī in ‘Awn Al-Ma’būd. In ‘Amal Al-Yawm wal-Lailah, Ibn As-Sunnī narrated it from a different route, from Shu’bah (who narrated this version), and after it: “Meaning we said the Tasbiḥ with قَالَ: كُنَّا إِذَا نَزَلْنَا مَنْزِلًا لَا نُسَبِّحُ حَتَّى نَجَلَّ الرَّحَالَ.

تخريج: [إسناده صحيح] أخرجه أحمد: ٢٩/٣ عن محمد بن جعفر غندر به.

Comments:

Based upon this narration, scholars consider it desirable that when a person halts to camp, he should give fodder to the animal before he himself takes his meal.

Chapter 45. Regarding Garlanding Horses With Bowstrings

(المعجم ٤٥) بَابُ: فِي تَقْلِيدِ الْخَيْلِ
بِالْأَوْتَارِ (التحفة ٤٩)

2552. It was reported from ‘Abbād bin Tamīm that Abū Bashīr Al-Anṣārī informed him, that he was with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ on one of his journeys. He said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ sent a messenger,” (one of the narrators) ‘Abdullāh bin Abī Bakr said: “I think he said: ‘And the people were still sleeping’” (saying:) “No garland of bowstrings or garlands (of any sort) are to be left on the neck of a camel, except that they be severed.”

Mālik (one of the narrators) said: “It think that was because of the (evil) eye.” (Ṣaḥīh)

تخريج: أخرجه البخاري، الجهاد والسير، باب ما قيل في الجرس ونحوه في أعناق الإبل، ح: ٣٠٠٥ ومسلم، اللباس والزينة، باب كراهة قلادة الوتر في رقبة البعير، ح: ٢١١٥ من حديث مالك به، وهو في الموطأ (يحيى): ٩٣٧/٢.

Comments:

The prominent scholar Al-Khaṭṭābī noted that Imām Mālik explained that the people used to tie the bow strings round the necks of the animals as amulets, in order to protect them from the evil eye, since they considered those strings effective for the purpose.

the tongue.” He listed this narration under saying the Tasbīḥ when dismounting to camp, due to the wording of that version. In Al-Awsat, Aṭ-Ṭabarānī narrated it from a similar route as Ibn As-Sunnī, and after it: “Shu’bah said: ‘Saying the Tasbīḥ with the tongue.’”

Chapter (...) Being Kind To Horses, And Keeping Them, And Rubbing Down Their Rump.

2553. It was reported from Abū Wahb Al-Jushamī, who was a Companion, who said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: ‘Keep horses, rub down their forelocks and their backs’” or he said: “their rumps, and garland them, but do not garland them with bowstrings.”^[1] (Da‘īf)

^[1] See nos. 2543 and 4950.

2556. It was reported from Al-‘Alā’ bin ‘Abdur-Rahmān, from his father, from Abū Hurairah, that the Prophet ﷺ said about the bell: “It is a wind instrument of Shaiṭān.” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

٢٥٥٦ - حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ رَافِعٍ: حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو بَكْرِ بْنُ أَبِي أُوَيْسٍ: حَدَّثَنِي سُلَيْمَانُ بْنُ بِلَالٍ عَنِ الْعَلَاءِ بْنِ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ قَالَ: «فِي الْجَرَسِ مِزْمَارُ الشَّيْطَانِ».

تخريج: أخرجه مسلم، ح: ٢١١٤ من حديث العلاء بن عبد الرحمن به انظر الحديث السابق.

Comments:

Tying things like bells and rattles round the necks of animals is prohibited. Keeping a dog simply as a symbol of ostentation and awe is also prohibited although there is permission to keep a hunting dog, a sheepdog, and for protecting fields and crops, as follows later.

Chapter 47. Regarding Riding Al-Jallālah (Animals That Eat Dung and Filth)

(المعجم ٤٧) بَابُ: فِي رُكُوبِ الْجَلَّالَةِ
(التحفة ٥٢)

2557. It was reported from Nāfi‘, from Ibn ‘Umar who said: “It has been prohibited to ride Al-Jallālah.” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

٢٥٥٧ - حَدَّثَنَا مُسَدَّدٌ: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الْوَارِثِ عَنْ أَيُّوبَ، عَنْ نَافِعٍ، عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ: نُهِيَ عَنِ رُكُوبِ الْجَلَّالَةِ.

2558. (Another chain) from Nāfi‘, from Ibn ‘Umar who said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ prohibited riding Al-Jallālah.” (Ḥasan)

تخريج: [إسناده حسن] أخرجه الحاكم: ٣٤/٢ من حديث أحمد بن أبي سريج به وصححه النووي في رياض الصالحين، ح: ١٦٩٤.

Comments:

The prohibition of consuming the milk and meat of such animals is also proven from other Aḥādīth. (See no. 3785)

Chapter 48. Regarding A Person Naming His Riding Beast

2559. It was narrated from Mu'adh, who said: "I was riding behind the Prophet ﷺ on a donkey called: 'Ufair.'" (Sahih)

(المعجم ٤٨) بَابُ: فِي الرَّجْلِ يُسَمِّي دَابَّتَهُ (التحفة ٥٣)

٢٥٥٩ - حَدَّثَنَا هَنَادُ بْنُ السَّرِيِّ عَنْ أَبِي الْأَحْوَصِ، عَنْ أَبِي إِسْحَاقَ، عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ مَيْمُونٍ، عَنْ مُعَاذٍ قَالَ: كُنْتُ رَدْفَ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ عَلَى حِمَارٍ يُقَالُ لَهُ: عُفَيْرٌ.

من حديث أبي الأحوص به.

Comments:

It is allowed to give names to animals. In case of need, two persons can ride a beast.

Chapter 49. Regarding Calling Out During The Time Of Departure (For Battle): "O Allāh's Horseman! Ride!"

2560. It was reported from Samurah bin Jundab who said: "To proceed: The Prophet ﷺ named our horsemen, 'Allāh's horsemen' when we became frightened, and when we became frightened, the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ used to order us to be united, have patience and tranquility, and (the same) when we fought."^[1] (Da'if)

حَمَّادٌ عَنْ أَيُّوبَ، عَنْ أَبِي قِلَابَةَ، عَنْ أَبِي
الْمُهَلَّبِ، عَنْ عِمْرَانَ بْنِ حُصَيْنٍ: أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ
ﷺ كَانَ فِي سَفَرٍ فَسَمِعَ لَعْنَةً فَقَالَ: «مَا
هَذِهِ؟» قَالُوا: هَذِهِ فُلَانَةٌ لَعَنَتْ رَاحِلَتَهَا،
فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ ﷺ: «صَعُوا عَنْهَا، فَإِنَّهَا
مَلْعُونَةٌ»، فَوَضَعُوا عَنْهَا. قَالَ عِمْرَانُ: فَكَأَنِّي
أَنْظُرُ إِلَيْهَا نَاقَةً وَرَقَاءً.

حديث أيوب السخيتاني به.

Chapter 51. Regarding The Prohibition of Instigating Fights Among Beasts

2562. It was reported from Abū Yahyā Al-Qattāt, from Mujāhid, from Ibn ‘Abbās, who said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ prohibited instigating fights between beasts.” (Da‘if)

(المعجم ٥١) بَابُ: فِي التَّحْرِيشِ بَيْنَ
الْبَهَائِمِ (التحفة ٥٦)

٢٥٦٢ - حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ الْعَلَاءِ: حَدَّثَنَا

البهائم والضرب والوسم في الوجه، ح: ١٧٠٨ عن أبي كريب محمد بن العلاء به * الأعمش:
عنن وأبو يحيى القتات: ضعيف إلا في رواية الثوري عنه.

Comments:

Since provoking the animals to fight with each other is prohibited, the act of provoking humans to fight against each other is all the more reprehensible.

Chapter 52. Regarding Branding Animals

(المعجم ٥٢) بَابُ: فِي وَسْمِ الدَّوَابِّ
(التحفة ٥٧)

2563. It was reported from Hishām

٢٥٦٣ - حَدَّثَنَا حَفْصُ بْنُ عُمَرَ: حَدَّثَنَا

bin Zaid, from Anas who said: "I came to the Prophet ﷺ with a brother of mine when he was born to perform Tahnīk for him. I found him in sheep pen branding sheep." I (Hishām) think he said: "On their ears."

تخریج: أخرجه البخاري، الذبائح والصيد، باب الوسم والعلم في الصورة، ح: ٥٥٤٢ ومسلم، اللباس والزينة، باب جواز وسم الحيوان غير الآدمي في غير الوجه... إلخ، ح: ٢١١٩ من حديث شعبة به.

Comments:

Branding was done through marking by burning the body of the animal with a hot iron. It is allowed to brand the bodies of the animals but not allowed to brand them on the face. The ear, which is not a part of the face can, however, be branded.

Chapter (...) The Prohibition of Branding The Face, And Striking The Face

2564. It was reported from Abū Az-Zubair, from Jābir who said: "A donkey, which had been branded in the face, passed by the Prophet ﷺ. He said: 'Has it not reached you people, that I have cursed those who brand animals on their faces, or strike them on their faces?' so he prohibited that." (Sahīh)

شُعْبَةُ عَنْ هِشَامِ بْنِ زَيْدٍ، عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ: أَتَيْتُ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ بِأَخٍ لِي حِينَ وُلِدَ لِجَحَنكُهُ فَإِذَا هُوَ فِي مِرْبَدٍ يَسْمُ عَنَمًا، أَحْسِبُهُ قَالَ: فِي آذَانِهَا.

(المعجم...) - بَابُ النَّهْيِ عَنِ الْوَسْمِ فِي الْوَجْهِ وَالضَّرْبِ فِي الْوَجْهِ (التحفة ٥٨)

تخریج: [صحيح] أخرجه أحمد: ٣/٣٢٣ من حديث سفيان الثوري ومسلم، اللباس والزينة، باب النهي عن ضرب الحيوان في وجهه ووسمه فيه، ح: ٢١١٧ من حديث أبي الزبير به.

Comments:

The face, whether of man or animal, is the most respectable part of the body. It is, therefore, prohibited to strike it.

Chapter 53. The Prohibition Of Studding Donkeys With Mare Horses

2565. It was reported from Abū Al-Khair, from Ibn Zurair, from

(المعجم ٥٣) بَابُ: فِي كَرَاهِيَةِ الْحُمْرِ تُنْزَى عَلَى الْخَيْلِ (التحفة ٥٩)

٢٥٦٥ - حَدَّثَنَا قُتَيْبَةُ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ: حَدَّثَنَا اللَّيْثُ عَنْ يَزِيدَ بْنِ أَبِي حَبِيبٍ، عَنْ أَبِي

‘Alī bin Abi Tālib who said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ was given a she-mule as a gift which he rode.” ‘Alī said: “If we studded donkeys with mare horses we would have animals of this type?” The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “Those who don’t know do that.” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Chapter 54. Regarding Three People Riding An Animal

(المعجم ٥٤) بَابُ: فِي رُكُوبِ ثَلَاثَةِ عُلَى دَابَّةٍ (التحفة ٦٠)

2566. ‘Abdullāh bin Ja’far said: “Whenever the Prophet ﷺ arrived from a journey we would be taken to receive him, so whoever was first to meet him, he will put him in front of him. As I was the first to meet him, he put me in front of him. Then Hasan or Husain was brought to him, so he put him behind him. We entered Al-Madīnah, while we were like that.” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Comments:

The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ delivered his famous Sermon on his last Pilgrimage atop his she-camel, but it was an exceptional case that happened due to the exigency of the occasion.

Chapter 56. On Side camels.

(المعجم ٥٦) بَابُ فِي الْجَنَائِبِ

(التحفة ٦٢)

2568. It was reported from Sa‘eed bin Abī Hind who said: “Abū Hurairah said: ‘The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “There are camels for the devils, and there are houses for the devils.^[1] As for camels for the devils, I have seen them. One of you goes out with fattened extra camels at his side, riding none of them, nor giving a ride to a tired brother when he passes by him. As for the houses for devils I have not seen them.” Sa‘eed would say: “I think they are those enclosures which people cover with Dibāj (brocade).” (Da‘if)

Chapter 57. Regarding Traveling Fast, And The Prohibition Of Staying On Roads At Night

(المعجم ٥٧) بَابُ: فِي سُرْعَةِ السَّيْرِ وَالتَّهْيِ عَنِ التَّعْرِيسِ فِي الطَّرِيقِ
(التحفة ٦٣)

2569. It was reported from Abū Hurairah that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: "When you travel in a fertile land, then grant the camels their due (of grazing), and when you travel in time of drought, then travel quickly, and when you want to camp for the night, keep off the road." (Ṣaḥīḥ)

تخريج: أخرجه مسلم، الإمامة، باب مراعاة مصلحة الدواب في السير ... إلخ، ح: ١٩٢٦ من حديث سهيل بن أبي صالح به.

2570. It was reported from Al-Ḥasan, from Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh, from the Prophet ﷺ, similar to this (no. 2569). After his saying: "their due" he said: "and do not go beyond the camps." (Ḍa‘īf) ٢٥٧٠ - حَدَّثَنَا عُثْمَانُ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ: حَدَّثَنَا يَزِيدُ بْنُ هَارُونَ: أَخْبَرَنَا هِشَامٌ عَنِ الْحَسَنِ، عَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ نَحْوَ هَذَا قَالَ بَعْدَ قَوْلِهِ: «حَقَّهَا»: «وَلَا تَعُدُّوا الْمَنَازِلَ».

Chapter 58. The Owner Of The Animal Is More Entitled To Ride In The Front

2572. It was reported from Buraidah who said: "While the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ was walking, a man with a donkey came to him and said: 'O Messenger of Allāh! Ride.' And the man moved to the back of the animal. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: 'No. You are more entitled to ride in front of your animal than me, unless you grant me the right.' He said: 'I have granted it to you.' So he rode." (Hasan) explained Al-Jalab (Ma'ālam As-Sunan): "This is explained as; that the horse should not be yelled at during the race, nor goaded by any kind of goading to make it run faster. It is only required that their riders prod them by moving the bridle and pulling the reins, and prodding them on with the whip and spurs, and similar to that, without yelling at them with the voice. And it has been said that its meaning is that people congregate, lining up, standing along the two sides, and yelling, so they were prohibited from that. As for Al-Janab, it is said that they would have a horse run alongside, until when they were near the finish, they would alternate from the mount which had fatigued, mounting the horse that was not ridden yet. So that was prohibited." In An-Nihāyah Ibn Al-Aṭhīr said about Al-Jalab: "It is that a man follows behind his horse encouraging it, yelling and screaming at it, to goad it to continue, so that was prohibited." And about Al-Janab, he said similar to Al-Khattābī.

كَانَتْ قَبِيْعَةُ سَيْفِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ فِضَّةً.

2584. (Another chain) from Qatādah, from Sa‘eed Ibn Abī Al-Ḥasan, who said: “The hand guard on the sword of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ was made from silver.” (Ṣaḥīh)

Qatādah said: “I do not know anyone who followed him up in (narrating) that.”^[1]

2585. It was reported from ‘Uthmān bin Sa‘d, from Anas bin Mālik, who said: — and he mentioned similarly (as no. 2584). (Ṣaḥīh)

Abū Dāwud said: The strongest of these Ḥadīths is the Ḥadīth of Sa‘eed bin Abī Al-Ḥasan, and the rest are weak.

Chapter 65. Regarding Entering The Masjid With An Arrow

2586. Jābir narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ ordered a man who used to give out arrows in charity in the Masjid, not to pass through unless he was holding them by their heads. (Ṣaḥīh)

(المعجم ٦٥) بَابُ: فِي النَّبْلِ يُدْخَلُ فِي الْمَسْجِدِ (التحفة ٧٢)

٢٥٨٦ - حَدَّثَنَا قُتَيْبَةُ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ: حَدَّثَنَا اللَّيْثُ عَنْ أَبِي الزُّبَيْرِ، عَنْ جَابِرٍ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ: أَنَّهُ أَمَرَ رَجُلًا كَانَ يَتَصَدَّقُ بِالنَّبْلِ فِي الْمَسْجِدِ أَنْ لَا يَمُرَّ بِهَا إِلَّا وَهُوَ آخِذٌ بِنُصُولِهَا.

^[1] Some of the commentaries consider this to be a mistake, and that it should be “Abū Dāwud said:” and the meaning would be that Abū Dāwud does not know of anyone else who narrated it like this, except for Jarīr bin Ḥāzīm, who narrated number 2583; meaning — if this is correct — that the author considers the correct narration from Qatādah to be the one he narrated from Sa‘eed, who is the brother of Al-Ḥasan Al-Baṣri.

2587. Abū Mūsā narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: "If one of you passes through our Masjid, or our marketplace, with an arrow, he should hold it's head" or he said: "he should hold it with his palm," or he said: "he should hold it with his palm so that no harm is done to any Muslims." Chapter 66. Regarding The Prohibition Of Passing An Unsheathed Sword

(المعجم ٦٦) بَابُ فِي النَّهْيِ أَنْ يُتَعَاطَى السَّيْفُ مَسْلُولًا (التحفة ٧٣)

2588. Jābir narrated: "The Prophet ﷺ prohibited passing an unsheathed sword." (Da'īf)

٢٥٨٨ - حَدَّثَنَا مُوسَى بْنُ إِسْمَاعِيلَ: حَدَّثَنَا حَمَادٌ عَنْ أَبِي الزُّبَيْرِ، عَنْ جَابِرٍ: أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ نَهَى أَنْ يُتَعَاطَى السَّيْفُ مَسْلُولًا.

Comments:

This method of cutting something is fraught with the risk of injuring the cutter's hand in the process. The leather must be put on a piece of stone or wood for cutting. So it resembles, in its meaning, his prohibition of handing someone an unsheathed sword.

Chapter 68. Regarding Wearing Coats Of Mail

(المعجم ٦٨) بَابُ: فِي لِبْسِ الدَّرُوعِ
(التحفة ٧٥)

2590. It was reported from As-Sā'ib bin Yazīd, from a man whom he named: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ used two coats of mail on the Day of (the battle of) Uḥūd," or: "he wore two coats of mail."^[1] (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Comments:

The advantage accruing from fixing a code word is that, even in dark hours, it helps identify the ally from the enemy. Also it makes it possible to apprehend the spy and the intruder.

Chapter 72. What A Man Should Say When Setting Out On A Journey

(المعجم ٧٢) بَابُ: مَا يَقُولُ الرَّجُلُ إِذَا سَافَرَ (التحفة ٧٩)

2598. It was reported from Abū Hurairah: “When proceeding on a journey, the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ would say: ‘*Allāhumma antas-ṣāhibu fis-Safarī wal-khalīfatu fil-ahli. Chapter 74. Supplication At The Time Of Mounting An Animal

(المعجم ٧٤) - بَابُ مَا يَقُولُ الرَّجُلُ إِذَا رَكِبَ (التحفة ٨١)

2602. ‘Alī bin Rabī‘ah said: “ I witnessed ‘Alī having an animal brought to him to ride. When he placed his foot in the stirrup he said: ‘In the Name of Allāh’. So then, once he had ascended upon its back, he said: ‘All praise is due to Allāh,’ then he said: Glory is to Allāh Who has placed this (transport) at our service and we ourselves would not have been capable of that, and to our Lord is our final destiny.^[1] Then he said: ‘All praise is due to Allāh (Al-Hamdulillah)’ — three times — then he said: ‘Allāh is the Most Great (Allāhu Akbar)’ — three times then he said: ‘Glory is to You, indeed I have wronged myself, so forgive me, indeed none forgives sins except for You. (Subhānaka innī qad zalamtu nafsi fāghfirli fa-Innahu qad zalamtu nafsi fāghfirli fa-Innahu qad zalamtu nafsi fāghfirli illā Anta).’ Then he laughed. So I said: ‘O Commander of the Believers! What made you to laugh?’ He said: ‘I saw Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ do as I did then laugh so I said, ‘O Messenger of Allāh! What caused you to laugh?’ He said: ‘Indeed, your Lord. Comments:

Islam desires to cultivate in man a culture in which he lets no moment of life go by without being mindful of his Master and Creator. It, therefore, behooves all of us in all the circumstances of life to pay our thanks and gratitude to Allāh for the favours He has bestowed upon us. Likewise, it is necessary that, to the best of our ability, we try to emulate the example of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ in whatever he ﷺ practised or performed.

Chapter 75. What A Man Says When Dismounting At Camp

(المعجم ٧٥) - بَابُ مَا يَقُولُ الرَّجُلُ إِذَا نَزَلَ الْمَنْزِلَ (التحفة ٨٢)

2603. It was reported from Az-Zubair bin Al-Walīd, from ‘Abdullāh bin (‘Umar), who said: “Whenever the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ was traveling and night approached, he would say: ‘Yā Arḍ! Rabbī wa Rabbukillāh, a‘ūdhu billāhi min sharriki wa sharri mā fiki, wa sharri mā khuliqa fiki, wa min sharri mā yadibbu ‘alaiki. Wa a‘ūdhu billāhi min asadin wa aswada, wa minal-ḥayyati wal-‘aqrabi, wa min sākinil-balad, wa min wālidin wa māwalad (O earth! My Lord and your Lord is Allāh, I seek refuge in Allāh from your evil, from the evil of what you contain, from the evil of what has been created in you, from the evil of what creeps on you, and I seek refuge in Allāh from lions and large snakes, and from other snakes and scorpions, and from the evil of those who (Jinn and human)

Comments:

The phrase “inhabitants of this land” is said to refer to Jinns. It is also suggested that the phrase “what gives birth and his offspring” refers to Shaitān and his progeny.

Chapter 76. Regarding The Disapproval Of Traveling At The Beginning Of The Night

2604. It was reported from Abū Az-Zubair, from Jābir who said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: ‘Do let your animals (Fawāshikum) loose when the sun has just set until the darkness of the night prevails, for the devils cause mischief when the sun has just set until the darkness of the night prevails.’” (Sahih)

Abū Dāwud said: Al-Fawāshī is anything which spreads out.

Comments:

All the days are the days of Allāh. Still Thursday has a special significance inasmuch as it is on this day of the week that the deeds of men are presented before Allāh. (See no. 2571).

Chapter 78. Regarding Setting Out On A Journey During The Early Hours Of The Day

2606. It was reported from Ṣakhr Al-Ghāmīdī, from the Prophet ﷺ who said: “Allāhumma! Bārik li ‘ummatī fi bukūrihā (O Allāh! Bless my Ummah in their early mornings).” And when he sent out a detachment or an army, he would do so in the beginning of the day. Ṣakhr was a businessman and he used to send his merchandise at the beginning of the day, and he became rich, acquiring a lot of wealth. personally to fear Allāh, and to be good to those of the Muslims who were under their command. And he (ﷺ) said: "When you meet your enemies among the idolators, call them to one of three matters, and whichever one they respond to you, then accept it from them and refrain from (fighting) them. Invite them to Islam, and if they respond, then accept it from them and refrain from (fighting) them. Then invite them to emigrate from their land to the land of the Muhājirīn (Al-Madīnah), and tell them that if they do that, they will have the same rights and duties as the Muhājirīn have. If they refuse, and chose their homes, then tell them that they are like the Muslim Bedouin and subject to the judgment of Allāh, as the believers are subject to it, but they will have no share of the booty (Fai') and spoils (Ghanimah), unless they perform Jihād alongside the Muslims. If they refuse, then call them to pay the Jizyah. If they respond, then accept it from them and refrain from (fighting) them. If they refuse that, then seek the help of Allāh and fight them. If you lay siege to a stronghold, and the people want to make a deal on the basis of the ruling of Allāh, do not make a deal on the basis of the ruling of Allāh, for you cannot be certain that you will be able to work out a deal with them that is in accordance with Allāh's ruling. Comments:

The rulings and decisions made by the Commanders of the Islamic army (or the jurists and scholars) are always fraught with the possibility of either being right or wrong. As such any notion or claim about the infallibility of a particular judgment or the claim of it being the unquestionable command of Allāh will be absolutely misplaced and wrong.

2613. (Another chain) from Sulaiman bin Buraidah, from his father, that the Prophet ﷺ said: “Fight in the Name of Allāh, in the cause of Allāh. Fight those who disbelieve in Allāh. Fight, but do not steal from the spoils of war, and do not break your promises, and do not mutilate (the dead enemy) and do not kill children.” (Ṣaḥīh)

Comments:

As a rule it is not allowed to kill people who are old and decrepit. Exempt, however, from this rule are those old men that are found involved in devising war plans and programs and those women that are found engaged in spying activities.

2620. It was reported from Abū Bishr, from ‘Abbād bin Shurāḥbīl, who said: “I suffered from hunger during a drought, so I went to one of the farms in Al-Madīnah, I rubbed an ear (of grain) and ate from it, and carried some in my garment. The owner of the farm came and hit me and took my garment. I came to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and told him. He said to him (owner): ‘You did not teach him while he was ignorant, nor did you feed him while he was hungry,’ or he said: ‘starving.’ He ordered him to return my garment, and give me a Wasq or half a Wasq of food.” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Comments:

A person hard-pressed with hunger or thirst is allowed to eat or drink from a farm or garden without the permission of the owner, but not allowed to carry anything outside with him. This text also indicates the importance of educating people to what is correct, and that it is a duty to do so.

Chapter 86. Regarding Whoever Said That He May Not Milk (An Animal Without Permission)

2623. It was reported from Ibn ‘Umar that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “No one should milk a milch animal without permission. Would one of you like to have their food storage approached, broken into and the food taken away? Likewise, the udders of their animals store food for them, so no one is allowed to milk anyone’s cattle without permission.” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Chapter 87. Regarding Obedience

(المعجم ٨٧) بَابُ: فِي الطَّاعَةِ (التحفة ٩٦)

2624. It was reported from Ibn Juraij, that (the Verse): “O you who believe! Obey Allāh and obey the Messenger, and those of you (Muslims) who are in authority”^[1] was revealed about ‘Abdullāh bin Qais bin ‘Adī, who was sent by the Prophet ﷺ on a military expedition. (He said): “Ya‘lā informed me of it, from Sa‘eed bin Jubair from Ibn ‘Abbās.” (Sahih)

٢٦٢٤ - حَدَّثَنَا زُهَيْرُ بْنُ حَرْبٍ: حَدَّثَنَا حَجَّاجٌ قَالَ: قَالَ ابْنُ جُرَيْجٍ ﴿يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا أَطِيعُوا اللَّهَ وَأَطِيعُوا الرَّسُولَ وَأُولِي الْأَمْرِ مِنْكُمْ﴾ [النساء: ٥٩] [في] عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ قَيْسِ بْنِ عَدِيٍّ بَعَثَهُ النَّبِيُّ ﷺ فِي سَرِيَّةٍ. أَخْبَرَنِي يَعْلى عن سَعِيدِ بْنِ جُبَيْرٍ، عن ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ.

2625. It was reported from ‘Alī, who said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ sent an army and appointed a man as commander over them. He ordered them to listen to him and obey him. The man ignited a fire and ordered them to jump into it. Some of them refused to enter it, and said: ‘We escaped from the fire.’ Some of them wanted to enter it. When the Prophet ﷺ was told about it he said: ‘If they had entered it’ — ‘or entered into it’ — ‘they would never have come out of it.’ And he said: “There is no obedience in disobedience to Allāh, obedience is only in Ma‘rūf (good).” (Sahih)

٢٦٢٥ - حَدَّثَنَا عَمْرُو بْنُ مَرْزُوقٍ: أَخْبَرَنَا شُعْبَةَ عَنْ زُبَيْدٍ، عن سَعْدِ بْنِ عُبَيْدَةَ، عن أَبِي عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ السُّلَمِيِّ، عن عَلِيِّ: أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ بَعَثَ جَيْشًا وَأَمَرَ عَلَيْهِمْ رَجُلًا وَأَمَرَهُمْ أَنْ يَسْمَعُوا لَهُ وَيَطِيعُوا، فَأَجَّحَ نَارًا وَأَمَرَهُمْ أَنْ يَقْتَحِمُوا فِيهَا، فَأَبَى قَوْمٌ أَنْ يَدْخُلُوهَا وَقَالُوا: إِنَّمَا قَرَرْنَا مِنَ النَّارِ، وَأَرَادَ قَوْمٌ أَنْ يَدْخُلُوهَا، فَبَلَغَ ذَلِكَ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ فَقَالَ: «لَوْ دَخَلُوهَا - أَوْ دَخَلُوا فِيهَا - لَمْ يَرَأُلُوا فِيهَا»، وَقَالَ: «لَا طَاعَةَ فِي مَعْصِيَةِ اللَّهِ، إِنَّمَا الطَّاعَةُ فِي الْمَعْرُوفِ».

