Definitive Kennedy assassination analysis

"...somebody has to take governments' place, and business seems to me to be a logical entity to do it." - David Rockefeller - Newsweek International, Feb 1 1999.

"Fascism should rightly be called corporatism, as it is the merger of state and corporate power" - Benito Mussolini

"...the world is governed by very different personages to what is imagined by those who are not themselves behind the scenes." - Benjamin Disraeli - British PM - 'Coningsby' pub. 1844

"It is discouraging to think how many people are shocked by honesty and how few by deceit"
Noel Coward

"The Treaty of Rome, which brought the Common Market into being, was nurtured at Bilderberg meetings." George McGhee, former US Ambassador to West Germany

"I don't think it's true to say that we want to keep it [Bilderberg] out [of the public consciousness], we never wanted to get it in. We don't encourage people to mention it in the mainstream press because we don't encourage idle speculation about what we do. We forbid individual attendees from giving press meetings at our conferences, and we do that not because we're secrecy mad, but because we want to control the politicians who come." Martin Taylor - Secretary General, Bilderberg - interviewed by Jon Ronson for the UK Channel 4 TV programme 'Secret Rulers of the World' transmitted 27Jun01

"There are powers at work in this country about which we have no knowledge". H. M. Queen Elizabeth II (in conversation with royal butler Paul Burrell) Daily Mirror

Definition of a Power Elite: 'A group of men, similar in interest and outlook, shaping events from invulnerable positions behind the scenes.' C. Wright Mills 'The Power Elite'

"The maintenance of secrets acts like a psychic poison, which alienates their possessor from the community" Carl Jung: 'Modern Man in Search of a Soul'

"In the councils of government, we must guard against the acquisition of unwarranted influence, whether sought or unsought, by the military-industrial complex. The potential for the disastrous rise of misplaced power exists and will persist." President Eisenhower - farewell address to the nation - Jan 16th 1961

"What luck for rulers that men do not think" - Adolf Hitler

"The great masses of the people will more easily fall victims to a big lie than a small one"
Adolf Hitler: 'Mein Kampf'

"Their motivation is, that the elite shall be able to act in secrecy. It is not because they are evil, but because they believe in what they are doing. International capital wants to remove all obstacles to globalisation - and all obstacles to the right of capital to act freely without constrictions such as regard for the environment, social responsibility or human rights. Demands from local democracies are such obstacles." Birger Schlaug, Swedish

This site campaigns for general press access to Bilderberg venues - and a declaration from the organisers that the discussions are public, not private

This site is an outlet for my research on hidden political, cultural, economic and spiritual power and 'mind-control'. I have written the odd article here and there where the material needs some kind of interpretive 'lead-in' to be accessible.

The expression 'The Power Elite' is familiar to most sociology buffs but I have used C Wright Mills' term (he wrote a book in the fifties with that title) to go into detail on some powerful clandestine groups.

Speculation posing as fact, as well as deliberate disinformation causes confusion about the real influence of the elite - and this makes it easier for the skeptic to dismiss their influence as 'conspiracy theory'. But once one starts uncovering hard facts a consistent and more lucid picture emerges. The potential abuse of power by these groups is almost too nightmarish to contemplate, so we might be forgiven for not wishing to delve further.

It is one thing to speculate in general terms about the Bilderbergers and the Council on Foreign Relations etc. but when specific individuals, specific policies, specific dates and specific venues are laid out in black and white they become more real - and more frightening.

I am concerned about anything totalitarian, particularly when the state and the establishment attempts to control the press and turns against their own citizens. Ever since I was a teenager I found war and state terrorism difficult to explain simply in terms of 'human nature'.

I came to understand, over the years, that there is a tiny, hidden proportion of mankind for whom war, oppression and slavery are not a reluctant economic necessity but a carefully pursued benefit to their wealth and power. These individuals, that literally thrive on broken human spirits and spilt human blood, I feel we should all work to identify. This site represents one small step towards shaming these misguided men (and women Ms. Albright) into desisting from their inhuman scheming for ever more unaccountable power.

In the hands of evil people the corporation can be a front, behind which individuals can get away with crimes they would otherwise have to take personal liability for and be fined, imprisoned and even executed. Legally a corporation or company is considered to be a person and incredibly, with limited liability, there is no financial comeback.

My calls for greater press coverage of elite forums such as Bilderberg are based on the public's right to know what is being discussed at closed meetings of the most wealthy and powerful people in the world. When the future of mankind is by no means guaranteed, knowledge of what goes on at these meetings is not a curiosity but a necessity.

I am particularly worried by the unwillingness of the power elite to deal with what everyone agrees should be their number one priority. The murderous debt crisis. Also worrying is the arrogance with which these same elitists infest democratic institutions and fill so much of our mainstream media with bland drivel. This coupled with their obscene economic power, the power to create trillions of dollars at the press of a button, quite rightly leads one to question their motives and plans.

