Executive Summary

Statism is the belief in the desirability and legitimacy of a State (Government). It is a completely indoctrinated belief system I.E. it has been mandatorily taught to the majority of the public through government schools and private schools where the government controls the content of instruction through textbook amalgamation and tradition. Statism is a pseudo-religious belief I.E. "Government" is not a physical entity that can be touched. It is a supernatural entity that promises to make the world a better place for the true believers who have accepted the belief system into their world view. The multi-generational oligarchical kleptocracy (kakistocracy) that has been ruling the planet from behind the scenes uses the same techniques that religions and cults use on their followers to indoctrinate the masses into accepting a ruling class. These techniques include: Religious symbolism in the form of the flag, "holy documents" in the Constitution and Declaration of Independence, Mandatory "church" schools, Common prayer where children are required to recite the pledge of allegiance every day at school and at scouting meetings, More common prayer and militarism at sporting events where the government pays teams for the privilege, taking school children on field trips to Washington DC (Mecca) where they are taken to the monuments (temples) to see the Founding Fathers (deities), etc. These techniques produce "citizens" (cult members) willing to hand over ½ their income and, in the case of the enforcement class (police) the techniques produce a classic "shave-headed cult member" willing to kill and cage non-conformists who ignore or violate the laws (commandments) handed down by the Congress/Courts (church leadership) who sit "above" the citizens and wear robes (vestments). In the case of the military (shave-headed cult members) they are willing to go abroad and kill whom they are told in wars/"police actions" (crusades).

Key Concepts

There is No Such Thing as "Government"

- You can't go to Washington DC and touch "Government"
- It is an idea/belief system that is indoctrinated into kids by gov't schools and most private/parochial schools through tradition and textbook amalgamation

The word "Government" literally means "Mind Control" in Latin

- The translation of the original Latin is "To Control the Mind". The root words are:
 - Gubnare – Control, Govern, Rule
 - Mens – Mind

The belief in "Government" is mandatorily indoctrinated into the masses

- No one is born believing that handing over ½ your income in overt taxes, covert taxes, and inflation to a ruling class is a good idea
- Human beings are free, sentient beings who don't owe their allegiance/income to anyone just because they were born on one side or another of an imaginary line.
- Mandatory and "free" government K-12 schools & accredited private schools spend ~12,000 hours indoctrinating and legitimizing this belief system in a hidden curriculum
- The belief is reinforced through government institutions, government police, scouting (pre-military training & flag worship), paid-for militarism/statism at sporting events and a propaganda system where 6 companies running hundreds of subsidiaries give the illusion of choice but are controlling the information the masses receive to limit their knowledge and secretly reinforcing the status quo and "legitimacy" of the system in movies, television shows, magazines, etc.

The government schools use classical "cult indoctrination" techniques on kids

- Most government teachers/administrators are ignorant/willfully ignorant of the hidden curriculum and brainwashed themselves and don't know/refuse to research the history of the Prussian education system and its creators own admissions that the system was designed to control the masses and instill obedience to authority:
- Indoctrination Techniques include:
 - Common Prayer: The pledge of allegiance at school and national anthem at sporting events
 - Courses in civics that teach kids the Statist world view
 - Focus on learning about the Presidents (Popes) and legitimacy of Gov't
 - Socialization of the enforcement class (police) through D.A.R.E. program
 - Promotion of military, selective service, and military recruiters in schools
- Obedience Techniques include:
 - The inability to leave or even go to the bathroom without permission
 - Public shaming (Red, Yellow, Green) and collective punishment

THIS RELIGION'S WORSHIPERS ARE SO INURED THAT THEY HAVE ACCEPTED ITS RULES AS LAWS AND WILL OBEY THEM EVEN TO THEIR OWN DETRIMENT.

Understanding Reality is a series of one-page overviews of concepts hidden from the public by a ruling class (oligarchical kleptocracy/kakistocracy) that has been controlling the flow of information in society and human perception through their control of the government, government schools, scouting, and a weaponized media system of 6 companies running hundreds of subsidiaries to give their tax slaves the illusion of choice while propagandizing them, deceiving them, and distracting them from the reality of their existence and slavery. The author is Etienne de la Boetie, the nom de plume of a telecommunications executive and writer who tries to distill 20+ years of research into short, easily-digested treatises on individual subjects optimized for the 70% of society who are visual learners with references and links to more comprehensive research and the "authentic voices" of the developing alternative media available on the self-directed internet. These one-pagers are designed to be printed out and shared but with accessible PDF versions with active hypertext links to reference material and evidence.