2627. It was reported from Bishr Ibn 'Āṣim, from 'Uqbah bin Mālik — who was from his tribe — who said: "The Prophet ﷺ sent a military expedition, so I gave a man among them a sword. When he returned, he said: 'If you had seen the way the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ scolded us, saying: "When I sent out a man who could not fulfill my command, were you unable to put in his place somebody who could fulfill my command?"' (Ḥasan)

Chapter 88. What Has Been Ordered Regarding Keeping The Army Close Together (When Camping)

(المعجم ٨٨) - بَابُ مَا يُؤْمَرُ مِنَ انْضِمَامِ الْعَسْكَرِ وَسَعَتِهِ (التحفة ٩٧)

2628. It was reported from Abū Ḥadīthā - حَدَّثَنَا عَمْرُو بْنُ عُثْمَانَ

Tha'labah Al-Khushanī, who said: "When the people dismounted to camp" — 'Amr (one of the narrators) said: "When the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ dismounted to camp, the people" — "used to break up in mountain paths and valleys. So the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: 'Your scattering in these mountain passes and valleys is only from Shaiṭān.' So after that, they would not halt to camp, except that they were so close together that it would be said: 'If a piece of cloth was spread over them, it would cover them all.'" (Sahīh)

Comments:

Travelers' and fighters' action of keeping close together (especially during an expedition) has many apparent and hidden (moral and spiritual) advantages but only as long as they do not cause inconvenience to one another, as will be evident from the following Hadith.

2629. It was reported from Sahl bin Mu'adh bin Anas Al-Juhani, from his father, who said: "I fought in such and such battle with Allāh's Prophet ﷺ. The camp was over crowded and the people started to block the road. The Prophet ﷺ sent a caller to announce among the people: 'Whoever crowds the camp or blocks the road, then there is no Jihād for him.'" (Hasan)

٢٦٢٩ - حَدَّثَنَا سَعِيدُ بْنُ مَنْصُورٍ: حَدَّثَنَا إِسْمَاعِيلُ بْنُ عِيَّاشٍ عَنْ أَبِي سَيْدٍ بْنِ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ الْخَثْعَمِيِّ، عَنْ فَرَوَةَ بْنِ مُجَاهِدٍ اللَّخْمِيِّ عَنْ سَهْلِ بْنِ مَعَاذِ بْنِ أَنَسِ الْجُهَيْنِيِّ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ قَالَ: عَزَوْتُ مَعَ نَبِيِّ اللَّهِ ﷺ عَزْوَةً كَذَا وَكَذَا فَضَيَّقَ النَّاسُ الْمَنَازِلَ وَقَطَعُوا الطَّرِيقَ، فَبَعَثَ النَّبِيُّ ﷺ مُنَادِيًا يُنَادِي فِي النَّاسِ: «أَنَّ مَنْ ضَيَّقَ مَنَزِلًا أَوْ قَطَعَ طَرِيقًا فَلَا جِهَادَ لَهُ».

Comments:

In all matters of life, the rule is that one must obey the commands of Allāh and His Messenger ﷺ, and this includes behaving with one's Muslim brothers, associates and companions in the best manner possible.

Chapter 89. Regarding The Disapproval Of Desiring To Encounter The Enemy

(المعجم ٨٩) بَابُ: فِي كِرَاهِيَةِ تَمَنِّي لِقَاءِ الْعَدُوِّ (التحفة ٩٨)

2631. It was reported from Sālim bin Abī An-Naḍr, the freed slave of 'Umar bin 'Ubaidullāh meaning, Ibn Ma'mar — and he was his scribe — he said: " 'Abdullāh bin Abī Awfā wrote to him ('Umar bin 'Ubaidullāh) when he went out to Al-Ḥarūriyyah: 'The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said once when he faced the enemies: 'O people! Do not desire to encounter the enemy, and ask Allāh for ʿĀfiyah. And when you encounter them, then be patient, and know that Paradise is under the shade of the swords.' Then he said: Allāhumma! Munzilal-Kitābi mujri-as-sahābi wa hāzimal-aḥzābi ihzimhum waṣurnā 'alaihim (O Allāh! Revealer of the Book, mover of the rain clouds, vanquisher of the confederates,

Comments:

The Harūriyah refers to the Khawārij or a group of them. They were so named because, while returning from the battle of Şiffin, they parted company with ‘Alī, may Allāh be pleased with him, and assembled at a place known as Harurā’ outside Al-Kūfah, which became their first center.

Chapter 90. What Supplication Is Made When Encountering The Enemy

(المعجم ٩٠) - بَابُ مَا يُدْعَى عِنْدَ اللَّقَاءِ
(التحفة ٩٩)

2632. It was reported from Al-Muthanna bin Sa‘eed, from Qatādah, from Anas bin Mālik, who said: “When the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ went to fight, he would say: ‘Allāhumma! Anta ‘aḍudī wa naṣīrī, bika aḥūlu wa bika aṣūlu wa bika uqātil (O Allāh! You are my aid and my support, by You I defend, by You I attack, and by You I fight).’” (Da‘if)

٢٦٣٢ - حَدَّثَنَا نَصْرُ بْنُ عَلِيٍّ: أَخْبَرَنِي أَبِي: حَدَّثَنَا الْمُثَنَّى بْنُ سَعِيدٍ عَنِ قَتَادَةَ، عَنْ أَنَسِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ قَالَ: كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ إِذَا غَزَا قَالَ: «اللَّهُمَّ! أَنْتَ عَضُدِي وَنَصِيرِي، بِكَ أَحْوَلُ وَبِكَ أَضْوَلُ وَبِكَ أَقَاتِلُ».

Chapter 91. Calling The Idolators (To Accept Islam)

(المعجم ٩١) بَابُ: فِي دُعَاءِ الْمُشْرِكِينَ
(التحفة ١٠٠)

2633. Ibn ‘Awn said: “I wrote to Nāfi‘ asking him about calling the idolators (to accept Islam) before battle. He replied to me: ‘It was in the early days of Islam, and Allāh’s Prophet ﷺ initiated a surprise attack on Banū Al-Muṣṭalaq, taking them completely by surprise,

٢٦٣٣ - حَدَّثَنَا سَعِيدُ بْنُ مَنْصُورٍ: حَدَّثَنَا إِسْمَاعِيلُ بْنُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ: أَخْبَرَنَا ابْنُ عَوْنٍ قَالَ: كَتَبْتُ إِلَى نَافِعٍ أَسْأَلُهُ عَنْ دُعَاءِ الْمُشْرِكِينَ عِنْدَ الْقِتَالِ؟ فَكَتَبَ إِلَيَّ: أَنَّ ذَلِكَ كَانَ فِي أَوَّلِ الْإِسْلَامِ، وَقَدْ أَعَارَ نَبِيُّ اللَّهِ ﷺ عَلَيَّ

and they were taking their cattle to the water to drink. He killed the fighters, and took captives. On that day, Juwairiyah bint Al-Ḥārith was captured. ‘Abdullāh narrated that to me, and he was part of that army.” (Sahih)

Abū Dāwud said: This is an outstanding Hadīth. Ibn ‘Awn narrated it from Nāfi’, and no one shared with him in (narrating) it.

2634. It was reported from Anas, who said: “The Prophet ﷺ used to attack at the time of the Subh (Fajr) prayer. He used to listen; if he heard the Adhān, he would not attack, otherwise he would attack.” (Sahih)

بَنِي الْمُصْطَلِقِ وَهُمْ غَارُونَ وَأَنْعَامُهُمْ تُسْقَى عَلَى الْمَاءِ، فَقَتَلَ مَقَاتِلَهُمْ، وَسَبَى سَبْيَهُمْ، وَأَصَابَ يَوْمَئِذٍ جُوَيْرِيَةَ بِنْتَ الْحَارِثِ حَدَّثَنِي بِذَلِكَ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ وَكَانَ فِي ذَلِكَ الْجَيْشِ.

قَالَ أَبُو دَاوُدَ: هَذَا حَدِيثٌ نَبِيلٌ رَوَاهُ ابْنُ عَوْنٍ عَنْ نَافِعٍ وَلَمْ يَسْرُكْهُ فِيهِ أَحَدٌ.

٢٦٣٤ - حَدَّثَنَا مُوسَى بْنُ إِسْمَاعِيلَ: حَدَّثَنَا حَمَادٌ: أَخْبَرَنَا ثَابِتٌ عَنْ أَنَسٍ: أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ كَانَ يُغِيرُ عِنْدَ صَلَاةِ الصُّبْحِ وَكَانَ يَسْمَعُ فَإِذَا سَمِعَ أَذَانَ أَمْسَكَ، وَإِلَّا أَغَارَ.

Comments:

The sound of the Adhān heard in a locality indicated that its inhabitants were Muslims.

2635. It was reported from Ibn ‘Iṣām Al-Muzanī, from his father, who said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ sent us on a military expedition, and said: ‘If you see a Masjid, or hear a Mu’adh-dhin do not kill anybody.” (Da’if)

Chapter 92. Deception During War

(المعجم ٩٢) - بَابُ الْمَكْرِ فِي الْحَرْبِ

(التحفة ١٠١)

2636. It was reported from Jābir that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: "War is deception." (Sahih)

٢٦٣٦ - حَدَّثَنَا سَعِيدُ بْنُ مَنْصُورٍ: حَدَّثَنَا سُفْيَانُ عَنْ عَمْرٍو، أَنَّهُ سَمِعَ جَابِرًا، أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ قَالَ: «الْحَرْبُ خَدَعَةٌ».

تخريج: أخرجه البخاري، الجهاد والسير، باب: الحرب خدعة، ح: ٣٠٣٠ ومسلم، الجهاد والسير، باب جواز الخداع في الحرب، ح: ١٧٣٩ من حديث سفیان بن عيينة به، وهو في سنن سعيد بن منصور، ح: ٢٨٨٩.

2637. It was reported from Ma‘mar, from Az-Zuhrī, from ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin Ka‘b bin Mālik, from his father that whenever the Prophet ﷺ wanted to go on a military expedition, he made it appear as if he was headed somewhere else, and he used to say: "War is deception." (Sahih) ٢٦٣٧ - حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عُبَيْدٍ: حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ نُورٍ عَنْ مَعْمَرٍ، عَنِ الزُّهْرِيِّ، عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ كَعْبِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ: أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ كَانَ إِذَا أَرَادَ غَزْوَةً وَرَى غَيْرَهَا وَكَانَ يَقُولُ: «الْحَرْبُ خَدَعَةٌ».

Abū Dāwud said: No one came with this (narration) except for Ma‘mar, meaning his saying: "War is deception" with this chain of narrators. It was only related from the Hadīth of ‘Amr bin Dīnār, from Jābir, and from the Hadīth of Ma‘mar, from Hammām bin Munabbih, from Abū Hurairah.

قَالَ أَبُو دَاوُدَ: لَمْ يَجِئْ بِهِ إِلَّا مَعْمَرٌ يُرِيدُ قَوْلَهُ: «الْحَرْبُ خَدَعَةٌ» بِهَذَا الْإِسْنَادِ إِنَّمَا يُرَوَى مِنْ حَدِيثِ عَمْرٍو بْنِ دِينَارٍ عَنْ جَابِرٍ، وَمِنْ حَدِيثِ مَعْمَرٍ عَنْ هَمَّامِ بْنِ مُنَبِّهٍ عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ.

تخريج: [صحيح] أخرجه عبدالرزاق في المصنف: ٣٩٨/٥، ح: ٩٧٤٤ عن معمر به مطولاً * والزهري صرح بالسماع وللحديث شواهد كثيرة جداً.

Chapter 93. Attacking The Enemy During The Night

(المعجم ٩٣) بَابُ: فِي اللَّيْلِ

(التحفة ١٠٢)

2638. It was reported from Iyās bin Salamah, from his father, who said: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ appointed Abū Bakr as commander over us to fight a battle against some people among the idolators. So we attacked at night, killing them, and our code word that night was: 'Amit, amit' (put to death, put to death). Salamah said: "That night, I killed seven idolators in their homes with my own hand."^[1]

٢٦٣٨ - حَدَّثَنَا الْحَسَنُ بْنُ عَلِيٍّ: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الصَّمَدِ وَأَبُو عَامِرٍ عَنْ عِكْرِمَةَ بْنِ عَمَّارٍ: حَدَّثَنَا إِيَّاسُ بْنُ سَلَمَةَ عَنْ أَبِيهِ قَالَ: أَمَرَ

رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ عَلَيْنَا أَبَا بَكْرٍ فَعَزَّوْنَا نَاسًا مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِينَ فَبَيَّنَّاهُمْ نَفْتَلُهُمْ وَكَانَ شِعَارَنَا تِلْكَ اللَّيْلَةَ: أَمِثْ أَمِثْ. قَالَ سَلَمَةُ: فَفَتَلْتُ بِيَدِي تِلْكَ اللَّيْلَةَ سَبْعَةَ أَهْلِ آيَاتٍ مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِينَ.

تخريج: [حسن] تقدم، ح: ٢٥٩٦ وأخرجه البيهقي: ٧٩/٩ من حديث أبي داود به.

Comments:

If the exigencies of war demand, there is nothing wrong in carrying out a night attack. A night attack is not construed as an act of deception or of cowardice.

Chapter 94. Staying In The Rear Guard

2639. It was reported from Abū Az-Zubair, from Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh, who said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ used to be at the rear while traveling, to urge the weak ones, to let someone ride on his mount behind him, and to supplicate for them.” (Sahīh)

(المعجم ٩٤) - بَابُ لُزُومِ السَّاقَةِ

تخريج: [صحيح] أخرجه الحاكم: ١١٥/٢ من حديث إسماعيل ابن علي به وصححه على شرط مسلم ووافقه الذهبي وللحديث شواهد.

Chapter 95. What The Idolators Are To Be Fought For

2640. It was reported from Abū Hurairah, who said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: ‘I have been ordered to fight the people until they say; “Lā ilāha illallāh (None has the right to be worshiped but Allāh).” When they say that, their blood and wealth will be safe from me — except by its right — and thier reckoning is

We reached a man from them and when we attacked him, he said: 'Lā ilāha illallāh (None has the right to be worshiped but Allāh)', but we struck him until we killed him. I told this to the Prophet ﷺ. He said: 'Who will save you from Lā ilāha illallāh on the Day of Judgment?' I said: 'O Messenger of Allāh! He only uttered it out of fear of the weapon.' He said: 'Did you split open his heart so you know whether he said it for that or not? Who will save you from: Lā ilāha illallāh, on the Day of Judgment?' He kept on repeating it until I wished I had not accepted Islam before that day." (Sahih)

These texts inform of the gravity of killing someone who has professed Islam in such circumstances.

Chapter (...) The Prohibition Of Fighting A Person Who Seeks Protection By Prostrating

(المعجم ...) - بَابُ النَّهْيِ عَنْ قَتْلِ مَنْ
اعْتَصَمَ بِالسُّجُودِ (التحفة ١٠٥)

2645. It was reported from Ismā'il, from Qais, from Jarīr bin 'Abdullāh, that he said: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ sent an expedition to Kath'am, where some people sought protection by prostrating. They were killed quickly." He said: "The Prophet ﷺ was told about the incident, and he ordered that half of the blood money to be paid for them, and he said: 'I am not responsible for any Muslim who lives among idolators.' They said: 'O Messenger of Allāh! Why?' He said: 'They should not see each other's fires.'" (Da'if)

٢٦٤٥ - حَدَّثَنَا هَذَا بْنُ السَّرِيِّ: حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو مُعَاوِيَةَ عَنْ إِسْمَاعِيلَ، عَنْ قَيْسٍ، عَنْ جَرِيرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ قَالَ: بَعَثَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ سَرِيَّةً إِلَى خَنْعَمٍ، فَأَعْتَصَمَ نَاسٌ مِنْهُمْ بِالسُّجُودِ، فَأَسْرَعَ فِيهِمُ الْقَتْلُ. قَالَ: فَبَلَغَ ذَلِكَ النَّبِيُّ ﷺ فَأَمَرَ لَهُمْ بِنِصْفِ الْعَقْلِ وَقَالَ: «أَنَا بَرِيءٌ مِنْ كُلِّ مُسْلِمٍ يُقِيمُ بَيْنَ أَظْهُرِ الْمُشْرِكِينَ». قَالُوا: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ! لِمَ؟ قَالَ: «لَا تَرَايَا نَارَاهُمَا» .

Abū Dāwud said: It was reported by Hushaim, Ma'mar, Khālid Al-Wāsītī and a group of narrators, but they did not mention Jarīr.

Chapter 96. Fleeing On The Day Of The March

(المعجم ٩٦) بَابُ: فِي التَّوَلَّى يَوْمَ
الرَّحْفِ (التحفة ١٠٦)

2646. It was reported from ‘Ikrimah, from Ibn ‘Abbās who said: “When the following Verse was revealed: ‘If there are twenty steadfast persons amongst you, they will overcome two hundred..., it became very difficult on the Muslims since Allāh decreed upon them, that one should not flee from ten. Then a lighter decree was revealed, He said: Now Allāh has lightened your (task). — (The narrator) Abū Tawbah recited it up to; ‘They shall overcome two hundred,^[1] — when Allāh lightened upon them the numbers, patience also decreased according to the number lightened from them.” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

This indicates that according to these figures it is required to resist with persistence or allowed to retreat.

2647. It was reported from ‘Abdur-Raḥmān bin Abī Lailā who narrated that ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar narrated to him that he was in an expedition with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, and the people turned to flee, and I was among those who fled. After we were safe, we said: “What should we do, for we fled the battlefield and we deserve Allāh’s anger!” We said: “Let us

Chapter 97. Regarding A Captive Being Compelled Into Disbelief

2649. It was reported from Khabbāb who said: “We came to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ while he was reclining on a Burdah (an outer garment) in the shade of Ka‘bah. We complained to him saying: ‘Will you not seek help for us, will you not supplicate to Allāh for us?’ He sat up straight, his face turned red, and he said: ‘Among those who were before you, a man would be taken, and a pit would be dug for him in the earth, and then a saw would be brought, and he would be sawed into two halves from his head, yet that would not make him change his religion, and his flesh would be torn from his bones with an iron comb, yet that would not make him change his religion. By Allāh! Allāh will complete this matter, until a rider will (travel) from Ṣan‘ā’ to Ḥaḍramawt, fearing no one but Allāh, and the wolf, regarding his sheep, but you surely are a hasty people.’” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Chapter 98. Regarding The Judgment For The Spy When He Is A Muslim

2650. It was narrated from ‘Ubaidullāh bin Abī Rāfi‘, who was a scribe for ‘Alī bin Abī Ṭālib, who said: “I heard ‘Alī saying: ‘The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ sent myself, Az-Zubair, and Al-Miqdād, and he said: “Proceed until you come to the garden of Khākh where you will find a woman with a letter, take it from her.” We proceeded racing each other on our horses until we came to the garden, where we found the woman. We said: “Give us the letter.” She said: “I don’t have any letters.” I said: “Either you take out the letter, or we will strip you off your clothes (to search for the letter).” He said: ‘She took it out from a braid in her hair. We brought it to the Prophet ﷺ. It was addressed from Hāṭib bin Abī Balta‘ah to some people from the idolators, informing them about some of the affairs of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ. He asked: “What is this O Hāṭib?”’ He replied: “O Messenger of Allāh! Do not be hasty with me, I am a man who was attached to the Quraish, while I am not one of them. Whereas those of the Quraish (emigrants living in Al-Madīnah), they have a relationship with them through which they get protection for their families in Makkah. As I did not have that

Comments:

Al-Khattābī said: “From the Fiqh of this Hadīth, is that the judgment regarding a person who has some kind of interpretation when permitting a forbidding matter, is different than the judgment upon one who intentionally makes it lawful, without some kind of interpretation. And it also indicates that when one is involved in something from the forbidden matters, and he claims it is due to a matter that is implied by some kind of interpretation, then it is to be understood in accordance with what he said, even if the dominant suspicion is contrary to that. Do you not see that when the affair was such that it implied, and was possible, that the reality was as Ḥāṭib said, and it was also possible that the reality was as ‘Umar said, may Allah be pleased with him; Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ employed Husnāz-ẓann (gave him the benefit of doubt) in his case, and he accepted what he claimed in his saying. And in it, is the evidence, that when the spy is a Muslim, he is not to be killed. And they (scholars) differ over what punishment is to be applied to him. So the people of opinion (Aṣḥab Ar-Ra’ī) said; in the case of a Muslim, when he has written to the enemy and instructed them about the secret affairs of the Muslims, he is to be inflicted with a (physical) punishment and imprisoned for a long period. Al-Awzā’ī said, if he is a Muslim, then the Imām is to punish him with a punishment that makes an example of him, and banish him to a remote area while bound, and if he is a Dhimmī (a non-Muslim with a covenant) then his covenant is revoked. Mālik said: ‘I have not heard anything about it, and I think it is up to the independent judgment of the Imām.’ Ash-Shāfi’ī said: ‘When this occurs with a man of high rank, out of ignorance, as happened with Ḥāṭib, out of ignorance; and he was not considered to be lying, then I like that he be left alone. And if he is not a person of high rank, then it is for the Imām to apply Ta'zīr (punishment) on him.' Also among the Fiqh of the Hadīth, is the allowance of looking at what is exposed of women in establishing a punishment, or establishing testimony affirming a right, and what resembles that of matters. And in it, is evidence that whoever alleges Kufr or Nifāq about a Muslim via some interpretation, and he is among the people of Ijīhād, then punishment is not warranted for him. Do you not see that 'Umar, may Allāh be pleased with him, said: 'Give me permission to strike the neck of this hypocrite' while he was a believer, for whom Allāh's Messenger ﷺ attested to what he claimed about that, then, he was not harsh with 'Umar for what he had said. And that was because, 'Umar was not acting out of hostility in this saying, which was based on the apparent judgment of the religion; since the hypocrite is the one who manifests aid to the religion in the open, and internally aids the disbelievers, and in this incident, what Ḥāṭib did, resembled what the hypocrites do. Except that Allāh's Messenger ﷺ informed that Allāh, Most High, had pardoned him for what he did in that incident, and so he (also) pardoned him, so the application of hypocrisy ceased being applicable in his case. And Allāh knows best."

2651. It was reported from Abū 'Abdur-Raḥmān As-Sulamī, from 'Alī with this story. He said: "Ḥāṭib left and wrote to the people of Makkah. 'Muḥammad (ﷺ) is going to proceed towards you.'" And he said in it: "She said: 'I do not have a letter.' We made her camel kneel down to search her, but we did not find any letter with her." 'Alī said: "By Him in whose Name the oath is taken! I will kill you, or you take out the letter." And he narrated the rest of the Hadīth (Similar to no. 2650). (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Allāh ﷺ ordered that he (i.e., a spy who is not a Muslim but is Dhinmī, having a covenant with Muslims) be killed. He was a spy for Abū Sufyān and an ally of a man from the Anṣār. He passed by a circle of the Anṣār and said: "I am a Muslim." A man from the Anṣār said: "O Messenger of Allāh! He claims that he is a Muslim." The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: "Among you are people in whose faith we trust, among them are Furāt bin Ḥayyān." (Daʿīf)

Comments:

Furāt bin Ḥayyān had been a spy prior to accepting Islam. He also emigrated to Al-Madīnah and continued to take part in Jihād with the Prophet ﷺ until his (Prophet's) death. He later settled down at Al-Kūfah.

(المعجم ١٠٠) بَابُ فِي الْجَاسُوسِ
الْمُسْتَأْمِنِ (التحفة ١١٠)

2653. It was reported from Salamah bin Al-Akwa', who said: "A spy from the idolaters came to the Prophet ﷺ while he was in a journey. He sat near his Companions and then slipped away. The Prophet ﷺ said: 'Find him and kill him.'" He said: "I raced ahead of them and killed him. I took his belongings back, which the Prophet ﷺ gave me." (Sahih)

2654. It was reported from Iyās bin Salamah (who said): “My father narrated to me, he said: “I fought in the battle against Hawāzin with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, and while we were having a meal in the morning — as most of us were on foot and some of us were weak — a man came on a red camel. He took out a leather strap from the loin of the camel, and tied his camel with it, then came to eat with the people. When he saw their weakness, and lack of mounts, he went hastily to his camel, untied it, made it kneel down, and sat on it, he then left, galloping quickly. A man from Aslam followed him on a brown she-camel which was among the best mounts they had. I went out galloping till I caught up with him. The head of the she-camel was at the hip of the camel, and I was at the hip of the she-camel, then I proceeded further, until I was at the hip of the camel, then I proceeded further, until I was able to take the reign of the camel and make it kneel down. As soon as it put its knee down on the earth, I drew my sword and hit the man on his head and he fell down. I then came back, leading the camel with the equipment on top. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ met me with the people. He said: ‘Who killed the man?’ They said: ‘Salamah bin Al-Akwa.’ Then he said: ‘He gets all his spoils.’” Hārūn (one of the narrators) said:

Chapter 101. Regarding What Time Is Recommended For The Encounter

2655. It was reported from An-Nu‘mān, meaning Ibn Muqarrin, who said: “I observed the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ. If he did not fight at the beginning of the day; he would delay the fighting until the sun passes the zenith, the wind blows and the aid descends.” (Ṣaḥīh)

Comments:

The time of the decline of the sun from its zenith is the time of the descent of help from Allāh. This is why performing Ṣalāt Az-Zuhr in its early time is preferred.

Chapter 102. Regarding The Order To Keep Silent At The Time Of The Encounter

Chapter 103. Regarding A Man Walking During The Encounter

Chapter 104. Regarding Pride During Battle

2659. It was reported from Jābir bin 'Atīq that Allāh's Prophet ﷺ said: "From Al-Ghairah is what Allāh loves, and from it what Allāh hates. As for that which Allāh, the Mighty and Sublime, loves, it is Ghairah in matters of doubt; and as for that which Allāh hates, it is Ghairah in matters in which there is no doubt. Comments:

Al-Ghairah is a sense of honor and jealousy regarding one's women-folk. Al-Ghairah in matters of doubt would be like when a man sees a person of no close blood relation with his wife or daughter, etc. An example of when there is no doubt would be when someone wants to marry his sister or widowed (or divorced) mother in a legal way, then he should not be over protective of her if the one who proposed has good conduct and is religious.

