The researcher Daniel Estulin gave a speech to the political class in Brussels, revealing the intention of the financial elite to collapse the global economy and make the world a corporation, of which they alone benefit.

Spanish translation of the speech and video of the press conference at the headquarters of the European Parliament and the subsequent questions.

Ladies and Gentlemen, We are now in a position to change history. Finally I believe that humanity has a future. A population at a time demoralized and purposeless is emerging from a long sleep.

In this general awakening, people are starting to ask the right questions. It is no longer "what get you through this?" But "What is right?". It is an international phenomenon of response and reaction to an outstanding perception that the world is destined for catastrophe unless we the people, do something about it. I have written a book about the Bilderberg group . The book, in a way, has become the catalyst for a movement around the world. Now, no longer we have much time, so I would like to explain what Bilderberg is and why it must be stopped. In the international financial world, there are those who lead the events and those who react to events. While the latter are better known, more numerous, and more powerful in appearance, the real power lies in the first. In the center of the global financial system is the financial oligarchy represented by the Bilderberg group. The Bilderberg organization is dynamic, meaning that changes over time, absorb and make new parts as it gets rid of the parties in decline. Its members come and go, but the system itself has not changed. It is a system that is self-replicating, a virtual web intertwined with financial, political, economic and industrial. Now, Bilderberg is not a company secret . It is not an evil-seeing eye. No conspiracy although many people with their infantile fantasies see it that way. No group of people, and I do not care how powerful they are, sitting around a table in the dark, holding hands, watching a crystal ball, planning the future of the world . It is a gathering of people who represent a certain ideology. it is a global government or New World Order , as many people mistakenly believe. However, ideology is that of a global company LTD.

In 1968, at a Bilderberg meeting in Canada, George Ball , Undersecretary for Economic Affairs of JFK and Johnson said:

"Where does one find a legitimate base for the power of corporate management to make decisions that can profoundly affect the economic life of nations to whose governments they have only limited responsibility?".

The idea behind each of the Bilderberg meeting is to create what they themselves call the aristocracy of PURPOSE how best to manage the planet between the elites of Europe and North America.

In other words, the creation of a network of huge cartels, more powerful than any nation on Earth, destined to control the necessities of life from the rest of humanity, obviously from their vantage point, for our own good and benefit. We, the lower classes ("The Great Unwashed", as referred to us). However, the reason why people do not believe in Bilderberg and other organizations working together exercising such control on the world stage is that the theirs is a Cartesian fantasy, in which the isolated intentions of some individuals, and not the dynamics of social processes shape the course of history as the movement of the evolution of ideas and certain themes throughout several generations and even centuries. Bilderberg is the medium of financial institutions group representing the most powerful and predatory financial interests . And right now, this combination is the worst enemy of humanity. We can congratulate on today Bilderberg has become the subject of the corporate media. Not because the corporate media have suddenly remembered their responsibility to us, but because we have forced this position uncomfortable to realize that presidents and prime ministers and kings and queens are tiny puppets of powerful forces at work behind the scenes . Something has happened to us in the midst of economic collapse .

People are largely subject to something that does not always understand. But that leads them to act a certain way, in their own interest. That's what they're doing in Greece. That's what they're doing in the United States. It is called the anthropic principle . It's like a tide come and take our fears.

People, realizing that their existence is threatened, has lost her fear, and Bilderberg and others perceive you. Maybe it's why in a recent speech at the Council on Foreign Relations in Montreal, Zbigniew Brzezinski , one of the founders of the Trilateral Commission , warned that a "global political awakening" in combination with infighting within the elite, was threatening to derail the movement towards global government. you can see that people at this table come from different political and ideological backgrounds. What unites us, however, is that we are all patriots. And those who oppose us, those who work for secret societies, who have sold their nations for a piece of flesh, are traitors. Not only traitors of their people and their nation, but of humanity as a whole. Now, the theme of this conference is Bilderberg. Towards a Global Company LT ago as six and a half centuries, Europe's economy had collapsed in what is known as the "New Dark Age" of Europe, the largest European economic and demographic decline since the fall of the Roman Empire. Then in the mid-14th century, much of the power of the oligarchy abruptly disintegrated.

This decay chain erupted as the sudden fall of the worst financial speculation debt bubble in history (that until now), when banking houses collapsed Bradi and Peruzzi. Disintegration and collapse of the Lombard debt bubble caused a collapse in the power within families oligarchs. What has this to do with Bilderberg? Modern history replaced the medieval history at the time when the institutions that uniquely distinguish the modern history of medieval history were put in place. That happened in 1439 at the Council of Florence.

What were those new institutions?

