Good Work People..great pictures!

always be ready, always be on guard!

and just a word of advice for some, we all do not have the same views...but the one we do have is we need to stick together to get through this S*#@!

So stop fighting with one another on here and unite...the stronger we become, the better are chance!

Stay strong and if your a troll....piss off, you don't belong here!

The hotel said they were “closed in order to make renovations” then all this intense security arresting peaceful protesters, and world leaders showing up one by one, trying to cover theyre faces lol. They would be better off being honest, now the entire world can see that the powers that be are trying to trick all the people. The spirit of truth is a beautiful thing. Power to the people right on!

Learn to use a polarizing filter since it will remove the reflection and glare and give a clear view of those behind the glass reflection. You can easily mount them on any camera. Rotate the filter and you get great pix.

Alison Redford, Alberta Canada Premier looks like she is arriving after having had a high colonic in an attempt to purge the demons that plague her.

Everyone in Alberta should send her a note / email or letter asking her about what took place there and her reasons for attending. She is the only Canadian Premier on the attendance list. And I believe only 1 other state governor. .... Her U.S equivalent. Last night on the late night news it was mentioned that she was attending a " conference " in the U.S. So I had a premonition looked for the attendee list and there she was. Now it does not take a rocket scientist to realize she was invited because of Alberta oil production. What concerns me and should concern every Albertan is what she may sign or agree to behind closed doors.

Ying Fu – Vice Minister of Foreign Affairs. (China)

Looking like a street thug provocateur

I Guess these people condone mass war killing and destruction of sovereign nation states

Whilst they take over the world to peddle their slave labor consumer crap

Note to self : DO NOT BUY Indigo books and music

spotted a uk mp called Nicholas Boles on the list. Did a bit of checking and found an article in the Financial Times last year where he advocated a Land Tax to basically push people back into cities and out of rural areas. He also called Ron Paul a crackpot and denounced UK Patriot supporters of UKIP. Ideal scumbag candidate for Bilderberg. I'll be watching what this scumbag does when he gets back here.

I noted that already.

The country side will only be affordable for Cameron and his ilk and all those middle classes that have voted Tory and then lib then erm , labour or ukip (or BNP) as a protest vote all going up the wrong blind alley. They will be reduced to poverty eventually even as they all voted for 'socialism and the redistribution of their wealth by the back door' aka Cultural Marxism' 'multiculturalism' 'diversity' 'equality' 'human rights' EU, 'foreign Aid'...

I gave Jim Tucker, Daniel Estulin and Alex Jones credit in part one. Add to favorites and spread please, youtuob seems to be suppressing my view count....

Looks like the Chinese Bilderberg attendees decided to take the Airport Bus to the Marriott. None of those people look like happy campers. The Chantilly Marriott is their weekend FEMA Camp. Some of the blond female attendees look smothered by their large sunglasses. There is exponentially more brainpower outside the Marriott than contained inside.

You are like a rash, one that goes away with a small amount of intelligence. Obviously you watch the video feed for the imagery and not for the facts and issues that Alex is bringing out into the open. Very unfortunate.

Jeez panama. I don't usually call folks out, but your name just appeared right before this big event on these boards. It truly looks like you are one of them, to never really see you post in the past, and then, bam...non stop posts.

Look, many of us have been readin AJ for awhile, and many of us are smart enough to look elsewhere for verification and research on our own. We don't believe Alex with blind faith.

And with that said, many of us know the regulars that post, and it is clear that you are one that signed up just to be the horsefly for this event. Really, we just ignore your kind.

But it would be really great if you would either stop posting, or at least post some real facts yourself rather than just blasting AJ and his followers all the time.

Thank you, and have a beautiful day panama red is none other than the recycled alsharpton who remained for weeks to comment all throughout the Trayvon Martin killing. He also seems to have an awful lot of time on his hands. I am a systems design engineer who works on system designs and comments when I have the chance. If you notice everything this troll says is to attack Alex, Infowars and Liberty and certain comments. There is no compromise. The purpose of this person is to distract and deflect.

- Danaman117 says:

LOL Alex Jones doesn't bring facts, that one kills me. explain to us oh wise one what Alex tells us that is not true?????? I have learned a wealth of information from this man and have researched it all, and his facts check out. his many many many facts, your always going to have a few lost sheep that are clearly still confused in life and haven't researched anything but what this glorious government has taught them.

People like you make yourself look so stupid..... this mans trying to do good, what the hell are you trying to do with your life, don't be jealous....

well actually it does equal brainpower

if you are wearing the tshirt and yelling into a megaphone, you are protesting if you are protesting, you are aware that what is transpiring with bilderbergers is illegal and detrimental to our country and our freedom

if you are protesting that, you are championing freedom and if you are championing freedom, you are not the people inside the people inside who do not champion freedom support something altogether evil but also really dumb, because agenda 21 will negatively effect themselves