Chapter 105. Regarding A Man Being Taken Captive

(المعجم ١٠٥) بَابُ: فِي الرَّجُلِ

2660. It was reported from Abū Hurairah, who said: “The Prophet ﷺ sent out ten spies and appointed ‘Āṣim bin Thābit as their commander. About one hundred archers from the tribe of Hudhail came out to attack them. When ‘Āṣim became aware of them, they took refuge on a hillock. They said: ‘Come down and surrender yourselves and we give our promise and covenant not to kill anyone of you.’ ‘Āṣim said: ‘As for me, I will not descend into the protection of a disbeliever.’ Then they shot at them with their arrows and killed a group of seven, including ‘Āṣim. Three of them came down accepting their promise and covenant. They were Khubaib, Zaid bin Ad-Dathinah, and another man. As soon as they got hold of them, they took off the strings on their bows, using them to tie them up. The third man said: 'This is their first act of treachery, by Allāh! I am not going to accompany you people. In them (my companions who died) I take my example.' They dragged him, but he refused to go with them, so they killed him. Khubaib stayed as their captive, until they finally agreed to kill him. He asked for a razor to shave his pubes. When they took him outside to kill him, he said to them: 'Let me pray two Rak'ah.' Then he said: 'By Allāh! If it was not that you people might think that I was afraid I would have increased (the length of prayer).'" (Sahih)

Comments:

Khubaib, may Allāh be pleased with him, had killed Hārith bin ‘Āmir during the Battle of Badr. The children of Hārith then decided to quench their thirst for revenge, and so they killed Khubaib. It is one thing to kill an adversary on the battlefield and quite another to kill someone in revenge during peace time, which amounts to pure treachery.

Chapter 106. Regarding Lying In Ambush

2662. Al-Barā' said: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ made 'Abdullāh bin Jubair commander over the archers on the day of the battle of Uḥud, and they were fifty men. He said: 'Even if you see birds snatching us, do not leave your positions until I send for you, and if you see that we have defeated them and made them flee, do not leave your positions until I send for you.'" He (Al-Barā') said: "Allāh then routed them. By Allāh, I saw the women hastening to climb the mountain. The companions of 'Abdullāh bin Jubair said: 'The spoils, O people! The spoils! Your companions have been victorious, so what are you waiting for?' 'Abdullāh bin Jubair said: 'Have you forgotten what the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ ordered you?' But they said: 'By Allāh, we are going down to the people to take the spoils.' So they came down, and their faces were turned away (from the enemies) and they were defeated." (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Comments:

To lay in ambush for purposes of attack or defense in a battle is a legitimate and lawful activity, and it is considered an important tactic in war.

Comments:

It is lawful to cry out or challenge adversaries for a dual during battle. This instills fear in the mind of the enemy.

Chapter 110. Regarding The Prohibition Of Mutilation

(المعجم ۱۱۰) بَابُ: فِي النَّهْيِ عَنِ الْمُثَلَّةِ (التحفة ۱۲۰)

Comments:

Mutilating the body of the enemy after death, or mutilating the face while he lives, are both prohibited in Islam. Exceptions are in cases of Qisās (legal punishment of requital).

Chapter 11. Regarding Killing Women

(المعجم ١١١) بَابُ: فِي قَتْلِ النِّسَاءِ
(التحفة ١٢١)

٢٦٦٨ - حَدَّثَنَا يَزِيدُ بْنُ خَالِدِ بْنِ مَوْهَبٍ وَثِقِيئَهُ يَعْنِي ابْنَ سَعِيدٍ قَالَا: حَدَّثَنَا اللَّيْثُ عَنْ نَافِعٍ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ: أَنَّ امْرَأَةً أُجِدَتْ فِي بَعْضِ مَعَازِي رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ مَقْتُولَةً فَأَنْكَرَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ قَتْلَ النِّسَاءِ وَالصَّبِيَّانِ.

2669. It was reported from Rabāh bin Rabī', who said: "We were with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ in a battle. He saw some people gathered around something, so he sent a man, and said: 'Go and see what they have gathered for.' He came back and said: 'It was a woman who has been killed.' So he said: 'She would not have been fighting.' Khālid bin Al-Walīd was in the advanced guard, so he sent a man saying: 'Tell Khālid: "Do not kill a woman or a hired hand."' (Sahih)

٢٦٦٩ - حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو الْوَلِيدِ الطَّبَالِيُّ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا [عُمَرُ] بْنُ الْمُرْقَعِ بْنِ صَيْفِيٍّ بْنِ رَبَاحٍ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنِي أَبِي عَنْ جَدِّهِ رَبَاحِ بْنِ رَبِيعٍ قَالَ: كُنَّا مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ فِي غَزْوَةٍ فَرَأَى النَّاسَ مُجْتَمِعِينَ عَلَى شَيْءٍ، فَبَعَثَ رَجُلًا فَقَالَ: انْظُرْ عَلَيَّ مَا اجْتَمَعَ هُؤُلَاءِ، فَجَاءَ فَقَالَ: عَلَى امْرَأَةٍ قَتِيلَةٍ، فَقَالَ: «مَا كَانَتْ هَذِهِ لِقَاتِلٍ»، قَالَ: وَعَلَى الْمُقَدَّمَةِ خَالِدُ بْنُ الْوَلِيدِ فَبَعَثَ رَجُلًا فَقَالَ: «قُلْ لِحَالِدٍ: لَا تَقْتُلَنَّ امْرَأَةً وَلَا عَسِيفًا».

Comments:

If a woman plays no part in fighting, then it is prohibited to kill her. The same rule holds good in the case of servants and elderly people.

2670. It was reported from Al-Ḥasan, from Samurah bin Jundab who said: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: 'Kill the old polytheist men, but spare their children.'" (Da'if)

٢٦٧٠ - حَدَّثَنَا سَعِيدُ بْنُ مَنْصُورٍ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا هُشَيْمٌ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا حَجَّاجٌ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا قَتَادَةُ عَنِ الْحَسَنِ، عَنْ سَمُرَةَ بْنِ جُنْدُبٍ قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «اقْتُلُوا شُيُوخَ الْمُشْرِكِينَ وَاسْتَبَقُوا شَرِّهِمْ».

2671. 'Āishah said: No woman from Banū Quraizah was killed except one. She was talking with me laughing so hard, rolling on her back and belly, while the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ was killing the men of her tribe at the market. Suddenly a man called her name: 'Where is so-and-so?' She said: 'Here I am.' I said: 'What did you do?' She said: 'Something unprecedented.' She was taken away and killed. I cannot forget her — surprised by her behavior — she was talking with me, and laughing so much; rolling around on her back and belly, while she knew she will be killed."^[1] (Ḥasan)

Comments:

It is said that the woman had verbally abused and insulted the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ.

2672. It was reported from Az-Zuhrī, from ‘Ubaidullāh, meaning Ibn ‘Abdullāh, from Ibn ‘Abbās, from Aṣ-Ṣa‘b bin Jaththāmah, that he asked the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ about the settlements of the idolaters when they are under attack at night, and their children and women are killed. The Prophet ﷺ said: “They are from them.” And ‘Amr, meaning Ibn Dīnār used to say: “They are from their parents.” Az-Zuhrī said: “After that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ prohibited killing of women and children.” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Comments:

Deliberate killing of women and children is prohibited. However, it may happen unintentionally during a night attack when it is difficult to tell the one from the other.

Chapter 112. Regarding The Abhorrence Of Burning The Enemy With Fire

2673. It was reported from Muḥammad bin Ḥamzah Al-Aslamī from his father, that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ appointed him as a commander over a military expedition. He said: “So I went along with them, and he (the Prophet) said: ‘If you find so-and-so, then burn him with fire.’ Then I turned to depart. He called me to

Comments:

Burning a convict or war prisoner alive is prohibited although there is no harm in burning the forts and buildings if warranted by the exigencies of war.

2675. It was reported from 'Abdur-Rahmān bin 'Abdullāh, from his father who said: "We were with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ in a journey. He went to relieve himself. We saw a Humrah with two chicks of hers, and we took one of her chicks. The Humrah came and started shaking her spread out wings. The Prophet ﷺ came and said: 'Who distressed her because of her chicks, give her chick back to her.' And he also saw an ant colony which we had burnt, so he said: 'Who burnt this down?' We said: 'We did.' He said: 'It is not allowed to punish with fire, except for the Lord of the Fire.'"^[1] (Hasan)

Chapter 113. Regarding A Man Who Rents His Riding Animal For Half Or A Share (Of The Spoils)

2676. It was reported from Wāthilah bin Al-Asqa' who said: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ announced the expedition to Tabūk. I went to my family, and then came back. The first of the Companions of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ were already on the way. I started to announce loudly in Al-Madīnah: 'Is there any one who can transport a man, and he will get a share (from the spoils).' An old man from the Anṣār replied loudly: 'We will have his share of the spoils if we transport him by turns, and he will share the food with us?' I said: 'Yes.' He replied: 'Then proceed on the journey, with the blessings of Allāh, the Exalted.' So I went with good companionship until Allāh granted us (spoils), and I was given young female camels as my share of the spoils. I drove them till I reached him. He came out, and sat on one of the saddles of his camel, and said: 'Drive them backwards.' Again he said: 'Drive them forward.' Then he said: 'I find your young female camels very gentle.' I said: This is your spoils which I

Meaning those disbelievers who are captured and chained by the Muslim military, but then they later accept Islam, as a result of which they are admitted to Paradise. We can deduce from the contents of the Hadīth that chaining captives is permissible in war. The Hadīth has also been interpreted to refer to those Muslims that are taken captive and chained, then either die or are assassinated in captivity.

2678. It was reported from Muslim bin ‘Abdullāh, from Jundab bin Makīth who said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ sent ‘Abdullāh bin Ghālib Al-Laithī on an expedition, and I was with them. He ordered them to raid Banū Al-Mulawwah in 2679. It was reported from Sa'eed bin Abī Sa'eed, that he heard Abū Hurairah saying: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ sent a cavalry troop towards Najd. They returned with a man from Banū Ḥanīfah by the name of Thumāmah bin Uthāl, who was the chief of the people of Al-Yamāmah. They tied him to one of the pillars in the Masjid. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ went out to him and said: 'What do you have to say O Thumāmah?' He said: 'Something good O Muḥammad! If you kill me you are going to kill someone whose blood will be avenged, but if you show leniency, you will be showing leniency to one who is grateful. If you want wealth, just ask for it, and you will be given it as you wish.' The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ left him alone. He repeated what he had said before. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ left him alone. When the next day after the following day came, he mentioned the same words as before. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ then said: 'Set Thumāmah free.' He went off to some date palm trees near the Masjid and performed Ghushl and returned to the Masjid. Then he said: 'I bear witness that there is none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh, and I bear witness that Muḥammad is His servant and His Messenger.'" And (he cited) the Hadīth.

Chapter 115 Regarding Abusing And Beating A Captive, (And Confession)

2681. Anas said: The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ called his Companions to proceed towards Badr. Suddenly they came across the water-carrying camels of the Quraish, among them was a black slave belonging to Banū Al-Ḥajjāj. The Companions of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ took him captive and started asking him where Abū Sufyān was. He said: ‘By Allāh! I don’t know anything about him, but this is the Quraish who have come here, and among them are Abū Jahl, ‘Utbah and Shaibah the two sons of Rabī‘ah, and Umayyah bin Khalaf.’ When he said that to them, they beat him. Then he said: ‘Leave me alone, leave me alone, I will tell you.’ When they stopped, he said: ‘By Allāh! I don’t know anything about him, but this is the Quraish who have come here, and

Chapter 117. Killing A Captive Without Inviting Him To Islam

(المعجم ١١٧) - بَابُ قَتْلِ الْأَسِيرِ وَلَا يُعْرَضُ عَلَيْهِ الْإِسْلَامُ (التحفة ١٢٧)

2683. It was reported from Sa'd, who said: "On the Day of the conquest of Makkah, the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ granted protection to all the people except four men and two women," and he named them. Ibn Abī Sarḥ was one of them. Then he mentioned the Ḥadīth. He said: 'As for Ibn Abī Sarḥ, he hid himself with 'Uḥmān bin 'Affān. When the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ called people to give him their pledge of allegiance, he brought him and made him stand in front of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, then he said: 'O Prophet of

[1] Al-Baqarah: 2:256.

Allāh! Receive the pledge of allegiance from ‘Abdullāh.’ He raised his head and looked at him three times, each time refusing him. Then he received pledge after the third time. Then he faced towards his Companions, and said: ‘Was there not among you an intelligent man, whom when he saw me not accepting his pledge would stand up and kill him?’ They said: ‘O Messenger of Allāh! We do not know what is in your soul, why did you not hint to us with your eye?’ He said: ‘It is not proper for a Prophet to have a treacherous eye.’”^[1] (Hasan)

Abū Dāwud said: ‘Abdullāh was a foster-brother of ‘Uthmān, and Al-Walīd bin ‘Uqbah was ‘Uthmān’s brother, through his mother, and ‘Uthmān imposed the Hadd (of lashes) beating on him for drinking wine.

2684. It was reported from ‘Amr bin ‘Uthmān bin ‘Abdur-Raḥmān bin Sa‘eed bin Yarbū‘ Al-Makhzūmī, who said: “My grandfather narrated to me, from his father, that on the day of the Conquest of Makkah, the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: ‘There are four to whom I will not grant protection, neither in Hill, nor Haram’^[2] then he named them. There were two singing slave-girls belonging to Maqīs: One of them

قَالَ أَبُو دَاوُدَ: وَكَانَ عَبْدُ اللهِ أَخَا عُثْمَانَ مِنَ الرَّضَاعَةِ وَكَانَ الْوَلِيدُ بْنُ عُقْبَةَ أَخَا عُثْمَانَ لَأُمِّهِ وَضَرَبَهُ عُثْمَانُ الْحَدَّ إِذْ شَرِبَ الْخَمْرَ.

Chapter 118. To Kill A Captive While Imprisoned

2686. It was reported from Ibrāhīm, who said: "Aḍ-Ḍaḥḥāk bin Qais wanted to give Masrūq a post. 'Umārah bin 'Uqbah said to him: 'Do you want to appoint someone from among the remnants of the murderers of 'Uthmān?' Masrūq said to him: "Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd narrated to us, and he was trustworthy according to us, in Ḥadīth: 'When the Prophet ﷺ wanted to kill your father, he said: "Who will look after my children?"

Comments:

'Uqbah bin Mu'īṭ was an absolutely wicked person. He had crossed all limits in his enmity towards the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ. It was he who had thrown the entrails of a camel on the back of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ while he was performing Ṣalāt. He was put to the sword in captivity while returning from Badr to Al-Madīnah.

Chapter 119. To Kill A Captive With An Arrow

(المعجم ١١٩) بَابُ: فِي قَتْلِ الْأَسِيرِ
بِالنَّبْلِ (التحفة ١٢٩)

2687. It was reported from Ibn Tī'lā, who said: "We fought along with 'Abdur-Raḥmān bin Khālīd bin Al-Walīd. Four who were strong among the enemies were brought. He ordered them to be killed in confinement." (Da'if)

٢٦٨٧ - حَدَّثَنَا سَعِيدُ بْنُ مَنْصُورٍ: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ وَهَبٍ قَالَ: أَخْبَرَنِي عَمْرُو بْنُ الْحَارِثِ عَنْ بُكَيْرِ بْنِ الْأَشْجِ، عَنِ ابْنِ تَعْلَى قَالَ: غَزَوْنَا مَعَ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ خَالِدِ بْنِ الْوَلِيدِ فَأَتَيْتُ بِأَرْبَعَةٍ أَغْلَاجٍ مِنَ الْعَدُوِّ فَأَمَرَ بِهِمْ فَقَتَلُوا صَبْرًا.

Abū Dāwud said: Others, aside from Sa'eed, said to us, in this Hadīth; from Ibn Wahb: "With arrows in confinement. So when that reached Abū Ayyūb Al-Anṣārī, he said: 'I heard the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ prohibit killing a person in confinement. By the One in whose Hand my soul is! Even if it is a chicken I will not kill it in confinement.' So this reached 'Abdur-Raḥmān bin Khālīd bin Al-Walīd, so he freed the four slaves."

Chapter 120. Regarding The Generosity In Freeing A Captive Without Any Ransom

2688. Anas said: “Eighty men from the people of Makkah came down from the mountains of Tan‘im to kill the Prophet ﷺ and his Companions at the time of the Fajr prayer. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ took them captive without fighting, and he freed them. Therefore, Allāh, the Mighty and Sublime revealed: ‘And He it is Who has withheld their hands from you, and your hands from them in the midst of Makkah...’ till the end of the Verse.”^[1] (Sahih)

2689. It was reported from Muḥammad bin Jubair bin Muṭ‘im, from his father, that the Prophet ﷺ said to the captives of Badr: “If Muṭ‘im bin ‘Adī was alive and spoke to me on behalf of those filthy ones, I would have freed them for him.” (Sahih)

Chapter 121. Regarding Ransoming Captives With Wealth

2690. It was reported from Simāk Al-Ḥanafī who said: “Ibn ‘Abbās narrated to me, he said: “‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb said: “On the day of (the battle of) Badr, the Prophet ﷺ accepted ransom, so Allāh, the Mighty and Sublime, revealed: ‘It is not for a Prophet that he should have prisoners of war (and free them with ransom) until he had made a great slaughter (among the enemies) in the land...’ up to His saying: ‘...(a severe torment) would have touched you for what you took...’^[1] of the ransom, then (later) Allāh made the spoils of war lawful for them.” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Abū Dāwud said: I heard Aḥmad bin Ḥanbal being asked Abū Nuḥ’s (one of the narrators) name: He said: “What do you want to do with his name? His name is a bad one.”

Abū Dāwud said: His name is Qurād, and what is correct is that his name is ‘Abdur-Raḥmān bin Gazwān.’^[2]

2692. It was reported from ‘Āishah that she said: “When the people of Makkah sent ransom to free their families from captivity, Zainab sent some wealth to free Abū Al-‘Āṣ, along with her necklace, which was Khadijah’s and she had given to Zainab at the time of her marriage to Abū Al-‘Āṣ.” She said: “When the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ saw it, he was overwhelmed with compassion for her, and said: ‘If you (wish) consider freeing the captive (i.e., Abū Al-‘Āṣ), and also return back to her what belongs to her.’ They said: ‘Yes.’ The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ had taken oath from him, or he promised him, to let Zainab come to him. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ sent Zaid bin Hārithah and another man from the Anṣār, and told them: ‘Be in the valley of Ya’jiz until Zainab passes you, then accompany her until you bring her.’” (Hasan)

Comments:

If considered expedient, it is allowed to free the prisoner of war without ransom. The marriage of Zainab with Abū Al-‘Āṣ had taken place before the Messenger of Allāh’s advent as a Prophet. He, however, accepted Islam as late as the days of Al-Ḥudaibiyah. The Valley of Ya’jiz was situated at a distance of eight miles from Makkah.

2693. Marwān and Al-Miswar bin Makhramah said: “When the delegates of Hawāzin came as Muslims, they requested that their wealth be returned back to them. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said to them: ‘There are others with me as you see, and the dearest speech to me is that which is most true. So choose either the captives or the wealth.’ They said: ‘We choose our captives.’ The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ stood up, praised Allāh and then said: ‘To proceed: Indeed your brethren have come with repentance, and I see it appropriate to return back to them their captives. Whoever among you would like to do that as a favor, then he should do so, and whoever amongst you wants to keep his share, until we give him something from the first Fai’ which Allāh grants us, he may do so.’ The people said: ‘We would like to (release) the captives for them O Messenger of Allāh!’ The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said to them: ‘We do not know who amongst you have given the permission and who did not, so return back until your leaders may come back to me with your affair.’ So the people went away, and they were spoken to by their leaders. They informed that they agree to give the captives back and have granted the permission.” (Sahih)

2694. It was reported from ‘Amr bin Shu‘aib, from his father, from his grandfather — about this narrative — he said: “Then the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: ‘Return their women and children to them, and anyone who keeps anything from this Fai’ he will be compensated for it by six camels from the first Fai’ which Allāh, Most High, grants us.’ Then the Prophet ﷺ went to a camel and took some hair of it’s hump, and said: ‘O people! I am not taking anything from this Fai’, not even this (hair),’ he raised his two fingers, and said: ‘except the Khumus (the fifth), and this Khumus is returned among you, so give back even the threads and the needles.’ A man stood up with a ball of hair in his hand, and said: ‘I had taken this to fix my saddle blanket with it.’ The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ then said: ‘Whatever belongs to me and Banū ‘Abdul-Muṭṭalib, you can take it.’ He said: ‘After what I have seen transpire, then I have no desire for it at all, and discarded it.’”^[1] (Hasan)

Ṭalḥah, who said: “After being victorious over any people, the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ would stay at the battlefield for three nights.”

(In his version) Ibn Al-Muthannah said: “If he was victorious over any people, he liked to stay in their battlefield for three days.” (Saḥīḥ)

Abū Dāwud said: Yaḥyā bin Sa‘eed used to criticize this Hadīth because it is not among the early Hadīth of Sa‘eed, since his memory became distorted in the year forty — five, and this Hadīth was not narrated except later than that.

Abū Dāwud said: It is said that Wakī‘ reported from him after he became mixed up (in narrating).

Chapter 123. Regarding Separating Captives

2696. It was reported from Maimūn bin Abī Shabīb, from ‘Alī, may Allāh be pleased with him, that he separated between a slave woman and her child. The Prophet ﷺ prohibited him from doing that, and withdrew the sale. (Da‘īf)

Abū Dāwud said: Maimūn did not meet ‘Alī. He (Maimūn) was killed in the battle of Al-Jamājim, and Al-Jamājim was in the year eighty-three.

Abū Dāwud said: And the battle of Al-Ḥarrah was in the year sixty-three, and Ibn Az-Zubair was killed in the year seventy-three.

Comments:

Other narrations support the ruling that it is not allowed to separate a slave woman from her child.

Chapter 124. The Permission To Separate In The Case Of Those (Captives) Who Reached Puberty

(المعجم ١٢٤) - بَابُ الرُّخْصَةِ فِي الْمُدْرِكِينَ يُفْرَقُ بَيْنَهُمْ (التحفة ١٣٤)

2697. It was reported from Iyās bin Salamah, who said: "My father narrated to me, he said: 'We went out on an expedition with Abū Bakr, whom the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ had appointed commander over us. We attacked Fazārah, then I saw a group of people, among which were children and women. I shot an arrow towards them, which fell between them and the mountain, so they stood there. I brought them to Abū Bakr. Among them there was a woman from Fazārah, and she was wearing a leather coat. She had her daughter with her, who was the most beautiful of the Arabs. Abū Bakr awarded me her daughter. When I arrived in Al-Madīnah, the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ met me and said: 'O Salamah! Grant me the woman.' I said: 'By Allāh! I like her, but I have not removed her garments.' He kept quite, and when the next day came, the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ met me in the market, and said to me: 'O Salamah! Grant me the woman by Allāh! By your father.'^[1] So I said: 'O Messenger

Chapter 125. Regarding Muslims' Wealth That The Enemy Acquires, Then Its Owner Finds In Among The Spoils

2698. It was reported from Ibn Abī Zā'idah, from 'Ubaidullāh, from Nāfi', from Ibn 'Umar that a male slave of Ibn 'Umar ran away to the enemy, and then the Muslims were victorious over them. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ returned him back to Ibn 'Umar, and he was not part of the distribution (of the spoils). (Da'if)

Abū Dāwud said: It was said by other than him: "Khālīd bin Al-Walīd returned him to Ibn 'Umar."

It was reported from Ribī bin Hīrāsh, from ‘Alī bin Abī Tālib who said: “Some slaves went to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ on the Day of Al-Ḥudaibiyah before the treaty, so their masters wrote to the Prophet ﷺ and said: ‘O Muḥammad! By Allāh! They did not come to you hoping for your religion, but they have gone to you running away from slavery.’ So some people said: ‘They are saying the truth, O Messenger of Allāh! Return them back to them.’ The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ got angry and said: ‘I do not see you people desisting O people of Quraish! Until Allāh sends those over you who will strike your neck because of this’ and he refused to send them back, and he said: ‘They are emancipated (slaves) of Allāh, the Mighty and Sublime.’” (Da’if)

Chapter 129. Regarding Carrying Food Out Of The Land Of The Enemy

2706. It was reported from Al-Qāsim, the freed slave of ‘Abdur-Rahmān, from some of the Companions of the Prophet ﷺ, he said: “We would eat from the Jazr during an expedition, and would not divide it until we were ready to come back to our dwellings. Then we would fill our saddlebags with it.” (Da‘īf)

Chapter 133. Regarding The Gravity Of Ghulūl

(المعجم ١٣٣) باب: في تعظيم الغلول
(التحفة ١٤٣)

2710. It was reported from Zaid bin Khālid Al-Juhanī that a man from the Companions of the Prophet ﷺ died on the Day of Khaibar. They mentioned it to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ. He said: "Offer (funeral) prayers for Your companion." When the faces of the people looked perplexed, he said: "Your companion misappropriated spoils in the cause of Allāh," so we looked in his belongings and found in it some pearls belonging to Jews, not worth even two Dirham. 2711. Abū Hurairah said: “We went out along with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ in the Year of Khaibar. We did not acquire gold or silver in the spoils, but clothes, equipment and property. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ went towards the valley of Al-Qurā. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ was presented a black slave called Mid'am. While they were in the valley of Al-Qurā, and Mid'am was unsaddling the animal of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, he was struck by an arrow which killed him. The people said: ‘Congratulations for him, he will go to Paradise.’ But the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: ‘Not at all, by Him in whose Hand my soul is! The cloak which he had taken on the Day of Khaibar, which was not distributed among the spoils, will ablaze with fire upon him.’ When they heard this, a man came with one or two sandal straps to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: ‘A sandal strap of fire,’ or he said: ‘Two sandal straps of the fire.’”

Chapter 134. Regarding The Imām Leaving The Ghulūl When It Is Minimal, And Not Burning The Equipment

2712. It was reported from ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Amr who said: “When the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ acquired some spoils of war, he would order Bilāl to make a public announcement. So he announced to the people to bring the spoils, and he took the Khumu and the rest was distributed. A man came after that with a camel halter of hair and said: ‘O Messenger of Allāh! This is part of what we had gained as spoils.’ He said: ‘Did you hear Bilāl’s announcement?’ (He said this) Three times. He said: ‘Yes.’ He said: ‘What prevented you from bringing it (then)?’ He made some excuses. He said: ‘You may bring it on the Day of Judgment, for I shall not accept it from you.’” (Hasan)

Chapter 136. Regarding The Salab (Spoils) Being Given To The Person Who Killed^[1]

2717. It was reported from Abū Qatādah that he said: "We went to in an expedition with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ in the Year of Ḥunain. When the two armies met, the Muslims retreated. I saw a man from idolaters overcoming a man from the Muslims. I went around until I came to him from behind, and struck him with the sword on the vein between his neck and shoulder. He came towards me and grasped me so firmly that I smelt death. Then death overtook him, and he let me go. I caught up to 'Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb and said to him: 'What happened to the people?' He replied: 'It is what Allāh has decreed.' Then later on the people came back, and the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ sat down and said: 'Anyone who has killed a man and can prove it, he will have his spoils (Salab).' I stood up and said: 'Who will bear witness for me?' Then I sat down. He (the Prophet ﷺ) said it again: 'Anyone who has killed a man and can prove it, he will have his spoils (Salab).' I stood up and said: 'Who will bear witness for me?' Then I sat down. He (the Prophet ﷺ) said it for the third time. I stood up, so the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said:

[1] Salab refers to the goods that were with an enemy that one has killed. Some of these goods will be awarded to the one that fought and killed him, and they will not be considered Ghanimah or war spoils, divided among the troops. Scholars differ over the conditions for awarding Salab, as well as the items included in that.

‘What is the matter with you O Abū Qatādah!?’ So I related to him the whole story. A man from among the people said: ‘He is telling the truth O Messenger of Allāh! And the spoils (Salab) of that dead person are with me. Make him an offer so he will accept that.’ Abū Bakr Aṣ-Ṣiddīq said: ‘No, by Allāh! What you said will not be done. A lion from among the lions of Allāh who fights for the sake of Allāh and His Messenger, and you want him to give you his spoils (Salab)?’ The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: ‘He has said the truth. Hand it over to him.’” Abū Qatādah said: “He gave it to me. I sold the coat of mail, and bought a farm with (the proceeds) among Banū Salamah. It was the first wealth I acquired in Islam.” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

2718. It was reported from Anas bin Mālik, who said: “On that day” meaning on the Day of Ḥunain” the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: ‘Anyone who kills a disbeliever, he shall have his spoils (Salab).’