I have been pretty scrupulous in avoiding undue speculation. I am not interested or concerned with 'conspiracy theory' just 'conspiracy fact'. It is the facts behind very real groups like the Bilderbergers, the Skull and Bones and the Council on Foreign Relations that must be known before we can best understand how to deal with them on a personal and a global level.

Bilderberg is a lobbying organisation that attempts to present plans for globalisation of world markets as a consensus and invites powerful guests along in an attempt to get them 'on board' the project. Bilderberg is not a conspiracy in itself but the attempt to keep its deliberations out of the public eye is. There is also the thorny question of the far less well known about groupings that are behind the Bilderberg meetings.

I am a Christian and a Quaker attender - with the knowledge that these groups could be tied in with the Biblical End-Time prophecies mentioned on my Tribulation page.

You can hardly be blamed if you are confused by the whole thing, and the size of this site. If you want to download a document which is readable in an hour or so which gives a clear overall view of this 'alternative post war history' the following document on my Bilderberg origins section is an excellent place to start. The Bilderberg Group and the project of European unification - From Lobster magazine No. 32

It is also downloadable as a Rich Text Document.

PEPIS (the Power Elite Public Information Service) is my only elite research activity now. Once every few months, when there is interesting info. to relate, I email stuff out to people who've asked to be added to the PEPIS list.

I feel creating positive alternatives to global slavery, economic meltdown or Armageddon is a more constructive use of my time! Since the English nation has been responsible for such despicable genocide in many parts of the world, culminating in the biggest colonial empire the world has ever seen, it is an appropriate place to be looking for positive visions. I don't dislike England as a whole though, we have had some brilliant historical figures like Gerrard Winstanley (the first true anti-capitalist) and maybe even King Arthur? AND there are a lot of people in the UK with a healthy, informed mistrust of human authority and good humour to go along with it!

This website will remain as long as possible as a free public resource for anyone who wants to know some of the hard facts on the global elite, and doesn't want to have to hear them whispered in hushed tones.

3. Hacking, trojans and viruses

Hacking - Greenet (service provider of this site) was completely closed down for three weeks or so in 1998 by a mystery external programme/virus. The 'bug' coincidentally hit their main server when Chris Bailey's Labournet (very good) site was being used to support the Australian Maritime Union (MUA) and encouraging sympathy strikes around the world. As it turned out programmes had been planted on Greenet's server over previous months. When Greenet came back up again they received a letter the next day ordering an article on a company 'Bywater' be removed. This article linked water supply contracts Bywater had in Africa with arms deals. Apparently a co-ordinated assault on one of the UK's main alternative internet service providers.

Incidentally, news of the Liverpool Dockers' strike covered extensively on Labournet was the subject of a 'D' Notice banning discussion in the UK press (see my page on censorship).

4. Delisting or downlisting by search engines

Sometime in the second week of April 2002 Google search engine entirely 'disappeared' this Bilderberg.org website from their listings. Six weeks before the 2002 Bilderberg conference was due to start. Apparently a blatant attempt to stop journalists finding my research. After threats to expose this apparent censorship the listing was restored by 30th April 2002. Here is my full email correspondence with David Krane, Google's Director of Corporate Communications Google - who have ex-Department of Defense 'information warfare' personnel working in their premises - had previously removed my BBC Charter page from Google's index - possibly after complaints from the BBC over the censored Greg Dyke junket article. One of Google's leading software engineers, Matt Cutts, has a top-secret clearance and used to work for the National Security Agency. See my section on Google's clandestine love-affair with the U.S. Department of Defense and Google Watch

Alltheweb removed my index page from its listings - this happened approx 10th October 2000. I have asked them why it disappeared but so far got no reply. By mid December 2000 it had been restored.

Ivan Frazer's 'The Truth Campaign' <http://www.vegan.swinternet.co.uk/truthcampaign.html> Ivan alleges his site has also failed to register correctly on search engines. Check his site for the latest.

In the early days of this site I had long delays getting well known search engines such as altavista to list this site equitably. Altavista still scores certain of my pages such as The Changes page very low on its index even though they have metatags etc.

It is an interesting exercise in speculative curiosity to see how Bilderberg Hotel chain (snore!) websites register above and below this site on various search engines, sometimes higher, sometimes lower on the same engine at a different time! Do let me know if you find anything weird going on.

I monitor searches on various keywords with various search engines. Watch this space for updates - please do email me if you notice anomalies and/or feel free to add the <http://www.bilderberg.org> URL yourself to any search engine on which it fails to appear.

5. Content removal by Google search engine

Google as a weapon of War - 'Truth is the first casualty of war'

Google began (first time I noticed was August 2002) to remove much of my content, web published for over 5 years now, from their indexes. Seems to be much better now (2004). This indicates that the military personnel may have begun censoring Google's index under pressure from the United States war machine. No wonder NSA/Department of Defense & Google software engineer Matthew Cutts gets paid so well.