1. The conception of the modern nation-state republics under the rule of natural law
2. The central role of promoting scientific and technological progress as the mandate given to the republic

These two ideals represent a crucial argument:

its existence as an institution, in every part of Europe, changed all across Europe because these institutional changes increased the rate of growth per capita and per square kilometer of mankind over nature.

So any nation will not progress and reached not develop fear of being left hopelessly behind. The first incident occurred in the France of Louis XI, who doubled the per-capita income of France and defeated all the enemies of their nation . The success of Luis XI generated a chain reaction of efforts to establish a nation-state model with the England of Henry VII. Another key concept that came from the Council of Florence , which later was implemented in the United States, is the universal principle of the General welfare, in which the entire modern society is based. Now, welfare does not mean anything good for sitting on a couch eating pizza, drooling, watching TV while waiting for things to get unemployment check. It is a question of immortality.

What is the purpose of man's existence and the government? It is to provide for the welfare of future generations of man. Ensure our survival as a species. The principle of the General Welfare , as expressed in the Compendium in the preamble to the Federal Constitution of the United States, is the fundamental law. So how does this relate to today? These people want an Empire. That's what is globalization .

And too many people believe that to be an empire, you need money. They have heard the phrase, the Money Elite . But money is not a determinant of wealth and economy. Money does not make the world turns. Money has no intrinsic value. The human mind affects the development of the planet. This is how mankind is measured. This is the true meaning of immortality. What separates us from the animals is our ability to discover universal physical principles. It allows us to innovate, which subsequently improves the lives of people by increasing the power of man over nature. You see, they are destroying the world economy on purpose .

Nor is it the first time.

- This was done in the 14th century in the New Dark Age ended with 30% of the population.
- Empire: stupid people down. They want to destroy the creative powers of reason.
- 0 growth, 0 progress. Club of Rome (Limits to Growth, 1973)
- Draft Council on Foreign Relations 1980s, promoting controlled disintegration of the world economy.
- Bilderberg 1995: Demand destruction. How? By destroying the world economy on purpose.
- The Great Depression-Transfer of Wealth. The Great Depression was not an event that wiped out US capitalists. It was an event that still made richer by transferring the wealth of the people into the hands of those who were already rich. This is how the Bank of America made billions through foreclosure of 1929-1937.

Do not think for a second that the richest of the rich will be hurt by the collapse coming. The only we are hurt us. Look at Greece. What we are trying to do is to collapse the system, instead of allowing Greece to reorganize its money system, are imposing that Greece be used, that the Greek debt is financed by Europe. But that debt is worthless. It is rubbish, money " Monopoly " .

So ask Europe, which in turn is going through its own financial meltdown, to absorb an unpayable debt, which the Greeks, of course, will never be able to pay, it means that Europe will surely be destroyed. And this is being done on purpose, because nobody, not even Barroso, who, with all due respect to him, is absolutely intellectually Trichet is prevented or that stupid. Let's get rid of the bureaucracy in Brussels. Despidámoslos all. All are beggars. They are useless.

These people have never done anything useful in their lives. Get rid of Barroso . He flunked history in school. Get rid of the hypocritical Van Rumpsey , not because it is useless but that is evil and dangerous. Not the first time that an evil little guy wins his way through the shade into the bowels of power. Look, it's a leadership issue and a question of immortality.

All leaders of society, especially in times of crisis, are leaders because they are measured against that standard approach. People like Barroso, Van Rumpsey, President of the European Union Jean Claude Juncket, Dominique Strauss-Kahn, managing director of the IMF, hardly can be considered leaders.

Actually hardly they are considered humans , from the perspective of human representation for the greater good of mankind.

Now, what I'm talking about is not a scientific issue but a moral issue. A question of immortality. Do we as nation states, as people on the planet believe in the future of humanity? And what kind of future we will have 100 or 200 years. Or what will happen to us in 10,000 years? Do we have the right to dream? If we can have a sense of purpose for being here, then evil can not win. For example, we were told that the euro must be saved . The failure of the Euro will bring the downfall of the European Union. That is a lie.

Instead of a weak and dysfunctional European monetary union returned to be independent nation state republics. The Europe of our ancestors.

"Cultural diversity is not only the hallmark of progress but an insurance policy against human extinction."

Once born, the concept of nation state never dies; just wait for them to appear brave and sane human beings in their defense, and refine the concept.

So we must be a fraternity of nations, sovereign nations - united by the common purpose of humanity.

Until we can bring humanity to an age of reason , the story will actually be formed not by the will of the bulk of humanity, but for the few who, with good intentions or bad, leading the destiny of man as a herd of cows is driven back and forth across the prairies and occasionally also to the slaughterhouse.