On that day, Abū Ṭalḥah killed twenty men and took their spoils. Abū Ṭalḥah met Umm Sulaim who had a dagger with her. He said: ‘O Umm Sulaim! What is this with you?’ She said: ‘By Allāh! I intended, that if anyone of them got near to me, to pierce their

Chapter 137. Regarding The Imām Denying The Spoils (Salab To The Person Who Killed, If He Sees Fit To, And The Horse And Weapon Are Part Of The Spoils (Salab))

2719. 'Awf bin Mālik Al-Ashja'ī said: "I went with Zaid bin Ḥārithah in the battle of Mu'tah. I was accompanied by a man from Yemen who was part of the reinforcements, and he only had a sword with him. A Muslim man slaughtered a camel. The man from the reinforcements asked him for some piece of its skin, so he gave it to him. He made it in the shape of a shield. We proceeded until we met the Roman army. Among them was a man on a reddish horse, with a golden saddle, who started fiercely attacking and killing the Muslims. The man from the reinforcements sat behind a rock lying in wait to attack him. When the Roman passed by him, he hamstrung his horse and it fell down. He overpowered him and killed him, and he took his horse Injury to Abū Jahl was initially inflicted by Mu‘ādh and Mu‘awwadh (the sons of ‘Afrā’) and Mu‘ādh bin ‘Amr bin Jamūh. Then it was ‘Abdullāh bin Mas‘ūd who finished him off.

Chapter 140. Regarding Whoever Comes After The Spoils Of War Are Distributed, Then There Is No Share For Him

2723. It was reported from Az-Zuhrī that ‘Anbasah bin Sa‘eed informed him, that he heard Abū Hurairah narrating to Sa‘eed bin Al-‘Āṣ, that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ sent Abān bin Sa‘eed bin Al-‘Āṣ^[1] in an expedition from Al-Madīnah towards Najd. Abān bin Sa‘eed and his companions came to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ at Khaibar after it was conquered. The girths of their horses were made of palm-leaf fibers. Abān said: ‘Give us a share (from the spoils) O Messenger of Allāh!’” Abū Hurairah said: “Do not give them a share O Messenger of Allāh! [1] This Abān is actually the uncle of the Sa‘eed bin Al-‘Āṣ whom Abū Hurairah narrated it to.

[2] A Wābir is a small rare hairy animal whose latin name is hyrax, while it is not classified as such, it resembles a rodent, similar to a guinea pig, or a rabbit.

[3] Some narrations of this Ḥadīth have the word Ad-Dāl and some have it Ad-Da’n. They differ over its meaning, it is either the name of a location or a mountain where Abū Hurairah’s tribe is from, as some say, or it is an insult relating to the rustling of leaves of a lote-tree.

I asked him to give me a share from the spoils. A son of Sa‘eed bin Al-‘Āṣ spoke and said: ‘Do not give him a share O Messenger of Allāh!’ I said: ‘This is the murderer of Ibn Qawqal.’ Sa‘eed bin Al-‘Āṣ said: ‘Wonderful O Wabr, you have come down to us from the peak of Ḍāl, blaming me for killing a Muslim man whom Allāh, the Exalted, honored with (martyrdom) at my hands, and did not disgrace me by his hands.’” (Ṣaḥīh) (Abū Dāwud said: They were about ten persons, six of them were killed and the rest of them came back).

Nu‘mān bin Qawqal of the Anṣār, was a Companion of the Prophet ﷺ. He was killed at the hands of Abān bin Sa‘eed who only embraced Islam after the treaty of Al-Ḥudaibiyyah, and the battle of Khaibar took place after Al-Ḥudaibiyyah.

2725. It was reported from Abū Mūsā, who said: “We arrived just at the time when the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ had captured Khaibar. He gave us a share,” or he said: “he gave us something from it, and he did not allot anybody any share if

Comments:

On the occasion of the Battle of Badr, Ruqayyah, the daughter of the Prophet ﷺ who was the wife of ‘Uthmān, may Allāh be pleased with them both, was critically ill, and the Prophet ﷺ had detailed him to attend to Ruqayyah. The incident proves that if a person is prevented from participating in a battle due to some duty assigned to him, he shall also be granted his share of the spoils.

2729. It was reported from Ḥaṣhraj bin Ziyād, from his grandmother — his father's mother — that she went out along with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ for the Battle of Khaibar. She was one of the six women. (She said): “When the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ found out about it he sent for us, so we came to him and saw him angry. He said: ‘Whom did you come out with, and with whose permission did you come out?’ We said: ‘O Messenger of Allāh! We came out to spin the hair^[1] and support with it in the cause of Allāh, we have remedies for the injured ones, we hand over arrows and supply Sawiq to drink.’ He said: ‘Then continue.’ When Allāh granted him victory over Khaibar he gave us a share from the spoils as he gave to the men.” He (Ḥaṣhraj) said: “I said to her: ‘O grandmother! 2740. It was reported from Muṣ'ab bin Sa'd, from his father: "I came to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ on the Day of Badr with a sword and said: 'O Messenger of Allāh! Indeed Allāh has healed my breast from the enemy today, so grant me this sword.' He said: 'This sword is neither mine, nor yours.' So I went away saying: 'Today this sword will be given to somebody who has not been put to trial like me.' Meanwhile a messenger came to me, and said: 'Respond (to the call).' I thought something had been revealed about me because of my speech. When I came, the Prophet ﷺ said to me: 'You asked me for this sword. It is neither mine, nor yours. Now Allāh has given it to me, hence it is yours.' Then he recited: They ask you about the spoils of war. 2744. (Mālik and Laith) reported from Nāfi', from 'Abdullāh bin 'Umar, that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ sent a detachment towards Najd with 'Abdullāh bin 'Umar in it. They acquired a large number of camels in the spoils. Every one of them got twelve camels as their share, and they were each rewarded a Nafl of one additional camel.

2745. It was reported from ‘Ubaidullāh (who said): “Nāfi’ narrated to me, from ‘Abdullāh, who said: ‘The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ sent us in a detachment towards Najd. Our share of the spoils was twelve camels each, and the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ rewarded us with a Nafl of one additional camel each.’” (Sahih)

Abū Dāwud said: Burd bin Sinān reported it from Nāfi’, similar to the narration of ‘Ubaidullāh, and Ayyūb reported it from Nāfi’, similarly, except that he said: “And we were rewarded a Nafl of one camel each” without mentioning the Prophet ﷺ.

Comments:

The two apparently conflicting version may be reconciled if we conclude that whatever reward the commander gave, the Prophet ﷺ confirmed it. It is because of this ratification by him that the bestowal has been directly attributed to him.

2746. It was reported from Al-Laith from ‘Aqil, from Ibn Shihāb, from Sālim, from ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar, that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ used to give a specific Nafl to some of the detachments which he sent out, other than the general share of the whole army. And the Khumus was required from all of that. (Sahih)

Chapter 147. The Spoils Acquired By A Detachment Should Be Divided Among The Whole Army

2751. It was reported from ‘Amr bin Shua‘ib, from his father, from his grandfather who said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: ‘All the Muslims are equal in respect of blood. The protection given even by the least among them is to be honored, and reaches to the furthest of them. They should be united as one over their enemies. Those who have fleet-footed mounts should share their spoils with those who have slow mounts and those who go in a detachment should share the spoils with those who were stationed (as reinforcement). A believer is not killed (in retaliation) for a disbeliever, nor a one who has a covenant during the covenant.’”

Ibn Ishāq (one of the narrators) did not mention retaliation and equality in respect of blood. (Hasan)

2752. It was reported from Iyās bin Salamah, from his father: “‘Abdur-Rahmān bin ‘Uyainah raided the camels of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, killed their herdsman and drove them away with some people who were with him on their horses. I turned my face towards Al-Madīnah and shouted three times: ‘A morning raid! Then I started to

Whenever a horseman returned towards me, I sat at the foot of a tree, until there was no mounting animals created by Allāh for the Prophet ﷺ but I kept it behind my back (i.e., I got them all back). They (the enemies) threw away more than thirty lances and thirty cloaks to lighten their load. Then reinforcements from 'Uyainah came for them. They said: 'A few of you should go to him.' Four of them stood and came towards me, and they climbed the mountain. When I could make them hear me, I said: 'Do you people know me?' They said: 'And who you are?' I said: 'I am son of Al-Akwa!' By Him Who blessed the face of Muḥammad! Any one of you who seek me, will not be able to get me, and whomever I seek, he will not get away.' While I was still there, I saw the horsemen of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ coming through the trees. The first among them was Al-Akhram Al-Asādī. He caught up with 'Abdur-Raḥmān bin 'Uyainah and 'Abdur-Raḥmān turned towards him. They attacked each other with lances. Al-Akhram hamstrung the horse of 'Abdur-Raḥmān and 'Abdur-Raḥmān pierced a lance into his body and killed him. Then 'Abdur-Raḥmān turned to the horse of Al-Akhram. Abū Qatādah caught up with 'Abdur-Raḥmān and they attacked each other with their lances. He hamstrung the horse of

Comments:

Yā Ṣabāḥah, translated here as 'A morning raid!' is in fact a cry of alarm. It is normally called from a place of eminence to attract the attention of the populace.

Chapter 148. Regarding The Nafl Of Gold And Silver, And From The Spoils Gained In The Beginning (Of The Battle)

(المعجم ١٤٨) بَابُ: فِي النَّفْلِ مِنَ الذَّهَبِ وَالْفِضَّةِ وَمِنْ أَوَّلِ مَغْنَمٍ (التحفة ١٦٠)

2753. Abū Al-Juwaitriyah Al-Jarmī said: "I found a red container containing Dinārs in the territory of the Romans during the leadership of Mu'āwiyah. Our commander was a man from the Companions of the Prophet ﷺ from Banū Sulaim named Ma'as bin Yazīd. I brought it to him, and he distributed it among the Muslims (those who were in the battle) and gave me the same portion as he had given to each of them. Then he said: 'If I had not heard the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ saying: "There is no Nafl except after the Khumus" — I would have given to you. He then presented his own share to me but I refused." Chapter 149. Regarding The Imām Taking Something From The Faī' For Himself

2755. It was reported from 'Amr bin 'Abasah who said: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ led us in a prayer facing towards a camel belonging to the spoils. After he said the Taslīm, he took hold of some of the hair on the side of the camel and said: "The likes of this, from your spoils, is not lawful for me, except for the Khumus, and the Khumus is returned back to you."^[1] (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Chapter 150. Regarding Fulfilling The Covenant

2756. It was reported from Ibn 'Umar that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: "Indeed the treacherous person will have a banner planted for him on the Day of Judgment, and it will then be announced: "This is treachery of so-and-so, son of so-and-so."^[1] (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Comments:

It means the person concerned shall be humiliated in this way and it will be announced that what he is getting is the punishment for his treachery.

Chapter 151. Regarding The Imām Is The Shield Of The Covenant

(المعجم ١٥١) بَابُ: فِي الْإِمَامِ يُسْتَجَنُّ بِهِ فِي الْعُهُودِ (التحفة ١٦٣)

٢٧٥٧ - حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ الصَّبَّاحِ الْبَرَّازُ: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنُ أَبِي الزِّنَادِ عَنْ أَبِي الزِّنَادِ، عَنِ الْأَعْرَجِ، عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «إِنَّمَا الْإِمَامُ جُنَّةٌ يُقَاتَلُ بِهِ».

Comments:

It is, therefore, essential that all the people respect the treaties that the leader concluded with any disbelievers.

2758. It was reported from Bukair bin Al-Ashajj, from Al-Hasan bin ‘Alī bin Abī Rāfi‘, that Abī Rāfi‘ informed him, he said: “The Quraish sent me to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ. So when I saw the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, Islam radiated in my heart, so I said: ‘O Messenger of Allāh! By Allāh! I will not go back to them ever.’ The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: ‘I do not break a covenant, nor imprison a messenger, return back. If you still feel in yourself then what you feel now, then you can return.’” He said: ‘So I went, and then came back to the Prophet ﷺ and accepted Islam.” (Sahih)

٢٧٥٨ - حَدَّثَنَا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ صَالِحٍ: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ وَهَبٍ: أَخْبَرَنِي عَمْرُو عَنْ بُكَيْرِ ابْنِ الْأَشَجِّ، عَنِ الْحَسَنِ بْنِ عَلِيِّ بْنِ أَبِي رَافِعٍ أَنَّ أَبَا رَافِعٍ أَخْبَرَهُ قَالَ: بَعَثَنِي قُرَيْشٌ إِلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ فَلَمَّا رَأَيْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ أُلْقِيَ فِي قَلْبِي الْإِسْلَامَ فَقُلْتُ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ! إِنِّي وَاللَّهِ! لَا أَرْجِعُ إِلَيْهِمْ أَبَدًا، فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «إِنِّي لَا أَحْبِسُ بِالْعَهْدِ وَلَا أَحْبِسُ الْبُرْدَ وَلَكِنْ أَرْجِعُ فَإِنْ كَانَ فِي نَفْسِكَ الَّذِي فِي نَفْسِكَ الْآنَ فَارْجِعْ». قَالَ: فَذَهَبْتُ ثُمَّ آتَيْتُ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ فَأَسْلَمْتُ. قَالَ بُكَيْرٌ: وَأَخْبَرَنِي أَنَّ أَبَا رَافِعٍ كَانَ قِطِيًّا.

Bukair said: “And he informed me that Abū Rāfi‘ was a Coptic.”

قَالَ أَبُو دَاوُدَ: هَذَا كَانَ فِي ذَلِكَ الزَّمَانِ، وَالْيَوْمَ لَا يَصْلُحُ.

Abū Dāwud said: That was during that time, but today there is no benefit in it.

تخريج: [إسناده صحيح] أخرجه النسائي في الكبرى، ح: ٨٦٧٤ من حديث عبدالله بن وهب به، وصححه ابن حبان (موارد): ١٦٣٠.

Comments:

Regarding the author's statement "That was during that time" — it is not clear which part of the narration he intends, it is said that it means that he only sent him back because of a treaty, but the general rule is not to do so now.

Chapter 152. Regarding There Being A Covenant Between The Imām And The Enemy, And He Advances Towards Them (To Attack)

2759. It was reported from Shu'bah, from Abū Al-Faiḍ, from Sulaim bin 'Āmir — a man from Himyar — who said: "There was a covenant between Mu'āwiyah and the Romans. He started to proceed towards their country, so that when the covenant came to an end, he would attack them. A man came on a horse, or a Turkish horse. saying: 'Allāhu Akbaru, Allāhu Akbar. Fulfill (the covenant) and do not be treacherous.' When they looked towards him, they saw he was 'Amr bin 'Abasah. Mu'āwiyah sent for him and questioned him. He said: 'I heard the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ saying: "Anyone who has a covenant with people, he is not to strengthen it nor loosen it, until the covenant has expired, or both parties bring it to an end." So Mu'āwiyah returned. (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Chapter 154. Regarding Sending Messengers

2761. It was reported from Salamah, meaning Ibn Al-Faḍl, from Muḥammad bin Ishāq, who said: “Musailimah wrote to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ.” He said: “And Muḥammad bin Ishāq narrated to me, from a Shaikh, from Ashja’ named Sa’d bin Ṭāriq, from Salamah bin Nu’aim bin Mas’ūd Al-Ashja’i, from his father, Nu’aim, who said: ‘I heard the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ say to the two of them (the messengers) after he was read the letter from Musailimah: “What do you to believe (in)?” They said: “We believe as he believes.” He said: “By Allāh! If it wasn’t that the messengers are not to be killed, I would have cut off their heads.”’ (Hasan)

Comments:

Islam forbids the killing of an envoy or messenger sent by his leader even if he speaks words of disbelief before the Muslim ruler.

2762. It was reported from Hārithah bin Muḍarrib that he came to ‘Abdullāh, and said: “There is no hatred between myself and any of the Arabs. I passed by a Masjid of Banū Hanifah, and found them believing in Musailimah (as a Prophet).” ‘Abdullāh sent for them. They were brought to him. He advised them to repent, which they did, except for Ibn An-Nawwāḥah. He said to him: “I heard the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ say: ‘If it wasn’t that you are a messenger I would have cut off your neck’ and you are not a messenger today. He ordered Qarazah bin Ka’b to cut off his head at the market. Then he said: ‘Whoever wants to see Ibn An-Nawwāḥah, (he can go and see him) killed in the market.’” (Da’iṭ)

A protection granted by the least of Muslims to a non-believer becomes binding on all Muslims.

Chapter 156. Regarding Treaties With The Enemy

(المعجم ١٥٦) بَابُ: فِي صَلْحِ الْعَدُوِّ
(التحفة ١٦٨)

2765. Al-Miswar bin Makḥramah said: The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ went out during the Year of Al-Ḥudaiyyah with more than ten hundred of his Companions. When they arrived at Dhul-Ḥulaifah, he garlanded and marked the sacrificial animals and entered Ihrām for 'Umrah.' He (the narrator) then cited the Ḥadīth. "The Prophet ﷺ continued on his journey until he arrived to the mountain pass from where one descends them (in Makkah), where his mount knelt down. People said: 'Go on, go on! Al-Qaṣwā has become obstinate!' — twice — the Prophet ﷺ said: 'She has not become obstinate, and it is not her character, but she has been restrained by the One who restrained the elephant.' Then he said: 'By Him in whose Hand is my soul! Anything they ask me today, by which they honor what Allāh has made sacred, I would grant it to them.' Then he rebuked her and she leapt up. He turned aside from them until he came to the farthest side of Al-Hudaibiyah to a pool with little bit of water. Budail bin Warqā' Al-Khuzā'i came to him, and then 'Urwah bin Mas'ūd joined him. He started to speak to the Prophet ﷺ. Whenever he spoke a word to him, he took hold of his beard while Al-Mughīrah bin Shu'bah was standing guard for the Prophet ﷺ with a sword, wearing a helmet. He hit his ('Urwah's) hand with the lower end of his sheath and said: 'Take your hands off of his beard.' 'Urwah raised his head and said: 'Who is this?' They replied: 'Al-Mughīrah bin Shu'bah.' He said: 'O treacherous one! Did I not endeavour to distinguish the evil of your treachery?' — During Jāhiliyyah Al-Mughīrah accompanied some people, murdered them, took their wealth and then he came and accepted Islam. The Prophet ﷺ said: 'As for your Islam we have accepted it, but in regard to the property, it is wealth of treachery, we have no need of it.'" He mentioned the Hadūth. — "So the Prophet ﷺ said: 'Write down: This is what

Chapter 157. To Attack The Enemy By Surprise And To Imitate Them

2768. It was reported from Jābir who said: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: 'Who will kill Ka'b bin Al-Ashraf, for he has insulted Allāh and His Messenger.' Muḥammad bin Maslamah stood up and said: 'I will, O Messenger of Allāh! Would you like me to kill him?' He said: 'Yes.' He said: 'Will you permit me to say something (against you)?' He said: 'Yes, say it.' He then came to him (Ka'b) and said: 'This man (Muḥammad ﷺ) has asked us to give charity and has put us through difficulties. He (Ka'b) said: 'And he is going to cause more grief for you.' He (Muḥammad bin Maslamah) said: 'As we have already followed him, we do not like to desert him as yet, until we see where his matter ends up. We wish if you could lend us a Wasq or two.' Ka'b bin Ashraf was from the Jewish tribe of Banū Naḍīr. He was a poet, and an extremely rich man. He rabidly hated the Muslims and exhorted the people to rise against the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, and he slandered the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ. He committed a breach of treaty and, rather than join the Muslims in their defense against the disbelievers, he went all the way to Makkah and tried to persuade the polytheists to wage a war against the Muslims.

Chapter 158. Regarding Saying “Allāhu Akbar” When Reaching Every High Ground During A Journey

(المعجم ١٥٨) بَابُ: فِي التَّكْبِيرِ عَلَى كُلِّ شَرَفٍ فِي الْمَسِيرِ (التحفة ١٧٠)

2770. It was reported from Nāfi', from 'Abdullāh bin 'Umar who said: “Whenever the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ would return from a battle, or Hajj, or 'Umrah he would say ‘Allāhu Akbar’ on every high ground. And he would say: *Lā ilāha illallāh, waḥdahū lā sharika lahu, lahu-l-mulku wa lahu-l-ḥamdu, wa huwa 'alā kulli shai'in qadīr. Ā'ibūna tā'ibūna 'ābidūna sājidūna lirabbina ḥāmidūn. Chapter 159. Regarding The Permission For Returning From The Battle After It Had Been Prohibited

2771. It was reported from Ibn ‘Abbās, who said: “The Verse those who believe in Allāh and the Last Day would not ask your leave...”^[2] was abrogated by the Verse in (Sūrah) An-Nūr: ‘The believers are only those, who believe in Allāh and His Messenger...’ up to His saying: ‘Oft-forgiving, Most Merciful.’^[3] (Hasan)

Chapter 160. On Sending A Person Carrying Good News

2772. It was reported from Jarīr who said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said to me: ‘Will you not relieve me of Dhul-Khalaṣah?’” So he went to it, and burnt it down, then he sent a man from Aḥmas whose Kunyaḥ was Abū Arṭāh to the Prophet ﷺ to give him the good news. (Ṣaḥīḥ)

(المعجم ١٦٠) بَابُ: فِي بَعَثَةِ الْبُشْرَاءِ (التحفة ١٧٢)

٢٧٧٢ - حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو تَوْبَةَ الرَّبِيعُ بْنُ نَافِعٍ: حَدَّثَنَا عَيْسَى عَنْ إِسْمَاعِيلَ، عَنْ قَيْسٍ، عَنْ جَرِيرٍ قَالَ: قَالَ لِي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «أَلَا تُرِيحُنِي مِنْ ذِي الْخَلَصَةِ؟» فَأَتَاهَا فَحَرَقَهَا ثُمَّ بَعَثَ رَجُلًا مِنْ أَحْمَسَ إِلَى النَّبِيِّ ﷺ يُبَشِّرُهُ بِكُنَى أَبِي أَرْطَاةَ.

Comments:

Banū Khath'am had built a temple for themselves which they called Al-Ka'bah Al-Yamāniyyah. The house itself was named Khalaṣah and the idol as Dhūl-Khalaṣah. When Jarīr embraced Islam after the Conquest of Makkah, he fulfilled this mission.

Chapter 161. Regarding Giving A Present To The One Who Delivers Good News

2773. 'Abdullāh bin Ka'b said: "I heard Ka'b bin Mālik saying: 'Whenever the Prophet ﷺ arrived from a journey he would start with the Masjid; he would pray two Rak'ahs, and then sit to receive people.'" (The narrator) Ibn As-Sarḥ then narrated rest of the Hadith. — "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ forbade the Muslims from talking to the three of us. After substantial time elapsed I ascended the wall of Abū Qatādah — who was my paternal cousin, and gave him Salām. By Allāh! He did not return my Salām. When I performed the Subḥ prayer on the morning of the fiftieth night on the roof of one of our houses, I heard a caller saying: 'O Ka'b bin Mālik! Receive the good news!' When the man whose voice I heard with the good news came to me, I took off my garments and clothed him with them, then I went on until I entered the Majid and saw the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ sitting. Ṭalḥah bin 'Ubaidullāh stood up and came hastily towards me,

Comments:

The reference is to the incident relating to Ka'b bin Mālik, may Allāh be pleased with him, during the military campaign of Tabūk, which took place after the Conquest of Makkah when he was ostracized from the society at the behest of the Prophet ﷺ.

Chapter 162. Regarding Prostration Out Of Gratitude

2774. It was reported from Abū Bakrah who said: “Whenever any good news or a glad tidings was told to the Prophet ﷺ, he would prostrate, in gratitude to Allāh.” (Ḥasan)

2782. It was reported from Nāfi‘, from Ibn ‘Umar who said: “When the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ returned back from his Hajj, he entered Al-Madīnah, and made his camel kneel down at the gate of his Masjid, then he entered it and prayed two Rak’ahs in it, then he returned to his home.” Nāfi‘ said: “Ibn ‘Umar also used to do that.” (Ḥasan)

Comments:

It is among the desirable acts that, on return from a journey, he first goes to Masjid and performs two Rak’ahs and then enters his house.

Chapter 167. Regarding Wages For The One Who Distributes The Spoils

2783. It was reported from Abū Sa‘eed Al-Khudrī that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “Beware of the wages of the Chapter 168. Engaging In Trade During Battle

2785. ‘Ubaidullāh bin Salmān reported from a man among the Companions of the Prophet ﷺ: “When we conquered Khaibar, they took out their share of the spoils from the goods and the captives. The people started trading; buying and selling their spoils. A man from them came to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ after he had prayed, and said: ‘O Messenger of Allāh! I have gained so much today, nobody in this valley has gained such.’ He said: ‘Woe to you! How much did you gain?’ He said: ‘I kept on selling and buying until I gained three

Comments:

The author's purpose in quoting the Hadīth is to prove the fact that it is allowed to give some weapon etc., to a non-Muslim knowing that he would take it to the territory of disbelievers. It may be noted here that Dhul-Jawshan was a disbeliever at that time.

[1] Ghurrah is used for slave, and sometimes for a horse, or mule or some animal in general.

Chapter 170. Regarding Residing In The Land Of Shirk

16. The Book Of Sacrifices

(المعجم ١٦) - أَوَّلُ كِتَابِ الضَّحَايَا

(التحفة ١٠)

Comments:

Dahāyā is the plural of Ḍahīyyah, Aḍāhī is the plural of Uḍhīyyah and Adhā is the plural of Adhāt. They all refer to the animal sacrificed on the 10th of Dhul-Hijjah, or after that during the days of Tashrīq (the three days after 'Eid Al-Adhā; the 11th, 12th & 13th of Dhul-Hijjah) as part of the 'Eid celebration with the intention of seeking the pleasure and drawing nearer to Allāh.

Chapter 1. What Has Been Reported Regarding The Obligation Of The Sacrifices

(المعجم ١) - بَابُ مَا جَاءَ فِي إِيْجَابِ

الْأَضَاحِي (التحفة ١)

2788. Mikhnaf bin Sulaim said: "While we were standing with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ at 'Arafāt he said: 'O people! It is obligatory on each family to offer every year an Uḍhīyah (sacrifice) and an 'Atīrah. Do you know what Al-'Atīrah is? It is what people call Ar-Rajabīyyah.'" (Da'if)

Abū Dāwud said: Al-'Atīrah was abrogated. This narration is abrogated.

٢٧٨٨ - حَدَّثَنَا مُسَدَّدٌ: حَدَّثَنَا يَزِيدُ؛ ح:

وَحَدَّثَنَا حُمَيْدُ بْنُ مَسْعَدَةَ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا بِشْرٌ عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَوْنٍ، عَنْ غَامِرِ أَبِي رَمَلَةَ قَالَ: أَنْبَأَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ سُلَيْمٍ قَالَ: وَنَحْنُ وَفُوفٌ مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ بِعَرَافَاتٍ قَالَ: قَالَ: «يَا أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ! إِنَّ عَلَى كُلِّ أَهْلِ بَيْتٍ فِي كُلِّ عَامٍ أَضْحِيَّةً وَعَتِيرَةً، أَتَدْرُونَ مَا الْعَتِيرَةُ؟ هَذِهِ الَّتِي يَقُولُ النَّاسُ الرَّجَبِيَّةُ».

قَالَ أَبُو دَاوُدَ: الْعَتِيرَةُ مَنْسُوحَةٌ، هَذَا خَبْرٌ مَنْسُوحٌ.

تخريج: [إسناده ضعيف] أخرجه الترمذي، الأضحى، باب الأضحية في كل عام، ح: ١٥١٨ والنسائي، ح: ٤٢٢٩ وابن ماجه، ح: ٣١٢٥ من حديث عبدالله بن عون به وقال الترمذي: "حسن غريب" وللحديث شواهد عند النسائي، ح: ٤٢٣٠ وغيره * أبو رملة مجهول الحال جهله ابن القطان وغيره، والحديث: ٢٨٣٠ يغني عنه.

Comments:

As for 'Atīrah, see no. 2830-2833; this Hadīth is among those used by those who hold the view that Uḍhīyyah is obligatory.

2789. 'Abdullāh bin 'Amr bin Al-'Āṣ narrated that the Prophet ﷺ said: "I have been commanded to take the Day of Adhā as 'Eid,

٢٧٨٩ - حَدَّثَنَا هَارُونُ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ قَالَ:

Chapter 1,2. Sacrificing On Behalf Of A Deceased Person

(المعجم ١، ٢) - بَابُ الْأَضْحِيَّةِ عَنِ الْمَيِّتِ (التحفة ٢)

2790. It was reported from Hanash, that he said: “I saw ‘Ali, may Allāh be pleased with him, sacrificing two rams, so I said to him: ‘What is this?’ He replied: ‘The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ entrusted me to sacrifice on his behalf, so I am sacrificing on his behalf.’” (Da'if)

٢٧٩٠ - حَدَّثَنَا عُثْمَانُ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا شَرِيكٌ عَنْ أَبِي الْحَسَنِ، عَنْ الْحَكَمِ، عَنْ حَنْشٍ قَالَ: رَأَيْتُ عَلِيًّا رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ يُضْحِي بِكَبْشَيْنِ فَقُلْتُ لَهُ: مَا هَذَا؟ فَقَالَ: إِنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ أَوْصَانِي أَنْ أُضْحِيَ عَنْهُ فَأَنَا أُضْحِي عَنْهُ.

[1] A sheep or camel which was lent for a period of time to be used for its milk or wool.

Chapter 2,3. A Man Clipping His Hair During The (First) Ten Days Of (Dhul-Hijjah), While He Intends To Sacrifice

2791. It was reported from ‘Amr bin Muslim Al-Laithī: “I heard Sa‘eed bin Al-Musayyab saying: ‘I heard Umm Salamah saying: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: ‘If anyone has an animal for slaughter (as sacrifice), then when the crescent of Dhul-Hijjah is sighted, then he is not to take (cut) from his hair nor his nails until he has sacrificed.”’ (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Abū Dāwud said: Those who reported it from Mālik and Muḥammad bin ‘Amr differed over (the name of) ‘Amr bin Muslim. Some of them said: ‘Umar, and most of them said ‘Amr.

Abū Dāwud said: He is ‘Amr bin Muslim bin Ukaimah Al-Laithī Al-Jundaī.

تخريج: أخرجه مسلم، الأضحى، باب نهي من دخل عليه عشر ذي الحجة ... إلخ، ح: ١٩٧٧ عن عبيد الله بن معاذ به.

Comments:

Anyone who intends to offer a sacrifice, he must refrain from trimming his hair and clipping his nails during the first ten days of Dhul-Hijjah, until after they have performed the sacrifice.

Chapter 3,4. What Is Recommended Regarding Sacrifices

2792. It was reported from ‘Aishah, that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ ordered for a horned ram with black on its legs, black around its eyes and black on its underside, and it was brought forward for him

(المعجم ٢، ٣) - بَابُ الرَّجُلِ يَأْخُذُ مِنْ شَعْرِهِ فِي الْعَشْرِ وَهُوَ يُرِيدُ أَنْ يُضْحِيَ (التحفة ٣)

قَالَ أَبُو دَاوُدَ: اخْتَلَفُوا عَلَى مَالِكٍ وَعَلَى مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو فِي عَمْرٍو بْنِ مُسْلِمٍ، فَقَالَ بَعْضُهُمْ: عَمْرٌو، وَأَكْثَرُهُمْ قَالَ: عَمْرٌو.

(المعجم ٣، ٤) - بَابُ مَا يُسْتَحَبُّ مِنَ الضَّحَايَا (التحفة ٤)

٢٧٩٢ - حَدَّثَنَا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ صَالِحٍ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ وَهْبٍ قَالَ: أَخْبَرَنِي حَيْوَةُ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنِي أَبُو صَخْرٍ عَنْ ابْنِ قُسَيْطٍ، عَنْ عُرْوَةَ بْنِ الزُّبَيْرِ، عَنْ عَائِشَةَ: أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ to sacrifice it. He said: "O 'Āishah! Get me a knife." Then he said: "Sharpen it with a stone." So she did it. He took the knife and the ram, and placed it on the ground to slaughter it, and said: "In the Name of Allāh. O Allāh! Accept it for Muḥammad, Muḥammad's family, and for the Ummah of Muḥammad." Then he sacrificed it. (Sahīh) تخريج: أخرجه مسلم، الأضاحي، باب استحباب استحسان الضحية وذبحها مباشرة... إلخ، ح: ١٩٦٧ من حديث ابن وهب به.

Comments:

1. The sacrificial animal, in order to be a good offering, must be able-bodied and good looking.
2. The blade used must be sufficiently sharp.
3. Offering sacrifices on behalf of the entire Ummah was exclusive for the Prophet ﷺ. As for others of the community, they should offer sacrifices on their own behalf as well on behalf of their family members.

2793. It was reported from Abū Qilābah, from Anas that the Prophet ﷺ performed Nāhr (sacrificed) seven camels that were standing, with his own hands, and Uḍḥiyyah (sacrificed) in Al-Madīnah two horned, white rams, with black markings. (Sahīh)

تخريج: وأخرجه البخاري، الحج، باب من نحر هديه بيده، ح: ١٧١٢ من حديث وهيب به وانظر، ح: ١٧٩٦.

Comments:

1. As is well-known, the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ led an austere life, and was wont to giving away anything and everything he had in charity. Still, he never failed to offer the stipulated sacrifice.
2. The camel is slaughtered in a particular way known as Nāhr, which means using a spear to cut in the hollow of its throat near the breastbone, this process may also be used for other large and dangerous animals like the cow for example.
3. The camel is slaughtered while it is in the standing position, with its left leg fettered in such a way as to prevent it from moving.

2794. It was reported from Qatādah, from Anas that the Prophet ﷺ performed Udhiyyah (sacrificed) two horned, white rams, with black markings. He slaughtered them while saying the Takbīr, and mentioning the Name of Allāh, and he put his foot on their sides. (Ṣaḥīh)

السؤال بأسماء الله تعالى والاستعاذة بها،

2795. It was reported from Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh who said: “On the Day of Slaughter, the Prophet ﷺ slaughtered two horned, castrated, white rams, with black markings. When he made them face the Qiblah, he said: ‘I have turned my face towards He Who created the heavens and the earth, upon the Millat (religion) of Ibrāhīm, Ḥanīfan (staying away from Shirk), and I am not from the idolaters. Indeed, my Ṣalāt, my sacrifice, my life and my death all are for Allāh, the Lord of the Universe, Who has no partner. That is what I have been commanded, and I am one of the Muslims.^[1] O Allāh it is from You, and is for You, on behalf of Muḥammad and his Ummah. In the Name of Allāh, the Most Great.’ He then slaughtered it.” (Ḥasan)

Chapter 4,5. What Is Allowed Regarding Age For The Udhiyyah (Sacrifice)

(المعجم ٤، ٥) - بَابُ مَا يَجُوزُ فِي الضَّحَايَا مِنَ السِّنِّ (التحفة ٥)

2797. It was reported from Abū Az-Zubair, from Jābir who said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: ‘Do not slaughter but a Musinnah, unless it is difficult for you, in which case you can slaughter a Jadh‘ah lamb.’” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Comments:

Musinnah, in reference to cows, is the one that has lived for more than two years, entering into its third, in the case of sheep, it is the one that has completed one year, and entered into its second. Jadh‘ah is the animal that does not have any teeth growing in place of earlier teeth. For goats it refers to one that has lived for one year. For sheep it is between six months and one year, and there are different views about that from the scholars.

2798. It was reported from Zaid bin Khālid Al-Juhānī, he said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ divided some sacrificial animals among his Companions. He gave me a Jadh‘ah goat.” He (Zaid) said: “I went back with it to him, and said: ‘It is only a Jadh‘ah.’” He replied:

2808. It was reported from Qais, from 'Aṭā', from Jābir bin 'Abdullāh, that the Prophet ﷺ said: "A cow suffices for seven, and a camel suffices for seven." (Sahih)

٢٨٠٨ - حَدَّثَنَا مُوسَى بْنُ إِسْمَاعِيلَ قَالَ: أَخْبَرَنَا حَمَّادٌ عَنْ قَيْسٍ، عَنْ عَطَاءٍ، عَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ قَالَ: «الْبَقْرَةُ عَنْ سَبْعَةٍ وَالْجَزُورُ عَنْ سَبْعَةٍ».

2809. It was reported from Abū Az-Zubair Al-Makkī, from Jābir bin 'Abdullāh, who said: "We performed the Naḥr along with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ at Al-Ḥudaibiyah: A camel for seven people, and a cow for seven people." (Sahih)

٢٨٠٩ - حَدَّثَنَا الْقَعْنَبِيُّ عَنْ مَالِكٍ، عَنْ أَبِي الزُّبَيْرِ الْمَكِّيِّ، عَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ أَنَّهُ قَالَ: نَحَرْنَا مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ بِالْحُدَيْبِيَّةِ الْبَدَنَةَ عَنْ سَبْعَةٍ وَالْبَقْرَةَ عَنْ سَبْعَةٍ.

Comments:

1. The Ḥadīth confirms that slaughtering the cow, the ox, the camel and the she-camel for sacrifice is proven from the Sunnah of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ.
2. As for the cow as a sacrifice, seven people can share it for a Hadī and Uḍḥiyah. As for the camel, however, seven people can share it for a Hadī, and ten can share it for Uḍḥiyah as proven from other narrations. See no. 1501 of Jāmi' At-Tirmidhī.

Chapter 7,8. A Sheep Sacrificed For A Group Of People

2810. It was reported from Al-Muṭṭalib, from Jābir bin 'Abdullāh who said: "I attended the Uḍḥiyah with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ at the Muṣalla. When he finished his Khuṭbah, he descended from his

Comments:

The fact that one goat suffices for all the members of a family is authentically proven, but it being 'on behalf of others' as well, is exclusive to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ.

Chapter 8,9. The Imām Slaughtering At The Muṣalla

(المعجم ٨، ٩) - بَابُ الْإِمَامِ يَذْبِحُ بِالْمُصَلَّى (التحفة ٩)

2811. It was reported from Nāfi', from Ibn 'Umar that the Prophet ﷺ used to slaughter his sacrifice at the Muṣalla, and Ibn 'Umar would do the same. (Sahih)

٢٨١١ - حَدَّثَنَا عُثْمَانُ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ أَنَّ أَبَا أُسَامَةَ حَدَّثَهُمْ عَنْ أُسَامَةَ، عَنْ نَافِعٍ، عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ: أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ كَانَ يَذْبِحُ أَضْحِيَّتَهُ بِالْمُصَلَّى، وَكَانَ ابْنُ عُمَرَ يَفْعَلُهُ.

Comments:

It is desirable to offer his sacrifice at the Muṣalla, but valid if performed at another location.

Chapter 9,10. Storing The Meat Of The Sacrifice

(المعجم ٩، ١٠) - بَابُ حَبْسِ لُحُومِ الْأَضَاحِي (التحفة ١٠)

2812. It was reported from 'Aishah who said: "A delegation of Bedouins attended Al-Adhā during the time of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: 'Store three days (worth of meat), and give what remains in charity.'" She said: "After that, the people said to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ: 'O Messenger of Allāh! People used to use their sacrifices, melting the fat from them, and making water skins.' The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: 'And what is the problem?' — or as he said — they replied: 'O Messenger of Allāh! You have prohibited us from keeping the meat of the Udhiyah for more than three days.' The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: 'I only prohibited you (from that) due to the delegation that came to you; so eat, give in charity and store.'" (Sahih)

2813. It was reported from Nubaishah who said: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: 'I only prohibited you from eating its meat beyond three days so that everybody could get a share of it. As Allāh has blessed us with plenty now; then eat, store, and seek rewards (by giving in charity). Indeed, these days are days of eating, drinking and remembrance of Allāh, the Mighty and Sublime.'" Comments:

The inference that we get from the Hadith is that where the poor and the needy are in large numbers, one should not store more than three days worth of meat, but rather distribute what is beyond that among the population. If, however, the situation is reverse, one may keep more than three days worth of the meat.

ﷺ: «ادَّخِرُوا لِثَلَاثٍ وَتَصَدَّقُوا بِمَا بَقِيَ»، قَالَتْ: فَلَمَّا كَانَ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ قِيلَ لِرَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ! لَقَدْ كَانَ النَّاسُ يَتَّعُونَ مِنْ ضَحَايَاهُمْ وَيَجْمَلُونَ مِنْهَا الْوَدَكَ وَيَتَّخِذُونَ مِنْهَا الْأَسْقِيَةَ، فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «وَمَا ذَاكَ» - أَوْ كَمَا قَالَ - قَالُوا: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ! نَهَيْتَ عَنْ إِمْسَاكِ لُحُومِ الضَّحَايَا بَعْدَ ثَلَاثٍ، فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «إِنَّمَا نَهَيْتُكُمْ مِنْ أَجْلِ الدَّائِقَةِ الَّتِي دَفَّتْ عَلَيْكُمْ، فَكُلُوا وَتَصَدَّقُوا وَادَّخِرُوا».

Chapter 10,11. Regarding The Prohibition Of The Animals Being Confined (To Be Shot At), And, Being Gentle With The Animal To Be Slaughtered

(المعجم ١٠، ١١) بَابُ: فِي النَّهْيِ أَنْ
تُصَبَّرَ الْبَهَائِمُ وَالرَّفْقِ بِالذَّبِيحَةِ
(التحفة ١١)

2814. It was reported from Shaddād bin Aws who said: “There are two things I heard from the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ: ‘Indeed Allāh has ordained Ihsān (beneficence) in everything; so when you kill, then do it in the best manner.’” — Other narrators aside from Muslim said: “So kill in a good manner,” — “and when you slaughter, then do it in the best manner, and let one of you sharpen his knife and provide comfort to the animal.” (Sahih)

٢٨١٤ - حَدَّثَنَا مُسْلِمٌ بْنُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ قَالَ:
حَدَّثَنَا شُعْبَةُ عَنْ خَالِدِ الْحَدَّاءِ، عَنْ أَبِي
قَلَابَةَ، عَنْ أَبِي الْأَسْعَثِ، عَنْ شَدَّادِ بْنِ
أَوْسٍ قَالَ: خَصَلْتَانِ سَمِعْتُهُمَا مِنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ
ﷺ: «إِنَّ اللَّهَ كَتَبَ الْإِحْسَانَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ،
فَإِذَا قَتَلْتُمْ فَأَحْسِنُوا»، قَالَ غَيْرُ مُسْلِمٍ:
يَقُولُ: «فَأَحْسِنُوا الْقِتْلَةَ، وَإِذَا ذَبَحْتُمْ فَأَحْسِنُوا
الذَّبْحَ وَلْيُجِدَّ أَحَدُكُمْ شَفْرَتَهُ وَلْيُرِخْ ذَبِيحَتَهُ».

2815. It was reported from Hishām bin Zaid, who said: “I entered along with Anas upon Al-Hakam bin Ayyūb. He saw some youths — or boys — who had confined a chicken which they were shooting at. Anas said: ‘The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ prohibited confining an animal (to shoot at it).’” (Sahih)

٢٨١٥ - حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو الْوَلِيدِ الطَّبَالِيُّ:
حَدَّثَنَا شُعْبَةُ عَنْ هِشَامِ بْنِ زَيْدٍ قَالَ: دَخَلْتُ

Comments:

It means that it is unlawful to use an animal as target practice, by confining it or fettering it, and shooting at it.

Chapter 11,12. Regarding A Traveler Slaughtering

2816. It was reported from Thawbān who said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ sacrificed, and then said: ‘O Thawbān! Prepare the meat of this sheep for us.’” He said: “I then kept on feeding him from it, until we reached Al-Madīnah.” (Saḥīh)

Chapter 12,13. Regarding the Animals Slaughtered By The People of Book

2817. It was reported from Yazīd An-Nahwī, from ‘Ikrimah, from Ibn ‘Abbās, who said: The Verse “So eat of that upon which Allāh’s Name has been mentioned”^[1] and the Verse “Eat not of that upon which Allāh’s Name has not been mentioned”^[2] were abrogated, and an exception was granted for that, so He said: The food of the people of the Book is lawful to you, and yours is lawful to them.”^[3] (Hasan)

(المعجم ١٤، ١٥) - بَابُ الذَّبِيحَةِ بِالْمَرْوَةِ (التحفة ١٥)

2821. It was reported from Rāfi‘ bin Khadīj who said: “I came to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and said: ‘O Messenger of Allāh! We shall be meeting the enemy tomorrow, and we have no knives. Can we slaughter with Marwah and with a splinter of a staff?’ The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: ‘Make the slaughtering quick, (using) whatever makes the blood flow, and (when) Allāh’s Name has been mentioned, then eat from it, except for the tooth and nail. One of the camels of the people ran away, and they had no horses with them at the time. A man shot an arrow at it, and Allāh prevented it from escaping. Comments:

It is allowed to slaughter an animal with any blade, be it made of flint, marble, etc., as well as a stake or other than that which will make the blood flow. Slaughtering with teeth, bones and fingernails is, however, prohibited since it is a practice of idolaters.

2822. It was reported from Ash-Sha'bi, from Muḥammad bin Ṣafwān — or Ṣafwān bin Muḥammad — who said: "I hunted two rabbits and slaughtered them with a Marwah, then I asked the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ about it. He told me to eat it." (Ḥasan)

٢٨٢٢ - حَدَّثَنَا مُسَدَّدٌ أَنَّ عَبْدَ الْوَاحِدِ بْنَ زِيَادٍ وَحَمَادًا الْمَعْنَى وَاجِدٌ حَدَّثَاهُمَا عَنْ عَاصِمٍ، عَنِ الشَّعْبِيِّ، عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ صَفْوَانَ - أَوْ صَفْوَانَ بْنِ مُحَمَّدٍ - قَالَ: اصْطَدْتُ أَرْتَبَيْنِ فَذَبَحْتُهُمَا بِمَرْوَةٍ فَسَأَلْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ عَنْهُمَا، فَأَمَرَنِي بِأَكْلِهِمَا.

Comments:

The hare is permissible to eat. In the absence of a knife, it is permitted to slaughter it with a sharp object.

2823. ‘Aṭā’ bin Yasār narrated from a man from Banū Ḥārithah; “While he was grazing a Liḡḡah in one of the mountain passes of Uḥūd, he saw that it was about to die. He could not find anything to slaughter the animal with. He took a stake and stabbed it in the upper part of the breast till the blood gushed out. Then he came to the Prophet ﷺ and informed him about it. He told him to eat it.” (Ṣaḥīḥ) تخريج: [إسناده صحيح] وأخرجه البيهقي: ٢٥٠/٩، ٢٨١ من حديث أبي داود به، ورواه أحمد: ٤٣٠/٥.

2824. It was reported from ‘Adī bin Ḥātim who said: “I said: ‘O Messenger of Allāh! What if one of us catches some game and he does not have a knife, can he slaughter it with a Marwah and a splinter of a staff?’ He said: ‘Cause the blood to flow with whatever you want, and mention the Name of Allāh.’” (Ḥasan)

Comments:

As proved from the previous Aḥādīth, it is not allowed in Islam to slaughter an animal with human teeth or fingernails. Barring these two methods, the animal slaughtered in Allāh’s Name with any sharp device would be legitimate and permitted to eat.

Chapter 15/16. Regarding Slaughtering The Mutaraddiyah^[1]

2825. It was reported from Abū

٢٨٢٤ - حَدَّثَنَا مُوسَى بْنُ إِسْمَاعِيلَ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا حَمَّادٌ عَنْ سِمَاكِ بْنِ حَرْبٍ، عَنْ مُرِّيِّ بْنِ قَطْرِيٍّ، عَنْ عَدِيِّ بْنِ حَاتِمٍ قَالَ: قُلْتُ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ! أَرَأَيْتَ إِنْ أَحَدُنَا أَصَابَ صَيْدًا وَلَيْسَ مَعَهُ سِكِّينٌ أَيْدُبِحُ بِالْمَرْوَةِ وَشِقَّةَ الْعَصَا؟ فَقَالَ: «أَمْرِرِ الدَّمَ بِمَا شِئْتِ وَأَذْكَرِ اسْمَ اللَّهِ».

٢٨٢٥ - حَدَّثَنَا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ يُونُسَ قَالَ:

[1] An animal that has fallen from a high place to a low place, and it is still alive, and it can not be removed, like in a well for example.

Al-'Ushrā' from his father, that he said: "O Messenger of Allāh! Is the slaughtering only done in the upper part of the chest or the throat?" The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ replied: "If you pierce its thigh it will be acceptable from you." (Da'if)

Abū Dāwud said: This is valid only for the Mutaraddiyah, or a wild animal.

حَدَّثَنَا حَمَادُ بْنُ سَلَمَةَ عَنْ أَبِي الْعَشْرَاءِ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ أَنَّهُ قَالَ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ! أَمَا تَكُونُ الذَّكَاءُ إِلَّا مِنَ اللَّيْبَةِ أَوْ الْحَلْقِ؟ قَالَ: فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «لَوْ طَعَنْتَ فِي فَخِذِهَا لَأَجْرًا عَنْكَ».

Chapter 16/17. Regarding Exaggeration When Slaughtering

2826. It was reported from 'Amr bin 'Abdullāh, from 'Ikrimah, from Ibn 'Abbās — Ibn 'Eisā (one of the narrators) added: and Abū Hurairah — who said: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ prohibited the Shaitān's skinning." Ibn 'Eisā added in his narration: "This refers to a slaughtered animal whose skin is cut off, without slitting its jugular veins, and then it is left to die." (Da'if)

Abū Dāwud said: They call this one 'Amr Barq. 'Ikrimah stayed with his father in Yemen. Whenever Ma'amar narrated anything from him he would say: "Amr bin 'Abdullāh," and when the people of Yemen narrated from him he would not be named.

Chapter 17/18. Regarding Slaughtering The Fetus

(المعجم ١٧، ١٨) - بَابُ مَا جَاءَ فِي ذَكَاةِ الْجَنِينِ (التحفة ١٨)

2827. It was reported from Abū Sa'eed, who said: "I asked the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ about the fetus. He replied: 'Eat it if you wish.'" — Musad-dad (one of the narrators) had it: "We said: 'O Messenger of Allāh ﷺ we perform Nahr (slaughter) a she-camel, a cow and a sheep, and we find a fetus in its womb. Do we throw it away or can we eat it?' He said: 'Eat it if you wish, for the slaughter of its mother serves as its slaughtering.'" (Ṣaḥīḥ)

٢٨٢٧ - حَدَّثَنَا الْقَعْنَبِيُّ قَالَ: أَخْبَرَنَا ابْنُ الْمُبَارَكِ؛ ح: وَحَدَّثَنَا مُسَدَّدٌ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا هُشَيْمٌ عَنْ مَجَالِيدٍ، عَنْ أَبِي الْوَدَّاعِ، عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ قَالَ: سَأَلْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ عَنِ الْجَنِينِ، فَقَالَ: «كُلُّوهُ إِنْ شِئْتُمْ»، وَقَالَ مُسَدَّدٌ قُلْنَا: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ! نَنَحْرُ النَّاقَةَ وَنَذْبِخُ الْبَقْرَةَ وَالشَّاةَ فَنَجِدُ فِي بَطْنِهَا الْجَنِينَ أَنْلَقِيهِ أَمْ نَأْكُلُهُ؟ قَالَ: «كُلُّوهُ إِنْ شِئْتُمْ فَإِنَّ ذَكَاتَهُ ذَكَاءُ أُمِّهِ».

2828. It was reported from Abū Az-Zubair, from Jābir bin 'Abdullāh, from the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, who said: "It is enough for the slaughtering of the fetus that its mother is slaughtered." (Ḥasan)

٢٨٢٨ - حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ يَحْيَى بْنِ فَارِسٍ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنِي إِسْحَاقُ بْنُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ بْنِ رَاهُوَيْهٍ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا عَتَّابُ بْنُ بَشِيرٍ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ أَبِي زِيَادٍ الْقَدَّاحُ الْمَكِّيُّ عَنْ أَبِي الزُّبَيْرِ، عَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ قَالَ: «ذَكَاءُ الْجَنِينِ ذَكَاءُ أُمِّهِ».

Comments:

If the calf is taken out alive, it would be necessary to slaughter it as well; otherwise being the part of the mother it would also be the part of the slaughter and hence permissible.

Chapter 18/19. What Has Been Reported About Eating Meat While Not Knowing Whether The Name Of Allāh Was Mentioned Upon It Or Not

2829. It was reported from Hishām bin ‘Urwah, from his father, from ‘Āishah, who said — and Hammād and Mālik (two of the narrators) did not mention: “from ‘Āishah” — that they (the people) said: “O Messenger of Allāh! There are people here who are recent converts from Jāhiliyyah, and they bring us meat. We do not know whether the Name of Allāh has been mentioned upon it or not, can we eat from it?” The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “Mention Allāh’s Name and eat it.” (Sahīh)

تخریج: [صحیح] أخرجه البيهقي: ٢٣٩/٩ من حديث أبي داود به ورواه البخاري، ح: ٢٠٥٧، ٥٥٠٧، ٧٣٩٨ من حديث هشام بن عروة به، وهو في الموطأ (يحيى): ٤٨٨/٢ مرسل.

Comments:

It is unlawful to deliberately omit pronouncing Allāh’s Name at the time of slaughter. To omit it through forgetfulness is, however, pardonable, and there should be no doubt about the legality and permissibility of such slaughter.

Chapter 19/20 Regarding Al-‘Atīrah

2830. It was reported from Nubaishah who said: “A man called out to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ: ‘We used to sacrifice the ‘Atīrah during Jāhiliyyah in the month of Rajab, so what do you order us about it?’ He said: ‘Sacrifice for the sake of Allāh in

Khālīd (one of the narrators) said: “I think he said: ‘(You may give it) to a wayfarer, as that is better.’” Khālīd said: “I said to Abū Qilābah: ‘How many is Sā’imah?’ He said: ‘One hundred.’” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

2833. It was reported from 'Aishah, who said: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ ordered us to sacrifice a sheep for every fifty sheep." (Hasan)

Abū Dāwud said: Some of them said that Fara' is the firstborn to the camel, which they used to sacrifice for their false deities, and then eat it, and its skin was thrown on a tree; and the 'Atīrah was (sacrificed) during the first ten days of Rajab.

Comments:

The popular view is that the Fara' and 'Atīrah were allowed, then later prohibited. It is reported from Imām Ash-Shāfi'ī, and some of the Salaf before him, that they considered it recommended or did it, and Shaikh Al-Albānī endorses its allowance in Irwā' Al-Ghālil (no. 1181) as did Imām Ash-Shawkānī in Nail Al-Awīār. Shaikh Al-Albānī said: "These Aḥādīth imply the allowance of Al-Fara', and it is to slaughter the firstborn (animal) for the sake of Allāh; and (they imply) the allowance of the slaughter in Rajab and other than it, without distinguishing and specifying Rajab over other months. There is no contradiction between that and the preceding Hadīth: 'There is no Fara' and no 'Atīrah' because in that, he ﷺ only invalidated the Fara' which the people of Jāhiliyyah performed for their idols, and the 'Atīrah which is the animal that they slaughtered specifically for Rajab. And Allāh knows best."

Chapter 20,21. The 'Aqīqah

(المعجم ٢٠، ٢١) بَابُ: فِي الْعَقِيقَةِ

(التحفة ٢١)

2834. It was reported from Habībah bint Maisarah, from Umm Kurz Al-Ka'biyyah who said: "I heard the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ saying: 'For a boy; two sheep that are Mukāfi'atān, and for a girl one sheep.'" (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Abū Dāwud said: I heard Aḥmad saying: “Mukāfi’atān means: Both equal or close (in age).”

Comments:

The animal slaughtered on behalf of a new baby is called ‘Aqīqah. Lexically, the word means: to cleave, to split. The term is also applied to the hair of the newborn, and it is for this reason that this particular slaughter is also known as ‘Aqīqah.

2835. It was reported from Sufyān, from ‘Ubaidullāh bin Abī Yazīd, from his father, from Sibā’ bin Thābit, from Umm Kurz, who said: “I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying: ‘Leave the bird in its perch.’”^[1] She said: “I also heard him say: ‘For a boy, two sheep, and for a girl, one sheep. 2836. It was reported from ‘Ubaidullāh bin Abī Yazīd, from Sibā’ bin Thābit, from Umm Kurz who said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: ‘For a boy, two sheep that are similar, and for a girl, one sheep.’” (Hasan)

Abū Dāwud said: This is the Hadīth, and the narration of Sufyān (no. 2835) is a mistake.

[1] Al-Khaṭṭābī cites an explanation of Imām Ash-Shāfi’i; that if Arabs set out from their house on some matter, and they saw a bird flying, they would derive an omen from the direction of flight. If the bird was sitting on its perch, they would startle it so it would fly, so they could determine the omen. Al-Khaṭṭābī also added, that it has been said that the Hadīth shows that it is disliked to hunt birds during the night, meaning, that they should not be hunted while they are nesting.

Comments:

What Imām Abū Dāwud means to say is that the words “from his father” occurring after ‘Abdullāh, in the previous narration from Sufyān, are wrongly inserted in the chain of narrators.

2837. It was reported from Hammām who said: “Qatādah narrated to us, from Al-Ḥasan, from Samurah, from the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, that he said: ‘Each boy is in mortgage by his ‘Aqīqah, which is sacrificed on the seventh day, his head shaved and bloodied (Yudamma).”

When Qatādah was asked about the blood, and what to do with it, he said: “When you slaughter the ‘Aqīqah take some of its wool, and place it on its veins, then place it in the middle of the head of the infant so that the blood flows on the hair like a thread, and then his (the infants) head is washed and shaved.” (Da‘f)

Abū Dāwud said: This is a mistake from Hammām: “Yudamma.”

Abū Dāwud said: Hammām has been opposed (by other narrators) in narrating this word, and it is an error from Hammām. They only said: “Yusamma” (named) but Hammām said: “Yudamma” (bloodied).

Abū Dāwud said: And this is not adhered too.

٢٨٣٧ - حَدَّثَنَا حَفْصُ بْنُ عُمَرَ النَّمِرِيُّ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا هَمَّامٌ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا قَتَادَةُ عَنْ الْحَسَنِ، عَنْ سَمُرَةَ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ قَالَ: «كُلُّ غُلَامٍ رَهِيئَةٌ بِعَقِيْقَتِهِ، تُذْبَحُ عَنْهُ يَوْمَ السَّابِعِ، وَيُحْلَقُ رَأْسُهُ وَيُدْمَى»، فَكَانَ قَتَادَةُ إِذَا سُئِلَ عَنِ الدَّمِّ كَيْفَ يُضْنَعُ بِهِ، قَالَ: إِذَا ذَبَحْتَ الْعَقِيْقَةَ أَخَذْتَ مِنْهَا صُوفَةً وَاسْتَقْبَلْتَ بِهَا أَوْدَاجَهَا، ثُمَّ تَوَضَّعَ عَلَى يَافُوخِ الصَّبِيِّ حَتَّى يَسِيلَ عَلَى رَأْسِهِ مِثْلَ الْخَيْطِ، ثُمَّ يُغْسَلُ رَأْسُهُ بَعْدَ وَيُحْلَقُ.

قَالَ أَبُو دَاوُدَ: هَذَا وَهْمٌ مِنْ هَمَّامٍ وَيُدْمَى.

قَالَ أَبُو دَاوُدَ: وَلَيْسَ يُؤْخَذُ بِهَذَا.

Comments:

The fact of the matter is that giving the name to the child on the seventh day of his birth is the Sunnah. To read it as Yudamma (bloodied) would be wrong, as is clear from the next Hadith.

2838. It was reported from Sa'eed, from Qatadah, from Al-Hasan, from Samurah bin Jundab that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: "Each boy is mortgaged by his 'Aqiqah', which is sacrificed on the seventh day, his head is shaved and he is named." (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Abū Dāwud said: And 'Yusamma' (named) is more correct. This is how it was said by Sallām bin Abī Muṭī' from Qatadah, and Iyās Ibn Dagfal, and Ash'ath, from Al-Ḥasan, that he said: "And Yusamma." And Ash'ath narrated it from Al-Ḥasan, from the Prophet ﷺ, that he said: "And Yusamma."

Comments:

Al-Khaṭṭābī said: "Aḥmad said: 'This is regarding intercession' meaning, if there was no 'Aqiqah' for him and the child dies, he will not intercede for his parents." It has also been suggested that the expression 'mortgaged' has been used to emphasize the necessity and the obligatory nature of the 'Aqiqah'.

2839. It was reported from Salmān bin 'Āmir Aḍ-Ḍabbī who said: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: 'Along with the boy there is 'Aqiqah', so shed blood on his behalf, and remove any harm from him." (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Comments:

In terms of the chain of narration this Ḥadīth is sound. An-Nasāʾī (no. 4224), however, narrates it with the wording “two rams” (instead of one) and Shaiḫh Al-Albānī, as well as others, considers it more correct.

2842. It was reported from Dāwud bin Qais, from ‘Amr bin Shu‘aib that the Prophet ﷺ said — (another chain) from Dāwud from ‘Amr bin Shu‘aib from his father — I think it is from his grandfather — who said: “The Prophet ﷺ was asked about the ‘Aqīqah? He replied: ‘Allāh does not like Al-Uqūq’ — as if he did not like the name. And he said: ‘If a child is born to anyone of you, and he likes to sacrifice for him, then let him sacrifice two sheep that are Mukāfi’atān (comparable) for a

2843. It was reported from 'Abdullāh bin Buraidah who said: "I heard my father, Buraidah, saying: 'During Jāhiliyyah, if a boy was born to one of us, we sacrificed a sheep and smeared his head with its blood. When Allāh brought Islam, we would sacrifice a sheep, and we would shave his head, and smear saffron on it.'" (Hasan)

Chapter 21,22. Using A Dog For Hunting And Other Than That

(المعجم ٢١ ، ٢٢) - بَابُ اتِّخَاذِ الْكَلْبِ

لِلصَّيْدِ وَغَيْرِهِ (التحفة ١)

2844. It was reported from Abū Hurairah, from the Prophet ﷺ, who said: "Anyone who acquires a dog except for a dog for (herding) cattle, or hunting or farming (as a guard dog), his reward will be diminished every day by one Qirāt." (Ṣaḥīh)

٢٨٤٤ - حَدَّثَنَا الْحَسَنُ بْنُ عَلِيٍّ: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الرَّزَّاقِ قَالَ: أَخْبَرَنَا مَعْمَرٌ عَنِ الرَّهْرِيِّ، عَنْ أَبِي سَلَمَةَ، عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ قَالَ: «مَنْ اتَّخَذَ كَلْبًا إِلَّا كَلْبَ مَاشِيَةٍ أَوْ صَيْدٍ أَوْ زُرْعٍ انْتَقَصَ مِنْ أَجْرِهِ كُلَّ يَوْمٍ قِيرَاطٌ».

Comments:

Keeping a dog for purposes other than those mentioned in the Hadīth is a sin, and a losing bargain, since the equivalent of one Qirāt is deducted from his reward every day, and only Allāh knows the exact weight of the reward of the person concerned. See no. 3168, and the glossary.

2845. It was reported from 'Abdullāh bin Mughaffal who said: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: 'If it was not that dogs were one of the Ummah, I would have ordered them to be killed. But kill the pure black ones among them.'" (Ḥasan)

٢٨٤٥ - حَدَّثَنَا مُسَدَّدٌ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا يَزِيدُ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا يُونُسُ عَنِ الْحَسَنِ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ ابْنِ مُغَفَّلٍ قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «لَوْلَا أَنَّ الْكِلَابَ أُمَّةٌ مِنَ الْأُمَّمِ لَأَمَرْتُ بِقَتْلِهَا فَأَقْتُلُوا مِنْهَا الْأَسْوَدَ الْبَيْهِيمَ».

Chapter 22,23. Regarding Hunting

2847. It was reported from Hammām, from ‘Adī bin Ḥātim who said: “I asked the Prophet ﷺ; and said: ‘I set off trained dogs and they catch (game) for me, can I eat it?’ He replied: ‘If you set off trained dogs and mention the Name of Allāh, then eat what they catch for you.’ I said: ‘Even if they killed (the game)?’ He replied: ‘Even if they killed (the game), as long as they were not joined by some other dog that was not among them.’ I said: ‘I shoot with the Mi'rād, and it strikes the target, can I eat it?’ He replied: ‘If you shoot with a Mi'rād and mention the Name of Allāh, and it strikes the target and pierces it, eat it, and if it strikes it with its blunt side then do not eat it.’” (Sahih) of Allāh ﷺ; I said: 'We hunt with these dogs.' He replied: 'If you set off your trained dogs and mention the Name of Allāh on it, then eat what they catch for you, even if it kills it, except if the dog eats from it. Comments:

Hunting with the dog is permissible in Islam provided that:

1. The dog is trained and fully obeys the commands of its master.
2. The Name of Allāh has been mentioned when dispatching it for the prey.

2849. It was reported from Ḥammād, from ‘Āṣim Al-Aḥwal, from Ash-Sh‘abī, from ‘Adī bin Ḥātim that the Prophet ﷺ said: “When you shoot your arrow and mention the Name of Allāh, and you find it (the game) the next day, and you did not find it (having fallen) in the water, and there is no other mark aside from the mark of your arrow, then eat it. But if some other dog joins your dogs then do not eat, for you do not know, perhaps it was killed by one that was not yours.” (Sahih)

2851. It was reported from Mujālid, from Ash-Sha'bi, from 'Adī bin Hātim that the Prophet ﷺ said: "If you have trained a dog or a falcon and then you set it off, and mention the Name of Allāh; eat whatever it catches for you." I said: "Even if it kills it?" He said: "(Even) if it kills it, and has not eaten anything from it, then it has caught it for you." (Da'if)

٢٨٥١ - حَدَّثَنَا عُثْمَانُ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ نُمَيْرٍ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا مُجَالِدٌ عَنِ الشَّعْبِيِّ، عَنْ عَدِيِّ بْنِ حَاتِمٍ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ قَالَ: «مَا عَلَّمْتَ مِنْ كَلْبٍ أَوْ بَارٍ ثُمَّ أَرْسَلْتَهُ وَذَكَرْتَ اسْمَ اللَّهِ فَكُلْ مِمَّا أَمْسَكَ عَلَيْكَ». قُلْتُ: وَإِنْ قَتَلَ؟ قَالَ: «إِذَا قَتَلَهُ وَكَمْ يَأْكُلُ مِنْهُ شَيْئًا فَإِنَّمَا أَمْسَكَ عَلَيْكَ». قَالَ أَبُو دَاوُدَ: الْبَارُ إِذَا أَكَلَ فَلَا بَأْسَ بِهِ وَالْكَلْبُ إِذَا أَكَلَ كُرَّةً وَإِنْ شَرِبَ الدَّمَ فَلَا بَأْسَ.

Abū Dāwud said: If a falcon eats from it, then there is no harm in eating it, but if the dog eats from it then it is disliked, and if it drinks the blood, then there is no harm.

2852. It was reported from Bishr bin 'Ubaidullāh, from Abū Idrīs Al-Khawlanī, from Abū Tha'labah Al-Khushanī who said: "The Prophet ﷺ said, about the game hunted by a dog: 'If you set off your dog and mention the Name of Allāh, the Exalted, then eat it, even if it eats from it, and eat whatever is returned to you by your hands.'" (Hasan)

٢٨٥٢ - حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عِيْسَى قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا هُشَيْمٌ قَالَ: أَخْبَرَنَا دَاوُدُ بْنُ عَمْرٍو عَنْ بُسْرِ بْنِ عُبَيْدِ اللَّهِ، عَنْ أَبِي إِدْرِيسَ الْخَوْلَانِيِّ، عَنْ أَبِي ثَعْلَبَةَ الْخُشْنِيِّ قَالَ: قَالَ النَّبِيُّ ﷺ فِي صَيْدِ الْكَلْبِ: «إِذَا أَرْسَلْتَ كَلْبَكَ وَذَكَرْتَ اسْمَ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى فَكُلْ، وَإِنْ أَكَلَ مِنْهُ، وَكُلْ مَا رَدَّتْ عَلَيْكَ يَدُكَ».

Comments:

If there are reasons to believe that the animal was killed by the hunter's own arrow, eating it is lawful provided that the meat has not gone bad.

2854. It was reported from ‘Abdullāh bin Abī As-Safar, from Ash-Sha‘bī, who said: “‘Adī bin Ḥātim said: ‘I asked the Prophet ﷺ about the Mi‘rād. He replied: “If it strikes with the sharp end then eat it, and if it strikes with the blunt side then do not eat it, for it died from a blow.” I said: “What about when I set off my dog?” He replied: “If you mention the Name of Allāh, then eat, otherwise do not eat. And if it eats from it, then do not eat, for it has caught it for itself.” I said: “I set off my dog and find another dog with it.” He (ﷺ) replied: “Do not eat, for you have mentioned Allāh’s Name for your dog only.” (Ṣaḥīh)

٢٨٥٤ - حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ كَثِيرٍ قَالَ: أَخْبَرَنَا شُعْبَةُ عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ أَبِي السَّفَرِ، عَنِ الشَّعْبِيِّ قَالَ: قَالَ عَدِيُّ بْنُ حَاتِمٍ: سَأَلْتُ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ عَنِ الْمِعْرَاضِ، فَقَالَ: «إِذَا أَصَابَ بِحَدِّهِ فَكُلْ، وَإِذَا أَصَابَ بِعَرَضِهِ فَلَا تَأْكُلْ فَإِنَّهُ وَقِيدٌ»، فَقُلْتُ: أُرْسِلُ كَلْبِي قَالَ: «إِذَا سَمَيْتَ فَكُلْ، وَإِلَّا فَلَا تَأْكُلْ وَإِنْ أَكَلَ مِنْهُ فَلَا تَأْكُلْ فَإِنَّمَا أَمْسَكَ لِنَفْسِهِ»، فَقَالَ: أُرْسِلُ كَلْبِي فَاجِدْ عَلَيْهِ كَلْبًا آخَرَ، فَقَالَ: «لَا تَأْكُلْ لِأَنَّكَ إِنَّمَا سَمَيْتَ عَلَى كَلْبِكَ».

2864. 'Āmir bin Sa'd reported

٢٨٦٤ - حَدَّثَنَا عُثْمَانُ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ وَأَبْنُ

from his father (Sa'd bin Abī Waqqās), who said that when he fell sick — Ibn Abī Khalaf (one of the two narrators) said: “In Makkah,” then they were in accord — which brought him very near to death, the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ visited him. He said: “O Messenger of Allāh! I have a lot of wealth, and I only have a daughter to inherit it, can I give two-third of it in charity?” He replied: “No”. He said: “What about one-half?” He replied: “No”. He said: “What about one-third.” He replied: “(You may bequest for) one third, though one-third is a lot. If you leave your heirs rich it is better than leaving them poor, begging from the people. And whatever you spend, seeking to please Allāh, you will be rewarded for that, even a morsel you put in your wife’s mouth.” I said: “O Messenger of Allāh! Will I have stayed behind from emigration?” He said: “If you live after me and do righteous deeds for the sake of Allāh, you will but increase in rank and degree. Perhaps you will live until some people will benefit from you, and others will be harmed by you.” Then he said: “O Allāh complete the emigration for my Companions, and do not turn them back, but the one who suffered is Sa'd bin Khalwah.” The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ felt sorry for him as he had died in Makkah. (Ṣaḥīḥ)

أَبِي خَلْفٍ قَالَا: حَدَّثَنَا سُفْيَانُ عَنِ الزُّهْرِيِّ،

Comments:

The wealthy person has a duty to take care of his family and near relatives, and Sa'd was afraid of dying in Makkah before emigrating to Al-Madinah, which is why he asked Allāh's Messenger if he would be among those that stayed behind. Sa'd lived for forty-four years after the death of the Prophet ﷺ.

Chapter 3. What Has Been Related About It Being Disliked To Cause Harm With The Will

2865. It was reported from Abū Hurairah who said: "A man said to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ: 'O Messenger of Allāh! Which kind of charity is best?' He replied: 'To spend (in charity) while you are healthy, aspiring, hoping to survive, and fearing poverty, and not delaying until death comes to you, then you say: "This and this is for so-and-so, this and this is for so-and-so," while it already belongs to so-and-so.'" Comments:

The best charity is that given by a person in spite of his own need for it, and in a state of good health.

2866. It was reported from Abū Sa'eed Al-Khudrī, that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: "For a person to give one Dirham in charity during his lifetime is better than one hundred Dirham in charity at the time of his death." (Da'if)

It was reported from Al-Ash'ath bin Jābir who said: "Shahr bin Hawshab narrated to me that Abū Hurairah narrated to him, that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: 'A man or a woman does the deeds of obedience to Allāh for sixty years, then when death comes to them they cause detriment through the bequest, and the Fire becomes mandatory on them.'" He (Shahr) said: "Abū Hurairah recited to me from: 'After the payment of legacies he (or she) may have bequeathed or debts, so that no loss is caused (to anyone)' until the Verse: 'that will be the great success.'"^[1] (Hasan)

Abū Dāwud said: Al-Ash'ath bin Jābir is the grandfather of Naṣr bin 'Alī (one of the narrators).

Comments:

The Hadūth is clear on the point that to seek to harm the interest of the legal heirs through one's will is a major sin; it amounts to transgressing the bounds of Allāh, which is unlawful in Islam.

Comments:

There can be no doubt that a position of leadership or responsibility is a weighty task in both this world and the Hereafter. Anyone aware of his weaknesses must decline to shoulder such a responsibility at the very outset, and spare himself the ignominy and disgrace in this world as well as in the Hereafter.

Chapter 5. What Has Been Related About Abrogating The Will For The Parents And Near Relatives

Chapter 7. Mixing One's Food With The Food Of An Orphan

2871. It was reported from Ibn 'Abbās, who said: "When Allāh, the Mighty and Sublime, revealed: "And come not near to the orphan's property, except to improve it"^[1] and: "Verily, those who unjustly eat up the property of orphans."^[2] until the end of the Verse, whoever had an orphan with him, went and separated his food from the food of the orphan, and his drink from the drink of the orphan. Comments:

The elevated position of guardianship, upbringing and well-wishing towards an orphan, bestowed upon a person, also demands that he sees to it that the orphan is treated with special kindness, leaving no room in his mind for a feeling of alienation in the household.

Chapter 8. What Has Been Related About What Is Allowed For The Guardian Of The Orphan To Take From His Wealth

2872. It was reported from ‘Amr bin Shu‘aib, from his father, from his grandfather, that a man came to the Prophet ﷺ, and said: “I am a poor person, I have nothing with me, and I have an orphan.” He said: “Eat from the wealth of your orphan without extravagance, nor haste, nor using it for trade.” (Hasan)

Comments:

On reaching the age of puberty, the child ceases to be legally an “orphan,” and therefore should be responsible for his own affairs. Thus, if he is found to be possessed of sound judgment, his say will be preferable and decisive in matters relating to business and marriage arrangements. But if it is found that the orphan has not developed the capacity of sound judgment, the guardian shall, for some additional time, remain in-charge of his affairs.

As regards the vow of silence, people were wont to observing it in the pre-Islamic era. When Islam came, it was prohibited. Instead, it was encouraged for the people to use their gift of speech to articulate the praises of Allāh and speak other good things.

Chapter 10. What Has Been Related About The Severity Of Consuming The Wealth Of An Orphan

2874. It was reported from Abul-Ghath, from Abū Hurairah that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “Avoid the seven destroyers.” They said: “O Messenger of Allāh! The seven acts mentioned in the Hadīth are regarded as major sins, but according to other narrations the number of such deeds is more than seven.

2875. It was reported from ‘Ubaid bin ‘Umair, from his father, that he narrated to him — and he was a Companion of the Prophet ﷺ — that a man asked: “O Messenger of Allāh! What are the major sins?” He replied: “They are nine.” And he mentioned its meaning (as preceded), and added: “disobeying Muslim parents, and violating Al-Bait Al-Harām (the Sacred House) which is your Qiblah during life and after death.” (Da‘īf)

Comments:

Technically, any action expressly forbidden by Allāh is a major sin. According to another view, a major sin is that about which either the threat of Hellfire, or a curse has been pronounced for it by Allāh and His Prophet ﷺ, or some punishment has been pronounced for the committing of it. Moreover, a minor sin, if repeated again, and again also assumes the status of a major sin.

Chapter 11. What Has Been Related Of Evidence That The Shroud Is From One's Wealth

2876. It was reported from Khabbāb who said: "Muṣ'ab bin 'Umair was killed on the Day of Uḥud, and he had nothing but a Namirah. When we covered his head with it his legs were exposed, and when we covered his legs with it his head was exposed. Chapter 12. What Has Been Related About A Man Who Gives A Gift, Then It Is Bequeathed To Him, Or He Inherits It

2877. It was reported from Buraidah that a woman came to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and said: "I gave a slave-girl to my mother as charity, and she died and left behind that slave-girl." He said: "Your reward has been granted and she is returned back to you in inheritance." She said: "She died and a month's fasting was due on her. Will it be sufficient" — or "fulfilled for her if I fast it for her?" He replied: "Yes." She said:

Comments:

It is lawful to accept, as inheritance, the things previously given in charity or as gift. This does not fall under the category of taking back gifts and charity. If the deceased person had some missed fasts, they should be made up by his heirs. Some of the scholars held the view that making up such fasts was only in the case when the person had vowed to perform those fasts other than the prescribed fast of Ramadan, and died prior to having the chance.

2878. It was reported from Nāfi‘, from Ibn ‘Umar who said: “‘Umar acquired some land in Khaibar, so he came to the Prophet ﷺ and said: ‘I acquired some land and I have never acquired a property more precious than it, so what do you advise me to do with it?’ He replied: ‘If you wish institute an endowment of it and give in charity from its (profit).’ So ‘Umar gave it in charity, and stated that the property is not to be sold entirely, nor given away, nor inherited but it is (to be used) for the poor, and near kindred, and freeing slaves, and in the cause of Allāh, and for the wayfarers” — and he added from Bishr:^[1] “and the guests.” Then they were in accord: “There will be no sin on the administrator of the property to eat from it

Comments:

The standard definition of Waqf (endowment or trust), is something or some property that is kept in tact, and the income accrued from it is given in charity. In all cases of Waqf, the conditions imposed on the property as well as on the administrator have to be clearly stipulated.

A person allotting a high-yielding property as a Waqf, so that even after his death, the expenditures concerned continue to benefit by it, is an act of great virtue, since Allāh says in the Qur’ān: “By no means shall you attain righteousness (and reward from Allāh) unless you spend (in His cause) of that which you love.” (Āl ‘Imrān 3:92)

The administrator of the trust has the right to spend, within the accepted norms for himself in his work for the Waqf, and his guests, from its income.

The will, as well as the trust deed, must be in the form of a written document, with signatures of witnesses affixed to it, so as to obviate the possibility of misappropriation and waste in it.

Comments:

Acts like placing properties of ‘continuous benefit’ for the people under charitable trust, building Masājid and rest-houses for travelers, disseminating beneficial knowledge, training pupils, writing and publishing books, and engaging in other works of public good are all excellent forms of charitable work. Upbringing children on the principles of the Shari’ah may, however, be considered among the best form of charity.

Chapter 15. What Has Been Reltaed About Giving In Charity For One Who Died Without Leaving A Will

(المعجم ١٥) - بَابُ مَا جَاءَ فِيْمَنْ مَاتَ عَنْ غَيْرِ وَصِيَّةٍ يُتَّصَدَّقُ عَنْهُ (التحفة ١٥)

2881. It was reported from ‘Āishah that a woman said: “O Messenger of Allāh! My mother died suddenly, if it were not for that, she would have given in charity and donated. Will it suffice if I give charity on her behalf?” The Prophet ﷺ said: “Yes, give in charity on her behalf.” (Sahih)

٢٨٨١ - حَدَّثَنَا مُوسَى بْنُ إِسْمَاعِيلَ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا حَمَادٌ عَنْ هِشَامٍ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنْ عَائِشَةَ: أَنَّ امْرَأَةً قَالَتْ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ! إِنْ أُمِّي افْتَلَتَتْ نَفْسَهَا وَلَوْ لَا ذَلِكَ لَتَصَدَّقْتُ وَأَعْطَيْتُ، أَفْتَجْزِيءُ أَنْ أَتَصَدَّقَ عَنْهَا؟ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ ﷺ: «نَعَمْ، فَتَصَدَّقِي عَنْهَا».

Chapter 16. What Has Been Related About The Will Of A Combatant Disbeliever Who Dies, And His Executor Accepts Islam, Does He Have To Carry Out The Will?

2883. It was reported from ‘Amr bin Shu‘aib, from his father, from his grandfather, that Al-‘Āṣ bin Wa‘il instructed in his will that one hundred slaves be freed on his behalf. His son Hishām freed fifty slaves, and his son ‘Amr wanted to free the remaining fifty on his behalf. He said: “I will not do it until I ask the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ.” So he came to the Prophet ﷺ and said: “O Messenger of Allāh! My father instructed in his will to free one hundred slaves on his behalf. Hishām has freed fifty slaves on his behalf, and fifty remain. Can I free them on his behalf?” The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “If he had been a Muslim; and you freed the slaves on his behalf, gave charity on his behalf, and performed Hajj (pilgrimage) on his behalf it would have reached him.” (Hasan)

2884. It was reported from Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh who said that his father died and left a debt he had with a Jew for thirty Wasq. Jābir requested him to defer payment for a while but he refused, so Jābir requested the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ to intercede with him on his behalf. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ came and spoke to the Jew to take dates instead of the debt that he was owed, but he refused. Comments:

Kalālah refers to the case of a deceased person who leaves behind neither ascendants (parents) nor descendants (children) in the direct line, regardless of whether he has or does not have other relations.

Chapter 3. A Person Who Has No Son But He Has Sisters

2887. It was reported from Abū Az-Zubair, from Jābir, who said: “I became ill and I had seven sisters. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ visited me and blew on my face. I became conscious, and said: ‘O Messenger of Allāh! Can I will one third of my property to my sisters?’ He replied: ‘Make it better’ I said: ‘One half?’ He replied: ‘Make it better.’ Then he left me and went away. Then he said: ‘O Jābir! I do not see you dying from this illness? And Allāh has revealed, and He described the shares of your sisters, Allāh has allocated two thirds for them.’” Jābir used to say: “This verse was revealed on me: “They ask you for a legal verdict. Say: “Allāh directs (thus) about Al-Kalālah”^[2] and Salmān bin Rabī'ah and asked them about (the case where a person dies and leaves behind) a daughter, a son's daughter, and a sister from the father and the mother. They replied: 'His daughter gets half, and the sister from the father and mother gets half' — and they did not allot any inheritance to the son's daughter — 'Go to Ibn Mas'ūd and you will see that he agrees with me.' So the man came to him and asked him, and told him of their saying. He replied: 'I would be misguided then, not among those who are guided. Rather, I am going to decide on the matter according to the decision of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ: For the daughter; half, and the son's daughter gets one share, which completes two-thirds, and what remains goes to the sister from the father and the mother.'

(Ṣaḥīḥ)

تخریج: أخرجه البخاري، الفرائض، باب ميراث ابنة ابن مع ابنة، ح: ٦٧٣٦ من حديث أبي

Comments:

The reply given by 'Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd is based on what is known as the Verse of Inheritance that reads: If (there are) women (only daughters), two or more, their share is two-thirds of the inheritance (An-Nisā' 4:11). Thus, once a single daughter has been given one-half of the inheritance, what the granddaughter gets is only one-sixth of the share. They will thus both complete the share meant for two daughters.

2891. It was reported from 'Abdullāh bin Muḥammad bin 'Aqīl, from Jābir bin 'Abdullāh, who said: "We went out with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ until we came to a woman from the Anṣār in Al-Aswāf.^[1] The woman came with her two daughters, and said: 'O Messenger of Allāh! These two are the daughters of Thābit bin Qais who was killed in the battle of Uḥud where he was with you, and their paternal uncle has taken all their property and inheritance and did not leave anything behind for them at all. What do you say about it, O Messenger of Allāh! By Allāh! They cannot get married unless they have some property.' The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ replied: 'Allāh will decide about that.'" He said: "Then (the Verse of) Sūrat An-Nisā' was revealed: 'Allāh commands you as regards your children's (inheritance)' until the end of the Verse.^[1] The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: 'Call the woman and her husband's brother for me,' then he said to their paternal uncle: 'Give them two-thirds, and give their mother one-eighth, and whatever remains is yours.'" (Da'if)

Abū Dāwud said: Bishr (one of the narrators) made a mistake, they were the daughters of Sa'd bin Rabī'. Thābit bin Qais was killed in the battle of Al-Yamāmah.

Comments:

To arrive at the correct distribution formula in this case the inheritance is divided into 24 shares: 16 shares (two-thirds) shall go to the daughters, 3 shares (1/8) to the wife, and the remaining 5 shares shall go to the uncle.

Comments:

Sisters co-existing with daughters (i.e. by the joining of real or consanguine sisters with daughters or granddaughters), become ‘residuary’ (Aṣabah) together with the daughters. If a single daughter or sister is the legatee (heir), she gets one-half of the inheritance. The daughter gets half of the asset as her prescribed share, while the sister of the deceased gets it as an Aṣabah. If the number of the daughters is two or more, who get two-thirds of inheritance, the sister (or sisters) get (or share) the remaining one-third of the property.

2893. It was reported from Al-Aswad bin Yazīd that Mu‘adh bin Jabal distributed the shares of inheritance to a sister and a daughter. He gave each one of them one-half. He was at that time in Yemen, while the Prophet of Allāh ﷺ was alive. (Sahih) asking him about her share of inheritance. He replied. 'There is nothing prescribed for you in the Book of Allāh, and I do not know of anything for you in the Sunnah of Allāh's Prophet ﷺ. Go back, until I ask the people about it.' Then he asked the people about it. Al-Mughīrah bin Shu'bah said: 'I was with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and he gave her one-sixth.' Abū Bakr said: 'Do you have anybody else with you (to testify)?' Muḥammad bin Maslamah stood up and said the same as what Al-Mughīrah bin Shu'bah had said, so Abū Bakr implemented it for her. Then another grandmother came to 'Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb asking about her inheritance. He said: 'There is nothing prescribed for you in the Book of Allāh, and the decision made before you for a grandmother was for other than you. I am not going to add anything in the shares of inheritance, but it is only one-sixth. If the two of you remain together then you share it, and whichever of you two is left alone, then it is for her.'" (Sahīh)

Comments:

The Arabic word Jiddah applies to both, paternal and maternal grandmothers who get one-sixth portion of the inheritance.

2895. It was reported from Ibn Buraidah, from his father that the Prophet ﷺ gave one sixth to a grandmother if there is no mother left to inherit before her. (Hasan)

(المعجم ٦) - بَابُ مَا جَاءَ فِي مِيرَاثِ الْجَدِّ (التحفة ٦)

2896. It was reported from Qatādah, from Al-Ḥasan, from 'Imrān bin Ḥuṣain, that a man came to the Prophet ﷺ and said: "My son's son has died, what do I get from his estate?" He said: "You will get one-sixth." When he started to go away, he called him, and said: "You also have another sixth." When he started to go away again, he called him, and said: "The other one-sixth is for food (Tu'mah)." (Da'if)

(التحفة ٨)

٢٨٩٩ - حَدَّثَنَا حَفْصُ بْنُ عُمَرَ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا شُعْبَةُ عَنْ بُدَيْلٍ، عَنْ عَلِيِّ بْنِ أَبِي

[1] Al-‘Aṣabah refers to those who are not assigned inheritance by other regulations, but remain after the deceased while no legal heirs remain.

behind a burden, then refer it to me' — and perhaps he said: "to Allāh and to His Messenger" — "And whoever leaves wealth, then it is for his heirs. And I am the heir for the one who has none, paying blood money for him and inheriting from him, and a maternal uncle is the heir for the one who has none, paying blood money for him, and inheriting from him." (Hasan)

2900. (Another chain) from Al-Miqdām Al-Kindī that he said: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: 'I am more worthy of every believer than himself. So whoever leaves behind a debt or dependants (Ḍai'ah), then refer it to me. And whoever leaves behind any wealth, it is for his family. And I am the Mawlā of those who have no Mawlā, I inherit his wealth, and fulfill his liabilities. A maternal uncle is a Mawlā for those who have no Mawlā. He inherits his wealth and fulfills his liabilities.'"^[1] (Hasan)

Abū Dāwud said: Ad-Dai'ah means dependants.

Abū Dāwud said: Az-Zubaidī reported it from Rāshid bin Sa'd, from Ibn 'Ā'idh, from Al-Miqdām. It has also been reported by Mu'āwiyah bin Šāliḥ from Rāshid, who said: "I heard Al-Miqdām..."

٢٩٠٠ - حَدَّثَنَا سُلَيْمَانُ بْنُ حَرْبٍ فِي آخِرِينَ قَالُوا: حَدَّثَنَا حَمَادٌ عَنْ بُذَيْلٍ يَعْنِي ابْنَ مَيْسَرَةَ، عن عَلِيِّ بْنِ أَبِي طَلْحَةَ، عن رَاشِدِ بْنِ سَعْدٍ، عن أَبِي عَامِرٍ الْهُزْرَنِيِّ، عن المِقْدَامِ الْكِنْدِيِّ قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «أَنَا أَوْلَى بِكُلِّ مُؤْمِنٍ مِنْ نَفْسِهِ، فَمَنْ تَرَكَ دِينًا أَوْ ضَيْعَةً فَإِلَيَّ، وَمَنْ تَرَكَ مَالًا فَلِوَرَثَتِهِ، وَأَنَا مَوْلَى مَنْ لَا مَوْلَى لَهُ، أَرِثُ مَالَهُ وَأَفُكُ عَانَهُ، وَالْخَالَ مَوْلَى مَنْ لَا مَوْلَى لَهُ، يَرِثُ مَالَهُ وَيَفُكُ عَانَهُ».

قَالَ أَبُو دَاوُدَ: الضَّيْعَةُ مَعْنَاهُ عِيَالٌ.

تخریج: [حسن] انظر الحديث السابق وأخرجه البيهقي: ٢١٤/٦ من حديث أبي داود به.

2901. It was reported from Ṣāliḥ bin Yaḥyā bin Al-Miqdām, from his father, from his grandfather who said: “I heard the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ saying: ‘I am the heir of the one who has no heir, I fulfill his liabilities, and I inherit from him. And a maternal uncle is the heir of the one who has no heir, fulfilling his liabilities, and inheriting his wealth.’” (Hasan)

٢٩٠١ - حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ السَّلَامِ بْنُ عَتِيقِ الدَّمَشْقِيِّ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ الْمُبَارَكِ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا إِسْمَاعِيلُ بْنُ عِيَّاشٍ عَنْ يَزِيدَ بْنِ حُجْرٍ، عَنْ صَالِحِ بْنِ يَحْيَى بْنِ الْمِقْدَامِ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنْ جَدِّهِ قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَقُولُ: «أَنَا وَارِثُ مَنْ لَا وَارِثَ لَهُ، أَفْكَُ عَيْنَهُ وَارِثُ مَالِهِ، وَالْحَالَ وَارِثُ مَنْ لَا وَارِثَ لَهُ، يَفْكَُ عَيْنَهُ وَيَرِثُ مَالَهُ».

Comments:

These and similar narrations appear again, see no. 2954. Scholars differ over whether this responsibility is specific to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ or does it apply to the leaders after him. According to Al-Ḥāfiẓ Ibn Ḥajar, it also applies to the leaders after him.

2902. It was reported from ‘Āishah, who said: “A freed slave of the Prophet ﷺ died and left something behind, and he did not leave any child nor any relative, so the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: ‘Give his wealth to a man belonging to his village.’” (Hasan) Abū Dāwud said: The Hadīth of Sufyān is more complete. And Musad-dad said:^[1] “He said: ‘The Prophet ﷺ said: “Is there anybody here belonging to his land?” They replied: “Yes.” He said: “Then give him his inheritance.”’

قَالَ أَبُو دَاوُدَ: حَدِيثُ سُفْيَانَ أَتَمُّ، وَقَالَ مُسَدَّدٌ: قَالَ: فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ ﷺ: هَاهُنَا أَحَدٌ مِنْ أَهْلِ أَرْضِهِ؟ قَالُوا: نَعَمْ، قَالَ: فَأَعْطُوهُ مِيرَاثَهُ.

تخريج: [إسناده حسن] أخرجه ابن ماجه، الفرائض، باب ميراث الولاء، ح: ٢٧٣٣ من حديث وكيع به، وحسنه الترمذي، ح: ٢١٠٥.

2903. It was reported from ‘Abdullāh bin Buraidah, from his father, who said: “A man came to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and said: ‘I have some inheritance left by a man from Azd, and I cannot find anybody from Azd so that I can give it to him.’ He said: ‘Search for a man of Azd for a year.’ He came to him after a year, and said: ‘O Messenger of Allāh! I could not find any man from Azd so that I can give it to him.’ He replied: ‘Go and find a person from Khuzā’ah, the first person you get from them give it to him.’ When he turned away, he (the Prophet ﷺ) said: ‘Call the man for me.’ When he came back, he said: ‘Find the eldest man of Khuzā’ah and give it to him.’” (Da’if)

تخريج: [إسناده ضعيف] أخرجه النسائي في الكبرى، ح: ٦٣٩٦ من حديث المحاربي به، ولم يذكر فيه سماعاً، وقال النسائي: "جبريل بن أحمر ليس بالقوي والحديث منكر" والعلّة فيه من عنقته المحاربي فقط، وانظر الحديث الآتي.

2904. (Another chain) from Ibn Buraidah, from his father who said: “A man from Khuzā’ah died, and his estate was brought to the Prophet ﷺ, so he said: ‘Search for an heir of his, or a relation of the womb (maternal relative).’ They did not find any heir for him nor any relation of the womb. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: ‘Give it to the elder of Khuzā’ah.’” (Da’if)
Yahyā (one of the narrators)

تخریج: [ضعیف] أخرجه أحمد: ۳۴۷/۵ والنسائي في الكبرى، ح: ۶۳۹۴ من حديث شريك القاضي به، ولم يذكر سماعاً، وهو معدود في المدلسين.

2905. It was reported from Ibn 'Abbās who said: "A man died and did not leave behind an heir except a boy slave of his whom he had freed. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ asked: 'Does he have any heir?' They replied: 'No, except a slave of his whom he had freed.' The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ allocated the property to him." (Hasan)

۲۹۰۵ - حَدَّثَنَا مُوسَى بْنُ إِسْمَاعِيلَ: حَدَّثَنَا حَمَّادٌ: أَخْبَرَنَا عَمْرُو بْنُ دِينَارٍ عَنْ عَوْسَجَةَ، عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ: أَنَّ رَجُلًا مَاتَ وَلَمْ يَدَعْ وَارثًا إِلَّا غُلَامًا لَهُ كَانَ أَعْتَقَهُ، فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «هَلْ لَهُ أَحَدٌ؟» قَالُوا: لَا، إِلَّا غُلَامًا لَهُ كَانَ أَعْتَقَهُ، فَجَعَلَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ مِيرَاثَهُ لَهُ.

2912. It was reported from ‘Abdullāh bin Buraidah, that two brothers (brought their) dispute to Yaḥyā bin Ya‘mar; a Jew and a Muslim. He made the Muslim heir among them. He (Yaḥyā) said: “Abū Al-Aswad narrated to me, that a man narrated to him that Mu‘ādh said: ‘I heard the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ saying:

٢٩١٢ - حَدَّثَنَا مُسَدَّدٌ: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الْوَارِثِ عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ أَبِي حَكِيمِ الْوَأَسِطِيِّ: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ بُرَيْدَةَ: أَنَّ أَحْوَيْنَ اخْتَصَمَا إِلَى يَحْيَى بْنِ يَعْمَرَ، يَهُودِيٌّ وَمُسْلِمٌ فَوَرَّثَ الْمُسْلِمَ مِنْهُمَا، وَقَالَ: حَدَّثَنِي أَبُو الْأَسْوَدِ أَنَّ رَجُلًا حَدَّثَهُ أَنَّ مُعَاذًا قَالَ

Islam increases (one) and does not decrease (one).” So he made the Muslim the heir. (Da‘if)

تخريج: [إسناده ضعيف] انظر الحديث الآتي وأخرجه البيهقي: ٢٠٥/٦، ٢٥٤، ٢٥٥ من حديث أبي داود به وقال: "هذا رجل مجهول فهو منقطع" (!) فالسند ضعيف من أجل جهالة الرجل.

2913. (Another chain) from ‘Abdullāh bin Buraidah, from Yahya bin Ya‘mar, from Abū Al-Aswad Ad-Dīlī, that the inheritance of a Jew whose heir was a Muslim was brought to Mu‘adh — (narrating it) with its meaning, from the Prophet ﷺ. (Da‘if)

٢٩١٣ - حَدَّثَنَا مُسَدَّدٌ: حَدَّثَنَا يَحْيَى بْنُ سَعِيدٍ عَنْ شُعْبَةَ، عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ أَبِي حَكِيمٍ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ بُرَيْدَةَ، عَنْ يَحْيَى بْنِ يَعْمَرَ، عَنْ أَبِي الْأَسْوَدِ الدَّلِيِّ أَنَّ مُعَاذًا أْتَى بِمِيرَاثٍ يَهُودِيٍّ وَارِثُهُ مُسْلِمٌ، بِمَعْنَاهُ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ.

Chapter 11. Regarding One Who Accepts Islam Before The Distribution Of The Inheritance

(المعجم ١١) بَابُ: فِيمَنْ أَسْلَمَ عَلَى مِيرَاثٍ (التحفة ١١)

2914. It was reported from Abū Ash-Sh‘athā’, from Ibn ‘Abbās, may Allāh be pleased with him, who said: “The Prophet ﷺ said: ‘Every division (of inheritance) that was allocated according to (the rules of) Jāhiliyyah, stands as it is; and every division that was allocated after the advent of Islam stands according to the rules of (inheritance of) Islam.’” (Hasan) ٢٩١٤ - حَدَّثَنَا حَجَّاجُ بْنُ أَبِي يَعْقُوبَ: حَدَّثَنَا مُوسَى بْنُ دَاوُدَ: حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ مُسْلِمٍ عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ دِينَارٍ، عَنْ أَبِي الشَّعَثَاءِ، عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمَا قَالَ: قَالَ النَّبِيُّ ﷺ: «كُلُّ قَسْمٍ قُسِمَ فِي الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ فَهُوَ عَلَى مَا قُسِمَ، وَكُلُّ قَسْمٍ أُدْرِكُهُ الْإِسْلَامُ فَإِنَّهُ عَلَى قَسْمِ الْإِسْلَامِ».

Chapter 12. Regarding Al-Walā’

(المعجم ١٢) بَابُ: فِي الْوَلَاءِ (التحفة ١٢)

2915. It was reported from Ibn ‘Umar, that ‘Āishah, the Mother of ٢٩١٥ - حَدَّثَنَا قُتَيْبَةُ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ قَالَ:

the Believers, may Allāh be pleased with her, wanted to buy a slave-girl so that she could free her. Her people (owners) said: "We will sell her to you on the condition that the Walā' (right of inheriting from her) will be ours." She mentioned it to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ. He said: "That should not prevent you, for the Walā' is for whoever freed (the slave)."²⁹¹⁶ (Sahih)

Comments:

In Arabic the word Mawlā applies to both the one who freed the slave, and the freed slave (as well). Al-Walā' refers to the relationship between them after the freeing of the slave. The relationship is immutable that can neither be changed or gifted nor bought or sold, and due to this relationship, the one freed takes on the tribal affinity of the one who freed him, and the one who freed him is his heir.

2916. It was reported from Al-Aswad, from 'Āishah, who said: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: 'The Walā' is for whoever paid the price and conferred the favor."²⁹¹⁶ (Sahih)

Comments:

Abū Ḥanīfah and Ishāq hold the view that the one who accepts Islam may agree to Walā' with the one by whom he accepted it. Others explain that the narration does not clearly state that they inherit from each other, and they cite the Hadīth: “The Walā' is for the one who freed.” Meaning, in the case where a slave accepted Islam at the hands of this man, and another man paid to have him freed, then which of the two has the Walā', so this narration explains that the Walā' is for the one who freed.

Chapter 16. The Abrogation Of Inheritance Due To Alliances By Inheritance Due To Relations

2921. It was reported from 'Ikrimah, from Ibn 'Abbās, may Allāh be pleased with him, he said: (To those also with whom you have made a pledge (brotherhood), give them their due portion.)^[1] A man would make an agreement with another man with no relationship between them, that they will inherit from one another. Comments:

The Messenger of Allāh had established the relationship of brotherhood between individuals among the Anṣār and Muhājirūn. It was on the basis of this pledge of brotherhood that the two parties became heirs of each other, superseding the relationships based on genealogy and adoption. Another customary way of mutual inheritance prevailing in pre-Islamic Arabia was through tribal alliances that bound the individuals, as well as the tribes to help each other in all exigencies. The custom continued for a time early in Islam. Allāh abolished all such relationships once and for all by apportioning the shares of inheritors in the Qur'ān. However, the obligation to help each other on moral grounds and for the sake of Islamic brotherhood, or for purposes of implementing the lawful will of a person, if any, is still in force in Islam.

2923. It was reported from Dāwud bin Al-Ḥusain, who said: "I was

She said: "Do not read: (To those also with whom you have made a pledge). This was revealed about Abū Bakr and his son 'Abdur-Raḥmān when he refused to accept Islam. Abū Bakr took an oath never to give him any share of inheritance. When he accepted Islam, Allāh's Prophet ﷺ ordered him to give his share. 'Abdul-'Azīz (one of the narrators) added: "He did not accept Islam until he was urged by sword." (Da'if)

A pledge or pact of mutual cooperation and support concluded between two persons, or peoples, is known as Hilf in Arabic.

Whatever pact or treaty Muslims conclude in keeping with Allāh's saying: Help you one another in righteousness and piety (Al-Mā'idah 5:2) is allowed and permissible, but there is no sanction for treaties built on the foundations of tribalism.

Chapter 18. Regarding A Woman Inheriting From The Blood Money Of Her Husband

(المعجم ١٨) بَابُ: فِي الْمَرْأَةِ تَرِثُ مِنْ دِيَّةِ زَوْجِهَا (التحفة ١٨)

2927. It was reported from Sa'eed who said: "Umar bin Al-Khattāb used to say: 'Blood money is only for the Āqilah, and the wife will not inherit anything from it' until Aḍ-Ḍaḥḥāk bin Sufyān said: 'The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ wrote to me to give a share from the blood money of Ashyam Aḍ-Ḍibābī to his wife.' So 'Umar withdrew (his ruling)." (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Aḥmad bin Ṣāliḥ (one of the narrators) said: "Abdur-Razzāq narrated this Ḥadīth to us, from Ma'mar, from Az-Zuhrī, from Sa'eed. He said in it: "The Prophet ﷺ had put him in authority over the Bedouins."

٢٩٢٧ - حَدَّثَنَا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ صَالِحٍ: حَدَّثَنَا سُفْيَانُ عَنِ الرَّهْرِيِّ، عَنْ سَعِيدٍ قَالَ: كَانَ عُمَرُ بْنُ الْخَطَّابِ يَقُولُ: الدِّيَّةُ لِلْعَاقِلَةِ وَلَا تَرِثُ الْمَرْأَةُ مِنْ دِيَّةِ زَوْجِهَا شَيْئًا حَتَّى قَالَ لَهُ الضَّحَّاكُ بْنُ سُفْيَانَ: كَتَبَ إِلَيَّ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ أَنْ وَرِثَ امْرَأَةٌ أَشِيْمَ الضَّبَابِيِّ مِنْ دِيَّةِ زَوْجِهَا فَرَجَعَ عُمَرُ. قَالَ أَحْمَدُ بْنُ صَالِحٍ: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الرَّزَّاقِ بِهَذَا الْحَدِيثِ عَنْ مَعْمَرٍ، عَنِ الرَّهْرِيِّ، عَنْ سَعِيدٍ، وَقَالَ فِيهِ: وَكَانَ النَّبِيُّ ﷺ اسْتَعْمَلَهُ عَلَى الْأَعْرَابِ.

Comments:

The blood money paid for the murder of a person becomes in fact, the property of the deceased person. It has, therefore, to be distributed among his legal heirs, the wife being one of them.

وَالْفَيْءِ وَالْإِمَارَةِ (التحفة ١٤)

Chapter 1. What Is Required Upon The Imām In The Case Of Those Under Him

(المعجم ١) - بَابُ مَا يَلْزَمُ الْإِمَامَ مِنْ
حَقِّ الرَّعِيَّةِ (التحفة ١)

2928. It was reported from ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar, that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “Each one of you is a shepherd, and each one of you is responsible over his flock. So the Amīr that is over the people, is a shepherd, and he will be questioned about them. A man is a shepherd over the people of his household, and he will be questioned about them. A woman is a shepherd over the house of her husband and children, and she will be questioned about them. A slave is a shepherd over his master’s wealth, and he will be questioned about it. Each one of you is a shepherd, and each of you will be questioned about his flock” (Sahīh)

٢٩٢٨ - حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ مَسْلَمَةَ عَنْ مَالِكٍ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ دِينَارٍ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ قَالَ: «أَلَا كُلكُمْ رَاعٍ وَكُلكُمْ مَسْئُولٌ عَنْ رَعِيَّتِهِ، فَالْأَمِيرُ الَّذِي عَلَى النَّاسِ رَاعٍ عَلَيْهِمْ وَهُوَ مَسْئُولٌ عَنْهُمْ، وَالرَّجُلُ رَاعٍ عَلَى أَهْلِ بَيْتِهِ وَهُوَ مَسْئُولٌ عَنْهُمْ، وَالْمَرْأَةُ رَاعِيَةٌ عَلَى بَيْتِ بَعْلِهَا وَوَلَدِهِ وَهِيَ مَسْئُولَةٌ عَنْهُمْ، وَالْعَبْدُ رَاعٍ عَلَى مَالِ سَيِّدِهِ وَهُوَ مَسْئُولٌ عَنْهُ، فَكُلكُمْ رَاعٍ وَكُلكُمْ مَسْئُولٌ عَنْ رَعِيَّتِهِ».

Chapter 2. What Has Been Related About Seeking A Position Of Leadership

2929. It was reported from ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin Samurah who said: “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said to me: ‘O ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin Samurah! Do not ask for a position of leadership, for if you are given leadership after asking for it, you will be left to discharge it all by yourself, but if you are given leadership without asking it, you will be helped in it.’” (Sahih)

Comments:

There is not a single affair of man that can go in his favor without Allāh’s special blessing and help. As for an office of leadership, it is a very difficult and demanding job. Therefore, craving for it, and asking for it is to deprive oneself from the Mercy of Allāh.

2930. It was reported from Abū Mūsā, may Allāh be pleased with, who said: “I went with two men to the Prophet ﷺ. One of them addressed him, and then said: ‘We came to you so that you may employ us in your work.’ The other one said similar to the first one. He replied: ‘The most disloyal among you is the one who asks for it (a post of responsibility).’” Abū Mūsā apologized to the Prophet ﷺ and said: ‘I did not know their reason for coming. He (the Prophet) did not employ them for anything until he died. (Da’if)

Chapter 4. Regarding Appointing A Minister

(المعجم ٤) بَابُ: فِي اتِّخَاذِ الْوَزِيرِ
(التحفة ٤)

2932. It was reported from ‘Aishah, may Allāh be pleased with her, that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “When Allāh deems good for an Amīr, He grants him a truthful minister; if he forgets, he will remind him, and if he remembers him, he helps him. And when Allāh wants other than that for an Amīr, He grants an evil minister. If he forgets, he will not remind him, and he will not help him if he remembers.” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Comments:

The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and the Caliphs that followed him, had adopted various methods for the management and representation of different sections of the society. Sometimes, the responsibility of educating the new Muslims on religious lines was entrusted to these representatives. At times, representatives or chiefs of the previous dispensations were retained on their posts with new directives. At other times, people from groups already trained were either deputed for the purpose, or they were sent just to train the new entrants to Islam, and came back after doing their task.

2934. It was reported from Ghālib Al-Qaṭṭān, from a man, from his father, from his grandfather, that they were staying at one of the springs. When the Message of Islam reached them, the owner of the spring told his people that he will give them one hundred camels if they accept Islam. They accepted Islam, and he divided the camels between them. Then it occurred to him to take his camels back from them. He sent his son to the Prophet ﷺ and instructed him: "Go to the Prophet ﷺ and say to him: 'My father is sending his Salām to you. He had allocated one hundred camels for his people if they accepted Islam. They

He said: 'My father had allocated one hundred camels for his people if they accept Islam. They became Muslims, and made their Islam good (being steadfast on Islam). Now it occurred to him that he wants his camels back. Is he more entitled to them or are they?' He said: 'If he likes to give it to them he may do so, and if he likes to take it back then he is more entitled to it than his people. If they accept Islam then for them is Islam, but if they do not accept Islam, then they will be fought for Islam.' He said: 'My father is an old man, and he is the 'Arif of the water, and he is requesting you to make me the 'Arif after him.' He replied: 'The role of the 'Arif is important, and people must have 'Arifs, but the 'Arif are in the Fire.'" (Da'if)

(المعجم ٩) - بَابُ مَا جَاءَ فِي الْبَيْعَةِ
(التحفة ٩)

2940. It was reported from Ibn 'Umar who said: "We used to pledge allegiance to the Prophet ﷺ to hear and to obey, and he used to tell us: 'In what you people are able to.'" (Ṣaḥīḥ)

تخریج: أخرجه البخاري، الأحكام، باب: كيف يبايع الإمام الناس؟ ح: ٧٢٠٢ ومسلم، الإمارة، باب البيعة على السمع والطاعة فيما استطاع، ح: ١٨٦٧ من حديث عبدالله بن دينار به.

2941. It was reported from 'Urwah, that 'Āishah, may Allāh be pleased with her, told him about the pledge of allegiance taken by the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ from the woman. She said: 'The Prophet ﷺ never touched a woman with his hand, ever. But he would take the pledge of allegiance from them. If he took it from her and she gave it, he would say: 'You may go, for I have taken your pledge.'" (Ṣaḥīḥ)

تخریج: أخرجه مسلم، الإمارة، باب كيفية بيعة النساء، ح: ١٨٦٦ من حديث ابن وهب، والبخاري، الأحكام، باب بيعة النساء، ح: ٧٢١٤ من حديث ابن شهاب الزهري به.

2942. It was reported from Abū 'Aqil Zuhrah bin Ma'bad, from his grandfather, 'Abdullāh bin Hishām, he said: "And he saw the Prophet ﷺ, and his mother Zainab bint Ḥumaid took him to the Messenger of Allāh, ﷺ and said: 'O Messenger of Allāh! Receive the pledge of allegiance from him.' The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: 'He is a child.' Then he wiped his head." (Ṣaḥīḥ)

٢٩٤٢ - حَدَّثَنَا عُبَيْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ عُمَرَ بْنِ مَيْسَرَةَ: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ يَزِيدَ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا سَعِيدُ بْنُ أَبِي أَيُّوبَ: حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو عَقِيلٍ زُهْرَةُ ابْنُ مَعْبُدٍ عَنْ جَدِّهِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ هِشَامٍ، قَالَ: وَكَانَ قَدْ أَدْرَكَ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ وَذَهَبَتْ بِهِ أُمُّهُ زَيْنَبُ بِنْتُ حُمَيْدٍ إِلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ فَقَالَتْ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ! بَايِعْهُ، فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «هُوَ صَغِيرٌ»، فَمَسَحَ رَأْسَهُ.

Chapter 9,10. Regarding Granting Provision To (Government) Employees

(المعجم ٩، ١٠) بَابُ: فِي أَرْزَاقِ الْعُمَّالِ (التحفة ١٠)

2943. It was reported from 'Abdullāh bin Buraidah, from his father, from the Prophet ﷺ, who said: "If we appoint somebody to do any (administrative) work and grant him a provision, anything he takes beyond that is Ghulūl." (Hasan)

تخريج: [إسناده حسن] أخرجه ابن خزيمة، ح: ٢٣٦٩ عن زيد به، وصححه الحاكم على شرط الشيخين: ٤٠٦/١ ووافقه الذهبي.

2944. It was reported from Ibn As-Sā'idī, who said: "‘Umar appointed me to collect the Sadaqah (Zakāt). When I finished collecting it, he ordered some payment to be given to me. I said: 'I only did it for Allāh.' He replied: 'Take what you are given, for I worked (in some administrative position) in the time of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and he paid me for it.'" (Sahīh)

٢٩٤٤ - حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو الْوَلِيدِ الطَّيَالِسِيُّ: حَدَّثَنَا لَيْثٌ عَنْ بُكَيْرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ الْأَسْجِ، عَنْ بُسْرِ بْنِ سَعِيدٍ، عَنْ ابْنِ السَّاعِدِيِّ قَالَ: اسْتَعْمَلَنِي عُمَرُ عَلَى الصَّدَقَةِ، فَلَمَّا فَرَعْتُ أَمَرَ لِي بِعُمَالَةٍ فَقُلْتُ: إِنَّمَا عَمِلْتُ لِلَّهِ، قَالَ: خُذْ مَا أُعْطِيتَ فَإِنِّي قَدْ عَمِلْتُ عَلَى عَهْدِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ فَعَمَلْتَنِي.

تخريج: وأخرجه مسلم، الزكاة، باب جواز الأخذ بغير سؤال ولا تطلع، ح: ١٠٤٥ من حديث ليث بن سعد به، وتقدم: ١٦٤٧.

Comments:

These texts are proof enough for the allowance of paying government workers for their duties, even though they do their work for Allāh's sake.

2945. It was reported from Al-Mustawrid bin Shaddād who said: "I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying: 'Anyone who is employed by us may get a wife, if he has no servant, then he may get a servant,

٢٩٤٥ - حَدَّثَنَا مُوسَى بْنُ مَرْوَانَ الرَّقِّيُّ: حَدَّثَنَا الْمُعَاوِيُّ: حَدَّثَنَا الْأَوْزَاعِيُّ عَنِ الْحَارِثِ بْنِ يَزِيدٍ، عَنْ [عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ]

He said: “Abū Bakr said: ‘I have been informed that the Prophet ﷺ said: “Anybody who takes anything else, then he is treacherous or a thief.”^[1] (Ṣaḥīḥ) جُبَيْرُ بْنُ نُفَيْرٍ، عَنِ الْمُسْتَوْرِدِ بْنِ شَدَّادٍ قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ يَقُولُ: «مَنْ كَانَ لَنَا عَامِلًا فَلْيَكْتَسِبْ زَوْجَةً فَإِنْ لَمْ يَكُنْ لَهُ خَادِمٌ فَلْيَكْتَسِبْ خَادِمًا، فَإِنْ لَمْ يَكُنْ لَهُ مَسْكَنٌ فَلْيَكْتَسِبْ مَسْكَنًا». قَالَ: قَالَ أَبُو بَكْرٍ: أَخْبِرْتُ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ قَالَ: «مَنْ اتَّخَذَ غَيْرَ ذَلِكَ فَهُوَ غَالٍ أَوْ سَارِقٌ».

تخريج: [إسناده صحيح] أخرجه البيهقي: ٦/٣٥٥ من حديث أبي داود به ورواه أحمد: ٤/٢٢٩ وصححه ابن خزيمة، ح: ٢٣٧٠ والحاكم على شرط البخاري: ١/٤٠٦ ووافقه الذهبي، وقالوا: عبدالرحمن بن جبير، بدل جبير بن نفير وهو أشبه بالصواب.

Chapter 10,11 Regarding Gifts For An Employee (In Government)

(المعجم ١٠، ١١) بَابُ: فِي هَدَايَا الْعُمَّالِ (التحفة ١١)

2946. It was reported from Abū Ḥumaid As-Sā'idī who said: “The Prophet ﷺ appointed a man from Al-Azd called Ibn Al-Lutbiyyah — Ibn As-Sarḥ (one of the narrators) said: Ibn Al-Utbiyyah — to collect the Ṣadaqah. When he returned, he said: ‘This is for you, and this has been given to me as a gift.’ So the Prophet ﷺ stood up on the Minbar, praised and glorified Allāh, and then said: ‘What is the matter with the employee; we send him, and he comes back saying: “This is for you (the collection of Zakāt), and this has been given to me as gift.” Why does he not sit in the house of his mother or father and

٢٩٤٦ - حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ السَّرْحِ وَ ابْنُ أَبِي خَلْفٍ لَفْظُهُ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا سُفْيَانُ عَنِ الزُّهْرِيِّ، عَنْ عُرْوَةَ، عَنْ أَبِي حُمَيْدٍ السَّاعِدِيِّ: أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ اسْتَعْمَلَ رَجُلًا مِنَ الْأَزْدِ يُقَالُ لَهُ: ابْنُ اللَّتْبِيَّةِ - قَالَ ابْنُ السَّرْحِ: ابْنُ الْأَثْبِيِّ - عَلَى الصَّدَقَةِ فَجَاءَ فَقَالَ: هَذَا لَكُمْ وَهَذَا أُهْدِيَ لِي، فَقَامَ النَّبِيُّ ﷺ عَلَى الْمِنْبَرِ فَحَمِدَ اللَّهَ وَأَثْنَى عَلَيْهِ وَقَالَ: «مَا بَالُ الْعَامِلِ نَبَعْتُهُ فَيَجِيءُ فَيَقُولُ: هَذَا لَكُمْ وَهَذَا أُهْدِيَ لِي، أَلَا جَلَسَ فِي بَيْتِ أُمِّهِ أَوْ أَبِيهِ فَيَنْظُرُ أَيُّهُدَى لَهُ أَمْ لَا، لَا يَأْتِي أَحَدًا مِنْكُمْ بِشَيْءٍ مِنْ ذَلِكَ

[1] In Awn Al-Ma'būd, the author said: “It appears that it is Abū Bakr Aṣ-Ṣiddiq, may Allāh be pleased with him.” But in Ṣaḥīḥ Ibn Khuzaimah (no. 2370), Ibn Khuzaimah narrated it through the same route as the author, via Al-Mu'āfā, who is Al-Mu'āfā bin 'Imrān Al-Mawṣilī. Here Ibn Khuzaimah has: “Abū Bakr” — that is Al-Mu'āfā — said.

Chapter 11,12. Ghulūl In Charity

2947. It was reported from Abū Mas'ūd Al-Anṣarī who said: "The Prophet ﷺ dispatched me to collect the Zakāh, then he said: 'Proceed Abū Mas'ūd, I should not find you on the Day of Judgment, and on your back you are carrying a grunting camel from the Ṣadaqah which you acquired deceitfully' He said: 'Then I will not go.' He replied: 'Then I will not force you.'" (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Chapter 13,14. Regarding Dividing the Fai'

(المعجم ١٣، ١٤) بَابُ: فِي قَسْمِ الْفَيْءِ (التحفة ١٤)

Comments:

The term Fai' is used in the Qur'an and Sunnah for spoils obtained without actual fighting. Ghanimah, on the other hand, refers to the spoils obtained after conquering the territory by fighting. Fai' is sometimes used to mean Ghanimah.

2951. It was reported from Zaid bin Aslam, that 'Abdullāh bin 'Umar entered upon Mu'āwiyah. He (Mu'āwiyah) said: "Tell me what you need O Abū 'Abdur-Rahmān!" He replied: "That which is given to the freed slaves, for I have seen the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ whenever anything came he would start with the freed slaves." (Hasan)

تخريج: [إسناده حسن] أخرجه ابن الجارود، ح: ١١٤ من حديث هشام بن سعد به.

Comments:

Prior to being set free, their names did not get separate entries in the account books, but only as clients of their masters. Now that they are free, they are awarded something from the Fai'.

2952. It was reported from 'Āishah, may Allāh be pleased with her, that the Prophet ﷺ was brought a pouch containing some beads which he divided among the free women and the slave women.

٢٩٥٢ - حَدَّثَنَا إِبْرَاهِيمُ بْنُ مُوسَى الرَّازِيُّ: أَخْبَرَنَا عَيْسَى: حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ أَبِي ذُنَيْبٍ عَنْ الْقَاسِمِ بْنِ عَبَّاسٍ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ دِينَارٍ، عَنْ عُرْوَةَ، عَنْ عَائِشَةَ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ

‘Āishah said: “My father, may Allāh be pleased with him, would divide (something) among the free men and slaves.” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

عَنْهَا: أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ أَتَى بِطَبِئَةٍ فِيهَا خَرَزٌ فَقَسَمَهَا لِلْحَرَّةِ وَالْأَمَةِ قَالَتْ عَائِشَةُ: كَانَ أَبِي رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ يُقْسِمُ لِلْحُرِّ وَالْعَبْدِ.

تخريج: [إسناده صحيح] أخرجه أحمد: ٢٣٨/٦ من حديث محمد بن عبدالرحمن بن أبي ذئب به.

Comments:

Meaning, even though they do not get a specified share of the spoils of war, the Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ) would designate something for them.

2953. It was reported from ‘Awf bin Mālik, that whenever the Fai would divide (distribute) it the same day. He would give a married man two shares, and one share to a single person. Ibn Al-Muṣaffā (one of the narrators) added (in his version): “We were summoned, and I used to be summoned before ‘Ammār was. I was summoned, and he gave me two portions for I had a family, then he summoned ‘Ammār bin Yāsir after me, and he was given one portion.” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Chapter 17,18 Registering The Names Of Those Who Are Given Something

2960. It was reported from 'Abdullāh bin Ka'b bin Mālik Al-Anṣārī, that an army from the Anṣār was in the land of Persia with their commander. 'Umar used to send detachments every year in turns. 'Umar forgot (the rotator of troops) about them. When the time period passed, the detachment from the frontier returned back. He ('Umar) took serious action against them, and threatened them, though they were Companions of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ. They replied: "O 'Umar! You forgot about us and neglected what the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ has ordered; to send detachments by turns." (Ḥasan)

سَلِمْتُ بِنُ مُطَيْرٍ مِنْ أَهْلِ وَادِي الْقُرَى عَنْ أَبِيهِ أَنَّهُ حَدَّثَهُ قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ رَجُلًا يَقُولُ: سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ فِي حَجَّةِ الْوَدَاعِ أَمَرَ النَّاسَ وَنَهَاهُمْ، ثُمَّ قَالَ: «اللَّهُمَّ! هَلْ بَلَّغْتُ؟» قَالُوا: اللَّهُمَّ! نَعَمْ، ثُمَّ قَالَ: «إِذَا تَجَاحَفْتَ فُرَيْشٌ عَلَى الْمُلْكِ فِيمَا بَيْنَهَا وَعَادَ الْعَطَاءُ - أَوْ كَانَ - رُشًا فَدَعُوهُ» فَقِيلَ: مَنْ هَذَا؟ قَالُوا: هَذَا ذُو الرِّوَايِدِ صَاحِبُ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ.

Comments:

During the Khilāfah of ‘Umar, may Allāh be pleased with him, lists of Islamic fighters and others entitled to receive their shares from the spoils of war, were regularly prepared and categorized, in order of merit lest anyone be left out, and so that everyone gets his due. The delay on the part of ‘Umar, may Allāh be pleased with him, was caused by the process of the preparation of these lists.

2961. It was reported by a son of ‘Adī bin ‘Adī Al-Kindī, that ‘Umar bin ‘Abdul-‘Azīz wrote (to his governors): “Anybody who asks about the usages of the Fai’, then tell them it should be according to what ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb, may Allāh be pleased with him, decided. The believers saw it a just ruling, in accordance with the saying of the Prophet ﷺ: ‘Allāh has placed the truth upon Umar’s tongue and in his heart.’ He fixed stipends for the Muslims, and provided protection for the people of other religions by levying the Jizyah on them. He did not deduct one fifth from it, nor did he consider it spoils of war.”

Chapter 18,19. Regarding Allocating A Special Portion (Safāyā) For The Messenger Of Allah ﷺ From Wealth

2963. It was reported from Mālik bin Aws bin Al-Ḥadathān said: “Umar sent for me when the day rose high, so I came to him. I found him lying on his mattress, reclining on a leather pillow. He said to me when I entered: ‘O Māl (Mālik)! Some people of your tribe who have families have come here. I have ordered some things to be given to them, so divide it among them.’ I said: ‘If you order someone else to do that (it would be better).’ He replied: ‘Take it.’ Then Yarfa’ came and said: ‘O Commander of the Believers! Will you permit ‘Uthmān bin ‘Affān, ‘Abdur-Raḥmān bin ‘Awf, Az-Zubair bin Al-‘Awwām and Sa’d bin Abī Al-‘Ās to enter?’ He said: ‘Yes.’ So he permitted, them and they entered. Then again Yarfa’ came and said: ‘O Commander of the Believers! Will you permit Al-‘Abbās and ‘Alī to enter?’ He replied: ‘Yes.’ So he permitted them, and they entered. Al-‘Abbās said: ‘O Commander of the Believers! Give your ruling between myself and this person,’ meaning ‘Alī. Some of them said:

Allāh knows best that he was sincere, faithful, rightly guided and a follower of the truth. Abū Bakr then administered the property. When he died I said: "I am the Walī of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and the Walī of Abū Bakr.” Then I administered whatever Allāh wished me to administer. Then you and this one (‘Alī) came, and both of you are as one, and your matter is the same. You asked me for it (the property) and I said: “If you wish I would give it to you two, on the condition that the covenant of Allāh is binding upon you two; that you will administer it the way the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ used to do. You two accepted it from me on that condition. Then, now you two come to me so that I can decide between you two other than that. By Allāh! I will not decide between you two with anything else until the Hour is established. If you two cannot fulfill it then return it back to me.” (Sahih)

Abū Dāwud said: They had requested to divide it equally between them, not that they were ignorant of the fact that the Prophet ﷺ said: “We do not have heirs, whatever we leave is Ṣadaqah (charity).” They were only seeking what is correct. So ‘Umar said: “I do not want to apply the term ‘division’ to it. I will leave it as it is.”

It belonged specifically to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ. He would take his annual expenses from it for his family members” — Ibn ‘Abdah (one of the narrators) said: “spending it on his family” — “and then whatever remained, he would use it for horses and necessary arrangements in the cause of Allāh.” Ibn ‘Abdah said: “For horses and weapons.” (Ṣaḥīḥ)

Chapter 19,20. The Division Of The Khumus And The Share Of His Relatives

2978. It was reported from Jubair bin Muṭ‘im that he and ‘Uthmān bin ‘Affān came to speak to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ about the division of the Khumus among Banū Hāshim and Banū Al-Muṭṭalib. I said: “O Messenger of Allāh, you gave a share to our brethren of Banū Al-Muṭṭalib and you did not give us anything, but our relationship to you is the same as theirs.” The Prophet ﷺ said: “Rather, Banū Hāshim and Banū Al-Muṭṭalib are the same thing.” Jubair said: “He did not give a share of that Khumus to Banū ‘Abd Shams or Banū Nawfal as he gave to Banū Hāshim and Banū Al-Muṭṭalib.” He said: “Abū Bakr used to divide the Khumus as the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ did, except that he did not give to the relatives of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ what the Prophet ﷺ used to give them.” He said: “And ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb and ‘Uthmān gave them some of it after him.” (Sahih)

Comments:

‘Uthmān, may Allāh be pleased with him, belonged to Banū ‘Abd Shams while Jubair, may Allāh be pleased with him, was a member of Banū Nawfal. These two tribes did not have the kind of close association with Banū Hāshim as Banū Al-Muṭṭalib did.

2979. (Another chain) Jubair bin Muṭ'im narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ did not give a share of the Khumus to Banū 'Abd Shams or Banū Nawfal as he gave shares to Banū Hāshim and Banū Al-Muṭṭalib. He said: "Abū Bakr used to divide the Khumus as the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ did, except that he did not give to the relatives of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ as the Messenger of Allāh gave to them, but 'Umar and those who came after him gave them some of it." 'Uthmān bin 'Affān and I went to the Prophet ﷺ and said: 'O Messenger of Allāh, we do not deny the virtue of Banū Hāshim because of your relationship to them, but what about our brethren of Banu Al-Muṭṭalib — you have given to them and not to us, although our relationship is the same?' 2985. ‘Abdul-Muṭṭalib bin Rabī’ah bin Al-Ḥārith bin ‘Abdul-Muṭṭalib narrated that his father, Rabī’ah bin Al-Ḥārith, and ‘Abbās bin ‘Abdul-Muṭṭalib said to ‘Abdul-Muṭṭalib bin Rabī’ah and Al-Faḍl bin ‘Abbās: “Go to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and say to him: ‘O Messenger of Allāh, we have reached the age, as you can see, and we want to get married. O Messenger of Allāh, you are the kindest of people and you are the best in upholding the ties of kinship. Our fathers do not have anything with which to pay the Mahr for us, so appoint us, O Messenger of Allāh, to collect the Ṣadaqāt, and we will give you what the other employees give you and we will benefit from it as well.’” ‘Alī bin Abī Ṭālib came while we were there, and he said to us: “No, by Allāh, the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ will not appoint either of you in charge of the Ṣadaqah.” Rabī’ah said to him: “This is what you want; you have attained a relationship with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ through marriage, and we do not begrudge you for it.” ‘Alī spread out his Ridā’ and lay down upon it, and said: “I am Abū Ḥasan and I know what is going to happen, by Allāh, and I shall not leave until your sons come back to you with the answer to the question that you were sent to the Prophet ﷺ.” ‘Abdul-Muṭṭalib said: “Al-Faḍl and I went, and arrived at the time when Zuhr prayer was about to begin, so we prayed with the 2986. It was reported from ‘Alī bin Abī Ṭālib who said: “I had an old she-camel that was my share of the spoils of war on the Day of Badr, and the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ gave me another old she-camel from the Khumus on that day. When I wanted to consummate my marriage to Fāṭimah, the daughter of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, I made arrangements with a man who was a goldsmith from Banū Qainuqā’ to go with me to collect Idhkhir that I wanted to sell to the goldsmiths, to help pay for the wedding feast. While I was collecting the gear for my two she-camels, such as saddles, baskets and ropes, the two camels were sitting by the house of an Anṣārī man. When I had collected the things I needed, I came to my two camels and found that their humps had been cut off, their flanks slashed open and their livers

In the matter of providing financial assistance, the Prophet ﷺ gave priority to the needy people and especially to the families of martyrs in the cause of Allāh. As for his own kinsmen, he liked them to lead a frugal life and be content with the little that they had, and to remember Allāh often and express their gratitude to Him.

2988. It was narrated from Abū Al-Ward, that Ibn A‘bud said: “‘Alī said to me: ‘Shall I not tell you about me and Fāṭimah, the daughter of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, who was the most beloved of his family to him?’ I said: ‘Yes.’ He said: ‘She turned the grindstone until it left marks on her hands, and she carried water in a water skin until it left marks on her upper chest, and she swept the house until her garment got dusty. Some slaves were brought to the Prophet ﷺ, and I said: “Why don’t you go to your father and ask him for a slave?” She went to him, but she found some people with him, talking to him, so she came back. The next day he came to her, and said: “What did you want?” but she remained quiet. I said: “I will tell you, O Messenger of Allāh. She turned the grindstone until it left marks on her hands, and she carried water in a water skin until it left marks on her upper chest. 2990. It was narrated from Hilāl bin Sirāj bin Mujjā’ah, from his father, from his grandfather Mujjā’ah, that he came to the Prophet ﷺ to ask for blood money for his brother, who had been killed by Banū Sadūs of Banū Dhuhl. The Prophet ﷺ said: “If I were to order blood money for an idolater, I would have ordered it for your brother, but I shall give you compensation for him.” The Prophet ﷺ wrote a document ordering that he be granted one hundred camels from the first Khumus to be taken from the idolaters of Banū Dhuhl. Chapter 20,21. The Special Portion (Aṣ-Ṣafi) Of The Prophet ﷺ That Was Taken From The Spoils Of War

(المعجم ٢٠، ٢١) - بَابُ مَا جَاءَ فِي سَهْمِ الصَّفِيِّ (التحفة ٢١)

2991. It was narrated that 'Amir Ash-Sha'bī said: "The Prophet ﷺ had a special share called Aṣ-Ṣafi, which would be a slave or a slave woman or a horse, according to his wishes, and he would choose it before the Khumus was taken out." (Da'if)

٢٩٩١ - حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ كَثِيرٍ: أَخْبَرَنَا سُفْيَانُ عَنْ مُطَرِّفٍ، عَنْ عَامِرِ الشَّعْبِيِّ قَالَ: كَانَ لِلنَّبِيِّ ﷺ سَهْمٌ يُدْعَى الصَّفِيِّ إِنْ شَاءَ عَبْدًا وَإِنْ شَاءَ أُمَّةً، وَإِنْ شَاءَ قَرَسًا يَخْتَارُهُ قَبْلَ الْخُمْسِ.

Chapter 21,22. How Were the Jews Expelled from Al-Madīnah?

3000. It was narrated from ‘Abdur-Raḥmān bin ‘Abdullāh bin Ka’b bin Mālik, from his father, who was one of the three whose repentance was accepted: “Ka’b bin Al-Ashraf used to lampoon the Prophet ﷺ and incite the disbelievers of the Quraish against him. When the Prophet ﷺ came to Al-Madīnah, its people were a mixture of Muslims, idolaters who worshipped idols, and Jews, who used to annoy the Prophet ﷺ and his Companions. Allāh, Glorified and Exalted is He, commanded His Prophet ﷺ to be patient and tolerant. Concerning them, Allāh revealed the words: ‘And you shall certainly hear much that will grieve you from those who received the Scripture before you (Jews and Christians).’^[1] When Ka’b bin Al-Ashraf persisted in annoying the Prophet ﷺ, the Prophet ﷺ ordered Sa’d bin Mu’ādh to send a group of men to kill him, and he

3001. It was narrated that Ibn ‘Abbās said: “When the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ defeated the Quraish on the Day of Badr, and arrived in Al-Madīnah, he assembled the Jews in the market place of Banū Qainuqā’ and said: ‘O Jews, become Muslim before there befalls you something like that which befell the Quraish.’ They said: ‘O Muḥammad, do not be haughty because you defeated a group of the Quraish who were insignificant, and did not know how to fight. If you fought us, you would have known that we are the people, and you had never met people like us.’ Then Allāh revealed: ‘Say to those who disbelieve: “You will be defeated.”’ Muṣarrif (one of the narrators) recited as far as: ‘One was fighting in the Cause of Allāh, — at Badr

3002. It was reported from the daughter of Muḥayyiṣah, that she narrated from her father, Muḥayyiṣah that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “If you gain victory over any Jewish man, then kill him.” Muḥayyiṣah jumped on Shubaibah — a Jewish merchant who used to mix with them — and killed him. Ḥuwayyiṣah had not become a Muslim at that time, and was older than Muḥayyiṣah. When he killed him, Ḥuwayyiṣah started beating him (his brother) and saying: “O enemy of Allāh, by Allāh you prospered a great deal from his wealth.” (Da'if)

Chapter 22,23. Regarding The Incidents With An-Naḍīr

3004. It was narrated from 'Abdur-Raḥmān bin Ka'b bin Mālik, from a man among the Companions of the Prophet ﷺ, that the disbelievers of the Quraish wrote to Ibn Ubayy and the people with him of Al-Aws and Al-Khazraj, who used to worship idols. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ was in Al-Madīnah at that time, before the Battle of Badr. (In their letter, they said): "You have given protection to our companion, but we swear by Allāh that you should fight him or expel him, or we shall come to you with full force and kill your warriors and capture your womenfolk." When that reached 'Abdullāh bin Ubayy and the idol-worshippers who were with him, they gathered to fight the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ. When news of that reached the Prophet ﷺ, he met with them, and said: "The threat of the Quraish to you has affected you greatly. Their plot cannot do you more harm than the harm you could bring upon yourselves. Do you want to fight your sons and brothers?" When they heard that from the Prophet ﷺ, they dispersed. News of that reached the disbelievers of the Quraish. After the Battle of Badr, the disbelievers of the Quraish wrote to the Jews saying: "You are people of weapons and fortresses; you should fight our companion, or we shall do such and such, and nothing will come between us and the anklets of your womenfolk." When news of their letter reached the Prophet ﷺ, Banū An-Naḍīr decided on treachery. They sent word to the Prophet ﷺ saying: "Send thirty of your men out to us, and we will send out thirty of our rabbis, so that they may meet in a place half way between us and you, and they will listen to what you have to say. If they accept it, and believe in you, then we will believe in you." And he told the story. "The next day the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ came to them with the troops and besieged them. He said to them: 'By Allāh, you will not be safe from me unless you conclude a treaty with me.' But they refused to give him a covenant, so he fought them that day.

Then the next day, he went with the army to Banū Quraizah, and left Banū An-Naḍīr alone. He called (Banū Quraizah) to make a covenant with him, and they made a covenant with him, so he left them alone, and went back to Banū An-Naḍīr with the army, and fought them until they agreed to go in exile. So Banū An-Naḍīr left, and they took with them whatever their camels could carry of their belongings, (even) the doors of their houses and their wood. The palm trees of Banu An-Naḍīr were exclusively for the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ; Allāh granted them to him alone. Allāh said: 'And what Allāh gave as Fai' to His Messenger from them — for this you made no expedition with either cavalry or camelry'^[1] meaning, without fighting. The Prophet ﷺ gave most of it to the Muhājirīn and divided it among them, and he gave shares to two Ansārī men who were in need, but he did not give shares to any other Anṣār apart from them. Comments:

Since no armed conflict or fighting took place with Banu An-Naḍīr, but just a siege by the Muslims, and the Jews agreed to vacate the city without a fight, the movable and immovable properties left behind by them fell under the category of Fai', and therefore the disposal thereof was the sole prerogative of the Prophet (ﷺ). The Messenger Allāh utilized the Fai' proceeds for the help
